

TAR HEEL PICKS ALL-TIME TEAM

Many Former Football Stars Aid Sports Writer in Selecting All-University Team.

(Continued from first page)

think his major work was in '28. I would place our own Ray Farris at left guard and I think his mate on the other side is just as good, and I name 'Bear' Collier my other guard position." The opinion of the majority of the votes concurs with his. On the second team we have placed Louis Guion of '94, and Grady Pritchard '20, '21, '22. Poindexter, Robbins, Cronartie, Gardner and Bennett are all prominent names in a review of the history of this position here at the University.

In choosing our flankmen we have had more than a difficult time. Our research has dated back as far as the famous Gibbs and Biggs combination of 1892 and the following is our answer to this problem. Four men of the number of nominees stand out more or less in a class to themselves: Edwin Gregory, Roy Homewood, "Slip" Brown and "Suey" Cochran. Homewood and Brown have been given our vote for the first team, and Gregory and Cochran have been placed on the second team. Both Homewood and Brown were large in size; they were fast and shifty on their feet and terrific tacklers. Both excelled in covering punts. Gregory, '95, '96, '98, has been chosen as captain of the second mythical team. Nat Townsend, Albert Cox, Odell Sapp, Casey Morris, Bob Winston, and Willy Merritt were mentioned.

One great tackle stands out above all the others that have worn the blue and white, Graham Ramsay, '13, '14, '15, '16. Tommy Campbell of Harvard once said that Ramsay was the greatest tackle that he had ever seen on the gridiron. He was a smart football player, holding his position just long enough to protect his kicker, and then often beating the ends down the field and making the tackle; no end and halfback could box Ramsay. On the other side of the line we have chosen "Romy" Story. On the second team we have signed up Beemas Harrell, '19, '20 and Pierce Matthews. George Robinson of '24 and '25 deserve honorable mention.

For the quarterback position the competition has been particularly keen. Four great quarterbacks stand out pre-eminently for recognition: "Runt" Lowe, '16, '21, Jacocks, '03, Louis Graves, '00, '01, '02, and Monk McDonald, '22, '23. Because he could do all the things the others could do, and could also do some things which they couldn't do, "Runt" Lowe has been chosen as quarterback and captain of our 1929 selection. On the second team we have placed Monk McDonald. Foy Roberson, '04, '05, deserves honorable mention.

A fast stepping group of halfbacks have been nominated: "Red" Johnson, George Stephens, Hunter Carpenter, Herman Koehler, Jim Magner, Strud Nash, Dave Tayloe, Vernon Howell and Emmett Underwood have all been brilliant in their own way. However, we have chosen "Red" Johnson for one of the halves, chiefly because of his great offensive driving power; the other half goes to Hunter Carpenter. On the second team we have placed Jim Magner and George Stephens.

The fullback position belongs without a doubt to Roy Abernethy of 1905, the greatest line-plunger and defensive man that has ever gone out from the University. Bill Folger of 1916, because of his great open field running, gets our vote for the second team. "Pot" Graves of 1898, '99, '00, '01 entered West Point after leaving Carolina and his record there rivals that of Roy Abernethy. Earl Holt, '00, and Arthur Belden, '96, '97, both receive honorable mention.

1st Team	Pos.	2nd Team
Homewood	L. E.	Cochran
Ramsay	L. T.	Harrell
Farris	L. G.	Guion
Tandy	C.	Blount

Collier	Pritchard
Story	Matthews
Brown	Gregory (C)
Lowe (C)	McDonald
Johnson	Magner
Carpenter	Stephens
Abernethy	Folger

The Best
TURKEY DINNER
In Town

will await you today at

Welcome In

(Next the Post Office)

Special Preparations to Handle the Crowds

DINNER FROM 11-2

Come and Bring Your Friends!

For The Carolina-Virginia Fans
COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS

The Archer House

Columbia Street
Dinner from 11 - 2

Stetson "D"

Extends

the

Season's Greetings

to

Alumni

and Students

A Clean Game

That's Our Motto Every Day Of The Week

Hook To This The

"WINNER"

"A Service That Satisfies"

That's our old number buddy, mother!

Says---When you come home---

"Your laundry looks lovely son---

Who does that for you?"

Thanks

Laundry Department

U. C. S. P.

University of North Carolina