

Trackmen Face Hardest Test Of Season In Meet With Penn State Here

Running Events Likely To Feature Intersectional Clash On Emerson Field Saturday.

NUMBER OF FEATURES

Meet Is Most Important On Tar Heel Schedule; Varsity To Seek To Keep Eight Year Dual Meet Record Clean.

Home from the Georgia Tech Relays where they set four of six new records, North Carolina's flying trackmen are working intensively in preparation for Saturday afternoon's imposing home meet with Penn State.

Penn State is obviously the toughest nut the Tar Heels will try to crack this year. The meet will be the biggest intersectional track contest in the south this spring. And to make the thing more important, the Tar Heels will be risking a record of no losses in dual meets that has gone by the boards for eight years.

At Atlanta, Charlie Farmer, Tar Heel sophomore speed merchant, set a new record of 9.8 seconds in the 100-yard dash, and Tar Heel relay teams set new records of 1:29.6 for the half-mile, 3:24.7 for the mile, and 18:28.2 for the four-mile.

Even at this early stage, it seems a sure bet that there will be a great contest between Carolina's speedsters and Penn State's outstanding distance stars.

The Lions will present a well balanced team of veterans that ranked last year as one of the best outfits in the country, but their biggest strength promises to lie in their distance men.

Paul Rekers is I. C. A. A. A. two-mile champion and with C. A. Meisinger, "Dick" Detwiler and others gave Penn State an unbeaten cross-country team last fall. Carolina won its fourth Southern Conference fourth consecutive Southern Conference cross-country title.

The Tar Heels who showed the way and set the pace at Atlanta—Farmer, Slusser, Gay, Nims, Weil, Stafford, Lowry, Baucom, Phoenix and Barkley—may go down in defeat, but the odds are for a great contest in every run.

The University is making special preparations to accommodate a record crowd for this meet, which will be announced over Western Electric broadcasting equipment, and which will be run off on definite time schedule with a number of features for enjoyment of spectators.

TAR HEELS BEAT CAVALIERS 8-5

Carolina Scores Five Runs As A Result of Shortstop's Errors.

The Tar Heel baseball team took the Virginia Cavaliers in tow last Saturday at Charlottesville 8-5 and somewhat avenged the recent 14-1 defeat at the hands of Maryland.

Five Carolina runs came as the result of errors made by the Cavalier shortstop.

The Blue and White team went one run ahead in the seventh inning when Jackson walked, Longest and Davis singled and Whitehead doubled.

The Tar Heels accounted for three more runs in the eighth when Dent muffed Lufty's pop fly, Jackson singled and Longest doubled before the inning was out.

Carolina had only one error to its credit as compared with the eight made by Virginia.

Alabama Here Today

Carolina's tennis players meet tough opposition this afternoon when they play Alabama at 3 o'clock on the Carolina courts. Alabama concludes its northern trip with the matches this afternoon. Yesterday they played Duke in Durham. Practically every member of the Alabama team played on the team last year which did not lose a dual match.

HIGH TRACK AND TENNIS CONTESTS HERE THIS WEEK

North Carolina Athletes Contest Here for Titles In Track And Tennis; Large Number Of Entries.

The 15th annual North Carolina high school tennis tourney will be held here on Thursday and Friday, and the 18th annual North Carolina high school track championships will be held here Friday, both in connection with the University's annual High School Week program.

Late entries flowing in steadily give indication of a large participation in both events. Fifteen high schools had officially entered teams for the track championships yesterday, according to announcement from E. R. Rankin, secretary of the state high school athletic association. Twelve teams had been officially entered for the tennis tourney. The total list of contestants stood just under 200.

The tennis tournament will require two days. Opening rounds will be played on Thursday with semi-finals probably Friday morning and finals Friday afternoon. The track championships will be run off entirely on Friday, field events beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning and track events at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

CAROLINA WINS FIRST PLACE IN GA. TECH RELAYS

Tar Heels Lead With Five First Places; Farmer Stars For Carolina.

With Charlie Farmer racing away from the classiest field of college sprinters in the south to set a new record of 9.8 seconds in the 100 and the Carolina relay teams setting three records, the University of North Carolina delegation won first honors at the Georgia Tech Relays in Atlanta Saturday afternoon. The question in the minds of the spectators was just how far the North Carolina entry would finish in front of the nearest rival. In all events North Carolina led with five first places, while Florida was second with four. Georgia Tech, Mississippi A. & M., and Tulane each won two firsts.

The University half-mile relay team, composed of Slusser, Gay, Nims and Farmer, set a new record of 1:29.6, beating the old mark of 1:32.1 held by Florida. The Tar Heel entry also hung up a new mark in the mile relay. The team composed of Weil, Stafford, Gay and Nims set a new time of 3:24.7, as compared to the old Mississippi A. & M. time of 3:25.2. The Tar Baby two-mile relay team, composed of Watkins, Mitcham, Jones and Jensen, set a new record of 8:22 to better by 18 seconds the existing record.

Charlie Farmer ran the 100 in 9.8 in the heat and again in the finals to better the previous mark of 10 flat held jointly by four men. The ease with which he ran the dashes and the relays has been the basis of predictions on the part of officials and sports writers that the Tar Heel ace will better the best American college marks in later meets this year.

Brodie Arnold, holder of the University record in the pole vault, tied for second in this event, which was won by Munger of Florida, with a vault of 12 feet, 3 1/4 inches. Theron Brown, weight man and broad jumper for the Tar Heels, placed second in the discus, missing first place by about as narrow a margin as is ever seen for this event. He hurled the discus 129 feet 10 3/4 inches, to be nosed out for first place by Coleman of Auburn with a mark of 129 feet 11 inches. Rip Slusser placed third in the 220-yard low hurdles. DeColigny, Tulane, and Whittle of Davidson placed first and second in this event. Perry, after getting off to a bad start in the 120-yard high hurdles, came from behind to take second. Whittle of Davidson, state champion in the hurdles, won this event, and George of Davidson was third.

Ed Hamm of Georgia Tech leaped to a new broad jump record of 24 feet 9 1/2 inches and Sandy Sanford of Georgia broke the high jump record with a jump of 6 feet 3/4 inch.

Manly Scores 16 Runs

Manly walked away with the "J" dormitory team 16 to 3 yesterday afternoon. Allison, pitching for the winning team, hurled a good game and had the "J" batters at his mercy the whole game. The game was replete with errors on both sides.

Dekes Win Another

Behind the splendid hurling of Alexander, D. K. E. defeated Phi Delta Theta 13 to 8. Thomas was the outstanding player on the Phi Delta Theta team, obtaining three of his team's eight runs. The heavy slugging of D. K. E. featured the contest.

PREYER URGES MEN TO STICK TO JOBS

"Don't be ashamed of your first job, give it your best, give more than a day's work for a day's pay, learn all you can about the job ahead, and don't be discouraged," was the substance of the advice given juniors and seniors by A. T. Preyer last night at a meeting of the Taylor society.

Mr. Preyer, who is vice-president and personnel executive of the Vick Chemical Company, spoke under the auspices of the Taylor Society on "After College—What." In his talk he discussed what industry and management expect from the college man, and how the college man can prepare himself for the shock which he will find when he begins work.

The importance of extra-curricular activities was stressed by the speaker who stated that they were of value if they were of the proper kind. He further stated that the self-help student is of particular importance to industry in that he has shown that he has done something other than spend four years in loafing at a collegiate institute.

In answering several questions which were asked after he had finished his talk, Mr. Preyer stated that many new fields, particularly in the small industries, offer great opportunities to the young man, and that whether to take employment with a small concern or with a large one is a matter of personal choice.

A True Friend that money can buy and keep

Money can't buy personal friendships, 'tis true. Your college days will be rich in the friendships that only your personality may win.

But in after years, even the best of friendships alone cannot pave the way to your own financial security.

When you start your career upon the sure foundation of life insurance protection—unchanged by market flurries and ticker-tape worries—you have a long step toward future independence.

To do this while youth and health entitle you to the lowest possible rates, is merely sound business.
