

Tar Heels Meet Wake Forest To Decide Big Five Leadership

Captain Longest to Get Mound Call; Barnes to Pitch for Deacons in Tilt

Carolina's nine will meet the Deacons of Wake Forest this afternoon in what will probably be one of the most decisive Big Five games this season. A win over the Baptists will put the Tar Heels back in the running for the state championship with three victories and one defeat, to tie the Deacons record of three victories.

In their last game Wake Forest defeated Duke 6-5, with June Barnes on the mound, while the Tar Heels regained their batting eye against the Wildcats to the tune of a 14-5 victory, banging out fourteen hits for fourteen runs.

Longest May Get Call

The Tar Heels have won two and lost one, and Captain Cecil Longest will likely take the mound Saturday afternoon in an effort to put the Tar Heels on an even keel with the Deacons. Jim Griffith is the alternate pitcher Coach Hearn has in mind, but if Captain Longest is feeling right and ready, he will more than likely see mound service.

Longest pitched fine ball in the Duke game last Saturday, but his mates failed to hit behind him, and Duke gave Carolina its only licking in the Big Five, 6-2. The Tar Heel sluggers were back in form in the Davidson game, collecting fourteen blows, including a double, two triples, and two homers, off two Wildcat pitchers, and Coach Hearn hopes they'll keep it up at Wake Forest Saturday.

Southpaw Barnes Good

The Deacons have a southpaw named Junie Barnes, who is poison, judging by his feat in limiting Duke to five hits. If he pitches again Saturday, the Tar Heel batters may well need to be at their peak.

Coach Hearn has been stressing batting practice all week, and will pick his starters for offensive strength on the basis of practice games throughout the past week. The starting lineup will probably be Peacock, cf; Weathers, 2b; Ferebee, ss; Dunlap, 1b; Powell, 3b; Croom or DeRose, lf; and Blythe or Dixon, rf.

Carolina Features Lena Rivers Sunday

Mary J. Holmes' novel, Lena Rivers, which has been transferred to the screen with Charlotte Henry in the lead role, is being shown as the feature at the Carolina theatre Sunday afternoon.

The story, one of a young girl born under the stigma of illegitimacy, has been read by over thirty millions since it was published. Lena Rivers's popularity exceeds that of any others of Mrs. Holmes' novels—such as Edith Lyle's Secret, Darkness and Daylight, and Tempest and Sunshine—each of which has numbered millions of readers.

Miss Henry, seventeen-year-old actress of the stage and screen, is the young girl who came to prominence at fourteen years of age in the stage version of "Courage," repeating her success in the film version opposite Leon Janney.

"Delayed by accident" was marked on an envelope mailed in April, 1906, at Commercy, France, and recently delivered at Harnes, states a dispatch in The Daily Illini. The letter took twenty-six years to travel 180 miles.

BUTLER DEFENDS ACTION IN CASE OF REED HARRIS

Columbia President Declares Students Should Be Responsible for Freedom in Editorial Expression.

In response to the storm of protest that the expulsion of Reed Harris, former editor of the Columbia Spectator, stirred up, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, declared in an article published recently that students should be allowed freedom to express editorial opinion, but they should likewise be responsible for the use of the privilege.

The article was understood to be an attempt by President Butler to clarify his views on the censorship of that issue of the Spectator that caused Harris' dismissal. Although no direct reference was made to the former editor, it was clear that the president's purposes was to conciliate the two factions on the campus who have taken sides on the matter.

In his article Butler said: "To be effective and to be useful, the conduct of such an organ of undergraduate opinion must be free as any well-conducted newspaper in the selection and publication of its news, and in the formulation and expression of its editorial opinions. It must, of course, accept the same responsibility for abuse of privilege that every citizen accepts in his daily life among his fellows.

"The Columbia Spectator is the natural and indeed almost necessary organ and reflection of undergraduate interest, undergraduate sentiment, and undergraduate loyalty. The academy of its support, the character of its news, and the judicious restraint and objectivity of its opinions are therefore matters of general importance and concern.

"Any undergraduate journal which has had so long and so interesting a history deserves the long and prosperous future which all Columbia heartily wishes for it."

Arlen Heads All-Star Cast At Carolina Today

Richard Arlen heads an all-star cast at the Carolina theatre today in his new Paramount air picture, "Sky Bride." Flying is nothing new to Arlen, who spent hours in the air during the making of "Wings." During the World War he was a second lieutenant in the Royal Flying Corps.

In "Sky Bride" he is united once more with his pay of "Touchdown," Jack Oakie, who portrays a mechanic knowing all about airplanes, but having no desire to fly in them.

Others in the cast include Virginia Bruce, who appeared in "Whoops" with Eddie Cantor; Charles Starrett, who played with Arlen and Oakie in "Touchdown"; Robert Coogan, and Louise Closser Hale.

As a result of charges of illegal tactics the twenty-four fraternities at Stanford University have been barred from further rushing or pledging activities until next November.

IMMENSE CROWD WITNESSES START OF PENN RELAYS

Ohio State Leads First Dog's Play; Bowman of L. S. U. Stars for South.

The annual Penn Relays were inaugurated yesterday before an immense crowd of track and field enthusiasts. The athletes were presented with ideal weather and the track was in good shape. Ohio State University garnered the lion's share of the honors for the first day and indicated that they would have to be considered as a serious candidate for Carnival honors.

The best race of the day was the 440-yard college relay championship, which was taken by a speedy quartet of Ohio State runners. The winners of the heats were selected on a time basis and four teams faced Starter Johnny McHugh in the finals; Ohio State, Pennsylvania, Georgetown, and Princeton. At the first leg the teams were pretty well bunched but on the exchange Penn gained valuable yardage and seemed on her way to victory.

Don Bennett, Buckeye sprinter and Big Ten champ, took the baton at the 220 mark in third place, but showed his class by passing the stick to Fazekas, his anchor man, with a lead of ten yards. Al Kelly, running last for Georgetown, crossed the line behind Fazekas in second place after a stirring duel with Jones, Penn runner, in which he just eked out second honors. The time of the race was 42 seconds, which was four-tenths of a second slower than the carnival record. Wise, Teitlebaum, Bennett and Fazekas composed the victorious team; Wise and Teitlebaum are to run in the mile relay team this afternoon.

The south broke into the limelight when Sid Bowman, L. S. U. athlete, captured premier honors in the hop, step, and jump with a leap of 47 feet 9 3/8 inches. Bowman, who was a member of the 1928 Olympic squad, indicated that he is in good form and when the final selections are made for wearers of the American shield at Los Angeles, he may be among the select group. The Louisiana trackster took third honors in broad jump in the Conference indoor games in the Tin Can last winter.

Jack Keller, Ohio timber-topper, retained his carnival championship in the 120-yard high hurdles, hitting the tape just in the van of Lockwood, Yale hurdler. His time of 14.8 seconds was one-tenth of a second behind his relay record of 14.7. Captain Johnny Black of the Buckeye team was third.

Inquiries about the University summer school from out-of-state students are more numerous than in previous years. Letters have been received from every state south of Maine and east of the Mississippi river. One week-ends' mail netted two hundred and sixteen out-of-state letters.

CAROLINA FROSH DEFEAT DUKEMEN

Tar Babies Get 73 1-2 to 52 1-2 Win; Hawthorne Scores Ten Points.

The Carolina freshman track team traveled to Durham yesterday to hand the Duke frosh their second defeat this season, by the score of 73 1/2-52 1/2. The meet was an exciting affair with the Tar Babies showing a decided superiority in the track events.

The best race of the day was the hundred in which Tarrel, Blue Imp star, nosed out Gunter after a nip and tuck affair. Gunter, came back to turn in an impressive victory in the 220, breaking the tape in the fast time of 22 seconds, to beat Tarrel by about a yard. The quarter was taken by Marsden after a hard race with Berry, Duke runner. Hawthorne scored 10 points for the Carolina runners by taking firsts in both hurdle races. His time of 15.8 in the highs was the best he has done this season.

Harry Williamson's mile in 4:34.2 was nice running and if he had been pushed, might have done somewhat better. Armfield, Tar Baby star in the javelin, tossed the spear 162 feet 4 inches for first honors in that event.

The frosh exhibited a lot of potential power and will be among the favorites in the state championship affair which will be run off a week from today in conjunction with the state varsity track championships.

TRACKMEN BEGIN PREPARING FOR N. C. STATE MEET

Duke and Davidson Expected to Offer Threat to Tar Heels Seeking Big Five Title.

As a result of the impressive showing made in the Duke meet Wednesday the Carolina track team will go through light workouts this week-end, and on Monday start concentrating on the defense of its state championship honors, in an attempt to extend its streak of victories to twelve straight.

The state meet, which is being held at Chapel Hill this year, will bring together several strong teams, one of which is the Davidson contingent. The Wildcats have had a fairly successful season so far, bowing only to the Duke team. In their last start, the Davidson tracksters decisively defeated the Wake Forest runners by the score of 107 1/2-81 1/2.

Fleagle and Brannon are the two outstanding men on the team and have turned in excellent performances in their events. Fleagle is one of the fastest men in the state, having run the century in under 10 seconds on numerous occasions. Brownlee, Duke ace, was pushed to a 22 second furlong by the Wildcat runner, and with these two, and Charlie Farmer toeing the mark in the state meet, the 220 mark may go by the boards. Brannon, Davidson distance star, was clocked in 10 minutes flat in the two mile race with the Gobblers and in last year's state meet finished second to Cliff Baucum, Tar Heel captain, who set a new two-mile standard of 9:51.7.

The Davidson outfit is a well-balanced one, and will not be lacking in menace when the state meet rolls around one week from today.

FACULTY TAKES ACTION AGAINST HONOR SYSTEM

By College News Service
Seattle, April 29.—Abolishment of the honor system in connection with law school examinations at the University of Washington this week was announced by Dean Harold Shepherd.

"Cheating among law students is almost unbelievable," he declared. "We are positive that certain students cheated in law examinations, and we are going to use every means to prevent any more such practices."

He said he was referring particularly to examinations given for the winter quarter.

Instead of the honor system, law exams will be strictly supervised by faculty members, Dean Shepherd said. Those found cheating probably will be prevented from taking state bar examinations, he indicated.

A controversy over whether a snorer produces more noise on the intake or the exhaust is raging at the University of Chicago.
