Tech Tennisters Topple Carolina Outfit 6 to 3

Carolina's 1945 tennis squad dropped the second contest of the season to a potent crew of racquet-wielders from Georgia Tech at Atlanta Saturday. The Tech crew toppled the Tar Heel netters 6-3.

So far this season the Tar Heel netmen have downed the Citadel and William and Mary, suffering defeats from Annapolis and Georgia Tech.

Mac Davis led the losing cause parade for the Tar Heels by winning his singles contest and by coupling with Duke Wilder to win in a doubles match. Bill Weathers scored a singles victory to complete the scoring for the Carolina six.

Tar Heels Trounce Red Terrors, 15-1

After clinching the third of four Ration league games with State in Raleigh Saturday afternoon, 15-1, Coach Bunn Hearn and his Tar Heel baseball club will travel to Ft. Bragg this afternoon to meet the soldiers in a non-loop affray.

The Carolina diamond crew returns to Emerson field tomorrow afternoon to meet a reinforced Pre-Flight team for the second time this season, and Ft. Bragg will be met again here Saturday.

Pete Lily, a freshman hurler, is expected to start on the hill for Carolina this afternoon, and Tommy Andrew. also a freshman twirler, will more than likely start against the Cloudbusters tomorrow. However, neither of these choices are definite, and Lefty McElrath, who hurled the locals to victory over the Edwards Co. semi-pro nine last week, may start in either of the Coach Hearn's charges got off to good start in the initial frame, scoring three times on two walks, an error and two wild pitches. They added five more in the third, five in the next three combined, and then put on the steam for two more in the final stanza. State committed a total of seven errors afield, and Carolina three.

Also to the credit of Forrest, in addition to limiting the Terrors to five hits, is that he didn't walk a single man and fanned eight. Forrest will urgent, and it is requested that all who probably start on the mound again next Saturday when the locals meet Ft.

Duke Turns Back 'Busters By 10-9; New Men Report

Coach Jack Coomb's league leading Duke baseballers led by Tom Davis pushed through 11 innings of play Saturday to margin the Carolina Pre-Flighters in a heated slugfest 10-9.

The Duke nine leads the Ration League competition with three wins and no losses while the Cadet crew has dropped six contests in loop battles.

Ed Borowy, brother of Yankee hurling star, Hank Borowy; and Ken Olson, property of the St. Louis Browns were newcomers to the Cadet camp last week. Both displayed promise of better play and bolstered the hopes of the Pre-Flights. Borowy playing left field chalked up three for five in the batting bracket and Olson got one bingle in five trips to the platter while pitching most of the game.

Going into the ninth the Dukesters were behind 6-9 and the Pre-Flighters Elger, potent left fielder, banged out stood within an out of capturing their
