

TAR HEELS GAIN SIX POSITIONS ON A. P. ALL-STATE

Sport Writers Choose Representatives From Duke, State, Davidson, Wake Forest.

The University of North Carolina dominated the annual Associated Press all-state football team, six Tar Heels being placed on the honorary eleven. At least one man from every other Big Five college won positions on the 1931 mythical selection.

The thirteen sports writers who selected first and second all-state teams agreed unanimously on only one first team choice, Captain Charles E. Cobb, Jr., N. C. State's great tackle. Captain Pierce Brewer, of Duke university, also received an overwhelming vote for the fullback position. Cobb and Brewer both made the all-state outfit last year. Three others who repeated this year are: Johnny Branch, University of North Carolina quarterback; Don Hyatt, Duke end, and Ellis Fysal, Carolina guard.

The six new members of the team are: Theron Brown, end; Harry Hodges, tackle; John "Red" Gilbreath, center; and Frank "Rip" Slusser, halfback, all of U. N. C.; John L. Dupree, Wake Forest, guard, and Charles W. Pearce, Davidson, halfback. Of the thirteen writers voting, eleven submitted first and second choices, while two cast votes for only one team, making it possible for one player to receive twenty-six votes, counting first team selections as two votes and second team choices as one.

Five men received little opposition for their positions, while a number of others were extremely close, two being decided by one-point margins. Next to Cobb's twenty-six votes came Brewer with twenty-five, Slusser with twenty-four, Brown with twenty-three, and Fysal with twenty.

These eleven men make up a potentially powerful team.

Brown and Hyatt, the ends, weigh in the neighborhood of 180 pounds and stand about six feet two inches. Cobb and Hodges make a pair of outstanding tackles, both hard-charging men of two hundred pounds. Fysal and Dupree are the same weight and height, 190 and five feet ten inches tall. Gilbreath, a Texan from Wichita Falls, weighs 182 and is six feet one inch tall.

Branch, probably the most most colorful player on North Carolina gridirons within recent years, has ended a brilliant football career at N. C. He is five feet five inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. Pearce broke his ankle early in the 1930 season and this is practically his first season on the Davidson varsity. Slusser's fine work this fall gave him a wide edge over the other backs in the state. He weighs but 157 pounds and is the lightest player on the all-state selection.

Brewer, who has been the mainstay of the Duke backfield this season, has played his last game for Duke. He is five feet eleven inches tall and weighs 180 pounds.

ALL-STATE SELECTION

Pos.	Player	School	Votes
L.E.	Brown	U. N. C.	23
L.T.	Cobb	N. C. S.	26
L.G.	Fysal	U. N. C.	20
C.	Gilbreath	U. N. C.	12
R.G.	Dupree	Wake Forest	15
R.T.	Hodges	U. N. C.	18
R.E.	Hyatt	Duke	14
Q.B.	Branch	U. N. C.	16
H.B.	Slusser	U. N. C.	24
H.B.	Pearce	Davidson	17
F.B.	Brewer	Duke	25

It was a good idea to stop short selling. Now if people would only stop short buying.—Youngstown Vindicator.

GREEN WAVE TO PLAY IN CLASSIC ROSE BOWL TILT

Tulane Accepts Invitation to Play Southern California in New Year's Day Game.

It has been definitely announced that Tulane will meet Southern California in the Rose Bowl, Pasadena, New Year's day.

The invitation had been delayed until the result of the game last Saturday between Tulane and Washington State was learned. Immediately after the Green Wave's 28 to 14 victory, which gave them a record of no ties or defeats for the year, Willis O. Hunter, director of athletics at Southern California, extended the invitation by telephone to Dr. Wilbur Smith, athletic director at Tulane, who accepted.

Bernie Bierman, head coach of the southern champions, will be directing them for the last time on New Year's day. It was announced recently that he had accepted a position as head coach of football at Minnesota, his old alma mater, beginning January 1. In returning to Minnesota, whose last Big Ten championship team he captained in 1915, Bierman will succeed "Fritz" Crisler, who will continue as athletic director.

Ted Cox, who succeeds Bierman at Tulane, is also a graduate and football player from Minnesota. He played tackle from 1922-1924 and was captain of the Big Ten team during his senior year.

From The Bench

Since it has become an annual custom for sports writers all over the country to pick all-star teams we'll have a try at an all-state, all-Southern, and all-American.

On the all-state we pick Brown and Walker or Hyatt, ends; Hodges and Cobb, tackles; McIver and Fysal, guards; Gilbreath, center; Branch, quarterback; Chandler and Captain Slusser, halfbacks; Brewer, fullback.

Our choices for all-Southern would be: Smith (Ga.) and Captain Dalrymple (Tulane), ends; Saunders (Tenn.) and Leyendecker (Vandy), tackles; Leathers (Ga.) and Hickman (Tenn.), guards; Gracey (Vandy), center; Downes (Ga.), quarterback; Zimmerman (Tul.) and McEver (Tenn.), halfbacks; Felts (Tul.), fullback.

Our all-American choices would be: Smith (Ga.) and Dalrymple (Tul.), ends; Marvil (Nw.) and Kurth (N.D.), tackles; Munn (Minn.) and Baker (S. Cal.), guards; Yarr (N.D.), center; Wood, (Harvard), quarterback; Captain Schwartz (N.D.) and McEver (Tenn.), halfbacks; Rentner (Nw.), fullback.

How long will the supremacy of the south last? That is the question that is being asked everywhere. In the past six years the south has represented the east in the annual Rose Bowl classic four times and has never been defeated, although tied once. The other two times Pittsburgh met with crushing defeats.

The only comparison for the Rose Bowl clash is the Washington State game. Southern California defeated Washington State 38-6 earlier in the season, but it was a much weaker team than the one Tulane defeated 28-14 last Saturday in New Orleans.

Graduation leaves a gaping hole in the Tar Heel forward wall. The loss of McIver, Gilbreath, and Fysal will leave the 1932 Tar Heel grid team hard pressed for dependable guards. Still Hodges, Underwood, Walk-

THIRTY-SIX MEN ENTER IN ANNUAL BOXING TOURNEY

Entrants to Weigh in This Afternoon; Preliminary Bouts Tonight; Finals Wednesday.

Entrants for the annual fall intramural boxing tournament will weigh in at Bynum gymnasium between 12:00 and 3:00 o'clock today, and tonight at 8:00 o'clock the tournament proper will get under way with twelve or fifteen bouts in the Tin Can. With the preliminaries scheduled to be run off tonight, the semi-final bouts will start tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock and championship bouts in all seven classes will bring the tournament to a close Wednesday night.

About thirty-six men will see action in the bouts, with a few making as many as three appearances. The featherweight, and lightweight, classes promise the best action, but the welters and the bantams will also present several good scrappers. Each of these weights will have at least two men who rate as prospective regulars on the varsity or freshman teams this winter.

Interest in the heavyweight division will center around the battle between two football players, George Barclay, a star guard on the 1930 frosh squad, and June Underwood, varsity tackle for the past two years. Underwood, weighing 200 pounds will have a 20 pound weight advantage over Barclay, but the Phi Gam fighter will have a distinct advantage in experience, having competed in last year's tournament.

Brady, Rabinowitz, and Crawford are the outstanding challengers for the featherweight title, with Brady probably having the best chance to come through. Mowery of Best House is another featherweight who stands a good chance of ending up with a title to his credit.

The lightweight division will probably have the largest number of entrants and also offers some of the best competition in the tournament. At least four men have strong chances to finish at the top of the pile, while any one of the other candidates might upset the dope with a little first class work. Wardlaw, Joyner, Harney, and Shufford are the leading challengers for the title.

Sam Gidinansky is doped to win the middleweight title with little trouble, but the welterweight division will have some fine action when Lee Berke tries to take the 149-pound title away from Dick Batley, the present champion. Eskola and Blatt are other contenders who might upset pre-tourney dope by eliminating one of the favorites.

Ping-Pong Schedule

Table No. 1

4:00 p. m.—Everett vs. Phi Kappa Sigma; 4:30—Lewis vs. Pi Kappa Phi; 5:00—Chi Phi vs. S. P. E.; 5:30—Aycock vs. Sigma Chi.

Table No. 2

4:00 p. m.—Phi Delta Theta vs. Pi Kappa Alpha; 4:30—S. A. E. vs. Sigma Nu; 5:00—Delta Tau Delta vs. Grimes; 5:30—Best House vs. Zeta Psi.

er, Chandler, Croom, Phipps, and Ferebee, together with Newcombe and Philpott, reserve guards, form a nucleus that any coach in North Carolina would be glad to have. With Gardner and Daniels, centers; Schaffer, halfback and punter; and Jackson, quarterback and an excellent passer, up from the freshmen, prospects for the 1932 varsity grid team are bright indeed.

INTERSECTIONAL GAMES WON BY SOUTHERN TEAMS

New York University And Washington State Vanquished by Tennessee And Tulane.

With the results of Saturday's intersectional games, the south's claim for national honors was greatly enhanced. Tennessee upset the dope to hurdle N. Y. U. at New York and Tulane kept its fine record unblemished against the invasion of the Washington State Cougars.

Tennessee's Volunteers swept New York university's football forces off their feet and romped away with a 13 to 0 triumph. While the Violets were concentrating their defense on Gene McEver, two of his team-mates, Beatty Feathers and Herbert Brackett, put on a brilliant exhibition of broken field running in the second quarter that routed the New Yorkers and clinched the game for the Vols. The New York forward wall was thoroughly outplayed by the southerners.

Starting a belated drive in the second period, Tulane's Green Wave further substantiated its claim for national honors by thwarting a determined Washington State eleven Saturday at New Orleans. Led by Captain Jerry Dalrymple, all-American selection for end, Tulane also clinched the Rose Bowl appointment for New Year's Day at Pasadena. The Green Wave, America's only major unbeaten and untied eleven will carry with it the south's reputation of never having lost a Rose Bowl engagement.

Tulane has been unbeaten in the south for three years. Bernie Bierman, who learned his football at Minnesota, is the master mind behind the powerful eleven from the banks of the Mississippi.

FALL PRACTICE IN TRACK CONTINUED

Fall Track which usually concludes with the advent of the Thanksgiving holidays, is being extended until the Christmas sojourn. The coaches feel that additional work is necessary as a number of the men have failed to do the work expected of them.

The vaulters, high jumpers, hurdlers, and field men show the need of further work out in preparation for a busy spring schedule. Practice sessions will be conducted by Coach Ranson Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the end of the quarter. The cross country men, who have completed a very successful season, and the other individuals who have shown indications of hard work will participate in light workouts during this session.

The spring track schedule which is now being drawn up will be ready for publication this week.

STATE COLLEGE SCORES WIN OVER RIFLE TEAM

With a lead of over three hundred points, the State college rifle team defeated the University club Saturday by a score of 1453 to 1102. Strickland, of State, was the high scorer of the match, registering 187 shots out of a possible 200, while Pratt lead Carolina scoring by 166.

A return match between the two teams is scheduled for some time after the Christmas vacation.

Dr. Wilson in Greensboro

Dr. L. R. Wilson was in Greensboro last week to attend a meeting of the joint commission on the Chapel Hill Methodist church, called by Bishop Edwin M. Mouzon. Dr. Wilson was accompanied by Reverend Albea Godbold, new pastor of the local Methodist church.

FAVORITES KEEP PING-PONG LEAD

Zeta Psi, Pi Kappa Alpha, S.A.E., Phi Kappa Sigma, Chi Phi, And Sigma Nu Win.

Phi Delta Theta Loses
One of the leaders, S. A. E. emerged victorious from a Ping-Pong battle yesterday. With Grant playing his usual brilliant game, and Harper returning everything that came his way, Phi Delta Theta's defeat was inevitable. Aycock, the other leader, lost the first set, but with Cartland at the helm against Poole, Pi Kappa Phi was unable to master the smashing drives and was beaten.

Everett Wins
Everett uncorked a surprise against S. P. E. when Stoll, a rookie, managed to beat Seawell 6-4. Rosen also took the second set from S. P. E.

Lewis Forfeits
Lewis forfeited the match to Phi Kappa Sigma.

Grimes Loses
Woerner, Pi Kappa Alpha star, again shone, and easily won his matches from Grimes. Goldberg, from the dorm, took the second set by easily defeating McMillan, but losing to Woerner.

Chi Phi Beats Sigma Chi
Hudson, playing for Chi Phi, took the first set 6-4, and Dockery's plucky fight could not stop him from also winning the second from Sigma Chi.

Zeta Psi Take Win
Blackwell and Graham of Zeta Psi easily won their games by beating Baker and Rouiller of Delta Tau Delta in straight love sets.

Sigma Nu Wins
Powell of Best House put up a hard fight against Long of Sigma Nu, but was beaten in the first and third sets. He took the second set quite easily from Bynum, representing the fraternity.

Football Notice

All men who were out for freshman football are requested to turn in their equipment today or tomorrow at Emerson store room, which is open from 9:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m.

CAROLINA

NOW PLAYING

STEP-CHILD OF FATE

18 in looks—40 in disillusionment. Forbidden to love—but still hoping for her woman's rights as a respected wife and mother!

Compromised!
because of her mother's sin!
with

ROSE HOBART BEN LYON

Juliette Compton
Claude Gillingwater
—also—
Comedy—Novelty

Buy Your Christmas Cards And Gifts from Alfred Williams & Co., Inc.

STETSONIAN

Nationally Known Justly Famous

VOL. I DECEMBER 8, 1931 NO. 12

Published in the interest of University of North Carolina students and for the promotion of better dress.

STETSON "D"
"Red" Foister, Editor

Have you heard the one about the girl who went to the dentist's and was bored to tears?

—sd—
We have just received a special lot of plus-six knickers in all shades at $5.50 and to go with these we have some new golf hose at $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.

—sd—
Branch tells us he knows of a sorority in which Yes is the password.

—sd—
A good joke always brings a smile to the face, but this does not insure P. A. At the present low price on Stetson "D" clothes every Carolina man can afford excellent P. A. (Personal Appearance).

—sd—
Stop in sometime—look over our store and maybe you will get some ideas for Dad's Christmas present.

The game was all for charity. Most everyone thought charity should begin at home, so at home they sat and listened to the game over the radio. In the higher priced seats were seen Governor Max, Boss Hill and Herman Zilch. Carolinadukewakeforeststatedavidson all looked very good and we were much surprised at the good game that resulted from the combinations.

—sd—
Camel Pile coats in Brown, Tan and Grey—they are really smart and are reduced to $37.50.

—sd—
Doctor: You should take Electro baths.
Patient: No thank you, Doc, my brother drowned in one at Sing Sing.

—sd—
He: Do you keep your love letters, Baby?
She: No, they keep me.

—sd—
You be a fast horse, Spark Plug, and I'll give you a stable all for yourself.
Ho,ho. That's only a stall.

All STETSON "D" clothes pressed absolutely Free at our store

Read Stetsonian Every Tuesday

Clothiers and Furnishers For College Men

Suits and Topcoats Tailored to Your Measure

$24.50 — $29.50 — $34.50