

Dekes Win 32-10

The Dekes showed great form in defeating the Delta Tau Delta five 32 to 10 in the season's opener in intramural basketball competition. The Dekes took the lead at the beginning of the game, and were never headed. At the half the score stood 14 to 0. In the last half the D. K. E. five, led by Tom Craig, piled up the score on the weaker aggregation.

The outstanding star of the game was Tom Craig, tall Deke guard, whose total of fifteen points was the highest amount of counters scored by any member of either team. Craig played all over the court, and shot many long shots as well as numerous crisp shots. Meade Willis also played a good game for the Dekes, scoring a total of eight points. Bud Weis, fast forward of the Delta Tau Delta five, played well, and was high scorer for his team with a total of six points.

Lineup:

D. K. E. (32)	g	f	t

Mitchell Society To Meet

The Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society will hold its 317th meeting on Tuesday, January 14, at Phillips hall at 7:30. W. F. Prouty will speak on the "Relations of Geological structures to marble quarrying." J. M. Valentine will discuss "The Olfactory Sense in Beetles."

Pipes save no midnight oil

IF PIPES made the man, anybody at all could rise in the world just by smoking a few pounds of Edgeworth. But pipes do not make the man. Men make the pipe—most men do. Somewhat depends on the individual, more on the pipe, and the tobacco is most important of all. Things must be congenial.

Edgeworth is a congenial tobacco, cool, slow-burning, fully flavored. Edgeworth has poise, kindly good nature, real tobacco personality—Edgeworth welcomes new friends. Many a good man has been pledged to pipes by Edgeworth alone.

Like to meet Edgeworth? Just ask with the coupon—and the postman will bring your first few pipefuls of the genuine, three years seasoned if it's a day. Our treat, if you please. Others have found Edgeworth and quit their discontent. So may it be with you!

EDGEWORTH

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy it anywhere—“Ready Rubbed” or “Plug Slice”—15¢ pocket package to pound humidifier tin.

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va. I'll try your Edgeworth. And I'll try it in a good pipe.

Now let the Edgeworth come!

Baby Grapplers Give Promise Of Excellent Team

Under the watchful tutelage of Coach Chuck Quinlan, and with a hard period of daily practice behind them, that began several weeks before Christmas, the Tar Baby grapplers are fast rounding into shape and giving promise of another strong outfit. The squad has been cut to 15, but all these are promising candidates. Many men reported without previous experience, but the hard training grind is erasing that deficiency.

No places are definitely clinched. Indeed, the frosh will follow the varsity plan of having tryouts before each meet to determine who will compete in the different weights. Several men, however, have already assumed the position of outstanding contenders.

Among these are W. E. Lewis, 115 pounds; C. J. Deitz, 125 pounds; E. N. Seligson, 135 pounds; H. A. Leary, 145 pounds; C. L. Bradley, 160 pounds, and P. C. Idol, 170 pounds. The unlimited weight also shows a big gap, but Coach Quinlan has three new men out for that post from the freshman football team and hopes to find his heavy from the trio of Margolis, Philpott and Williams. Other men who have excellent chances of coming out on top in their respective weights are T. E. Bunn, 135 pounds; C. F. Lawson, 125 pounds; W. F. Stone, 145 pounds; O. G. Williams, 135 pounds; C. C. Winstead, 140 pounds, and T. C. Hassell, 145 pounds.

The freshmen will face practically the same schedule as their varsity brothers, meeting the freshman teams on the same day as the Tar Heels take on the varsity outfits. This means that they will have an attractive schedule, probably showing several trips, against such teams as Washington and Lee, V. P. I., V. M. I., Duke, Virginia, N. C. State, Columbia and Penn State.

Y Plans Celebration

The three Y cabinets are now making plans for a special celebration of Lee's and Jackson's birthday, which will come on Sunday, January 19. The local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will have a part in the programs.

Yale Organization Will Debate South American Countries

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 13.—The Centro Espanol de Yale has just received notice from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace that it has made an allotment of funds to the organization to aid in meeting the expenses of a trip to South America by a team which will debate there in Spanish. This organization is composed of students in Yale University interested in speaking and hearing Spanish for the purpose of improving their ability to understand the culture and conditions of the "other Americans" in order to help foster friendly international relations. The team, which will debate with South American universities, will leave the United States about June 20, will spend about twelve weeks in South America, and will return to this country in time for the opening of the college year.

Phi Sigma Kappa Wins

The Phi Sigma Kappa basketball team opened its season in the intramural basketball league with a handy 17-13 win over the Sigma Chi five. They got off to a rather slow start, and the Phi Sigma Kappa aggregation amassed a total of 10 points before the Sigma Chi's went into action. In the last two quarters of the game the Sigma Chi team put up a good fight, but were unable to overcome the lead of the other five.

Jackson played well for the winners and was high point scorer with a total of six points. Fitch also played well for the winners, and Sickler and Shuford were outstanding for the losers.

Lineup:

Sigma Chi (13)	g	f	t
Sickler, f.	2	1	5
Wall, c.	2	0	4
Holcomb, g.	1	0	2

Mitmen Open With Washington and Lee

Return to college of Evan Vaughan, star bantam, and Obie Davis, hard-hitting 160-pounder who also boxes the light heavy, gives the Tar Heel boxers veterans in six of seven posts, with which to defend their Southern Conference title this year. The Tar Heels will open a hard season with a meet with the Washington and Lee mitmen at Lexington Saturday night.

Priscilla Chase Leaves

Miss Priscilla Chase, who has been working here with the United Church for the past two or three weeks, left Sunday night for Washington, D. C. After attending a convention there Miss Chase will continue to Chicago. As secretary of the Congregational church in the Carolinas, Miss Chase had been working here helping to complete the union of the Christian and Congregational churches.

Mary Frances Odum Gives Piano Recital

Mary Frances Odum, ten-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Howard W. Odum, gave a piano recital during the holidays at the home of Mrs. J. M. Williams. Miss Odum is studying music under Mrs. Williams.

Relay Team To Run At Milrose Games

The Tar Heel freshman championship relay team of last year, composed of Charlie Farmer, Rip Slusser, Wallace Case and Lionel Weil, is back intact this year, and is being counted on for valuable varsity service. All of the quartet are outstanding contenders for the honor of running on the mile relay team the Tar Heels have been invited to send to the classic Milrose Games at Madison Square Garden.

High School Basketball

There will be a basketball game between the Chapel Hill high school and Pittsboro high school at 8 o'clock tonight at the high school Tin Can. This is the second game the local boys have played this season. The first game, which was also with Pittsboro, went to Chapel Hill high school 32-30 after three extra periods of play. Coach Jones announces that the local team is in good shape after strenuous practice since the holidays.

Barkley On Mile Relay

Minor Barkley, the one Tar Heel trackman still in college from the four-mile relay team that won the Penn Relays in 1928, is an outstanding contender to run on the mile relay team the Tar Heels have been invited to send to the classic Milrose Games at Madison Square Garden February 8. Barkley is ordinarily a miler, but is also a creditable performer in any race from 440-yards up, and indeed, was versatile enough to captain the cross country team last year.

SPORTS

Carolina, L. S. U., V. M. I., and Carolina were the only ones to go down before non-conference teams. Duke sank the Navy in impressive style, 49-27; South Carolina suppressed the College of Charleston by a five-point margin; Tennessee whipped Maryville 36 to 25; Vandy had little trouble with Western Kentucky Normal; Mississippi Aggies trampled the Meridian "Y" quint 42 to 17. Washington and Lee flashed form in downing the St. Johns (Md) team 51 to 16. St. Johns was fresh from victories over V. M. I. and Virginia and was rated to give the Generals real opposition.

The Washington and Lee Generals invade the Old North State this week, taking on Duke Wednesday, Carolina Thursday, and State Saturday. The last game is in Virginia, however. The Generals return to Lexington after the Carolina tilt and State takes on V. P. I. Friday night.

Williams-Harper Battle

A battle royal between two giant centers promises to be one of the high lights of the Carolina-Washington and Lee cage battle in the Tin Can Thursday night.

The Generals will present one of the strongest teams in the South, molded around the bulky personality of one Williams, big rangy star football end, a fine basketball player, and one of the few four-lettermen in the South.

Carolina will present as Mr. Williams' opposition "Puny" Harper, 6 feet 6, Southern champion discus heaver, and the only three-letterman on the University campus.

Williams is the pivot of the Generals' offense, and Harper the center of Carolina's defense. The individual clash between the two fine centers promises a real treat for cage fans.

Dormitory Store System Discussed By Executive Officers Of University

store managers; a close supervision of the stores by University officials, a clearer definition of the limits between which the stores may operate.

Mr. Bradshaw suggested that store managers should be chosen on the basis of their efficiency rather than their need as self-help students. Mr. Burch is working out the details of a plan for closer supervision of the stores. The store managers with the dormitory government, the dean's office, and the buildings department will define the type of goods that may be sold by the stores; it was pointed out that the stores have already reached the peak of their expansion, and will not, as some merchants think, continue to expand indefinitely.

Mr. Woollen pointed out that the dormitory stores were founded as service agencies, rather than stores, and exist solely for the benefit of the students. They are to be considered as service agencies primarily. Originally they were planned as central agencies that would do away with all canvassing of the dormitories and would handle such goods and do such work as the members of the dormitory demanded.

The effect the stores are having upon business conditions in Chapel Hill was discussed. Business depression here cannot be blamed upon the stores, for they take away a very small revenue, but must be blamed upon absence of any building by the University. Every year since 1920 approximately a half million dollars has been paid out for labor in the building program. Following this expanded business the merchants of the village have overstocked themselves and cannot sell their goods to the students. The general financial conditions of the state has a strong bearing upon the local situation. Boys in school here are not spending as much money as they generally do because their fathers are not able to supply it, it was said.
