

ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITIES TO MEET HERE NEXT

Carolina Will Be Host to Convention in 1931.

According to a telegram received at the office of the graduate school, from Dean W. W. Pierson, the Association of American Universities will be the guests of the University of North Carolina at its next annual meeting in 1931.

For the past week Dean Pierson has been attending the annual meeting of this association which has been held at the University of California. The California university, together with Leland Stanford University, was the host at this year's convention.

Dean Pierson, who is a member of the executive committee of the association, was required to attend a meeting before the opening of the convention. He also had a part on the program of the organization. Dr. Pierson presented a paper on "Summer Schools." In his paper he enumerated several of the evils of the summer schools, and suggested certain remedies for these wrongs.

Dr. Pierson is expected to return to the campus sometime toward the latter part of this week.

Crane On Inspection Tour of Institutions

Dr. Harry W. Crane, professor of psychology, is engaged in an inspection of private and state institutions for nervous and mental cases. He has completed his task in the western part of the state. The inspection included the State Hospital and the Broad Oaks Sanitarium at Morganton, Appalachian Hall at Asheville, Beallmont Sanitarium at Black Mountain, and Glenwood Park Sanitarium in Greensboro. The work, which is being done for the state board of charity and public welfare, will be extended to the eastern district later.

At the invitation of the Charlotte supervisor of special classes, Dr. Crane will visit the special classes maintained in connection with the Charlotte Public Schools this Friday. On the following day, he will address the South Piedmont Association of special class teachers on "The Character of the Feeble Minded."

DR. JOHNSON TO SPEAK ON SLEEP EXPERIMENTS

Dr. H. M. Johnson, head of the Simmons Investigation of Sleep which is being conducted at the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research in Pittsburgh, will give an illustrated lecture on "Some Recent Experiments on Sleep" in Phillips hall at eight o'clock on the evening of November sixth.

On the fifth Dr. Johnson will address the local psychological fraternity, Alpha Psi Delta.

Enka Chemist Visits Departmental Heads

Paul W. Frisk, chief chemist for the American Enka Corporation at Asheville, spent yesterday with Mr. Baity, head of the department of sanitary engineering, and Thorndyke Saville, head of the department of conservation and development here.

He discussed with these men the problems regarding water treatment at the plants of the Company in Enka, N. C.

Visiting Professor

REINHOLD NIEBUHR

Reinhold Niebuhr, professor of applied Christianity at Union Theological Seminary in New York City and editor of "World Tomorrow," will deliver a sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning. An aggressive participant in liberal social movements including the Socialist party, he is gaining international recognition for his dynamic wisdom.

FRESHMEN TAKE STAND FOR LOW GRID-GRAPH FEE

At the freshman friendship council meeting Monday night, it was asked that the council aid during the Georgia Tech-Carolina game. Thirty men volunteered to act as guides and traffic directors Saturday. They will be given duty sometime during the week by Ed Lanier at the Y.

The council announced that 45 new members had been added to the roll making a complete membership of more than 125. The new members were introduced to the old.

A report of the committee of the "Speak, Greet, Meet Week" was given by W. A. Allsbrook, who explained the plans for the week to the new members.

A very interesting discussion was held concerning students rushing gates and windows of the grid-graph last Saturday. The students claimed that if a reduction of prices would be affected that no procedure as happened in the Tennessee game would follow in the future games.

Knight Will Survey Chinese Education

Dr. Edgar W. Knight of the school of education has been granted leave of absence for a period of two quarters, in which he will visit China. He will do research work in studying educational systems in China. Knight will be accompanied by his wife and family. Dr. Knight is planning to leave from San Francisco on the first of December.

PRINCETON TO CONTINUE RESEARCH IN MONTANA

Princeton, October 28—The geology department of Princeton University is making plans to continue its research in the vicinity of Red Lodge in Southern Montana, where members of the department made important geological finds during the past summer.

The first dinosaur eggs ever found on this continent were discovered there this summer.

Detailed reports are now being prepared on discoveries in this region, and another expedition will go out next summer.

Y WILL SOLICIT FACULTY PLEDGES

Junior-Senior Cabinet Will Be In Charge of Subscriptions From Teaching Staff.

At the meeting of the junior-senior Y cabinet Monday night Doug Kincaid and Sam Gorham, representatives of the Y at the state student volunteer retreat held in Winston-Salem, gave short talks on different subjects of the assembly. Kincaid told the group something of the talks and program of the conference. He stressed the talks of Dr. Russell, of Duke University, and a Duke co-ed. Sam Gorham talked of the technical points in the organization. He told the group something of the work of the volunteers and suggested that a similar student volunteer group be organized at Carolina.

Ed Hamer reported on the meeting of the state student Y cabinet which was held in Greensboro last week. Hamer is president of this organization and told the group something of the work for the ensuing year.

F. M. James, treasurer of the Y, explained to the council the annual finance campaign to be held by the Y this week among the faculty of the University. James gave each member the names of the ten faculty members whom he is to see for the purpose of getting subscriptions to the Y.

A discussion followed concerning the plans for the quadrennial human relations institute. The last institute met on the

WRIGHT LECTURES AROUSE COMMENT

George H. Wright, prominent member of the Asheville Bar and one of the leading real estate lawyers of western North Carolina, recently aroused great enthusiasm among the students and faculty of the law school, by a series of lectures on "Abstracting Land Titles". These lectures were delivered under the auspices of the Law School Association. The officers of the Association are James A. Williams, Hendersonville, president; Martin Kellogg, Sunbury, president of the third year class, McDonald Gray, Statesville, president of the second year class, A. T. Allen, Jr., Raleigh, president of the first year class, James H. Chadbourn, Wilmington, Editor-in-Chief of the North Carolina Law Review, Peyton B. Abbott, Winston-Salem, and Moore Bryson, Asheville, representatives at large, advisors. Albert Coates of the law school faculty is the organizer and director of the Association.

PHI DELTA THETA HOUSE SECURES NEW MOTHER

Within the past few days, Mrs. Lillian M. Florence has established her residence here, as house mother for the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, replacing Mrs. Lillie Williams, Hendersonville, of last year. A native of Boston, Mrs. Florence has lived in that city, in New York, and in Chicago. During the past five or six years she has spent the winters in the South, and for three years has made an annual trip to Durham during the winter. Now, as last year, three fraternities on the Hill have house mothers: Phi Delta Theta, Pi Kappa Phi, and Beta Theta Pi. President Graham desires that every campus social order adopt this form of management.

GRAHAM TO TALK AT SCOTCH RALLY

Presbyterians From Entire State To Assemble in Cumberland Today.

Bluff Church, in Cumberland county, will be the scene of a huge Scottish rally today at 11 o'clock when President Graham of the University gives the main address of the occasion on "The Relation of the Scotch to Education and the University." President Graham plans to show the influence of the Scotch on education in the state from the earliest days of colonization until the present, and to show how instrumental they were in the education progress of the state. His address will point out the numerous institutions in North Carolina that were fostered by the Scotch and the important part the Scotch played in establishing a university for the state.

This rally is drawing people of Scottish ancestry from all parts of the state, and is expected to exceed in size anything of its kind ever attempted. Bluff Church was selected for the assembly because of its significance in the Scotch history of North Carolina, that of being one of the oldest Presbyterian churches in the state.

Infirmiry List

There were three people confined in the infirmary yesterday, all suffering from colds. They were: V. L. Briggs, L. C. Plumly, and C. R. Harrington.

DINNER MEETING OPENS ASSEMBLY

The University of North Carolina will be host to the delegates of the Southern Conference on Education at a dinner meeting in the dining-room of the Carolina Inn, at eight o'clock tomorrow evening at which time President Frank Graham of the University will deliver the address of welcome and Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, President of the University of Chicago, will give the principal speech of the opening meeting.

The delegates to the conference, the deans and heads of departments of the University, the Educational Conference Committee, the advisory and executive committees of the University, the faculties of the law and education schools, graduates of the University of Chicago, and Chapel Hill people who are entertaining out of town guests for the conference, will be guests at the dinner. Seats in the balconies around the dining-room will be provided for those who desire to hear the speeches but who cannot be accommodated at the dinner.

DORMITORIES NOW HOLD 1251 PERSONS

According to figures just compiled by M. L. Thompson, of the business office, 1251 students are housed by the University this year, leaving only seventy-three vacancies in the dormitories. This does not include Spencer hall which is filled to its capacity of seventy-five. This leaves 1279 men students of the total enrollment of 2560 to find accommodations in fraternity houses, and the various rooming houses of Chapel Hill. One hundred and thirteen of the 188 co-eds enrolled are housed by sororities and rooming houses.

Guest Speaker

ROBERT M. HUTCHINS

Robert M. Hutchins, youthful president of the University of Chicago, will speak here Thursday at the annual Southern Educational Conference. At the age of twenty-nine he became Dean of the Yale Law School. He is now thirty-one.

FRESHMEN HEAR SENIORS EXPOUND ABOUT FRIENDSHIP

The observance of Speak-Greet-Meet-Week was begun yesterday with the presentation of the idea by Ed Hamer, H. N. Patterson, and Noah Goodridge to the freshmen at the chapel hour.

Patterson put forward the old tradition of speaking to everyone and asked the whole freshman class to cooperate with the Freshmen Friendship Council in upholding this tradition.

Noah Goodridge stated that he wished to warn freshmen against any timidity that they might feel toward their fellow students by his example in losing the better part of his freshmen year because he entertained this shy and scared feeling.

Hamer impressed the fact upon each student at Carolina that he is supposed to be a gentleman and to respect and speak to all others as being such. He put forward the enviable custom of greeting each other always as "Gentlemen" that the Washington-Lee students have cultivated. A caution was given to the freshmen not to allow upper classmen to over-awe them.

Officer's Hand Injured While Making Arrest

While trying to subdue his prisoner, G. W. Hill, who was arrested for drunkenness recently, motorcycle officer U. M. Rackley sustained a cut hand. The prisoner had become unruly and attempted to resist arrest; in order to place him in jail the officer was obliged to hit him in the mouth. This resulted in the loss of two of Hill's front teeth and a cut hand for Rackley. Rackley's hand has become infected and it is likely that he will be incapacitated for a few weeks.

GET TICKETS FOR NEXT GAME AT Y

Students may obtain their tickets to the Tech-Carolina game by bringing their pass books to the Y. M. C. A. either Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday at chapel period, or between the hours of 2 and 5 in the afternoon. These pass books must also be presented at the gate. Saturday to gain admittance.

HUTCHINS WILL ADDRESS ANNUAL EDUCATION MEET

President of the University of Chicago Is Among Prominent Speakers Here Tomorrow.

The University of North Carolina announces the third of a series of annual conferences to be held at Chapel Hill, tomorrow and Friday, October 30 and 31, and Saturday and Sunday, November 1 and 2, on the general subject, "Education in a Changing Economic Order." The program of the 1930 series will deal particularly with the subject of "Life and Work in the New South."

R. M. Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, will address the conference in Gerrard hall Thursday night at 8:30 p. m. in one of the principal speeches on the program of the conference. President Hutchins, one of the youngest university presidents in the United States, is noted for his progressive ideas along educational lines.

William E. Dodd, recognized as one of the greatest living historians, will address this body at its Friday night session in Gerrard hall. This meeting also will be at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. Dodd has written a large number of widely used text books in government and history.

The major part of the first floor of Gerrard hall will be reserved for the delegates to the convention who will be here from all over the South, but the balcony and the rear part of the first floor will be available for students and townspeople, who wish to attend these two addresses. Both of these men are recognized to be able and interesting speakers.

The program is as follows:

Thursday, October 30
Six p. m. The Carolina Inn
Dinner: The members of the conference will be guests of the University of North Carolina.
Address of welcome: President Frank P. Graham of the University of North Carolina.

Friday, October 31
Nine-thirty a. m. Gerrard Hall
Presiding: Professor E. C. Branson, of the University of North Carolina.

"Aspects of Regional Economic and Social Change:" Members of the staff of the institute for research in social science.

New Advertising Service Is Offered By Daily Tar Heel

Again the Daily Tar Heel takes a forward step in improving the form and quality of its advertising. Next Tuesday will witness the induction of the new classified column on the back page of the student paper.

This column will be devoted to lost and found-items, want ads, business cards, and commercial announcements. Robert Linn Bernhardt will have charge of the department and will accept advertisements in the office of the Daily from 2 to 4 o'clock each afternoon.

The purpose of this new service is to give the students, faculty, and community a better medium of advertising at a rate which will be more reasonable than placard advertising, and which will reach more readers.
