Victory Over Davidson While State Wins Over Devils Clinches Crown

Carolina Shows Great Power in 20-0 Win Over Wild Cats; State Wins, 14-0.

FORWARD WALL STARS

Blocking and Defensive Play of Carolina Biggest Factor in Smashing Win.

AFIGHTING red jerseyed team from Davidson was unable to cope with a brilliant Tar Heel running attack, losing 20-0 here yesterday before approximately 7,000 persons.

By virtue of the win, combined with Duke's 14-0 loss to State, Carolina recovered the state championship, which was won by Duke last year.

The game was never in doubt as Tar Heel backs sliced off yard after yard, behind some great blocking by Carolina's forward wall. With the possible exception of the Georgia team, the blocking of the Tar Heels yesterday was the best that the spectators have seen this year.

In addition to a great running attack, the Carolina defense functioned almost perfectly, the Wild Cats garnering but two first downs, both of which came in the first half. Time after time, McIver, Hodges, Strickland, Gilbreath, and Fysal broke through to nail Davidson backs before they got started.

Before the game started, it was announced that the game was dedicated to the memory of Knute Rockne, Notre Dame mentor who was killed in an airplane accident last spring. Both bands, followed by their respective squads, paraded up the field and together with the stands, which rose and paid silent tribute to the great Notre Dame coach.

Captain Raker won the toss and elected to defend the east goal with North Carolina kicking off. After the kickoff, both teams battled in mid field until the middle of the first period when the Tar Heels' battering earned the first marker. On third down, Croom on a spinner snaked his way thirty yards through the entire Davidson team for a touchdown. Chandler's kick was wide making the score: Carolina 6, Davidson 0.

Ferebee scored the second touchdown late in the first period with a brilliant sixty-five yard jaunt on a cut back through left tackle. On this play, every Carolina man blocked and Ferebee easily eluded the Davidson safety man. Chandler kicked the extra point making the score 13-0 in favor of Carolina.

There was no further scoring in the first half, the ball remaining in Davidson territory most of the time. It was during this period that the line resembled a stone wall as Davidson backs hurled themselves against it but to no avail.

The Carolina offense really started clicking in the final half but were unable to push the ball over the last white line. The Tar Heels made a scoring threat late in the third period but were unable to score although it was first and ten on Davidson's ten yard line. A beautiful pass Croom to Slusser, aided by a twenty yard run by Slusser placed the ball on Davidson's ten yard line, but the "fightingest" team that ever came to Kenan stadium held for downs.

HARVARD AA BARS RADIO ANNOUNCER

Ted Husing Prohibited from Crimson Field for Alleged Misinformation.

ED HUSING, radio announcer, termed the play of Barry Wood "putrid" in his broadcast of the Harvard - Dartmouth football game last Saturday, and yesterday Harvard barred Husing from any further broadcasts at the stadium.

Complaints received at Harvard regarding the broadcast of the Dartmouth game were that Husing had been too critical of the general play of the Harvard team, and had been especially critical of the work of Jack Crickard and Wood. No official cognizance of the complaints was taken until yesterday, when Williams J. Bingham, director of athletics at Harvard, announced the official action of the university.

Bingham said the complaints termed the broadcast most unfair and unjust. The athletic director said: "No announcer can go into the Harvard stadium and refer to any player or any play made by any member of either a Harvard team or its opposing team as 'putrid.' Mr. Husing will not be admitted to the Harvard stadium in the capacity of a radio announcer again."

Husing has admitted the use of the word "putrid," but said he used it comparatively when referring to Wood's play of last Saturday and to his work against Army at West Point.

The Columbia Broadcasting Company, by which Husing is employed, expressed surprise at the action of the Harvard authorities. A statement from the general offices of the company expressed hope that after "more mature thought" the ban on its announcer would be removed.

A statement issued from the offices of the company said: "It is as surprising for Harvard to take the announced action as it would be for Harvard to ban the representative of a newspaper or a press association because it disagreed with that representative's report of a sports event. Such drastic action would seem to be in order only after all other means to deal with a situation had been exhausted."

According to an announcement by Grady Leonard, superintendent of Sunday schools for the Christian Congregational church, there will be a union Thanksgiving service in the Methodist church Sunday night, November 22 at 7:45. All churches have been invited to participate in the united service.

TARHEELIA PAYS SILENT TRIBUTE TO 'IRISH' COACH

Impressive Ceremony Witnessed By About 7,000 Spectators; House Presents Eulogy.

The University of North Carolina and Davidson college combined to observe "Rockne Day" yesterday just before play started. All over the country, "Rock's" name was immortalized to the hearts of football fans.

The bands of both schools, followed by their respective football squads, the officials and coaches, paraded to the 50-yard line and faced the south side.

Mr. Bob House, executive secretary and University orator, eulogized the spirit of the Notre Dame mentor and asked the stands to rise and pay silent tribute to the great coach. After "taps" were played, both bands played "The Victory March of Notre Dame."

Mr. House's speech in full: "This day brings together Carolina and Davidson—two institutions whose rivalry is keen but whose mutual respect and affection have transformed all rivalries into emulation.

"It is altogether fitting, therefore, that this one of many days of the finest sportsmanship should be dedicated to that supreme exponent of sportsmanship—Knute Rockne, of Notre Dame, but also of America.

"Born in Norway in 1888, he came to America in 1893. In 1910 he entered Notre Dame where he was not only a leader in athletics but also in scholarship and character. In 1918 he became director of athletics and head football coach. During his thirteen years as head coach, his teams won 105 games, tied 5, and lost 12. Five of these teams were undefeated. His teams swung from coast to coast and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. The teams of Notre Dame became the teams of the people and Knute Rockne the most popular coach in America."

"With the fundamentals of superb workmanship he taught also the fundamentals of character and intelligence. When he was killed in an airplane accident in 1931, he was mourned by high and low alike as a great man, an inspiring leader, and a profound teacher. Right thinking and right living went into his victories. He so contributed to cleanness, high purpose, and sportsmanship that his passing is a national loss."

"In tribute to him the audience is requested to stand silent and uncovered for a brief period. At the conclusion of this period of silence the bugle will sound 'taps' and the band will play 'The Victory March of Notre Dame.'"
