

Athletes Of Nine Southern Prep Schools Are Here For Annual Track And Field Day

100 CONTESTANTS

Cream of South's Material Will Attack Existing Records on Emerson Field Today.

EXTRA EVENTS ARRANGED

A.M.A. Favored By Dopesters; Prep Stars Expected to Rival College Performances; Meet Begins at Two O'clock.

More than 100 of the south's best prep school trackmen will compete in the fourth annual southern prep school track and field meet today. The meet is to be held on Emerson field, beginning at 2 o'clock.

The prep school stars, who come from nine schools representing almost every district of the central south, will begin their assault on the prep school records simultaneously with the beginning of the final rounds of the Southern Conference varsity meet at Birmingham, in which the North Carolina team is one of the leading contenders.

There will also be two special exhibition events during the meet. The first will be a special three quarters of a mile race between Jensen, Jones, Cordle and Hubbard, Tar Baby distance stars, and Williamson of High Point, state champion in the mile and half mile. Jensen, Jones and Cordle competed in such a race during the Penn State meet with Galen Elliott, Charlotte track coach who set the Southern Conference and U. N. C. record for the mile while a student here, with Jensen coming out the winner.

The other special feature of the meet will be a special 100-yard dash to be contested among the members of the freshman class. Drane, Stafford, Marland, Geiger and Wornom of the Tar Baby track team are scheduled to run in this event. Coach Dale Ranson says, however, that any other speedy member of the freshman squad who wishes to enter may do so.

Augusta Military Academy reigns as favorite team among the dopesters today, but the field is admittedly one of the strongest ever to compete in the annual meet, and the Virginia lads will have tough going.

The Augusta stars include Weisker, sprinter and broad jumper; Bowman, half miler and miler; Goodwin, hurdler and broad jumper; Copps, shot putter; Founds and Humphries, vaulters; and Mosely and Goodwin, high jumpers.

Asheville School, Greenbriar, Danville Military Institute, Staunton Military Academy and Georgia Military Academy are all sending equally large delegations, any of which may nose the Augusta team out. Hargrave, Blackstone and Monroe A. & M. will have smaller contingents competing.

Many of the prep schools which will compete boast stars who have turned in marks that rival college performances, and today's meet promises more than its quota of star performances. Woodman of Blackstone, for instance, has thrown the discus within a half-inch of 130 feet; Weisker of Augusta has broad-jumped 21 feet 7 1/2; Bowman of Augusta has done 1,000 yards indoors in the fast time of 2 minutes 27 2-5, and so on.

Others who will be especially watched include Degarimore, sprinter of Georgia Military Academy; Glenn, hurdler of Asheville School; and Winters, Greenbriar broad jumper.

The meet entries and results will be announced through the University's loudspeaker broadcasting system.

DENTAL ECONOMICS IS TO BE SUBJECT FOR FIFTH CLINIC

The fifth lecture and clinic of the 1930 postgraduate extension course in dentistry, being conducted by the North Carolina Dental Society and the University extension division, will be presented the week of May 18 at six extension classes, throughout the state by Dr. Albert L. Midgley, dental practitioner of Providence, R. I., according to R. M. Grumman, director of the extension division.

Under the subject of "Dental Economics" Dr. Midgley will discuss the educational, professional and civic activities of the dental practitioner. The values of intelligently trained and well directed office assistants and the conduct of office practice will also be touched upon in the lecture.

Dr. Midgley is very prominently identified with the organized dental profession, being the secretary of the American College of Dentists and actively engaged in the work of the Dental Educational Council of America.

Classes for dentists are organized at Greenville, Raleigh, Greensboro, Charlotte, Winston-Salem and Asheville.

Hibbard at Northwestern

Dean Hibbard left Chapel Hill Wednesday to deliver a lecture at Northwestern University.

No admission will be charged to any one, and it is hoped that the attendance will be quite large.

Four places will count in the scoring in this meet, each school being allowed to enter only three men in each event.

Special notice is called to the coaches' meeting. All coaches are asked to be at Emerson field at 11 o'clock this morning.

The meet will be run off on a time schedule as follows:

SHELBY DEFEATS HAMLET 11-2 FOR BASEBALL TITLE

Hard Hitting by Winners and Errors By Losers Make Contest One-Sided.

Defeating Hamlet 11-2 yesterday afternoon on Emerson field, Shelby high school laid claim to the state class B baseball title for the second time in succession and the fourth time since 1923. Seven errors in fielding by Hamlet aided the Shelby boys materially in rolling up the top-heavy score. Tallying in every inning except the fifth and seventh the Westerners made a steady march through Hamlet, holding a lead throughout that was never threatened.

The Shelby boys pounded out the offerings of Brown with un-failing regularity to total 11 hits before the play was over. Philbeck, left fielder, drove out the longest hit of the day. A long drive into right field with the bases loaded in the third cleared up the sacks and left Philbeck parked on third with a triple to add to his batting average. Hamrick, pitcher, and Harrelson, first base, for Shelby each made connection with the ball for three singles. Brown, Hamlet hurler, was the only other man able to land more than one base blow, getting singles in the fourth and ninth.

Crowell came in from center field in the eighth to relieve Brown on the mound after two Shelby men had been put down and the next three had singled in succession. Crowell retired the only man to face him on an infield play.

ALUMNI TO MEET AT COMMENCEMENT

Eleven Classes Will Observe Tradition and Custom At Annual Gathering.

The presidents of the 11 University classes which will meet in reunion this commencement will speak for their respective classes at the meeting of alumni in Gerrard hall at 10:30 o'clock on June 9.

Practically all of the 11 class officers have signified their intention of being in Chapel Hill for their class reunions. The 10:30 o'clock meeting has been presided over for years by Judge Francis D. Winston, and he will again be in the chair.

The classes which come back this June are: 1830, for its 50th reunion; 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1905, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, and 1929. The 1905 graduates reunite for the 25th time, while this will be the first meeting of the class of 1929.

The chief commencement marshal for the alumni is Dr. Hubert Haywood of Raleigh. Dr. Haywood is a member of the class of 1905, and was chief marshal at the commencement of his junior year at the University.

BULLOCK PITCHES FOR LAMBDA CHI

Winners to Play New Dorms, Dormitory Champs, for Intramural Title.

S. A. E. could do little with "Bob" Bullock and Lambda Chi Alpha defeated S. A. E. yesterday afternoon by the score of 7-4. Bullock allowed four hits and fanned eight men. Waterhouse was pounded for nine safe blows which was climaxed in the fourth when Lambda Chi Alpha scored five runs to sew up the game and the fraternity championship.

Bowman was the hitting star of the game, garnering two hits out of two times at bat. Bullock won his own game in the fourth when he tripled with two on base. S. A. E. rallied in the last inning but was cut short after two markers had been chalked up when Waterhouse fanned.

Lambda Chi Alpha will play New Dorms for the intramural championship next week. These two teams were the finalists last year with Lambda Chi Alpha the winner. The batteries will probably be; for New Dorms—Moore and Williamson; for Lambda Chi Alpha—Bullock and Prevost.

Team	R	H	E
L. Chi A.	110	50	7 9 3
S. A. E.	200	02	4 4 4

Batteries: for Lambda Chi Alpha—Bullock and Prevost; for S. A. E.—Waterhouse and Farleigh.

TAR HEELS WILL MEET OLD JINX, 'LEFTY' JENKINS

Diminutive Blue Devil Has Beaten Carolina Five Times; To Pitch Today.

Can the hard-hitting Tar Heels beat their old jinx "Lefty" Jenkins, when Carolina and Duke mix on Hanes field in Durham this afternoon?

If they can, they will be one up on the field contesting the hot "Big Five" titular race. If they can't, Duke will be one up.

The little Duke hornet has never bowed to the Tar Heels. In fact, he has beaten them five times in three seasons, for Duke has always saved their best for the Tar Heels.

The last time they met, however, the slugging Tar Heels nicked him for eight hits, something that doesn't always happen to Jenkins. Duke won the slugging duel, but not before the Tar Heels had blasted the myth about Jenkins' invincibility.

Since that time the Tar Heels have been gaining their own reputation for hitting the best pitchers the hardest.

They knocked out "Lefty" Lanning, Wake Forest's ace, twice, and beat Bill Averette, the righthand Wolf who beat Duke.

The Tar Heels are back on even terms with Duke in the state titular race, and playing their best ball of the season.

Mr. Jenkins may close his anti-Tar Heel career with a sixth victory over the Tar Heels, but it's a cinch he'll have a lively fight today that will produce some mighty interesting ball.

Either Paul Edwards or Frank Fleming, the two Tar Heel aces, will oppose Jenkins on the mound today, according to who is "right and ready" in Coach Jim Ashmore's opinion.

In March 1836 the two literary societies and the faculty reached an agreement whereby the libraries of the societies should be combined with that of the University. The official title then chosen was "Library of the University of North Carolina endowed by the Dialectic and Philanthropic societies.

CAROLINA TEAM IS ALL SET FOR DURHAM BATTLE

Claim for Big Five Title To Be Settled in Duke Game Today.

A light workout yesterday, climaxed a tough siege of pointing for one game, and the house of the Tar Heel baseball team was in order and everything set for today's crucial game with Duke's Blue Devils in Durham. The game is to be called at 3:15 o'clock.

On this game the Tar Heels' chances of a Big Five title will hinge. The Carolina nine is in tip-top shape, playing its best ball of the season, and is determined to give the Devils a great battle.

Either Paul Edwards or Frank Fleming will be on the mound for the Tar Heels. Coach Jim Ashmore, taking no chances, has groomed both stars and will start the one who seems "right and ready" tomorrow.

Opposing Edwards or Fleming on the mound for Duke will undoubtedly be "Lefty" Jenkins, superb little Duke southpaw, who gained offers from several big league clubs because of his stellar work on the Devils' northern trip.

Because Jenkins will be the Duke pitcher, the game will mean more to the Tar Heels than a shot at a Big Five title. The Tar Heels will be trying also to break a three-year spell cast over them by Jenkins.

In three seasons Carolina and Duke have tied up on the diamond five times; Jenkins has pitched all five games, and the Tar Heels have yet to beat the portside star.

They have hit him hard on several occasions, and in the first Carolina-Duke game this year touched him for eight hard blows, but still lost.

The Tar Heels, by knocking Wake Forest's Lanning out of the box twice and by beating Averette, State's conqueror of Duke, have gained a reputation of late for hitting the best pitchers hardest. They will be laying for Jenkins in his final game against Carolina tomorrow, and the duel should be interesting, regardless of who wins.

Jenkins' jinx over Carolina recalls a similar jinx which "Lefty" Wilson of Carolina held for Duke. In four years of pitching Duke never beat Wilson. In his final game in 1928, Duke knocked him out in the ninth and piled up a three-run lead, but Casey Morris came up in Carolina's half of the final inning and knocked a homer with the bases full to preserve the jinx.

Will Jenkins have the same luck, or can the Tar Heels break the magic spell?

The Tar Heels' starting line-up, which will be trying to do just that thing will probably be Captain Maus, c; Brown, 1b; Jackson, 2b; Whitehead, ss; Luffy, 3b; Davis, lf; Potter, cf; and House, rf.

Bradshaw Completes Series Of Talks On Vocational Subject

Dean Bradshaw has just returned from a visit to Davidson College where he conducted two faculty discussions on methods of providing educational and vocational guidance for college students.

This concluded a series of such discussions which he began at Davidson College at the request of the faculty there last February. Similar seminars were held by Dean Bradshaw at the University of Florida last year and at the University of South Carolina.

Mangum Swamps Everett

Mangum completely swamped the Everett nine 12 to 1 in a slow and uninteresting game yesterday afternoon. The losers played a poor game on the field, and let in several unearned runs for Mangum.

Witkins' triple in the last frame scoring Bloom who had just singled, saved Everett from a "shut-out."
