

Plans Shaping Up For Spring Sports Carnival

SOUTHERN INDOOR TRACK MEET IS FEATURE EVENT

Annual Monogram-Rookie Football Game Will Rival Conference Meet.

MARCH 7 DATE FOR MEET

Stars Will Have New Set of Records to Shoot at When They Gather Here.

The South's outstanding stars of the cinderpath will have a new set of records at which to shoot when they converge here March 7 for the second annual Southern Conference Indoor Games.

The track meet will be the principal feature of the spring Athletic Carnival, but in the matter of attracting interest the indoor games will have a rival in the annual Monogram-Rookie football game, which will mark the end of the winter gridiron practice session at the University.

The football game will start at 2 o'clock, and the indoor games at 4 o'clock. There will be a banquet at 5:45 o'clock, and the indoor games will be resumed at 6:45.

Such Southern track peers as Hamm, Young, Speer, Finkenstein, Farmer, Arnold, and Bagby, were outstanding performers in last year's indoor meet. The marks they set stood as official Southern Conference Indoor records, and they will probably inspire some great competition this year. Many of the record-setters will be back, and extensive plans already under way indicate that this year's meet will be even better.

The meet will be run off in the Tin Can as a sort of four-ring circus in which the spectators will be treated to a continuous panorama of action, what with events carded for Conference and Non-Conference colleges, and for freshman and scholastic teams from all over the South.

Varsity records set last year, at which the flying collegians of the Conference will be shooting in the March 7 meet here, are: 60-yard dash: Farmer, North Carolina, 6.4 seconds. 440-yard run: Shepard, Washington and Lee, 55.8 seconds. 880-yard run: Linzey, Maryland, 2 minutes 2 seconds. Two mile run: Young, Georgia, 9 minutes 57 2-3 seconds. High Jump: Bagby, N. C., and Bostick, S. C., 5 feet 11 1-8. 60 yard high hurdles: Speer, Wash. and Lee, 7.8 seconds. One mile run: Wells, Tulane, 4 minutes 37.4 seconds. One mile relay: Washington and Lee, 3 minutes 47.4 seconds. Shot put: McDonald, Maryland, 42 feet 10 1-2 inches. Broad jump: Hamm, Georgia Tech, 22 feet 7 inches. Pole Vault: Arnold, North Carolina, 12 feet 7 1-4 inches.

N. S. F. A. Sponsors Editorial Contest

The National Student Federation of America announces two fifty dollar prizes to be awarded for the best editorials pro and con for the United States' entering the World Court.

Three prominent judges who are to decide as to which of the editorials submitted merits the prizes are: Professor Phillip Jessup, secretary to the National World Court Committee; Mr. Frederick J. Libby of the National Council for Prevention of War; and Mr. James G. McDonald, chairman of the Foreign Policy Association.

A copy of the paper in which the editorial was printed must be sent to the central office of the N. S. F. A. before March 1.

Football Game Stadium Today

'Oranges' and 'Blues' Will Battle This Afternoon at Four O'clock.

The "Oranges" and the "Blues," with variations in lineup, will stage another of their practice clashes on Carolina's winter grid program in Kenan Stadium this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Johnny Daniel, driving little reserve halfback, led the ball carriers last Saturday. Wednesday's game is due to show new performers including Rip Slusser and Stuart Chandler, only letter halfbacks in togs this spring, who rested last Saturday.

INTRAMURAL RESULTS

Best House Wins Over Mangum

The Best House defeated Mangum 26-19 in one of the best games of the year according to Wallace Shelton, assistant director of intramural athletics, who refereed the game. The game was close and hard fought all the way with Mangum holding a slight edge during the first three quarters. It was the first time this year that the Best House has been on the small end of the score, Mangum holding a 12-10 lead immediately after the beginning of the third quarter. Blake, with nine, and French, with seven points, were best for the Best House. Dunlap played a good game at center for the winners, gathering six points. Gatty, center, led the scoring for the losers, with six points. The Blythe brothers, both forwards, played good games for Mangum.

Best House (26) Mangum (19)
Crouch (4) Blythe (2)
French (7) Blythe (4)
Dunlap (6) Gatty (6)
Blake (9) McCray (3)
Powell Crane (4)

Theta Chi's Win 16-12

The Theta Chi's defeated the Pika's yesterday afternoon 16-12. The game was close throughout. Woerner, Pika guard, countered in the last five seconds to bring the Pika's total up to twelve, the ball leaving his hand as the whistle blew. Stone and Goodwin, with six points, led the scoring for the Theta Chi's. For the Pika's Shoemaker was best with four points.

Theta Chi (16) Pika's (12)
Sherrill (2) Cassada (2)
Stone (6) Weeks
Goodwin (6) Stamps (2)
Napier Clark (1)
Hussey (2) Shoemaker (4)

Scoring substitutes: Pika's: Woerner (3).

Delta Sigma Phi Beats Chi Phi

The Delta Sig's defeated the Chi Phi's 22-3 yesterday afternoon. The Chi Phi's used only three men in the game. Perry, Delta Sig forward, led the individual scoring with eight points. Battley took second place honors with six points. Thompson and Haywood, with one action toss and one free toss respectively led the scoring for the Chi Phi's.

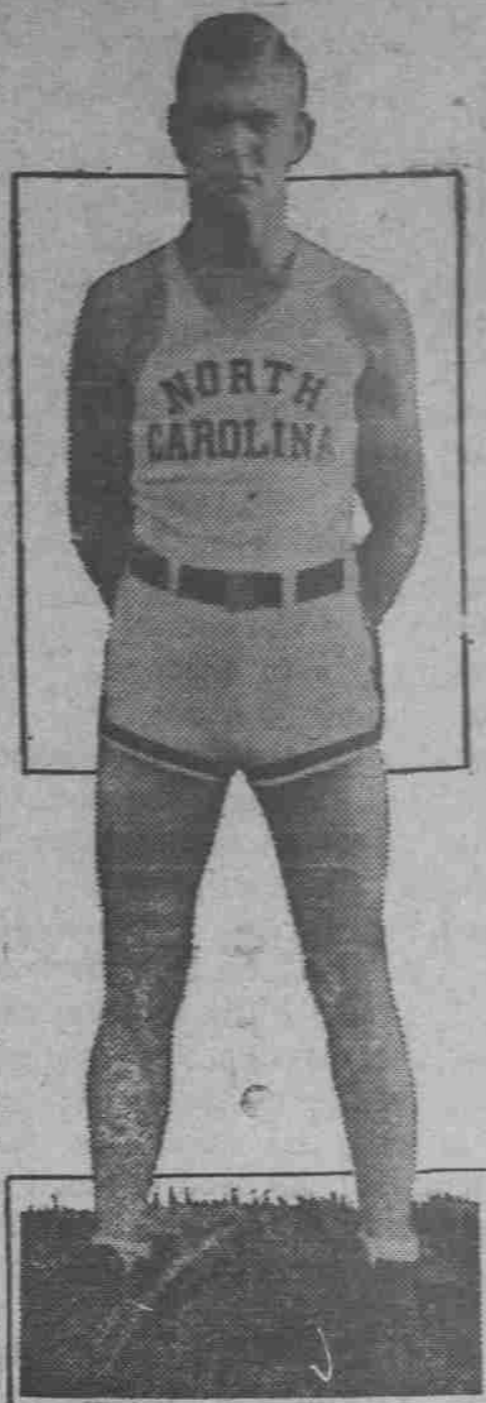

Delta Sig's (22) Chi Phi (3)
Perry (8) Haywood (1)
Bacon (4) Sloan
St. Clair Thompson (2)

EDWARDS - FORWARD

Coach Jim Ashmore has come to depend upon Paul Edwards to fill in whenever trouble hits the Tar Heel team and one of his regulars is out. Edwards regularly plays forward, but has pinch-hit for Sandy Dameron at center at times, and during his career here has seen action at guard.

AYCOCK FENCERS BEST ZETA PSI'S

The Aycock fencers annexed their second victory of the year Monday afternoon by taking a 5-4 decision over Zeta Psi. Both teams were undefeated previous to this match and the win places Aycock at the top of the fencing league standings.

Bill Liberstein led the dormitory boys to victory with a fast and aggressive exhibition of sword play. Both Liberstein and Wasserman won two bouts out of three, while Red Herman accounted for the last and deciding point by winning one out of his three bouts of the afternoon.

Bill Cooper led the Zeta Psi's by winning both of the matches in which he participated. Cooper's two victories give him a total of five wins and no defeats for the season and place him at the top among the individual scorers. Arthur Valk and Billy Bean scored the other points for Zeta Psi. Bean lost one match while Valk and Glenn lost two bouts each.

The defeat of Zeta Psi leaves only Aycock and Phi Gamma Delta among the undefeated teams and gives these two organizations a decided edge in the intramural race.

The box score follows:

Aycock	W	L
Liberstein	2	1
Wasserman	2	1
Herman	1	2
Zeta Psi	W	L
Cooper	2	0
Bean	1	1
Valk	1	2
Glenn	0	2

MOVIE STAR SUBSTITUTES SATINS FOR MOUSTACHE

Charles Ruggles, who achieved universal recognition by his performance as the tipsy reporter in the picture, "Gentlemen of the Press," has lost his moustache. For a brief interval, he has substituted silks and satins when he appears in the title role of "Charley's Aunt," a talking picture, which dramatizes student life at Oxford University. Supporting Ruggles in the picture are June Collyer, Doris Lloyd, Rodney McLennon, Hugh Williams, and Halliwell Hobbes. Al Christie directed the production.

Grant And Hines Ranked High Among Tennis Stars

Grant Number Ten in Men's Singles—Hines Number Thirty-Two—Records of Both Tar Heel Stars Cited.

Bryant Grant and Wilmer Hines, University of North Carolina sophomores, received high rankings from the United States Lawn Tennis Association at its annual convention, held in New York City Saturday.

Bryant Grant received a No. 10 ranking in the United States Lawn Tennis Association rankings Saturday, while Wilmer Hines was ranked as No. 32. Hines also received two No. 1 rankings at the same time, receiving the No. 1 position in the national junior singles rankings and pairing with "Judge" Beaver, of Gainesville, Georgia, to get a No. 1 place in the national junior doubles also.

Grant, who is from Atlanta, Georgia, won the national clay courts singles championship last summer, besting Junior Coen, a Tilden protege, in the finals 6-2, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4. Grant also holds the southern singles title, defeating "Cliff" Sutter, Tulane University star and holder of the national intercollegiate championship, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.

Grant won his first tennis title, the southern singles title, at the age of seventeen. He comes from a tennis family, his father, R. M. Grant, having held the southern singles title several years in succession and reached the runner-up position in the doubles finals in 1907.

Hines, a Columbia, South Carolina youth, won the national junior singles title last July, defeating Billy Reese, Atlanta, Georgia, in the finals and pairing with "Judge" Beaver to win the national junior doubles title. Incidentally Hines possesses several other major tennis titles, all of which were won during the past summer. Among his titles are: middle atlantic intercollegiate singles and doubles champion, Carolina singles champion, and the southern junior singles championship won earlier in the summer.

Other southern youngsters who received national rankings were: "Cliff" Sutter, New Orleans, Louisiana, No. 5; Berkeley Bell, Dallas, Texas, No. 11; Bruce Barnes, Austin, Texas, No. 19; Donald Cram, Nashville, Tennessee, No. 25; Ted Burwell, Charlotte, North Carolina, No. 31; and Karl Kamrath, Austin, Texas, No. 37.

Dameron Leading Tar Heel Cagers With 110 Points

Outscores Croson in Duke Game After Recovery from Poison Ivy To Regain Lead.

Sandy Dameron, center, was back in the van of the scorers as the Carolina quint got down to heavy drilling in preparation for its final Big Five game with Wake Forest in the State College gymnasium in Raleigh Thursday night.

Dameron outscored Croson, Duke center, 9 to 7, Saturday night, despite the fact that the Tar Heel was just recovering from a very severe attack of poison ivy, and so pulled past Captain Artie Marpet for high score honors. Dameron leads with 110 and Marpet has 105. Following are Alexander 81, Hines 66, Edwards 58 and Moore 51.

Week-End Program Is Full For Devils

Durham, February 18.—Following the wrestling meet with V. M. I. at Lexington, Va., tonight, all Duke teams will be at home during the next few days closing the winter sports schedule.

Freshman boxers and wrestlers start a full program which extends into next week by meeting the Oak Ridge pug and mat teams at the Duke gym Friday night.

Saturday afternoon Duke's wrestlers will entertain the Washington and Lee team, and that night the boxers will meet the Generals in a feature match.

Going over into next week, the basketball team will finish their regular schedule by meeting Sewanee's Tigers at the Duke gym Monday night.

By meeting Carolina's varsity and freshman teams, the Duke grapplers will close the winter sports season at Duke on the following night.

After that all teams will prepare for the conference tournaments to be held late this month. The cagers go to Atlanta, the wrestlers to Lexington, Va., and the boxers to Charlottesville, Va.

The stock market knows no favorites in making riches and wretches.

COLLINS PRAISES SAPP AS MENTOR

When Odell Sapp, as a Carolina end, broke through the interference, repeatedly, and nailed the ball carrier from behind, the gridiron critics were heard to remark, "there's an end for you," and after watching the Winston-Salem boy handle men for more than a year, Chuck Collins, head football coach sums up Sapp in this manner, "there's a coach for you."

Sapp received his first taste of football coaching in 1929 when he helped get Carolina's high scoring machine of that

TAR HEELS MUST HALT NEW WAKE STAR TOMORROW

Deacons Have Developed Capable Forward Since First Meeting of Teams.

GAME TO BE AT RALEIGH
Both Teams Will Be Fighting to Keep Out of Cellar Position In Big Five.

A newcomers forward who has been averaging 12 points a game against such strong opposition as State and Duke is promising to make a lot of trouble for Carolina as the Tar Heels wind up their Big Five basketball season with Wake Forest Thursday night.

Barnes is his name. He didn't even get in the game when Carolina pasted Wake Forest 30-13 in an early season tilt. But he got 13 points as Wake Forest upset State 20-19, and he got 11 more as Wake Forest held Duke's Big Five leaders to 25-22 on Monday night.

Barnes' fine work and the way the new Deacon quint has snapped out of a long bad luck streak gives every indication that there is going to be a basketball battle royal Thursday night, even if Wake Forest and Carolina are the official celebrities of the Big Five.

The Tar Heels and the Deacons will meet in the State College Gym in Raleigh at 8:30 o'clock. The main varsity attraction will be preceded by a
