Esperanto Club To Meet Again Today

The regular weekly meeting of the Esperanto Club, under the direction of Dr. E. C. Metzenthin, will take place today in Room 109, Saunders hall, at 5 p. m.

Dr. Metzenthin has announced that several grammars which have already been paid for are unclaimed and still in his possession. These will be delivered as soon as they are called for.

There will be a short review of the essentials of the grammar of the language, and reading will be begun of Esperanto sentences. Students who have attended the classes and meetings for a short period are now far enough advanced to understand simple phrases, and others who wish to join now will experience no difficulty in keeping up with the class. The entire grammar can be learned in an hour or so, according to Dr. Metzenthin.

An Esperanto magazine has been subscribed to, and will be placed in the library. In a very short time the class will be ready to begin discussions in Esperanto, and correspond with Esperantists throughout the world.

Zeta Psi Adds Another

At The Carolina

When Roman Navarro sings a number of ballads in "Devil-May-Care," his first all-talking production, which will be shown at the Carolina theatre today, it will be by no means his debut as a vocal artist.

For years the young Mexican star has been just as greatly interested in the development of his voice as in the starring roles given him at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio. He is one of the few players who, with the coming of sound films, find themselves in the possession of real singing voices.

Navarro, who hopes that sound films will permit famous operas to be brought to the screen effectively has given song recitals for years in Hollywood. But these concerts are not public affairs; they are staged in the star's "Teatro Intime," or little playhouse, built as an adjunct to his beautiful home in Beverly Hills.

The songs in "Devil-May-Care" were written chiefly by Herbert Stothart, composer of the hits of "Rose Marie." Rupert Brook, New York stage expert, assisted in the phonetic details.

The picture, which is a story of Napoleonic intrigue and adventure, was directed by Sidney Franklin, and contains a beautiful scene done in technicolor.

Recorder's Court Has Full Docket Monday

"Mistaken automobile identity" was the sum total of the defense offered by Ray Perry, 25, colored, who was charged with the theft of an automobile. Perry was acquitted.

Eugene Andrews, Chapel Hill plumber, pleaded guilty of installing sewer connections without a permit and paid costs of $5.85.

Annie Johnson, colored, 20, had signed a warrant for the arrest of her fiance, Ernest King, 22, charging him with assault, alleging use of a razor with homicidal intent. When Annie appeared at court, however, her anger at Ernest had cooled so much that she refused to testify against him and was assessed by Judge C. P. Hinshaw with the costs of the case.

Ped Neville, colored, and his estranged wife, Texanna Neville, stood before the bar of justice. Testimony of a policeman disclosed that, in searching for a negro charged with assault, he had entered a colored restaurant and observed Ped pass a bottle of liquor to Texanna, who promptly hid it under her voluminous arm.

"Nosuh, Jedge, dat ain't right nohow," protested Texanna. "Ah was a-comin' to'ard dis place where dey 'rested me, an' ah met up wif some frens. Dey had a gallon, an' dey gived me some in a bottle. But Ah didn' have no stoppah fo' dat bottle, an' Ah jes' steps in fo' tuh git a stoppah. Dat's zac'ly de troof."

Judge Hinshaw sentenced Texana to two months in a colored home, to be suspended upon payment of costs of $15.80 and good behavior for a year.

Ped was given four months on the road, but this sentence was likewise suspended upon a year of good behavior and payment of $20.10 in costs. Joe Couch, student residing on the Durham road, will be careful of his conversation henceforth when a Chapel Hill policeman is the party of the other part.

He drove from the Carolina Inn down Columbia street, at an excessive rate of speed, it is said, and crossed the intersection of Franklin street on a red light. Officer U. M. Rackley stopped him, warned him of the dangers of reckless driving, and allowed him to go upon his way.

A few minutes later the same officer apprehended Couch as he drove too rapidly down Franklin street, and, in recorder's court officer Rackley alleged that Couch spoke without due respect for the law.

After Couch apologized he was assessed the costs of the case and allowed to depart.

"Hit's jus' lak mah husband' tole you-all, suh. We ain't got nothin'—no food er no wood, an' I jes' came tuh ask if you-all know how Ah kin feed mah fo' li' chillun?"

A few minutes later Judge Hinshaw conversed with J. P. Jones, Chapel Hill dentist. The pair investigated, and found nothing resembling food in the Foushee home but a pint of something that appeared to be a mixture of meal and sawdust.

Today, as the result of contributions from friends of the judge and the dentist, Foushee's wife, who has "fits" sometimes, and cannot work steadily, sits before a warm fire and contemplates with pleasure a sizeable woodpile and a well-filled larder.

Navy Wrestling Bout

The Carolina wrestling team went down to defeat before the skilled Navy team last Saturday by the score of 22 to 8 in a meet held at Annapolis. Only two Tar Heels were able to win their matches, Stallings winning by a fall, and Ferguson getting a time advantage over his opponent. Stallings' victory deserves special praise because of the fact that his opponent, Wilbourn, had been on the varsity team three years and never before lost a match. The unlimited match was the most exciting of the meet, the superiority of neither man being shown until the contest was half over when Ferguson began getting time on his adversary, Murphy. From then on Ferguson had everything his own way.

The following are the results of the matches:

- 115-lb. class—Theobald (N.) won fall over Bell (C.) 9:25.
125-lb. class—Stallings (C.) won over Wilbourn (N.) 8:25.
135-lb. class—Goodman (N.) won time decision over Woodard (C.) 2:34.
145-lb. class—Gray (N.) won time decision over Tsumas (C.) 9:11.
155-lb. class—Silverstein (N.) won fall over Moore (C.) 7:40.
165-lb. class—Morton (N.) won time decision over Cowper (C.) 1:40.
175-lb. class—Hughes (N.) won time decision over Houghton (C.) 9:54.
Unlimited—Ferguson (C.) won time decision over Murphy (N.) 6:25.

The varsity will meet V. P. I. at Blacksburg this Saturday. The freshman mat team will meet the Gobbler yearlings this afternoon at Blacksburg.

CHI OMEGA HOLDS ANNUAL INITIATION

The Chi Omega sorority held its annual initiation Friday night and Saturday afternoon at their new home, 307 Franklin street. Following the initiation of the sorority gave a banquet at the Carolina Inn in honor of the new members and the alumnae.

Misses Mary Price, Catherine Sherrard, Mary Burroughs, Ruby Buck, Mary Norcross, Dorothy Foushee, Polly Carter, Edna Morrisette, Ida Curry, Kate Kitchen and Elizabeth Howland were initiated at that time.

Frosh Nominate 15 For Officers; Voting Today

(Continued from first page) to nominations, Ray Farris made a short and impressive talk on the importance of student government. The nominating speeches were spirited and interesting. At the close Farris complimented the class on the interest shown in the smoker and expressed his enjoyment of the occasion. Music was furnished by Alex Mendenhall and his Carolina Tar Heel Boys, Billy Arthur directing.

fine old state. Mr. Williams can believe it if he wishes to, I will not.

Senator Simmons has jumped from one side to the other more than once before in his long and honorable career in the Senate, Mr. Williams. Go and read his record and be wise. Why didn't your Old Line Democrats "get" him before? Senator Simmons has always looked out for his state first. If he thought that a Republican measure would benefit his state he voted for it. He was not stupid enough to refuse a benefit just because it happened to come from the opposite party.

However, the whole argument boils down to this; Mr. Williams and others of his sort are just "sore" because North Carolina along with other Southern states went Republican, and they are trying to shift the blame on someone other than themselves, for after all it is the voters who do the voting, not Senator Simmons. I believe that even Mr. Williams will agree that not Senator Simmons alone was responsible for North Carolina going Republican. So quit your back-biting and let Senator Simmons alone. Attack the new strength of the Republican party within your state, a strength which will continue to grow stronger as your state becomes more industrialized; and attack the fact that Al Smith was a "wet" and another thing that I will not mention, but which you all are aware of.

With this article I shall retire from the field, not because I have been crushed by Mr. Williams' wordiness by any means, but because Senator Simmons does not care a whit for the condemnation of Mr. Williams. His record speaks for itself.

I shall say in closing that I, a Republican, can honestly say that I admire Senator Simmons much more than my own two Senators, not because he supported the Republican side in the late election, for he himself said that anyone was a liar who said that he was a Republican, but I have the innate ability to admire a "man" no matter what his political creed, race or religion be, and Senator Furnifold Simmons is a real man. May he be North Carolina's senator for at least another term!

The Pipe

even helps you say nothing at all...

YOU'VE noticed how expressive the pipe can be, what meaning it can put into the simplest gesture. The pipe even helps you say nothing at all—and that, O mortal, takes a man among men!

Men to their pipes and women to their lipsticks—but suppose you had no pipe and faced repression? Suppose you had no tobacco to put in your pipe! Empty pipes make empty gestures that have no meaning. Filled with good tobacco, your pipe becomes eloquent. Filled with Edgeworth, it is Olympian!

What, no Edgeworth? Lose not a moment—haste to the mails with the coupon. Let the machinery of government rush to you a free packet of good old Edgeworth, delicious and friendly Edgeworth, full-flavored, slow-burning, cool.

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—"Ready Rubbed" and "Plug Slice"—15¢ pocket package to pound humidifier tin.
