All candidates note. Then go and vote.

VOLUME LII-SW

Business and Circulation: 8641

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1944

Che Car peel

Serving Civilian and Military Students at UNC

Editorial: F-3141, News: F-3146, F-3147

NUMBER SW-30

There'll be no party victory

For everybody is "UP"

Suspense Mounts As Election Time Draws Near Carolina Workshop Council Festival Week Begins Monday

Panel Discussion Deals With Artist As World Citizen

A panel discussion on the role of the artist in today's world, with writers, artists and musicians participating; a bill of three new original plays, a dance recital, a concert by the Women's Glee Club and the presentation the program of the third Spring Festiof a new radio play are features on val of the Carolina Workshop to be presented here throughout next week. April 17-22.

The Carolina Workshop is an organization of students and faculty members having as its purpose the integration and promotion of students' activity in writing, music, theatre, radio, fine arts, photography and dancing—especially in the creative fields. It was organized in the fall of Economist 1941.

Chairmen

Kat Hill, editor of the TAR HEEL and Professor Samuel Selden of the Department of Dramatic Art, are serving Goes To WPB as chairman and faculty adviser of

Army Order Abolishes Deferments

By Bob Rolnik

A sweeping directive by the national selective service board, early this week, killed virtually all student opportunities for draft deferment.

Notification of the action was sent to President Frank Graham on April 7, by Leonard Carmichael, director of the national roster of scientific and specialized personnel.

The move abolishing existing deferment quotas will not affect the enrollment at Carolina at the present time as radically as was supposed, explained Dr. W. D. Perry, military information director on the campus. 224 Are 4-F's

Out of the 786 men enrolled during this spring, 224 are 4-F, approximately 200 are below age and only 74 men had been deferred and are now subject to an Army call. Under the abolished quota system. 35 chemistry and eight physics students were deferred, while 31 men were included in the pre-med, predental and theology quotas. However, there are a number of underage students who have anticipated entering the various quotas. According to the announcement on April 11, by the national selective service board in Washington, only four classifications of students remain on See ARMY, page 4

61 Persons Slated For Ballot in Coming Race

Suspense in campus politics mounts this week as the actual campaigning for University and United Party candidates gets under way. Campus leaders for next year will be decided by votes cast in Tuesday's election.

Charlie Frank Benbow and Harvey White will oppose each other for the top campus post of president of the student body. University Party candidate

Playmakers Will Present Experimentals

All are new one-act plays written by glee club. students in the course in playwriting Coed Campaign conducted by Professor Koch. This production is sponsored by The Carolina Workshop Festival.

First on the program is "Hotel dent legislature. Libba Wiggins, Unit-

Benbow has been a member of the Student Council for two years and an honor roll student for three years. He is an SAE, a member of the Grail, Gimghoul, the student audit board and a former member of the UNC boxing team. United Party nominee Harvey White is chairman of the CPU, a member of the Interfraternity Council, treasurer and vice-president of the The Carolina Playmakers are pre- DKE fraternity and a member of the senting their 96th bill of experimental present campus cabinet. He was on the plays in the Playmakers Theatre on editorial staff of the 1944 Yackety Wednesday, April 19, at 7:30 P. M. Yack and sang for two years in the

For the first time in University history a coed is opposing a Carolina gentleman for the speakership of the stu-

the Festival program.

Opening Monday night in Graham Memorial at 8 o'clock, the panel discussion will lead off the week's events. Speakers will be Clare Leighton, well the Music Department; William Meade Prince, acting head of the Art Department; Paul Green, the playwright, and Professor Clemens Sommer of the Art Department. Phillips Russell, journalism professor, will serve as interlocutor. Glee Club

The Women's Glee Club, under the See WORKSHOP, page 4

Female Glee Club To Climax Tour With Concert Here and the City College of New York be-

Climaxing a triumphant tour of four service camps of this area, the University women's glee club will give the same concert of popular and semipopular music for the benefit of townspeople and students in Hill Hall Tuesday, April 18, at 8 p. m., John Toms, Director, announced today.

Elinor Link, Lois McCauley, and Whitfield Lloyd, who compose a trio which will assist the glee club, are all voice majors. They are all good to look at and sweet to hear and will leave their studies of art, songs and opera to sing "My Shining Hour," "There Are Such Things," and "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning."

Romberg's "Lover, Come Back To Me" See GLEE CLUB, page 4

Dr. Rex Winslow, of the Carolina Economics department left Chapel Hill last night on an indeterminant leave of absence to accept a position on the War Production Board as chief known writer; Professor John Toms of of contract terminations in the statistic and research division of the WPB. This is Winslow's second leave of absence since he came to Carolina in 1929 as an Economics instructor. In 1940 he was given leave to accept a position as associate economic advisor to the office of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Dr. Winslow was born in Indianola. Ia. Following four years at Simpson College where he received his AB degree he taught in the Iowa public schools. He took the work for his MA degreee at the University of Illinois, for his doctorate at Carolina. He taught at the University of Illinois fore coming to Carolina.

In addition to his work as an economics professor Winslow has been serving currently as adviser to all economics majors, as educational director for the engineering science and management war training program, and as liason officer between the University and the Southeastern institute for commercial organization of executives.

Winslow's work will be taken over n the economics department by teachrs Brown and Lloyd.

Pi Phi Open House

Members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority

The glee club will sing Winne's will entertain at open house, 109 Hills-"Amarella," Scott's "Think On Me," boro street, Sunday afternoon from to be elected April 18 in the general Koutz's "The Little French Clock," 5-6:30 o'clock for the University Par- campus elections, will take over the ty candidates. Everyone is invited to top legislature post at that body's attend, and meet the candidates.

Legislators Pass Bill Giving Frosh Right To Organize

Class organization was installed once more at Carolina when the student legislature passed a bill unanization.

The bill, which superceded the emergency bill passed last spring abolishing class government, calls for a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer of the freshman class. Freshmen will be classified as all students who have not completed more than three quarters or two trimesters work.

The election date of freshman class officers will be decided by the committee which drew up the bill. Machinery for the elections will be handled by the elections committee of the legislature.

The new speaker of the legislature, next meeting on Thursday, April 20.

In Hill Tonight

Plays Classic

concert of classical music in Memorial appears as the romantic lead, Lt. Craig

Hall tonight at 8:30. ter of Mr. and Mrs. Umstead of Dur- cast are Martha Gillespie, Harvey ham, played Mendelssohn's "Concerto Auerbach, Bill Ayers, Sherman Laza-No. 1 in G Minor" on the piano when rus, Fred Salk, Warren James and she soloed with the orchestra at the Jack Brock. The author is directing free children's concert held in Hill and the stage setting is designed by Hall at 2:30 this afternoon.

Stassevitch, who was born in Simferopol, Crimea, began the study of violin at the age of four and the piano at seven. At 16 he studied under Leopold Auer in St. Petersburg and made his debut as violinist in 1914 in Moscow. His debut in Western Europe came two years later in Oslo, and mously at its Thursday night meeting in 1924 he made his New York debut providing for freshman class organi- in Carnegie Hall with the state symphony orchestra under Josef Stran-

See SYMPHONY, page 4

Tar Heels Debate Georgia Tech In Two-way Meet

which meets Georgia Tech here. lina's affirmative team will invade ting. Georgia Tech in Atlanta to complete the reciprocal arrangement of these Kelly and Betsy Ross Howe, winners ence. Everyone is invited. of the Intramural Debate Tournament, will form this team.

The Debate Council formally authorized the Executive Secretary to arrange, if possible, an extended three day tour for two Carolina Debaters during May. Tentative plans schedule William and Mary, University of Richmond, and Johns Hopkins University to be engaged.

The Debate Council now meets at 8:45 every Tuesday night in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial.

IRC To Meet

Sunday Night

York pianist, will play Tschaikowsky's of the last resort," it tells what hap-North Carolina Symphony Orchestra's in a place out of this world. Tom Avera

> Williams, and Kathleen Arnold plays Randall Brooks.

Hanig's Play

David Hanig, of Trenton, New Jer- backing Jimmy Wallace. Carter is now

Caudill designed the setting. Kat Hill, of New Bern, North Carolina, and editor of the TAR HEEL, of mer member of the Graham Memorial fers a comedy of the news behind tomorrow's headlines, "Morning Edi-

Plans were completed Tuesday tion." With the stage heaped in desks, night for the intercollegiate debate typewriters and old newspapers, and which will be held here Saturday eve- a litter of wolves and newshounds ning, April 23 between North Caro- turned loose, only the gayest, madest lina and Georgia Tech of Atlanta, Ga. things could happen. Tom Avera, The University will be upholding the James T. Smith, Fred Salk, Kathleen negative side of the International Po- Arnold, and Carrington Cross play the lice Force resolution. Bill Crisp and paper waiters. Joan Martin, as the Rene Bernard, President and Execu- mag editor, Druelya, and Stanley Cortive Secretary respectively of the De- bett, as the freshman, Archibald bate Council, will comprise the team Lavander Smith II, offer relieving con trast. Millicent Hosch is the director,

On the same night, North Caro- and James T. Smith designed the set-

As heretofore, Proff Koch will introduce the playwrights and invite comtwo schools for two debates. Kitty ments and suggestions from the audi-

Phi Beta Kappa Initiates Members

At its meeting on April 13, the North Carolina Alpha chapter of Phi Beta Kappa initiated the following juniors:

Thomas Clark Fitzgerald, Jr.; Luby Alexander Harper, Jr.; John Charles Morrow, III; John Moore Ruth; Bev-

Armageddon," by Carrington Cross, of | ed Party candidate, is president of the Paul Stassevitch, distinguished New Richmond, Virginia. Subtitled "a fable CICA, secretary of the Valkyries, a member of the Women's Senate and "Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in pens when Aloma Carroll, a movie star, YWCA. Charlie Vance, University B-flat" when he solos at the SEC and played by Kat Hill, meets Mr. Lambert, Party candidate, is well acquainted with State Symphony Society sponsored a hotel clerk, played by James T. Smith, the machinery of the legislature, having served throughout this year as parliamentarian and chairman of the ways and means and rules committees. Vance Patsy Umstead, 16-year-old daugh- his wife, Elise. Other members of the belongs to the Sigma Nu fraternity and the Grail. He is treasurer of the Interfraternity council, manager of the sophomore football team and has maintained an honor roll average.

> For Tar Heel chieftain the University party has named Horace Carter, A/S, V-12, while the United Party is sey, and holder of the Kay Kyser serving as co-managing editor of the Scholarship in Playwriting, offers on Tar Heel and working at the Univerthis bill a play in blank verse, "Thirty sity News Bureau. For the past five Minutes Out of Midnight." The scene years he has free lanced for a numis a park bench in the City, and the ber of North Carolina papers and has play is a psychological study of a man been on the staff of the News and Press and his attempt at psychic murder. in Albemarle, the Winston-Salem Sen-Tom Avera appears as Joel, the gentle- tinel and the Navy paper in Charlesman in question, and Renee, the girl ton. Wallace has been on the staff of friend, is played by Mary Thomas. the TAR HEEL for three and one-half Dean Newman, Leah Richter, and Bill years, serving as reporter, editorial Ayers complete the cast. The direc- writer and columnist. He has also writtion is by Betty Taylor and Peggy ten for the Carolina Mag and is a member of the CPU. For three years he was freshman counselor and is a forboard of directors.

Feminine Dynasty

Two coeds oppose each other for the editorship of the Carolina Mag, Shirley Hartzell and Barbara Swift. The winner will be the third consecutive girl to edit the Mag. At Sullins junior colege where she spent her first two years

See POLITICS, page 4

TH Staff Members Give Endorsement

By Kat Hill

W. Horace Carter, AS, V-12, managing editor of the TAR HEEL, and candidate for the editorship, received the staff endorsement at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon of the editorial, news and sports staff of the paper.

Carter, who is running for editor on the University Party ticket, has served a managing editor of the TAR HEEL since February, when he succeeded Lloyd Koppel. Prior to his appointment to the managing editorship by the PU Board, Carter served as sports editor of the TAR HEEL. A former Carolina student, he returned to Carolina this fall from the fleet. A major in the deerly Nathaniel Sullivan, Jr.; Clifton partment of journalism, Carter has be-

Camel Cavaran Comes To Carolina Performs Monday

At Memorial Hall

By Mildred Johnson The regiment of cadets, officers, and crew will be in for a topflight entertainment when the Camel Caravan rolls into Chapel Hill to entertain Navy Pre-Flight personnel here Monday evening.

Following the special pre-flight performance which is scheduled at 7:00 in Memorial Hall, a second showing starting at 9:00 will be staged for the University and townspeople. Hanlon to Emcee

Tommy Hanlon, emcee, comedian, and magician, who brings the star packed Camel Caravan here, knows the solution to the K. P. problem and will let the service men in on the secret when he performs his "Case of the Vanishing Chicken." As Hanlon says, "If you can't see it, you can't clean it." Every G. I. will appreciate the nifty solution, suitable to any snafed detail, when Hanlon makes a fowl, feathers and all, disappear right before your eyes. Also included in the Caravan of See CARAVAN, page 4

TOMMY HANLON, emces and magician on the Camel Caravan, is shown performing his remarkable vanishing chicken trick. That's a mighty swell about the forthcoming speaker presentalent are the Morgan Sisters, a trio looking chicken and it has very pretty lags. The bundle of beauty giving the tations of the club. Visitors are in- cil, and Dr. Almonte C. Howell was bird to Hanlon is one of the show's Camelettes. vited.

Forest West, Jr.; and Jesse Noah hind him already a long record as a newspaperman. Williams, Jr.

Three seniors: Sarah Irwin Davis, Helen Byrnes Lanneau and Polly lanced for a myriad of North Carolina

The next meeting of the Interna- Frances Squire. By virtue of the by-laws of this the News and Press in Albemarle, the tional Relations Club will be held in the Roland Parker Lounge of Graham chapter the junior having the high-Memorial, Sunday night at 7 o'clock, est average automatically becomes chairman Wesley Bagby announced next year's president. Jesse Noah today. Williams, Jr., is the new president.

Topic for discussion will be "How Clifton Forest West, Jr., was chosen should we deal with 'war criminals'." as vice-president and secretary.

Announcements will also be made Dean House and Dr. E. L. Mackie were reelected to the executive counalso chosen for the council.

For the past five years he has free papers and has been on the staffs of Winston-Salem Sentinel and the Navy paper in Charleston. For two years he has worked with the University News Bureau, and during his second year at the University worked as night editor of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Carter's opponent in the forthcoming elections is United Party's Jimmy Wallace, who will make his third try for the editorship.