

Hines And Shuford Pair To Take Doubles Crown As Grant Wins Singles

Brilliant Passing Game of Grant Gives Tar Heel Star Second Title Over Hines.

TAR HEEL FRESHMEN WIN
Harris and Levitan Win Doubles Title; To Play Off Singles In All-Carolina Final.

Bryan "Bitsy" Grant, North Carolina's ranking player, put up one of the greatest exhibitions of tennis ever seen on the University courts to defeat easily his teammate, Wilmer Hines, former national junior singles champion, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1, and take the North Carolina Intercollegiate tennis tournament for the second year in succession. This year's tourney was a repetition of that of last year in which Grant defeated Hines 6-2, 6-4, 8-10, 6-4 for the title.

Mixing a brilliant passing attack with perfect placements and a strong overhead game, Grant drove shot after shot by Hines, who was unable to get going after the first game of the opening set. The diminutive star was again the old master, and his youthful rival was outclassed, although fighting to the final point.

Varsity Doubles
Although defeated in the singles competition, Hines paired with Harley Shuford sophomore ace, to defeat Grant and Wright for the doubles title in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4. Seeded number one, the doubles combination of Hines and Shuford worked in perfect harmony to defeat the Grant-Wright team. Hines and Shuford completely outclassed the losers to win easily.

Semi-Finals
In the semi-final round of the singles play Hines defeated Barney Welsh of Duke, 6-2, 6-2, 6-0, to win the right to meet Grant in the finals for the state crown. Welsh was unable to solve the service of Hines, who played sensationally.

In the semi-final round of the of Carolina defeated Welsh and doubles play, Grant and Wright Norwood of Duke, taking the third set, 6-3, after play being stopped on Friday with the score 6-4, 3-6.

Freshman Singles
In the semi-final round of the singles Harvey Harris defeated Lovill, also of Carolina, 6-3, 6-3, to win the right to meet Levitan, freshman number two for the state yearling title. Levitan defeated Higgins of Duke, seeded number one in the tournament, 7-5, 8-10, 6-4, in the only major upset of the tournament, and then defeated Willis of Carolina 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-0, to gain the right to meet Harris for the championship. The finals of the freshman meet were indefinitely postponed because of darkness.

Freshman Doubles
In the finals of the doubles tournament, Harris and Levitan of Carolina defeated Higgins and Morefield of Duke, 8-6, 6-2, 5-7, 3-6, 6-3, to take the title. Higgins and Morefield pushed the Carolina combination in the opening set, but were unable to gain a sufficient margin to win the set. The second set went to Harris and Levitan easily, but play slackened in the third and fourth sets, with Duke holding a slight edge. In the final and deciding set Harris and Levitan overcame a 2-0 lead to take the match and the title.

Scientists at the University of Heidelberg have been studying a man believed to be a "throw-back" from an evolutionary period. He has gill slits in his neck as well as a rudimentary gill.

Boxing Tourney

Coach Rowe has asked all men interested in fighting in the heavyweight class of the intramural boxing tourney to see him in the Tin Can tomorrow between 4:00 and 6:00 o'clock.

At the present there are no contestants in the heavyweight class and Rowe is anxious to have a bout between men of this weight in the tournament.

CAROLINA LOSES IN CHAMPIONSHIP GOLFING TOURNEY

Duke Linksmen Turn in Low Score With Tar Heel Team Close Second.

For the second straight year the Carolina golf team went down in defeat at the hands of the Duke team in the State intercollegiate championship meet held at the Sedgfield course. The Duke team with a total score of 609 led the field by fifteen strokes. The Tar Heels were next with 626 and Davidson third with 644.

The individual honor was shared by Carolina and Duke. Alan Smith, diminutive Tar Heel star, and Peacock, Duke leader, tied for the low score honors with 143 each. Smith had a 71-72 and Peacock turned in a 72-71.

The tournament was run on thirty-six holes medal play, with each team represented having four specific members, though there was no limitation on the number of individual entrants.

The Tar Heels had defeated the Devils earlier in the season in match play and this victory of the Duke team evened the count. There remains still another match play contest to be held on the Hope Valley course.

ANNUAL Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE HAS LAST GATHERING

(Continued from first page)
stitution was adopted and officers for the coming year elected. Bill McKee was chosen president for the coming year; Elizabeth Taylor of Greensboro College, vice-president; Rosanelle Cash of Duke, secretary; Sam Wiley of Davidson, treasurer.

At a specially called meeting of the Y. M. C. A. state cabinet Archie Ward of State was elected president to succeed Farthing of Duke, and Paul Brown of Davidson was chosen vice-president.

Dean Milner of Guilford College closed the program yesterday with an address in the Dialectic Senate hall.

Fire Destroys Home Of M. W. Sparrow

Fire, believed to have been caused by a defective flue, yesterday destroyed the home of M. W. Sparrow of Carrboro. Although the house and its furnishings were a total loss, they are partly covered by insurance.

The call came into the local station at 6:45, and although 500 feet of hose and six or eight men were sent, the flames had gained too much headway, and it was impossible to stop them. The damages are estimated at $3,000.

Visiting Pastor to Speak At Presbyterian Church

Rev. Allan Lorimer, pastor of the Congregational church of Old Greenwich, Connecticut, will preach a sermon here at the Presbyterian church today.

THREE CAROLINA MITTMEN SCRAP IN PRELIMINARIES

Brown, Quarles Win; Lumpkin Loses Before Denning-Rowsey Fight.

Three University boxers appeared in the preliminaries to the Jake Denning-Russ Rowsey fight in Durham Friday night and two of them, Wildcat Brown and Norm Quarles, took three-round decisions, while the third, Nat Lumpkin, lost a hard-fought four-rounder when Louis Parrish, Durham middleweight star, rallied in the latter part of the extra round.

Denning knocked Rowsey out in the eighth round with a left hook to the body followed by a right to the jaw. Rowsey all but knocked Denning out in the first catching him with a right midway the round that sent him down for nine counts and twice more putting him on the canvas after the Durham scrapper had staggered to his feet. The bell sounded just as Denning swayed to his feet following the third knockdown.

Denning Takes Lead

The second round was a wild one with both scrappers slamming in punches at random, but the third was tame. In the fourth Denning began to take the lead. Twice he punched Rowsey through the ropes, and after a slow fifth round, Denning came out to hammer his opponent at will during the sixth and seventh. The eighth was short and snappy. Denning rushed from his corner, slammed over a left and right and the bout was over.

Bill Parrish of Durham won over Dynamite Overcash of Salisbury on the eight-round semi-final, and Bob Rackley and Norman Winters fought to a six-round draw.

Brown Defeats Beck

Peyton Brown defeated Carlos Beck in a fast bout after Beck had dropped him for a short count in the opening round. Brown landed often and had little trouble taking the decision.

Nat Lumpkin fought a blistering scrap with Parrish and the fight was called a draw at the end of the third round. In the fourth Lumpkin took a slight lead only to have Parrish come back and land a terrific right to the jaw that had the Tar Heel a bit groggy and enabled the Bull City amateur to get in several punches that gave him the victory.

Quarles Beats Waddell

Norm Quarles, freshman featherweight, substituted for Matty Levinson in the other preliminary bout and took an easy three-round decision from Archie Waddell. Quarles landed often with a left hook and a right cross to the head, but was never able to drop his opponent, who showed a remarkable ability to absorb punishment.

The bouts were refereed by Crayton Rowe, Carolina boxing coach, and a crowd of about 400 saw a program that offered the finest action seen in Durham in several years.

Planet Spied Sixteen Years Ago

By College News Service
Cambridge, Mass., April 23.—Discovery of a photograph showing the new planet X or Pluto taken sixteen years before the planet was actually identified was announced this week by the Harvard Observatory.

Family Matter

One co-ed who will not find it hard for her to behave while she is attending classes is at Illinois College; her father and she attend classes together—Daily Princetonian.

Coombs And Flohr Pitch Blue Devils To 6-2 Win

Mitchell's Circuit Blow in Sixth With One on Clinches Victory for Duke.

POWELL HITS HOME RUN

Carolina Third Baseman Only Tar Heel to Get More Than One Hit.

Giving up but five hits between them, Bobby Coombs and Lefty Flohr led Duke to a 6-2 win over Carolina here yesterday afternoon. Mitchell, Blue Devil right fielder, with one run over, sewed up the game in the sixth, laying one of Cecil Longest's offerings in center for a home run and driving in a run ahead of him.

Longest and Coombs apparently had started to hook up in a regular old Floradora "hurling dool," but the old Duke jerked a muscle in his elbow in the fifth and had to retire, and the Blue Devil batters wouldn't let Longest continue his almost scoreless pitching.

Coombs, who was in the game for five and one-third innings, held the Tar Heels to three hits and one run, while fanning three and issuing one pass. Willie Powell, who later hit a homer off Bobby, got the first safety off the Blue Devil in the second, his grounder taking a high bounce and landing on second base.

Flohr, sophomore star of the Duke pitching crew, went in the game with his pitching arm cold, and yielded only two hits, striking out five and walking two in three and one-third innings.

Longest pitched all the way, allowing eight hits, two in each of the fifth, sixth, seventh, and ninth innings, and striking out seven. The Tar Heel captain walked two and hit two.

Three home runs were crashed during the game, Powell, Mitchell, and Howell each connecting for one. Powell's circuit knock was a grounder rolling to deep center.

Duke opened the scoring in the fifth, getting one run. Hendrickson led off with the first hit off Longest, a single to center, reaching second on Peacock's error, and advancing to third on Weaver's sacrifice. Howell's single to right drove Hendrickson over, but Longest tightened down, forcing Coombs to fly out to second and fanning Kersey.

Carolina matched the Blue Devils' run in the second half of the fifth, Powell, second up, hitting his homer. Pattisall singled behind Powell, but died on base as the next two men went out.

Mitchell's homer in the sixth with Harrington on clinched the victory, but Longest was still in there, making Shore ground out and striking out the next two batters on seven pitched balls.

The winners counted once in the seventh and twice in the ninth to end their scoring. Weaver led off the seventh with a single, tallying on Harrington's hit, and in the ninth, Howell slammed a homer with Harrington on base.

Carolina's only other run was scored in the seventh off Flohr. Ferebee singled, and reached third on two passed balls by the Duke catcher, scoring on Peacock's grounder to short.

Three Tar Heel errors proved of great aid to the Blue Devils. Hendrickson, who later scored, reached second on an error in the fifth, and two men were safe on errors in the ninth. Duke committed only one miscue.

Powell, who featured in so many departments of the game that it was hard to keep up with him, took fielding honors of the day. In the fourth inning Willie ran over to the Duke bench and picked Gadd's foul off a player's head.

Three Duke batters—Harrington, Mitchell, and Howell—

Baseball Results

AMERICAN LEAGUE

St. Louis 11; Chicago 6.
Cleveland 8; Detroit 7.
Washington 5; Boston 0.
New York 16; Philadelphia 5.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

St. Louis 9; Pittsburgh 10.
Chicago 2; Cincinnati 1.
Philadelphia 7; New York 2.
Boston 7; Brooklyn 1.

QUERY WILL ADDRESS NORTH CAROLINA CLUB

The North Carolina club, which meets Wednesday evening in Bingham hall, will be addressed by W. G. Query, tax commissioner of the state of South Carolina, who will describe the system of tax levies on luxuries in that state and will estimate the advantages of the establishment of a similar system in North Carolina.

Query is recognized as a leading authority on the subject of luxury taxation, and the day before coming here he will address the North Carolina Conference of Social Sciences at Durham.

MASON SELECTED GRAIL PRESIDENT

(Continued from first page)
its utmost to raise Carolina morals even higher.

Dean Bradshaw spoke on the "Service of the Grail to the Campus." He outlined the efficient way the order had functioned in the past and expressed a desire for the continuance of this work.

The banquet was concluded after each of the new members had said a few words. The final Grail dance of the year was given last night in honor of the new men.

got two hits apiece to lead the winners at bat. In addition to driving in two runs, Harrington scored twice.

Willie Powell was the only Tar Heel to get two hits. The other three safeties went to Ferebee, Dunlap, and Pattisall.

Box score:

Carolina (2)	ab	r	h	e
DeRose, lf	4	0	0	0
Weathers, 2b	4	0	0	0
Ferebee, ss	2	1	1	1
Dunlap, 1b	4	0	1	1
Blythe, rf	2	0	0	0
Brandt, rf	1	0	0	0
Peacock, cf	3	0	0	1
Powell, 3b	4	1	2	0
Pattisall, c	4	0	1	0
Longest, p	3	0	0	0
x Mathewson	1	0	0	0
Totals	32	2	5	3

x Batted for DeRose in ninth.

Duke (6)	ab	r	h	e
Kersey, 2b	4	0	0	0
Harrington, cf	5	2	2	1
Mitchell, rf	5	1	2	0
Shore, 3b	5	0	0	0
Gadd, lf	5	0	0	0
Hendrickson, ss	2	1	1	0
Weaver, 1b	3	1	1	0
Howell, c	4	1	2	0
Coombs, p	2	0	0	0
Flohr, p	1	0	0	0
Totals	36	6	8	1

Score by innings:

Duke	000	012	102	—6
Carolina	000	010	010	—2

The summary: Runs batted in—Howell 2, Powell, Mitchell 2, Peacock, Harrington. Home runs—Powell, Mitchell, Howell. Sacrifice—Weaver. Left on bases—Duke 9, Carolina 7. Bases on balls—off Longest 2, Coombs 1, Flohr 2. Struck out—by Longest 7, Coombs 3, Flohr 5. Hits—off Coombs 3 in 5 1-3 innings, Flohr 2 in 3 2-3. Hit by pitcher—by Longest (Hendrickson, Kersey). Passed balls—Howell 3. Winning pitcher—Coombs. Umpire—Brandon. Time of game—1:45.

TAR HEEL TEAMS FACED BY HEAVY WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Racquet Welders Start Northern Tour Saturday; Tracksters Will Meet Duke.

Carolina teams have a big week ahead. The tennis team will meet three Big Five foes and then launch the epochal invasion of the citadels of the north and east which led the Tar Heels to a national title last year. The baseball team will play two more crucial games in its state championship race, and the track and golf teams will have tests with their big rivals from Duke.

The Tar Heels' mighty netters, just out of a state tournament, will start the ball rolling, meeting Davidson here Monday afternoon, Duke here Tuesday afternoon, and Wake Forest here Wednesday afternoon.

Tennis Team Tours

They will open their big northern tour at Georgetown Saturday, and will follow that meet with such tennis leaders as Pennsylvania, New York University, Army, Yale, Harvard, and Brown. The Tar Heels met the same line of teams last year, except for Pennsylvania, and came off with an unbroken line of victories and a national title.

Coach Bunn Hearn and the Tar Heel nine will swing into action with a game here Tuesday afternoon with Davidson, a team the Tar Heels beat in an Easter Monday classic 8-7. They will also meet Wake Forest's Deacons, unbeaten in the Big Five to date, at Wake Forest on Saturday.

Cindermen Meet Duke

The Tar Heel trackmen, who outdid themselves individually and collectively when they recently took down powerful Navy and Virginia teams in one weekend, will get another tough test at Duke Wednesday afternoon. The Tar Heels took a 68-58 thriller off the Blue Devils last year.

The golf team will have an equally tough meet when it plays the Duke linksmen a return match at Hope Valley Wednesday morning and afternoon. The Tar Heels won the last meet 9½ to 8½.

The freshman teams also have several events on tap. The Tar Baby nine, which has beaten Duke in its one Big Five game, will play State frosh there Tuesday, Presbyterian Junior College here Wednesday, and Wake Forest frosh there Friday. The undefeated Tar Baby trackmen are supposed to have a return match with the Duke frosh, but the date hasn't been finally agreed upon.

We Have Just Received Several Hundred Pair of Trousers of Almost Every Description
SLACKS
KNICKERS, LINENS, VICTORIOS, Etc.
And you will be surprised at the new low prices
$1.95 thru $4.95
Sleeveless Sweaters—$1.50 up
Golf Hose, 50c up
Young Men's Shop
126-128 E. Main St., Durham, N. C.
Opposite Paramount Theatre

Chapel Hill Movie Guild
Presents
"STEADY COMPANY"
NORMAN FOSTER
JUNE CLYDE
ZASU PITTS
Doors open at 1:30
Hours of Shows—2:00, 3:15