

A Gas Station Contest

Prizes Offered for the Greatest Improvement in Appearance

The citizenship committee of the Community Club, of which Mrs. J. M. Valentine is chairman, has inaugurated a beautification contest among the filling stations in Chapel Hill township. For the greatest improvement in the next year there will be a first prize amounting to $10 donated by Colonel and Mrs. Pratt and six evergreen shrubs donated by W. C. Coker. For the second prize Mr. Coker has given six shrubs.

Members of the committee are visiting filling stations on all the roads leading out of the village and are enlisting the interest of the owners.

Upon application to Mr. Coker every station owner in the township who enters this contest may have at once, without cost, ten sweet-breath-of-spring shrubs to plant about his station. Also, the botanist will give him information about planting and cultivating them.

The citizenship committee's main work this next year will be to promote the beautification of highways. It will try to enlist the co-operation of business men in ridding the highways of advertising signs.

PUGILISTS EXPECT TO HAVE STRONG TEAM THIS YEAR

Charlottesville, Virginia. Although not a heavy hitter, Goodridge has a weaving style and enough speed to make him one of the toughest men in the South.

With six men in the running, the welterweight class is the most uncertain division at present. Jimmy Gatlin and Jack Farris, from the 1930 varsity; Billy Stallings, Cecil Jackson and Nat Lumpkin, up from the freshmen; and Holderness, winner of the intramural tournament, are working in this weight. All have a good chance to win. These men are already hard at work, and Coach Rowe is giving them special attention in the hope of finding a suitable successor to Archie Allen.

Among the middleweights, the veteran, Obie Davis, will find stiff opposition in Tom Parsons and Bill Miller. Last winter Davis was bothered by colds a great part of the time and was under weight. Parsons, star of the 1929 freshman team, was idle on account of a football injury. Both expect to be in good shape this season, making this one of the strongest weights.

John Warren will probably move up to the heavyweight division, leaving the lightweight berth open to Platt Landis, another sophomore knock-out specialist. Landis is now out for football. Hugh Wilson, another sophomore, will also fight as a heavyweight. He scored two knock-outs last year, and is looking much better this season.

With such material as this, Coach Rowe hopes to add another championship to his string, and put Carolina back on top of the Southern boxing heap. Several of the men are already working out while the rest will be called on to report within a few weeks.

Three heavyweight pugilists, according to a sports writer, have salted away more than a million dollars each. Barnum was right.—Dayton Journal.

Intramural Schedule

Wake Forest 7; State 0

Quillan's line plunge from the four-yard line for a touchdown in the second quarter gave the Wake Forest Deacons its margin of victory over N. C. State's Wolfpack yesterday, 7-0, in their annual "Fair Classic" at Riddick Field, Raleigh.

In addition to scoring the lone touchdown, Quillan played a stellar game offensively and defensively.

TEACHER ENTERS POLITICAL ARENA

New York, Oct. 15.—Professor Robert P. Carroll, of Syracuse University, has been selected by the newly formed "Law Preservation Party," of New York state as its gubernatorial candidate to oppose Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democrat, and Charles H. Tuttle, Republican nominee.

The wet party was formed after the Republican State Convention went "wet" and nominated one of the outstanding modificationists in the country for its candidate. The new party is made up for the most part of dry Republicans.

"GOOD NEWS" IS TALKIE VERSION OF STAGE HIT

"Good News," which will open today at the Carolina theatre, was produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer under direction of Edgar MacGregor and Nick Grinde, with Bessie Love in the featured role.

This is a production of unusual interest, because it brings to the screen the famous Broadway success by Lawrence Schwab and B. G. DeSylva intact with many of the original cast appearing in supporting roles.

Edgar MacGregor, who co-directed, produced the original stage presentation, as well as many other New York hits, including the recent "Desert Song," "New Moon" and "Follow Thru."

THREE KICKOFFS BECOME SCORES

In three Eastern football games Saturday, opening kick-offs were run back for touchdowns by speedy backfield men. In the Yale bowl, Austin Downes of Georgia took the ball on his own twenty yard line and traveled the rest of the field without being stopped. At Baker field, New York, Ralph Hewitt of Columbia received the kick-off ten yards out from the Lion's goal line and sped the remaining ninety yards for the score. And at State College, Pennsylvania, Penn State's right halfback, Evans, did the same thing, covering ninety-eight yards.

and punting halfback who was another of the crosses the Tar Heels had to bear in that game, Marian Dickens, Armin Waugh, Johnny Davidson, other halfbacks, and Austin Downes, Georgia's cool-headed quarterback, are all back this year. And in addition to all this the Bulldogs have a line that was one of the strongest in the conference last year, including among its numbers the famed red-heads, Lea-thers and Maddox, guards; Bobby Rose and Earl Lynn, tackles; Captain Herb Maffett and Catfish Smith, All-American ends; and Spero Tassapoulas, pudgy little regular center.

Add to all that a combination of sophomore linemen who have shown themselves the equals of the veterans, two sophomore full backs who are expected to furnish thrills in every game they appear, and you have a strong Bulldog team that will be hard to beat any day in the week. Buster Mott and Homer Keys, diminutive and youthful sophomores, also rated as two of the outstanding halfback prospects in the South are expected to see service in the Tar Heel game.

While Georgia has what experts say is probably their greatest team in recent years, the Tar Heels are being rated now as one of the few teams that stand a chance to win the Southern conference championship this year. With Johnny Branch, the great Carolina back who scintillated across the conference horizon last fall, the Tar Heels have a scoring there that would be a thorn in the side of any team with even mediocre players to aid him. And with Johnny Branch in the backfield along with Nash and Magner, two other veteran stars, and probably the greatest line North Carolina has ever had, football fans who journey to Athens next Saturday may be treated to the greatest thrill of the year.

varsity. They will open up with all they have Saturday and, with any kind of cooperation, they should score some points.

Although no definite selection has been made as to the starting line-up, it is probable that these men will be included: Harrington and Brandt, ends; Mulligan and Mullis, tackles; Barkley and McIver, guards; Parker, center. The backfield with these will include Woolen, quarterback, and Hackney, Guffrey, and Phipps. These men may start but the coaches plan to use as many men as possible in an effort to uncover any possibilities for coming varsity service.

and Bud McIver's shoulder has been giving him some trouble, but these men are expected to see a great deal of action before the game is over Saturday afternoon.

In the final workout before leaving for Georgia, the Tar Heels spent the afternoon drilling on defense for Coach Harry Mehre's plays. The freshmen, running Georgia plays, succeeded in getting through the varsity for several substantial gains, and the backs were off in covering passes, but the line from tackle to tackle showed up better than it has in recent scrimmages. An end play after a delayed pass from behind the line gave the Tar Heel ends some trouble for a while.

At the close of practice Coach Collins told the squad that one slip because of doing something wrong or of not doing it right would prove disastrous, and that spotting the Bulldogs a touchdown as they did Maryland and

V. P. I. would mean sure defeat.

He seemed to be pleased that the Atlanta papers have not been praising the Tar Heels since Georgia so badly beat Yale, for he likes to have his team go into the game with the attitude that they are up against an eleven which will require every bit of power that they can exert.

"If you go into that game with the listless attitude which you have shown in some recent practices," said Coach Collins, "you are going to get a bad licking. But if you get in there and fight like you are capable of fighting, you will win the game."

Intramural Results

Sigma Phi Sigma Wins

The Sigma Phi Sigma team outplayed the Chi Psis to win by the wide margin of 19 to 0. It was the Sigma Phi Sig's game the whole way through. Their passwork kept the ball in the Chi Psi's area most of the time, and their defense managed to hold the Chi Psi advance in safe territory when that team had the ball.

Phi Gams Swamp Sigma Zeta

The Phi Gam-Sigma Zeta game was turned into a track meet yesterday afternoon with the Phi Gams doing most of the running, and scoring 32 points against a blank for the Sigma Zetas. Marsey and Bryant were star dash men for Phi Gamma Delta, both getting off to runs of 40 and 60 yards that were too much for the Sigma Zeta boys. Bryant, of Sigma Zeta, played a nice game for his team, netting them two first downs.

Zeta Beta Tau forfeited to D. K. E.

WEDNESDAY'S RESULTS

S. P. E. Forfeits

The Sigma Nu fraternity won from the S. P. E.'s Wednesday afternoon in the intramural football league by forfeit.

Chi Phi Wins by Forfeit

Chi Phi won by forfeit when the S. A. E.'s failed to wait for the referee to appear.

Another Forfeit

Lambda Chi Alpha won by forfeit when the Pi Kappa Phi's failed to appear.

Ruffin Wins 20-0

Lewis was unable to stop the strong passing attack of Ruffin tag football team and Ruffin won 20-0. Riggs, MacBride, Royster and Bethune starred for Ruffin. MacBride's 30-yard run, "A La Johnny Branch," was the prettiest play of the game.

Graham Wins From Grimes

Graham defeated Grimes 12-0 in a game which was much closer than the score indicates. It looked like a tie until Jacobs blocked one of Grimes' punts and Cohen fell on it for Graham's first score. Legore scored the other touchdown on a line play.
