Spivak Band Heads Bill For German Club Dances Monday Night

Famed Orchestra Feature Of Midwinter Dances Friday And Saturday In Tin Can

By Howard Merry

Charlie Spivak brings his famed orchestra to Carolina for the second time this week when he appears at the Tin Can for dances Friday and Saturday nights, and at Memorial Hall for an open concert Saturday afternoon.

Spivak is being presented by the German Club for the annual German Club Midwinters. He last appeared here for the Midwinters of 1942.

Friday night's dance is open to Ger- @ man Club members only. For the dance Saturday, German Club members will each distribute one extra invitation. The concert Saturday afternoon is open to the entire campus. Tickets are now available at the YMCA for $1.00.

Spivak has attained great heights in popularity since he played here last. Trade magazines from coastto-coast have hailed Spivak as having one of the top dance bands of the day, besides being one of the best of modern trumpeters. In popularity polls, Spivak has always rated high among the nation's great dance bands.

The versatile trumpeter, who plays "the hot" with skill equal to his famed sweetness, has played many famous night clubs, ball rooms, and hostellaries. #### Tryouts Announced By Sound And Fury

Sound and Fury has announced its singing and dancing tryouts for a Winter Revue to "go on the boards" in the early part of March. They will be held every afternoon this week from 3 o'clock until 5 in the Horace Williams Lounge of Graham Memorial. Contestants for the best skit and best song are urged to turn in their entries to the YMCA office before February 1.

Phi To Discuss Demobilizing Tonight At 8

The Philanthropic Assembly will discuss the problems involved in military demoblization at its regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the Phi chamber in New East. All students who are interested in hearing or taking part in the discussion are invited to attend.

The discussion has been postponed a half-hour to make room for an executive session of the Phi at 7:30. ## Patty Harry 'Hubba Hubba' Wolverine Of GM Festival

Wolves of the human variety hooted and howled, whistled and drooled at Graham Memorial's unique "Hubba Hubba Hop" last Friday night when Miss Patty Harry was acclaimed the "Hubba Hubba Girl of UNC." The contest was the high-light of a night of dancing in the Main Lounge.

Five intrepid judges in their august robes concurred that there was little to choose between the twelve curvacious coeds who competed for the honor, but they

Student Body To Hear Talk ByDr.Graham

President Frank P. Graham will speak on "Universities and Scientific Mechanisms in the Great Transitions of History from the Compass to the Atomic Bomb" at a convocation of faculty and students in Memorial Hall February 6

The convocation has been called at the request of the Association of Carolina Scientists and the president of the student body, Charlie Vance. Students, faculty and the public are cordially invited. "The purpose of this convocation is mainly to benefit the students," Vance stated. "This is the first time in quite awhile that we have been able to hear Dr. Graham, and it is a good opportunity for us to learn more about what the atom bomb will mean to us."

Campus Movie Will Be Shown

Film Produced By Local Group

"The Call of Carolina", a motion picture depicting life at The University, will be shown in the main lounge of Graham Memorial on Monday, February 4th at 8:30 P. M. The picture is sponsored by the Tar Heel.

"The Call of Carolina" was filmed on the Carolina campus last spring by an amateur producing unit comprising Paul Baynard, Robert Parham and Robert Coulter. The picture contains scenes of practically every organization on campus. The Dialectic Senate, The Yackety Yack, the Coed Senate, the Student Legislature, the IRC, the YMCA, and the YWCA, the Playmakers, and many other extra-curricular organizations are represented. In the realm of sports, the Southern AAU track meet with scenes of the shot put, the broad jump, the pole vault, the high jump, the mile run, the 440-yard dash, the 220-yard high hurdles, is a featured part of the picture. Other important sports events are the 1944 Duke-Carolina football clash, tennis matches and the 1945 Duke-Carolina baseball battle.

The most important section of the picture deals with the student honor council and the role it plays in molding the spirit that goes to make up the Carolina way of life. This portion was specially produced for the picture by the Honor Council sitting in mock ses

One of the entertainment highlights of the film concerns the Grail Dances. The last appearence of Freddie Johnson's band on the Carolina campus is a featured event.

Music And Art

The music and art Departments add their many activities to this pictorialization of life at Carolina. The Mens' Glee Club under the direction of Paul Young is caught in a radio broadcast and the Carolina Band performs its maneuvers upon the field in Kenan Stadium during the 1944 Duke-Carolina game. ### Debate Group To Hold Meet Thursday Night

The Debate Council will meet in executive session Thursday at 7:30 p.m., when pictures for the Yack will be made. All those interested in debating should meet at 8:30 in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial.

"This is the first big meeting of the year," said President Nina Guard, 'and everyone who is interested in debating, whether he has had past experience in debating or not, is very welcome."

The Debate Council has received many invitations from other schools to compete in debating tournaments. The invitations will be decided upon at the executive meeting. A new system of tryouts for the Debate Council, which will make allowances for more participation, will be discussed at the meeting.
