

'Y' To Sponsor Community Sing In Hill Sunday

The first in a series of Community Sings sponsored by the Chapel Hill Recreation Department, in cooperation with the YM and YWCA, will be presented Sunday night at 8:30 in Hill Music Hall.

The words of the songs will be flashed on a screen by slides, so there will be no excuse for not singing.

The Homecoming Four, negro quartette from Durham, will appear on the program, singing spirituals and jubilee songs. This group has been organized for about six years and has appeared many times in and around Chapel Hill. The leader of this quartette is Marvin Sneeds, who works for Dr. Sutton.

The songs for the program include the old favorite ballads always popular at sings as well as some of the new songs of the day. The accompanist for the program will be Tom Avera and Wayne Kernode will be the song leader. The committee planning the sing include Mrs. Kay Farrel, Dot Schmuhl, and David Sessoms, Jr.

The sing is open to all students, in uniform or otherwise, and also towns people are invited.

Misses Pierce and Glogovsky. Mr. Haydon studied in Paris with Auguste Perier, Miss Pierce studied at the Eastman School of Music and was formerly first cellist in the Boston Woman's Symphony Orchestra, while Miss Glogovsky is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music.

Mr. Slocum studied flute with John Wummer, first flutist of the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, formerly with NBC and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Recently, he served as directors of two music festivals: the Eastern Carolina Music Festival held at ECTC April 21 when bands from that section of the state performed for criticism during the day and presented massed concerts in the evening, while on April 25, Mr. Slocum judged another Music Festival at Rock Hill, S. C. and served as guest conductor for the evening concert.

Bishop Penick Here Tomorrow

The Rt. Rev. Edwin A. Penick, D.D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina, will make his annual visit to the Chapel of the Cross at the 11:00 a.m. service on Sunday morning. Bishop Penick is well-known in Chapel Hill and throughout the state. In March, 1943, he preached the Baccalaureate Sermon for the graduating class. As is usual on his official visits the Bishop will administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation and will preach the sermon. This year 17 persons will be confirmed.

Band To Present Outdoor Concert

Selections from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" and Rodgers' "Oklahoma" will feature the University band's first outdoor concert of the season here tomorrow afternoon at five o'clock.

The 54-piece group, directed by Earl A. Slocum, will perform under the Davie Poplar. Tomorrow's concert will inaugurate a series of Sunday afternoon programs which have become annual events during the Spring quarter at the University.

LATVIAN

each other. In simple dramatic terms, Dr. Lejins described the efficient, orderly occupation by the Russian army in what the Russians called a "minor operation." There was no opposition.

With the Russian occupation of the Baltic came the sovietization of the countries, all of which the speaker described as an eyewitness. Listeners got the impression that an orderly, efficient machine was set in operation. All lands, money, houses were nationalized except for smaller holdings. The next step was reorganizing the parliaments which had been non-existent since totalitarianism had come in. The former Latvian's description of the one-party, one list of candidates, and almost 100 percent vote for this one list, gave people a clear idea of the actual way in which Russia completely took over the political as well as the economic aspects of the Baltic states. One of the first steps of the new parliament was to request Russia to take over their respective countries. Russia accepted, and the states soon became autonomous republics in the Soviet Union.

German Occupation
German occupation of the Baltic countries during the war has always been regarded as temporary by the Russians, who assume that they will automatically revert back to Russian control in peacetime.

Particularly vivid was Dr. Lejins' description of the repatriation of the Germans in the Baltics, some of whom had been there for 700 years. The main reason for the mass exodus—and most of the Germans chose to leave although they did not have to—was simply and inexplicably "The Germans are going."

In analysing the attitude of the Baltic states towards the Allies, Lejins left no doubt in the audience's mind as to the favorable way in which they are regarded. It dates back to 1918 when the Allies appeared most responsible for their freedom. This intense respect towards the Allies manifests itself in a number of ways. For instance English is the language required in the schools instead of the German or Russian of the neighboring countries.

Parents in Latvia
Dr. Lejins, who is now an American citizen, has parents in Latvia. He spoke of the events of 1939 and 1940 from first hand experience, and described graphically only those things which he saw. He left the audience with a much clearer picture of the tangled web of hatreds and prejudices at work in the various Baltic countries against both the Germans and the Russians.

One of his most interesting remarks was that he thought that the Baltic states would prefer Russia over Germany if it came to foreign domination, but added that Russia plus communism might change the picture.

As to the future of the Baltic states he was intensely realistic, saying that nothing could take the Baltics out from under Russian control after the war unless Russia decided to release them herself.

Miss Ann West, president of the IRC club, presided, and Dr. A. R. Newsome, the club's advisor introduced the speaker.

Valkyries Sponsor 'Hello' Campaign

In order to re-establish Carolina as "the friendliest campus," the Valkyries, co-ed organization here, is sponsoring a "Hello Campaign" to be held Monday and Tuesday of next week.

The purpose of this drive is to prove to the new "doubting Thomases" here, especially those in the V-12 and Marines just arrived, the truth of the statement: "UNC has the friendliest campus of any college in the states."

Campaign Posters
Posters announcing the campaign have been put in Swain Hall and on campus while sororities are hearing of it through public announcements. Similar drives have been conducted with great success in previous years. The newly formed Campus Cabinet suggested this newest drive.

IRC Meeting

"The Future of the British Empire" will be discussed by the International Relations Club at its regular meeting, 7:30 Sunday evening in the Roland Parker lounge of Graham Memorial. All students are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

CONSTITUTION

wherein the proposed measure shall be set forth at length. If the petition be for the enactment of a law, it shall be signed by ten percent of the student body; and if the petition be for the amendment of the constitution, the petition therefor shall be signed by sixteen percent of the students. The petition thus signed shall be filed with the student body president, who shall in turn submit the measure thus proposed to the student body for their consideration not later than fifteen days after the date of filing. A favorable majority, with at least twenty-five percent of the student body voting, shall be necessary for the passage of such petitions. The same measure, in form of an essential substance, shall not be submitted to the students by initiative petition, either affirmatively or negatively, oftener than twice in one school year. Constitutional limitations as to the scope and subject matter of measures enacted by the legislature shall apply to those enacted by the initiative.

Section (2) The student body shall also have the power of referendum which may be invoked, by petition, against any act or part of any act of the legislature. Petitions invoking the referendum shall be signed by not less than ten per cent of the student body and filed with the student body president. Such petitions shall set out the title of the act against which the referendum is invoked, and in addition thereto, the act or section thereof involved. When the referendum is thus invoked, the president of the student body shall refer the same to the students for approval or rejection not later than fifteen days after the filing. A favorable majority, with at least twenty-five percent of the student body voting shall be necessary for approval.

Section (3) Each member shall be responsible to his electorate and may be recalled from office at any time, if a favorable vote for his recall is cast by the organization from which he was chosen.

Section (4) Any bill shall be subject to the veto of the student council, provided the council passes such a veto within fifteen days after the bill is enacted by the legislature. A two-thirds vote of the membership of the legislature shall be required to override the council's vote. The council shall submit to the legislature their reasons for vetoing any acts.

Section (5) The legislature shall annually review and pass the budgets of all campus-wide fee-collecting organizations and shall regulate the procedure to be followed by classes in passing their budgets. The legislature shall also set up and pass the student government budget, and shall allot such funds as shall be necessary for the conduct of the business of the legislature and the student council. A two-thirds vote of members present shall be required for the passage of these and any other financial measures.

Section (6) The procedure for all campus and class elections shall be set up by the legislature.

Section (7) To ratify or amend the constitution of the student legislature, it shall be necessary that proposed amendments be passed by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the legislature; provided, however, (1) that this amendment does not give to the aforesaid body the right to impair or obstruct in any way the power of initiative or the power of referendum which is granted to the student body; and (2) that this amendment shall be effective only during and until the end of the present emergency.

Kids' Art Show

The last day of the exhibition of the 7th Annual N. C. School Art Exhibition is Sunday, April 30. It is composed of the work of the first through the sixth grade. Many entries were chosen and this part of the show is a riot of color. Much originality has been shown by the designs of the children and it is one of the gayest exhibits which the gallery has had in a long time. Gallery hours are from 10-5 daily and 2-5 Sundays, Person Hall Art Gallery.

Seniors Note!!

All Seniors not in the "Yackety Yack" please leave their names at Graham Memorial office in the Senior Box. Anyone you know who is a senior and won't be here for June 4, 5, 6, please leave their name as being absent. Any suggestions for the Senior Class Will, will be greatly appreciated.

CIVILIAN

According to the announcement from Washington on April 11, only four classifications of students remain on the shortened deferment list. These include: those pursuing full time scientific courses who will graduate by July 1, 1944; full time medical students, and those in recognized schools of dentistry, veterinary medicine and osteopathy; pre-professional students in medical and theological courses who have been accepted in recognized schools and who will enter before July 1, 1944.

This directive virtually clears out junior and senior courses in the physics department since no more civilian students who would be able to graduate in the required 24 months will be permitted to stay in school.

Michigan Theatre Borrows Burrows

Robert Burrows, Technical Director of the Carolina Playmakers and Assistant Professor of Dramatic Art, in the University, has accepted a position as Technical Director in Drama at the University of Michigan, for the summer session of June 26 to August 26.

Others on the staff of Michigan's summer theatre, in addition to Executive Director Valentine Windt, are Lucy Barton, author of a famous book on costume, Herbert Philippi, well-known designer, Theodore Viehman, director of the Tulsa Little Theatre, and Claribel Baird of the Oklahoma College for Women.

Mr. Burrows expects to have a busy summer, because the production schedule at the University of Michigan includes five plays in the eight-week summer session. At the close of the spring quarter here Mr. Burrows plans to spend two weeks in New York, before going on to the University of Michigan.

ham will offer his comments on the convention and will introduce the speaker of the afternoon, Dr. Brooks.

An open forum, conducted by Theodore S. Johnson, of the Raleigh District of the OPA, and designed to present problems not covered by the varied talks, is to be conducted by five consultants of the OPA. They are Herbert R. Baer, John D. Shaw, Carl M. Simpson, Frank Strum, and W. Hance Hoffer.

A summary of the work accomplished by the Institute will be reviewed by James C. Derieux, deputy administrator, who, like most of the before-mentioned gentlemen, hails from the common brotherhood of the OPA.

In addition to the support of the University, the Institute of Wartime Economy is sponsored by the North Carolina affiliates of the American Federation of Labor, the Standard Railroad Brotherhoods, and the Congress of Industrial Organization.
