

MINNESOTA MEN OFFERED BRIBES TO CHUCK GAME

Large Bidders on Minnesota-Wisconsin Game Try to Tempt Three Players With $1,500.

Prior to the annual football classic between the Universities of Minnesota and Wisconsin three stars of the Minnesota team received communications from alleged heavy Wisconsin wagers offering them $1,500 each to allow the University of Wisconsin to conquer.

Charles Johnson, sports editor of the Minneapolis Star also received a letter from the same persons, asking him to publish that Minnesota was a "cinch to win and to offer odds on Minnesota to win at about 5 to 1."

Opinions as to the serious nature of the attempt varied. While many of the higher officials of the institutions involved considered it only a hoax, investigations were instituted to find the men. Relations between the universities were not affected, since the coaches realized that if the attempt to throw the game were serious, all actions were unknown to either side.

Campus Notables Are Named In Contest

of higher education are President Hoover, Al Capone, Rudy Valee, Coin Harvey, Hamilton Fish, Jr., "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, and Al Smith.

Unofficial Candidates

Several unofficial nominations for "Mr. America of 1932" have been made by readers of the Daily Tar Heel, but no nomination will be considered unless submitted on the form appended. To give some idea as to how the campus opinion is going as to this contest, a few of those unofficially nominated for "Mr. America of 1932" are: "Boss" Hill; the editor of Contempo; assistant editor of Contempo; readers of Contempo; Mr. Rackley, assistant chief of the Chapel Hill Speed Prevention Society; Buddy Rogers, the cinema star; and a man who in a nominating letter was vaguely described as "the nice, curly-haired boy who walks up towards South building each morning, excepting Saturdays and Sundays, at 9:30."

The box in which the students are invited to cast their ballots will be located in the lobby of the "Y."

I Nominate For MR. AMERICA OF 1932

BETAS LOSE TO A. T. O.'S IN HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

The S. P. E. team broke a tie and downed the Phi Alphas 6 to 0. When the winners made their score the game was in a deadlock four downs all.

The score came on a short pass and run. The three Sewells along with Lupton led the running and passing attack of the winners. Steyn and Bessen were best both on the offense and defense for the losing team.

Sigma Nu Wins

The fast Sigma Nu team held their winning streak when they emerged victorious over Phi Delta Theta 12 to 6.

The winners were led by Leak and Griffith in their fifth win of the season. Leak was all over the field on both receiving and knocking down passes, while Griffith was as accurate as usual on throwing both long and short passes. Ewbank and Tucker were the main opposition offered by the losers.

Delta Psi in Win

In the fifth close game of the afternoon Delta Psi downed Z. B. T. 6 to 0. The only score of the game came when Carter caught a long pass and raced the remaining distance for a touchdown. Burroughs also starred for the winners, while Alexander and Myer showed the best form for the losers.

L. C. A. in Forfeit

Lambda Chi Alpha forfeited to Sigma Zeta.

Scholarship Cup Is Awarded To T. E. P.

Statistics compiled by Dr. G. K. G. Henry, assistant registrar of the University, show that the cup annually awarded to the national fraternity on the campus which attains the highest scholarship record for the college year has been won by Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity, while Sigma Alpha Epsilon was runner-up. Sigma Delta scored the highest average last term, but the fact that it is a local organization renders it ineligible for the award. This fraternity has been the leading scorer in this competition for the last five years.
