

Annual Net Tournament Will Start This Morning

29 Entries Here From Six Different Colleges; Yeomans Will Defend Singles Title for Carolina.

The annual North Carolina tennis tournament will get under way this morning with 29 of the state's best players, representing six different colleges and universities, here for the contest. Duke, N. C. State, Wake Forest, Lenoir-Rhyne and Davidson will attempt to wrest the singles and doubles titles from Carolina which were won in last year's tourney, and present indications point to an exciting contest.

The first round of singles will start this morning at 10 o'clock, and this afternoon a round of singles and doubles will be run off, beginning at 2 o'clock. Play will continue through Saturday, with finals coming Saturday afternoon.

Ed Yeomans, who showed up exceedingly well against the Davis Cup players at Pinehurst, and who was champion last year, will again defend the singles title. He will also be teamed with Captain Merritt in the doubles. Most of Carolina's hopes are placed on these two men, for the remainder of the Carolina entries are mostly untried rookies.

Singles favorites are Yeomans; Frank of Duke, last year's runner-up; Phillips, who is slated number 1 on the Duke team; and Captain Johnston of Davidson.

Outstanding doubles players are Yeomans and Merritt of Carolina; Johnston and Halverstadt of Davidson; Frank and Rogers, and Phillips and Meyer, of Duke.

The players are paired as follows: Yeomans, U. N. C., with Clemmer, L.-Rhyne; Rogers, Duke, with Baggs, U. N. C.; DeHines, L.-R., with Frank Fletcher, W. F.; Liskin, U. N. C., with Curtis, Duke; Fred Fletcher, W. F., with Frank, Duke; Fain, Davidson, bye.

Johnston, D., with Creech, L.-R.; Vernon, W. F., with Poe, D.; Phillips, Duke, with McLean, D.; Dubois, D., with Wilton Vipard, N.C.S.; Hendlin, N.C., with Lesley Vipard, N. C. S.; Eggleston, W. F., with Graham, U. N. C.; Halverstadt, D., with Farris, Duke; Merritt, U. N. C., with Warren, N. C. S.; Brannon, N. C. S., bye.

For the preliminaries, Yeomans of Carolina was seeded No. 1, Phillips of Duke No. 2, Halverstadt of Davidson, No. 3, and Merritt of Carolina No. 4.

Carolina 7; Davidson 2

Taking four out of six of the singles and all of the three doubles matches, Carolina scored an easy 7-2 victory over the Davidson netmen here yesterday afternoon. Every match except two went to Carolina in straight sets.

In the number one singles Yeomans (C) defeated Captain Johnston (D) 6-0, 6-2. Halverstadt (D) won from Captain Merritt (C) 3-6, 6-3, 6-0. Merritt got off to a good start, but weakened on his defense and let his man get through with the winning sets. Hendlin (C) defeated DuBose (D) 6-1, 6-1. Liskin (C) defeated Fain (D) 6-0, 6-3. Poe (D) won from Graham (C) 6-1, 6-4. Baggs (C) won from McLean (D) 6-4, 6-2.

Carolina went through the doubles matches without difficulty. Merritt and Yeomans won from Johnston and Halverstadt 6-0, 6-2; Hendlin and Liskin defeated Fain and DuBose 6-1, 6-0; Baggs and Graham won from Poe and McLean 6-3,

PENN STATE TO SEND POWERFUL TRACKMEN HERE

Twenty-Two Best Stars Entered For Intersectional Meet Saturday; Baseball With V. P. I. As Doubleheader.

Penn State, one of the leading potates of the eastern track world, will send its 22 best performers against the University here Saturday in an effort to topple the Tar Heel record of no losses in dual meets for eight years.

The Carolina-Penn State meet which will probably be the biggest intersectional track meet to be held in the south this year, will get under way at 2 o'clock, and finish at 3:45, in time for the beginning of the Carolina-V. M. I. baseball game, second event on the big doubleheader.

The Penn Staters mean business, if their entry blanks, which arrived yesterday, are to be taken seriously. With but few exceptions each of the 22 stars entered is to take part in but one event, which means, of course, that each man will be at his top form.

Of 12 men entered for the six sprints and runs from the 100-yard dash on up to the grueling two-mile, only Darlington is to double up, and that will be in the 100 and 220 dashes, which is done ordinarily.

McDowell will double in both hurdles, Captain Mobley will do both broad jump and pole vault, Funke will double in high hurdles and broadjump, and the triple-threat star Shawley will try his hand at throwing all the weights. Otherwise it is a case of a man in each event.

The Tar Heel coaches are grooming their best stars to compete against the invaders, from the record-breaking Charlie Farmer on down to the reserves, and every indication is that the Tar Heels will be able to use full strength Saturday.

TAR HEELS LOSE THIRD STRAIGHT

Carolina Drops Game to V. M. I. 9-3; Whitehead Leads in Batting.

The Tar Heels dropped another tri-state league game when V. M. I. won a 9-3 meet Tuesday afternoon at Lexington. Carolina made its only threat in the third when it scored twice on two doubles and a single. Whitehead, Tar Heel shortstop, led the batting with three hits out of four trips to the plate.

Noble, Cadet pitching ace, relieved Williams in the fourth and held the Tar Heels to a scratch single during the remainder of the game. Biggs of V. M. I. made the only home-run of the game when he clouted out a four-base hit in the sixth. His teammate Hull added a triple in the same inning, while another Cadet, Gillespie, accounted for the other three-base hit.

Coach Ashmore used three Tar Heel hurlers in an attempt to stem the winning V. M. I. tide, but to no avail. Shields, Fleming and Longest faced the V. M. I. batters, with Shields being credited with the loss.

The five runs amassed by the Cadets in the first frame proved the margin of victory, but they bunched hits in the sixth to account for three more runs.

This was the second tri-state win of the season for V. M. I.

Speed Kings in Meet Here

Pictured above are the rival coaches and several stars who will match speed and performances when the Penn State and Carolina track teams clash here Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in what is expected to be the South's biggest intersectional test this season.

SIDELIGHTS

by Sports Editor

ALL OF THE Tar Heel teams saw action last week-end, but reports of the majority of them were received too late to be published in Sunday's issue. Carolina's first place in the Tech Relays lends even more prestige to the Blue and White and raises the prospects for the meet with Penn State. The baseball team somewhat made up for its overwhelming Maryland loss, 14-1, by taking the Cavaliers in tow, 8-5.

CHARLIE FARMER featured twice in the century dash when he lowered the Tech Relay's record for that event to 9.8. The former mark of 10 had been equaled by Charlie in every Tar Heel meet this year. The Associated Press sports writer says: "Farmer, a tall, lithe runner, making his first varsity appearance this year, stepped off his trial heat in record-breaking time and repeated the performance in the finals of the century sprint against the best speedsters the south could offer. Percy Brown, Louisiana State, Southern Conference champion, and Ed Hamm, veteran Georgia Tech ace, failed to place in the final event."

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS further credited Farmer for the largest share of the honors in the record-breaking victory in the half-mile relay for conference teams. Farmer carried the Blue and White from second position in this event to first. The quartet of Slusser, Gay, Nims and Farmer finished the relay in 1:29.06 as compared with the old record of 1:22.1, formerly held by Florida.

GROUNDS for a new gymnasium have been surveyed and several sites seem to be under consideration. Although no funds are available at present, officials are optimistic (rumor).

STATE'S WIN over Duke was perhaps the most outstanding event in North Carolina sport circles for the past week-end. Four home runs featured the game. Ernie Jenkins, Duke hurling ace, was credited with a loss, although only one hit was made off of him. Jenkins relieved McKeithan in the seventh when the count was tied 5-all.

Athletes Win Passes

As a result of points scored in the Georgia Tech relays the following track men have received a month's pass to the Carolina theatre: Weil, Gay, Nims, Stafford and Lowry. This raises the total number of men having passes to fifteen. Those who had scored enough points before the relays to earn a pass were Arnold, Bagby, Baucom, Farmer, Barkley, Brown, Slusser, Perry, Adkins and Manager J. J. Alexander.

At this stage of the season it is necessary to score as many as 11 points in all the meets together to get a pass. As the season progresses the requirement will be raised so as to place a premium on extra effort on the part of those who may be good enough to score consistently. It is necessary to score at least three points every two meets in order to retain the pass.

Beta Theta Pi Wins

Behind the steady pitching of Waddell, the Beta Theta Pi team shut out Sigma Phi Sigma 3-0 yesterday afternoon.

Farris pitched a good game for the losing team, although his support was not of the best. He used a fast ball that gave the Beta batters plenty of trouble.

Race knocked a home-run in the last inning with nobody on, the ball going through both the second baseman and the right fielder.

Intramural Wrestling

The intramural department announces that all entries in the coming wrestling tournament must be in by Friday night.
