

DEMON DEACONS BEAT CAROLINA SEVEN TO TWO

Game Was Very Slow and There Were Many Errors; Lanning Hurling Good Game.

Wake Forest defeated Carolina yesterday afternoon on Emerson Field by the score of 7 to 2. The game was marked by a number of errors on the part of Carolina, and inability to hit in the pinches. The hurling of Lanning for Wake Forest was very good. He gave the Tar Heel batters few hits and most of these were widely scattered.

The Deacons scored two runs in the first inning by getting clean hits off Ball. They scored again early in the second inning and Ball went to the showers. Fleming relieved Ball and retired the side with one more run. Fleming fared well until the seventh inning when the Deacons bunched hits for three runs. Fleming was relieved by Wright, and he held the visitors scoreless during the remaining frames.

Carolina's runs were scored in the fourth and sixth innings. Maus singled to right field, was sacrificed to second, got to third on a fielder's choice and scored on a long fly to right field by Jessup. The other run came as a result of a triple to left field by Jessup and a long fly by Luffy.

Bob Kell Awarded Davidson Trophy

R. E. (Bob) Kell, of Pascogoula, Miss., member of the senior class at Davidson College, has been named winner of the Norris Athletic trophy cup, for having rendered the most valuable services to Davidson in an athletic way during the past scholastic season.

Kell won a clear majority on the third ballot over Dan Leftwich, of Convers, Ga., and Tom Brohard, of Grafton, W. Va. Eight students were nominated and voted upon by members of the student body. The three in the final ballot were letter-men in both football and track.

Bob Kell brought fame to himself and the college during the 1929 football season, being one of the best ball-carriers on gridiron teams of North Carolina. He frequently evaded his tacklers to sidestep for many long runs, his last sprint being an 80-yard dash for touchdown on a returned punt. At times during the season he acted as quarterback. Kell has also been a prominent member of Davidson's track team, running in the dashes and on the relay team. In addition to his athletics, Kell was president of the Davidson student body last year and was outstanding in leadership roles on the campus.

Norris, Inc., of Atlanta, Ga., has been awarding large silver loving cups annually to the Davidson student who brings the most fame and reflects the most credit on the college by his participation in athletics. Other winners have been Red Laird, Harry Vance, Ernest Bohanon and Charlie Harrison. Kell will be presented the 1928-29 cup at commencement.

Sophomore Backfield Stars Who Will Return

Seven Sophomore backfield stars will return next fall around whom Coach Chuck Collins will build his offense. These men were outstanding last fall, especially in the two final games of the season. In these two frays practically all of the scoring power was furnished by the driving sophomores. These men showed up to advantage in the spring football games and all of them give promise of being even greater threats next year than they were while playing their first season on the varsity. Pictures above from left to right are: Chuck Erickson, halfback, Chicago, Ill.; Jimmy Maus, halfback, Greensboro; Pap Harden, fullback, Graham; Jim Magner, halfback, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Henry House, fullback, Weldon; Strudwick Nash, halfback, Charleston, South Carolina; and Pete Wyrick, quarterback, Greensboro.

Rifle Club Meets

The last meeting of the year of the Rifle Club will be held in Gerard Hall Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. At this meeting several business matters of much importance will be taken up. All members of the club are urged to attend.

JESSUP LEADING CAROLINA HITTER

Sher, Barnhart, and House Also Hit Well for the Season; Wake Forest and State Left on Schedule.

Bob Jessup, veteran Tar Heel outfielder has apparently cinched the batting championship of the Carolina baseball squad for this season. He is far out in front of his mates as is shown by the latest averages compiled after the Duke game. Only yesterday's game with Wake Forest has not yet been figured. Since he has a lead of nineteen points over his nearest rival, the Greensboro boy's lead will hardly be threatened by any changes in the averages made by play against the Deacons.

Statistics compiled after the final Carolina-Duke game on Friday show Jessup with 17 hits in 44 attempts this season, giving him a grand average of .389 for 15 games. Next in line is Phil Sher, sophomore outfielder with an average of .370 in 10 games. Other leading hitters are Barnhart, .368; House, .350; Maus, .339; Whitehead, .333; and Satterfield, .324.

Most of Jessup's blows have been singles, although he has one double and one home run to his credit. He hails from Greensboro, and he celebrated his home appearance in the annual Carolina-Virginia classic here with his lone Ruthian swat of the year. However, the long distance honors go to other Tar Heels. Captain Nap Luffy and Phil Jackson have each smacked three home runs this season to tie for the "Babe Ruth" honors of the squad. Luffy also shows three doubles and one triple during the year. Henry Satterfield, playing his third and final season, heads the three-ply hitters with four triples, and Jim Barnhart is showing the way to the two-bagger legion with four of the half-circuit blows.

Patterson Winner Will Be Announced Next Monday Night

For several days the Patterson Medal which is given annually for general excellence in athletics has been on display at the Student's Supply Store, and is now on display in Mr. Woolen's office. The three donors of the medal are Lieutenant-Commander D. F. Patterson, of the United States Navy, Albert F. Patterson, and Dr. Joseph F. Patterson. The award is continued from year to year by these men to commemorate the memory of their brother, John Durand Patterson.

The medal will be granted on awards night to the student who in the opinion of the Patterson Committee ranks highest in general athletics. This committee is composed of the graduate manager of athletics, the varsity coaches, the athletic director, and a student representative selected by the other members of the committee.

Last year the coveted prize was won by Galen Elliott, star cross-country man and All-American miler.

SECOND ANNUAL DECATHLON TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Intra-mural Department Announces Plans for Its Second Annual Decathlon Which Will Be Held on Emerson Field Next Week.

The second annual Intramural Decathlon contests to determine the best all-around track athlete in the University will be run off next week. The contests will be run in two sections, the Open Decathlon which is open to any bona-fide student in the University, and the Novice Decathlon open only to students who have not competed in track athletics in the University.

The Decathlon contests will be conducted in ten selected track and field events, with every entry to compete in all ten events to make up his score. Scoring will be based on comparison with existing University records in the ten events, with a performance equalling a record to receive a score of 1,000 points. Other performances will be scored according to a percentage basis.

Fordham Won Last Year

Jeff Fordham, former Tar Heel football and track star, won the first annual Decathlon last spring with a score of 8,488.1 points out of a possible 10,000 points. Close behind Fordham came Johnnie Stafford, varsity hurdler and broad jumper, with 7,987.1 points; Johnnie Fort, 7,892.9 points; Chuck Erickson, 7,767.0 points; "Ookee" Neiman, 7,680.5 points; and Bill Dry, with 7,634.37 points.

Other athletes scoring in the final standings last year were Winslow Smith, C. W. Hadley, Phil Gallenger, "Dusty" Skinner, "Skeeter" Park, Charlie Medford, and Ben Summer. Others entered the Decathlon, but failed to complete their schedule of all ten events. These men who placed in last year's finals will not be eligible for the novice section this year, but must compete in the Open Decathlon along with all varsity and freshmen monogram and numeral winners.

The Ten Events

The events listed in this second annual contest will be the 100 yard dash, the high jump, the discus throw, the shot put, the 440 yard dash, the broad jump, the javelin, the pole vault, the 120 yard low hurdles, and the one mile run.

The Open Decathlon will be run on Monday and Wednesday next week, with five events each day. The Novice section will compete on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, also running five events each day. The events will start at 4 o'clock each afternoon. The first day's events on Monday and Tuesday will consist of the shot put, the discus throw, the high jump, the 100 yard dash and the 440 yard dash. The second day's events, on Wednesday and Thursday will consist of the mile run, the pole vault, the javelin, the broad jump, and the 120 yard low hurdles.

All University students are urged to enter this annual event, and none need hold back because they think they are not good enough in all events. Indeed, it is the performer who is "just fair" or "even lower than average" in all events that may place higher than the one who is a star in one or two events and far down in others.

Anyone desiring to enter the Open Decathlon will report on Emerson Field next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Report to either Dale Ranson or Wallace Shelton on the field.

FOOTBALL TEAM HAS TEN GAMES

Prospects Bright for Strong Team Next Fall; Schedule Shows Ten Stiff Battles.

Now that this year's sport schedule is about over, fans are beginning to discuss football. It is only a matter of three short months until the pigskin artists will begin practices. But Coaches Collins, Cerney, Enright and Fetzer must solve several problems in that three months time before the opening game with the Deacons on the 28th of September. As a whole the outlook is very bright, but the mentors must fill several gaps. The positions left open by the graduations of Sapp, Schwartz, Presson, Howard, Schuler, and Gresham will be hard to fill, but the coaches will have plenty of good material up from the freshman team to take the places of the veterans.

The freshman team boasts the South Atlantic championship, and it is sending up some of the best material ever to graduate into varsity ranks. The coaches have all that anybody can expect in the way of backfield men. Next season there will be three different combinations one as good as the other. Wyrick, Jackson, House, Magner, Maus, Erickson, Spaulding, Ward, Nash and Harden together with Rip Slusser, Shorty Branch, and Houston up from the freshman team are the men from whom Coach Collins can pick his line smashers.

While there is not such an abundance of material in the line, yet there is enough reserve material for two or three good lines. The flank positions must be filled by new faces next year. While Holt is eligible for one more year, it is doubtful whether he will be back next season, since he graduates this spring. Morris, Reid, Nelson, Parsley, Tabb, and Huffman are the flankmen. Adkins, Koenig, Alexander and Rose are probable men for the tackle. There will be no worry over the guard positions, since Captain Farris, Eskew, Blackwood, Hutchinson, McIver, and Dunavant can all take care of the center of the line. Gilbreath and Lipscomb seem to have the center position to themselves.

The Tar Heels are undertaking a very ambitious schedule next year. While there is no intersectional game, yet the Heels will meet two of the strongest teams in the south when they stack up against Georgia and Georgia Tech. The schedule calls for ten games in all, but eight of these are with conference foes. The complete schedule:

- Sept. 28: Wake Forest at Chapel Hill.
- Oct. 5: Maryland at College Park, Md.
- Oct. 12: Georgia Tech at Atlanta, Ga.
- Oct. 19: Georgia at Chapel Hill.
- Oct. 26: N. C. State at Chapel Hill.
- Nov. 2: V. P. I. at Chapel Hill.
- Nov. 9: South Carolina at Columbia, S. C.
- Nov. 16: Davidson at Davidson.
- Nov. 23: (Thanksgiving) Virginia at Chapel Hill.
- Dec. 7: Duke at Durham.

Life Saving Course

The First Aid and Life Saving Institutes for 1929 for this section of the country will be held as usual at the Southern Assembly Grounds, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. The Institute will open this year on Wednesday, June 19th, and will close Saturday, June 29th. The Southern Assembly grounds are located on Lake Junaluska, twenty-eight miles from Asheville, N. C., and three miles from Waynesville. It can be reached by bus direct from Asheville or the Murphy Branch of the Southern Railway.

EAST AND WEST TO CLASH HERE IN TITLE GAME

Shelby and Raeford Meet Here Saturday Afternoon for State High School Championship.

The semi-finals of the Annual State Championship baseball race among the high schools of North Carolina were run off Saturday. The winners of these two games will clash here next Saturday for the title.

Clayton and Raeford met at Fayetteville for the eastern title and after a close battle the Raeford team emerged as the eastern representative. McNeill Continued his good pitching and seems likely to turn in a creditable performance here this week-end.

Shelby met Winston-Salem in the western finals and again strong pitching by Hamrick pulled the Shelby club through to win.

Shelby and Raeford are to battle here next Saturday afternoon on Emerson field for the state title. These two teams are the survivors of the race in which more than sixty teams representing high schools from all over North Carolina were entered.

An interesting feature of the race this year was the fact that both Clayton and Winston-Salem were eliminated after each had a chance to go to the finals. These two teams were the winners in 1926 and 1927 and since then each has been a constant threat.

In the final game last spring Forest City won a thrilling ten inning game from Whiteville here on Emerson field.

Quite a few supporters will be on hand to cheer each team as the game Saturday will be the climax of high school athletics for this season.

German Society Meets Friday Night

Der Deutsche Verein will meet Friday evening at 7:30 in the Methodist Church upstairs in the same room as last time. There will be a short musical programme after which the group will move to the social room in the basement for a short informal session of fun and entertainment in which all can participate. The best "participants" will be presented with suitable prizes, refreshments will be served, and the society adjourned until next year.

S. H. Hobbs., of the Department of Rural Economics, has accepted a position as head of a committee which will draw up a program of tax reform for the state of Mississippi to be presented to the state legislature when it convenes in 1930.

In preparing this report Mr. Hobbs will have charge of a complete economic survey of the state that is to be made soon. He will be absent from the University during the fall quarter of next year, as part of the work will be done at that time.

Tar Babies vs State

The Tar Babies will play the State Freshmen this afternoon at three-thirty on Freshman Field. This is the last game of the season for the Tar Babies, and it was scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, but the game was postponed on account of rain. The game this afternoon will decide the runner-up position in the state freshman baseball race. Layton and Kushner will probably be the Tar Baby battery for the game this afternoon.

LOCAL GOLFERS HOLD LAST MEET

Largest Golf Tournament of Year Will Be Held on Chapel Hill Course Saturday.

The final and largest of the series of spring golf tournaments will be held at the Country Club on next Saturday, May 25, with play starting at 1:30 o'clock. Play will be in five flights with prizes awarded to winners and runners-up in each flight.

The golfers of the village are looking forward to a most enjoyable and successful meet, since the events committee of the club has promoted such good tournaments during the year. Advance information indicates that a large number of golfers will enter the contest, and closely contested flights will result.

Prizes for winners in the various flights are being given by local merchants. The University Book Exchange is donating a golf bag; the Student Supply Store is awarding three irons and a driver; a pair of golf hose will be presented by Jack Lipman's University Shop; Pritchard Patterson is giving a pair of knickers; the Smoke Shop, a pipe set; Andrews-Henninger, a pair of golf shoes; and S. Berman, two cravats.

Mr. Bynum, chairman of the events committee, states that there will be no handicaps, and that the tournament is open to all golfers who are interested in the event.

COWPER TAKES FIRST PLACE

Vernon Cowper was another outstanding performer for the Tar Heels at the Conference meet in Birmingham last Saturday. Besides Harper, he was the only man to win a first place. However, Cowper was tied by Frederick of Mississippi A. and M. for this position. Each vaulted twelve feet one inch to top all competitors. Schofield of Sewanee gained third position by virtue of a vault of eleven feet ten, topping Neiman of Carolina. Cowper has been one of the most dependable men on the track squad this year, having won in practically all of the dual meets as well as the State Meet. Cowper's winning mark of last Saturday failed to threaten the existing conference record. Odell of Clemson set this at thirteen feet three inches last year by an exceptionally fine performance.
