

CONTACT MEN TO MEET HERE NEXT YEAR IN SPRING

Bob Madry Will Be Official Host To College Publicity Men.

The American College Publicity Association, which comprises in its membership more than 150 college and university publicity directors representing leading institutions in all sections of the country, is to hold its next annual convention at the University of North Carolina.

The University's invitation to the college publicists to come to Chapel Hill next year was extended by R. W. Madry, director of the University news bureau, who has just returned from New York, where he attended this year's convention, held at New York University.

By virtue of his position as representative of the host institution, Mr. Madry was also elected to serve as convention secretary for the year. He will immediately begin laying plans for next year's meeting which will likely be held in April.

The American College Publicity Association, which until this year was known as the American Association of College News Bureaus, was organized in 1917. This is the first meeting to be scheduled for the University of North Carolina. Two years ago the convention was held at Vanderbilt University.

The new officers of the association are Earl Reed Silvers, of Rutgers University, president; Kenneth Hazlewood, of Hamline University, vice-president; and Don Cresswell of Penn State, secretary-treasurer.

Recorder Hinshaw Sentences Drunks

Pleas of Bill Sharp, law student, who defended Bynum Weaver, colored, in Monday's session of recorder's court, in an action charging public drunkenness, availed but little. Bynum admitted having been drunk, and the young lawyer's argument that his client's offense was his first, that he was a hard worker and well liked did not prevent the levying of a fine of $5 and costs.

Luther Alston, "praying negro" who once prayed himself out of a road sentence, did not fare so well Monday at the hands of Judge C. P. Hinshaw, who sentenced him to 30 days on the roads for public drunkenness, and ordered enforced a previously suspended sentence of 30 days additional. Luther was, however, given the privilege of being "hired out" by the county commissioners. This means that anyone who will pay Orange county 50 cents per day and will feed Luther for 60 days, may have his services, and thus save him from the ignominy of working on the roads.

Tip Craig, colored barber, was fined $10 and costs for drunkenness. Local officers alleged that nearly everyone found one day recently in Tip's barber shop on Franklin street showed evidence of over-indulgence in liquor.

Glee Club At Murfreesboro

Last night the University glee club gave the second of its spring tour programs at Chowan College in Murfreesboro, the first having been at Norfolk, Va., the night before.

Today the club will proceed to New Bern and will appear at the Griffin high school there tonight.

New Dorms, composed of the dormitories of Vance, Battle and Pettigrew, were built in 1912.

CO-EDS DISCUSS PLANS FOR YEAR

The meeting of the Woman's Association Wednesday afternoon at Spencer hall opened with Miss Reeme Moore's interesting report from the I. S. S. G. conference, after which the nominating committee submitted their candidates for the different offices for the Association. The final outcome was as follows: President, Reeme Moore; Vice President, Kate Graham; Secretary, Adelaide McAnally; and Treasurer, Harriet Daniels.

The house president, Sue Dent, submitted for consideration an amendment to the rule of co-eds riding as printed in the indispensable handbook. The members of the association were won over by Miss Dent's inspiring wittisms and the petition went through.

Ida Currie was elected President of the Athletic Association. It was voted to appropriate fifty dollars to be used for tennis and track this season.

Final plans for the Co-ed dance on May 9 were made. Beth Colley announced that tickets would be on sale until Tuesday and that the committee hoped to get "Jelly" Leftwich and his orchestra to play.

CAROLINA RADIO DEBATE WILL BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Making the second time in the annals of the University that the Carolina debating team has broadcast over the air, the Tar Heel rhetorical representatives will meet the University of Virginia contestants in Raleigh tonight from 7:15 to 8:15. The debate will be broadcast over station WPTF at the Sir Walter hotel.

The subject of the debate is a timely one, prominent in the League of Nations conference and with all the prominent business firms in the country, namely: "Resolved, that the thirteen month calendar should be universally adopted."

W. W. Speight will lead the local argumentative artists for the second time over the electric waves. It will be remembered that he made his debut to radio in a debate with the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, Va., last April. He will be assisted by Allan Lowenstein, a freshman, with H. H. Hobgood serving as rebuttal speaker.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS FINED BY RECORDER

Praying Negro Fails to Pray Himself Out of Trouble.

Edwin Caldwell, colored, made a sharp turn from Franklin street, but was driving so rapidly that he ran into the yard of the negro Methodist church, whereupon he was arrested by officer's John D. Blake and U. R. Rackley. He was charged with reckless driving and assessed the costs.

Mrs. T. J. Wilson, Jr., wife of the registrar of the University, was assessed with costs of an action in recorder's court Monday morning charging her with violation of a local traffic ordinance. Mrs. Wilson pleaded guilty to having parked her car in a forbidden area.

J. M. Abernethy, who gave his address as Hickory, N. C., was fined $15 and costs for reckless driving. He was apprehended last week while driving through the business district of Chapel Hill at 40 miles per hour.

Raymond Chatham, a student, secured a dismissal of a charge of parking his car at an angle of 90 degrees to the curb instead of 45 degrees required by ordinance. Chatham established the fact that he had not been driving the car when it was so parked.

JUNIUS PARKER TO ADDRESS LAW SCHOOL MEMBERS

Invitations are being mailed today by the law school to 2000 lawyers and judges of the state to attend the public lectures to be given next week by Junius Parker of New York. Mr. Parker's lectures deal with the great questions of government regulation of industry. Mr. Parker, who has been general counsel for the American Tobacco Company—the dissolution of which under the anti-trust laws was termed an attempt to "unscramble scrambled eggs"—has had a long and varied experience as a lawyer in guiding business through the dangerous channels formed by government regulations.

Three lectures will be given by Mr. Parker under the general title "Business and the State." The first will be Monday night at 8:30 at the law building, and the others at the same hour on the two following nights.

The Cercle Francais will hold its April meeting this evening at 7:30 in the Episcopal parish house. Dr. Fenley, who was in France last summer and last fall, will give a petit discours of interest to all students of French. There will be only one more meeting of the Cercle this spring. An invitation is extended to all who are interested in French, and especially spoken French, to attend these last two "reunions."

Infirmary List

The infirmary had five patients yesterday though none were seriously ill. Dave Nams, who has been a patient for quite a while, is suffering from an infected toe which has kept him from participating in track, and T. H. Pomlinson, Jimmie Williams, L. Q. Plumblee, and Charlie Waddell are all kept in bed because of colds.

The men who will be on the job Monday will remain there seven weeks in accordance with the plan of cooperative work for the junior class under the direction of A. R. Hollett. They will report June 9 back for summer school work.

THIRTEEN TAKEN INTO HOLY GRAIL

Although the purpose of the order is to reward sophomores for outstanding ability shown in their two years on the campus, the members of the group saw fit to include three juniors in the group this year.

The announced purpose of the Order of the Holy Grail reads: "To destroy group and social barriers so that the interests of the campus as a whole may be advanced. To unify all sections of the University."

In pursuance of the above ideals the Grail awards annually Grail athletic-scholarship cups to the members of each major sport excelling in scholarship, to the freshman athlete excelling in scholarship, and to the best-all-round intramural athlete.

The Order of the Holy Grail also sponsors nine Grail dances throughout the school year, three
