Coach Bunn Hearn, Carolina's veteran baseball mentor, is conducting a baseball school in Winston-Salem for the interest of scouting young diamond prospects who have a good chance of making big league material. Coach Hearn is a scout for the Boston Red Sox of the American League and has played a big part in getting talented players from around this section to sign with the Red Sox, who are now? making a strong bid for the pennant.

GUEST STAR

concerning Clyde "Fireball" King's signing with the Dodgers. "King is the latest to sign a Brooklyn contract. Here is a kid who really came fast. No more had the train from the University of North Carolina disgorged him at Penn Station, New York, than Joe Hewlett, head of gym and tumhe was whisked over to Ebbets Field bling, will feature the Sports Program for a private workout. Three of the Dodgers brass hats sat in judgment Field this evening at 7 o'clock. of him-Rickey, Manager Leo Durocher and Clyde Sukeforth, the former catcher and now a Dodger scout, in an otherwise empty park.

"The rookie (King) threw 40 pitches, kerplunk in Sukeforth's big mit. 'That's enough!' pronounced Branch. 'Buy him a ticket for Philadelphia, Leo.' And the boy made the trip to Shibe Park with the ball club in company with Durocher."

Clyde King, the versatile Goldsboro youth, made what some people would call the impossible and sports fans are still talking about it. The feat was his jump from college baseball to the stardom of the big leagues, without playing any other pro ball except at Carolina. This was a big jump, but the Brooklyn officials were so well satthey signed him on the same day he hit Flatbush territory.

Walt James, director of intramurals, It seems that Carolina will not be the and Dr. Powder have teamed up together and will be seeded No. 1 in this fall, since the announcement has the tennis tournament now underway. come out of Duke that only two vet The No. 1 spot for the singles has not been decided as yet, but quite a few racquet stars are bidding for the top post. Heath, a young Chapel Hill tennis player, is expected to carry out a a few star gridsters from the incomstiff battle in the singles race, while Rowe, Cash and Baity are also excellent racquet handlers.

Women's intramural tennis tournament got underway yesterday and quite a large field turned out for the ing completed his officer's training at event. The schedule that the players will follow will be posted in the Women's gym and each round is to be played for two days before being forfeited. Miss Helen Hyde is directing the tourney.

Bob Fetzer Has Long Service As Coach and Athletic Head

Came to Carolina In the Year 1921

Coach Bob Fetzer came to Carolina in 1921 as director of athletics. When he arrived he had with him three college degrees and a reputation as one of the best coaches of athletics in the country. Beside all of these he had very valuable experience gained at Davidson, Clemson, N. C. State and Woodberry Forest School, schools in which he taught and also coached athletics.

Coach Bob, as he is popularly called, day. embodies the finest attributes of coach, gentleman, friend and scholar. His record at Carolina speaks for itself.

Track teams coached by him here during mural play. have lost only three dual meets to Southern conference teams in 20 years and | tl only ten to intersectional foes. Probably the most striking feature of his phenomenal record is the number of championships won. Since 1921, Caroten indoor, ten outdoor, and 13 cross country Southern Conference titles and 17 State championships. For five straight years immediately prior to the war when the Southern Conference Indoor Meet was held the Tar Heels copped honors.

One of the dreams that Coach Bob has cherished for many years, that of ample facilities to enable every student to participate in some form of sport, See FETZER, page 4

Maxwell Field, Ala .- Two youths from the University of North Carolina, have reported to the pre-flight school at Maxwell Field, Alabama, an installation of the AAF Training Command, to begin another phase of their training in the U.S. Army Air Forces.

Here the aviation cadets are receiving nine weeks of intensive physical, military and academic instruction.

These men are Aviation Cadets Francis H. Fatell, who attended the University of North Carolina in 1938-1941 (B.S. degree); and David W. Masengill, 1941-1943.

Swim Program Was Called Off Last Friday

Coach Willis Casey Has Strong Squad

The Invitational swimming meet, which was scheduled for Raleigh last Friday night was postponed until tomorrow night and the Blue Dolphins under the tutorage of Coach Willis Casey will enter the meet as favorites.

The Dolphins have a few swimmers back from last year's unbeaten squad to form the nucleus for another good team. The two returning lettermen are Snooky Proctor and Ben Ward. Coach Casey has a star in Bill Kelley, a Marine V-12 student, who is pitted as one of the best swimmers to hit this pool in a few years.

Snooky Proctor

Snooky Proctor is expected to enter the 440 event, of which he is champ. He is holder of the Carolina AAU record in this division and should make a good showing in this distance event tomorrow night.

Ben Ward, high scorer in the Carolina AAU last year, is a sure bet to repeat his 1943 feat. Ward, a veteran of two season's on the Blue Dolphins squad, will enter the 50 and 200 free style events.

Girls Division

In the girls' division, Prince Nufer, Frances Kenney and Ethel Laughlin will represent Carolina in the women's events in the Raleigh meet.

Prince hails from Goldsboro and during her years of swimming, she has set numerous pool records in the backstroke and is touted as one of the best girl prospects in this section in years. Tarboro Girls

Frances Kenney and Ethel Laughlin are both from Tarboro and are excellent prospective girl swimmers. Kenney holds the AAU 400, 800 and 1500 meter championship, while Laughlin is the AAU 100 meter champ, and is a leading contender in the 300 meter medley. She is also a member of the medley team that held the American

Coach Casey is planning on carrying along the rest of his Blue Dolphin squad which includes: Bill Pritchard, Ira Abrahamson, Sam McCauley and Pete Hexner. These boys will carry Carolina hopes in tomorrow night's

Sports Staff Meets

An important meeting of the sports staff and other prospects who are interested in writing sports, will be held in the TAR HEEL office at Graham Memorial this afternoon, at 4:15. Any coed who is interested in seeing the girls get a share of the sports page is also reminded to be present. Beats and other matters will be discussed at this important meeting.
