SOCIOLOGY GROUP HEARS ELLWOOD

Duke Professor Discusses Trends Of Sociology Before Alpha Kappa Delta.

Dr. Charles Ellwood of the department of sociology of Duke University addressed Alpha Kappa Delta, honorary sociological fraternity last Tuesday night at the home of L. M. Brooks, on the subject of "Backgrounds and Trends of Present Day Sociology."

After some rather complimentary remarks about the local department, and pointing out that the substance of his remarks would be found in Odum and Jocher's Introduction to Social Research, Dr. Ellwood proceeded to lay before the group his own interpretation in the light of many years experience of the whole sociological movement. According to his opinion, as to many others, there are three groups: first, the philosophical sociologist, as typified by Comte and to a large degree by Spencer; second, the relatively pure sociologist, who feels that sociology has a clear field for research, but who does not go so far as the extreme behaviorist in his interpretations; and third, the so-called pure sociologist, who revels in statistics correlation, and the general playing around with methods freed from any physical or utilitarian ambition.

Concluding his remarks the speaker outlined the policy of the Duke University sociology department.

largest number of points is awarded a cup known as the Intramural Cup. This cup was won by the Beta's last year.

During the winter and spring quarters the intramural department is planning to stage a fencing, wrestling and tennis tournaments, and a baseball

Oh, Lady!

ROBERT WOOLSEY eyes Natalie Moorhead suspiciously as that seductive lady addresses him in "Hook Line and Sinker." Bert Wheeler is co-starred with Woolsey in this new Radio Pictures farce at the Carolina theatre today.

Intramural Boxing Champions Guests Of Paulsen At Dinner

"Dean" Paulsen, one of Carolina's most rabid boxing fans, entertained the intramural boxing champions at a banquet in the Carolina Inn. This banquet is given annually to championship winners in each class. Those entertained this year were: Cliff Glover, bantam-weight champion; Furches Raymer, featherweight champion; Bob Gold, lightweight champion; Dale Holderness, welterweight champion; Guthrie, middleweight; Brown, lighthheavy; Greer, heavyweight. Besides the champions "Mac" Gray, of the Intramural department; and Coaches Rowe and Allen, of the varsity boxing team were present.

After the banquet, which was described by "Mac" Gray as "an awful big dinner," short talks were made by "Dean" Paulsen, Coaches Rowe and Allen, and "Mac" Gray congratulating the men on the splendid showing made in the tournament. The gold medals, presented annually to the champions in each class by the Intramural department, were then presented.

FRESHMAN BOXING MEET POSTPONED

Today's Bouts With Oak Ridge Leather Pushers to Be Held in February.

Today's boxing match scheduled between the Carolina freshmen and the Oak Ridge Cadets has been postponed, and will probably be held sometime in February. The bouts, which were to be at Oak Ridge, will probably be shifted here, leaving the freshmen with only two trips on their schedule, one to Blacksburg where they will meet the V. P. I. frosh and the other to Durham where they will take on the Blue Imps of Duke.

Under Coach Allen's instruction the freshmen have been developing unusually fast and are expected to present a strong team when they open their season here with the V. M. I. rats next Saturday.

Cliff Glover in the 115 pound class and Furches Raymer in the featherweight have been showing particularly good form, as has Paul Hudson in the lightweight division. Glover and Raymer both won championships in the Intramural bouts while Hudson went to the finals only to lose a sensational match with Red Holderness, varsity welterweight.

Vernon Guthrie has been the class of the middleweights while Jim Pace seems to have the heavyweight berth sewed up at present.

The welterweight class is the scene of a close race between Red Allsbrook and Don McIntyre, while Peyton Brown and Jim Wadsworth are fighting it out for the lighthheavyweight berth.

ALUMNI LOYALTY FUND COUNCIL TO GATHER TONIGHT

The alumni loyalty fund council is scheduled to convene in the office of President Frank Graham for their annual meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

At this convention the council will submit a report of its activities for the past year and make plans for this year. The presiding officer will be the president of the council, Leslie Weil, of Goldsboro, who was graduated from the University in 1895.

Other members of the council are: Felix A. Grisette, '22, Chapel Hill, director of the alumni loyalty fund; H. G. Baity, '17, Chapel Hill; Allen J. Barwick, '00, Raleigh; Burton Craige, '97, Winston-Salem; Frank Porter Graham, '00, Chapel Hill; A. W. Haywood, '04, New York City; J. G. Murphy, '01, Wilmington; Ira W. Rose, '06, Rocky Mount; J. Maryon Saunders, '25, Chapel Hill; C. Felix Harvey, '92, Kinston; C. R. Warton, '12, Greensboro; and L. R. Wilson, '99, Chapel Hill.

SAUNDERS SPEAKS ON LOYALTY FUND

Felix A. Grisette, director of the alumni loyalty fund, was scheduled to address the members of the American Alumni Council at the annual winter meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, Friday and Saturday, but due to the assembly of the alumni loyalty fund council today, he was unable to attend.

J. Maryon Saunders, executive secretary of the alumni association, is attending the meeting and will read Mr. Grisette's address on the subject of "Some Practical Aspects of University Fund Raising."

The purpose of the organization is to bring the alumni workers of all the colleges of the United States together to discuss problems arising in their work.

FINAL RETURNS OF FROSH ELECTION

The final statistics of the freshman election were not available in time for yesterday's Daily Tar Heel and so are printed today. For the presidency the number of votes received by each candidate were as follows: Ike Minor, 245; John Phipps, 189; Red Rankin, 96; and Otto Prochazka, 34. The number of ballots cast for the office of vice-president were: John Barrow, 239; James Moore Tatum, 144; Joe Gardner, 91; and Harold Meade, 47. The votes polled for the secretaryship were: John Leake, 295; Bob Gold, 188; Joe Tobin, 54; and Chelley Sims, 26. The number of votes received by candidates for treasurer were: Gus McIver, 271; Lasley Hudson, 155; Dave McCatheron, 100; Walter Groover, 34.

As no candidate received a majority in any offices except in that of secretary, to which John Leake was elected, it will be necessary for an election to be held next Tuesday at the Y. M. C. A. during the same hours as the last one. At the forthcoming election, the two candidates in each office who received the highest number of votes will be voted on again. The men to be voted on are: for president, Ike Minor and John Phipps; for vice-president, John Barrow and James Moore Tatum; for treasurer, Gus McIver and Lasley Hudson. Mayne Albright, secretary of the student council, will have charge of the voting.

The subject discussed in the mathematics seminar last Wednesday was "The solutions of partial differential equation from a geometrical standpoint." Dr. Ernest L. Mackie, associate professor of mathematics, was in charge.

Community Chorus Plans New Cantata

The Community Chorus meets Monday night at 7:30 in the music building for the purpose of re-organizing for the coming year. It is the plan of the chorus, stated President George Lawrence, to give a cantata sometime this coming spring, patterned on a simpler scale to the "Messiah." Music for the cantata is to be taken from some which is already available at the music building.

Membership in the chorus is open to all who care to join, students, faculty members, and townspeople.

George Ade Tells Of College Life in '80's

strolled out and partook of a modest meal which was known as supper. On nine nights out of ten he had nothing to do after that except go to his room and sit down and talk or study a little or pop corn over a gas burner or play a few hands of penny-ante. He didn't devote any time to housekeeping and his evenings were undisturbed by the present feverish flare-ups and celebrations which now help to make college life a more or less continuous jamboree. In other words, we had not found out what a college was for. When we get together now and blow about the good old days, we are simply discussing a lot of things that didn't happen, because practically nothing did happen at any Middle West college during the eighties. If we are sentimental regarding a college experience of long ago, it is because of the fact that we met and lived with a few men that we liked. It may be true that the university of 1931 has become too gay and festive and intricate but at least it is an improvement over the complete vacuum which we established along about 1885."

The Treasury department warns the public against fake hundred-dollar bills, but isn't this "false optimism?"—San Antonio Evening News.
