

R. W. C. saddles up and rides again. See p. 2.

The Tar Heel

Continued hot with high. Yesterday's high 91; low, 71.

'Let The Good Times Roll' Motif For Barefoot Ball Today & Night

The theme is "Let the Good Times Roll" and the date is today.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Chapel Hill Cotillion Club will give its "Barefoot Ball" at Hogan's-by-the-lake. All are invited and admission is by program. Programs may be bought at the gate or from any of the marshals for 75 cents.

Beating out some crazy tunes will be Harold Nall and His Wild Men. Formal attire will be walking shorts and bare feet.

Grand Marshal for the occasion is Steve Trimble of Phi Delta Theta. The day's grand prize will go to the individual who can solve the riddle of BYOL.

Other officials in the menagerie are assistant marshals Wood Smethurst of Alpha Tau Omega and Bill Hill of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Marshals in absentia are Roger Kingsbury, Sonny Hood, Biff Roberts, Slick McCleghnam, Brooke Lawson and Don Charmichael.

Marshals are John Baldrige, Tom Ruffin, Jim Peerson, Walton Joyner, Fred Mewhinney, Joe O'Brien, E. C. Smith, Mort Cooper, Put Davis, Bob Page, Fotsie Wallace and John Frazier.

Honorary sergeants with arms will be Jack Marcus and Nose Jones.

Municipal Executives' Meeting Opens Here Today For 2 Days

The fifth annual Municipal Executives Conference opened here today at 3 o'clock. It will be a two-day meeting.

Hubert Henderson, recreation director at Thomasville, president of the Municipal Division of the North Carolina Recreation Society, is program chairman. The University Extension Division's Bureau of Recreation, headed by Dr. Harold D. Meyer, will be host to the group.

The conference will be featured by panel discussions. At the opening session this afternoon "Planning and Evaluation" will be the topic with William T. Robertson, Morganton, as chairman. Other participants will be Warren Carroll, Greenville, Walter Parker, Hickory, and John Tate, Newton. "Directors Problems" will be discussed tonight with Glenn Bannerman, Whiteville, serving as chairman and Augusta Barnett, Asheville, participating.

Selwyn Orcutt, Fayetteville, will serve as chairman of a discussion of "Certification" tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Bill Faxy, Kinston, and Robert Hartley, Shelby, will assist him. General topics will be discussed by chairman J. Willis Nealy, Gastonia, Betty Gabriel, Lincolnton, and Joe Davidson, Burlington.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning meeting of the directors of the State Recreation Society will be held. All sessions will be in the Naval Armory.

Nursing, Public Health Students To Be Honored

Students in the Nursing School and School of Public Health will be guests of the Planetarium Monday night for its new show, "Trip to the Moon."

After the movie they will be feted at a reception in Graham Memorial's Rendezvous Room.

The Planetarium regularly invites different campus groups to showings of each new presentation. Manager Anthony Jenzano will conduct the group on a tour of the facilities.

Opens Monday

Conference On Insurance Set For University

A two-week Institute For Advanced Life Underwriting will open at the University Monday continuing through July 24. This is the second annual institute of this type.

It is sponsored by the North Carolina Association of Life Underwriters and the University.

The first week, July 13-17, will be devoted to discussions of formula programming and timely sales ideas and the second week, 20-24, will be devoted to business insurance, taxes and estate planning.

A. R. (Bert) Jaqua, director, Institute of Insurance Marketing, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, will serve as director of the institute. Other faculty members will be Clarence R. Darling and Sam G. Shackelford, both of Southern Methodist University. They will be assisted by guest lecturers including attorney's trust officers and selected Life Underwriters.

Attendance is limited to full time representatives of legal reserve life insurance companies. Those attending the first week of the institute must have had at least one year of successful experience and those attending the second week must have had at least two years of successful experience.

Carr Dorm coed explaining her lateness with: "He told me it was o. k. to stay out past the curfew if I was with someone." It really happened.

Male trio practicing golf driving in late afternoon on lawn in front of geography building.

Economics instructor and wife wistfully comparing government teaching salaries listed in Post Office with that he brings home from the University.

Dance Planned For Graduates Tomorrow At 8

Graduate students and their friends are invited to the Rendezvous Room of Graham Memorial tomorrow night for the first graduate dance of the Summer Session. Dancing will begin at 8 o'clock and last until 11:30 p.m.

The Summer Activities Council is sponsoring and financing the dance. Chairman Annie Tom So-well of Carr Dormitory said that the dance is informal and everyone is welcome, with or without a date. This is the first social gathering of graduate students this session and all of graduate age are invited whether enrolled in the Graduate School or not.

Margie Ballard, Duncan Brackin, and Sam Duncan are in charge of publicity.

Community Sing Sunday Night Will Be Led By Lanier Davis

LANIER DAVIS

Tom Carroll Emcees Program; To Be Held At 8 In Front Of GM

Another Community Sing is planned for Sunday night at 8 o'clock in front of Graham Memorial.

Song leader and soloist will be Lanier Davis, a Carolina graduate of 1950 and presently working with the Admissions Office. While here Davis a member of the Glee Club, in the Playmakers, a cheerleader, a member of the "Harmonizers" and the "Belltones."

In December, 1951 he joined the road show of "South Pacific" as a member of the cast. He will leave the employment of the University this month to return to New York and the theatre.

Ann Beebe Davis will be her husband's accompanist at the piano. She is the sister of pianist Hank Beebe who was in the "Belltones" with Davis. She and Davis preformed at the recent Watermelon Festival.

Master of ceremonies for Sunday's sing will be Tom Carroll. Carroll is another UNC graduate. He majored in radio here and is working for WCHL as an announcer.

The Community Sing is sponsored by the Summer Activities Council. It will be canceled if it rains.

Swim, Dance Are Tonight

The campus' last swimming party for this session will be held tonight in Kessing outdoor pool at the gym.

The aquatic end of it will last from 7:30 to 9 and square dancing will be held afterward in the Y Court until about 11 o'clock. Max Ballinger will do the calling.

Refreshments, presided over by Watermelon Queen Mase Chapin, will be served.

It's all free and all sponsored by the Summer Activities Council.

Music will come from folk tuner Bob Cole and his aggregation, namely E. J. Padgett, Ed Norwood and Pete Yarnell.

Phi Delta Kappa Education Frat At UNC Initiates Twenty-Four

Twenty - four educators have been initiated into Beta Theta chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, national educational fraternity here.

The initiation ceremonies were followed by a banquet at Lenoir Hall in honor of the new members at which Dean Thomas H. Carroll of the School of Business Administration was guest speaker.

JIMMY WALLACE, who last week assumed the duties of director of Graham Memorial. Wallace will have his first meeting since taking over with the GM board of directors, Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Grail Room.

Those initiated were William L. Anderson Jr., assistant principal, Charlotte Technical High School; Lawrence H. Arney, teacher, Hudson Schools; Harold A. Bentley Jr., graduate student, UNC; Ralph A. Bostian, teacher, Granite Quarry; Moses Bridges Jr., assistant teacher, Chapel Hill; Heath Carriker, teacher, Chapel Hill; Heath Schools; Charles N. Clark, principal, Shepherds School, Mooresville; Johnnie T. Colones, teacher and coach, Eli Whitney School, Alamance County.

A. C. Dawson Jr., superintendent of schools, Southern Pines; R. B. Gordon, district principal, Nash County; Harold M. Guyot, principal, William R. Davie School, (See INITIATES, page 2)

UNC Publicist Is Honored By Associates

Robert W. Madry, director of the University News Bureau, recently was praised by his fellow publicists at the annual meeting of the American College Public Relations Association in Salt City, Utah.

The association presented Madry (See MADRY, page 4)

R. W. MADRY