

NOTED SWEDISH SCIENTIST WILL LECTURE TONIGHT

No Admission Will Be Charged
For Second Offering of Entertaining Committee.

Axel Boethius, world famed archaeologist, will give an illustrated lecture tonight at 8:30 o'clock in Memorial hall as the second entertainment of the year sponsored by the student entertainment committee.

There will be no admission charge for the lecture and students who have pass books will not be required to present them for admission.

Boethius' fame as an archaeologist is world-wide and he is recognized as one of the leading men in his field. He is a graduate of Uppsala university in Sweden. He has spent a number of years in Greece with the British School of Archaeology and has also excavated with the American expedition of which Dr. J. P. Harland of the University was a member.

Director of Swedish School

For the last five years Boethius has been director of the Swedish School of Archaeology in Rome and has devoted a great deal of time to the study of the small ancient Roman town. He has made this field his specialty although he is also one of the best authorities on ancient architecture of Greece and Rome.

He is in the United States on the invitation of the American Archaeological Institute to deliver a series of lectures on Roman Domestic Architecture and the problems of the small town of Rome in the ancient times.

LARGE AUDIENCE GREET SINGERS

Negro Chorus Gives Beautiful Interpretations in Recital Here Sunday.

A large and enthusiastic audience of nearly a thousand greeted the Sedalia Singers Sunday afternoon at Memorial hall in a concert sponsored by the three cabinets of the campus Young Men's Christian Association.

Their program, composed chiefly of negro spirituals and folk songs elicited high praise from all those present. They gave several beautiful interpretations of the feeling of the colored man for the southland, and their rich melodies seemed to transport their hearers down through all the decades of the past century when the negro has done his daily work with cheerfulness typical of the race.

Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown and Miss Amy Bailey, manager and director respectively, have become known all over the nation for their brilliant work at the Alice Freeman Palmer Institute from which the singers come. They seemed very pleased with the University audience. Dr. Brown, who is the manager of the choral group, gave the program without charge. A free-will offering amounting to $85.44 was taken up to defray the traveling expenses of the group.

President Graham Will Speak

President Frank P. Graham will address the southeastern group of North Carolina chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution tomorrow morning in Wilmington.

Carolina Student Is Injured In Durham

J. George Stoll, a student at the University, is in the infirmary as a result of injuries sustained when a speeding automobile struck him. The accident occurred on the corner of Holloway and Roxboro streets in Durham. The car was driven by a man said to have been drunk and was traveling at approximately a fifty miles per hour pace when it hit Stoll. About a half mile further on the car swerved into a pole, and the driver was caught at the wreck.

Luckily Stoll escaped serious injury. His jaw is swollen and there are lacerations all over his body where the car struck him and where he landed after being thrown about seven feet into the air. He was at first taken to the Duke hospital and was transferred here Sunday.

WILKINSON TALKS FOR REPUBLICANS IN CHAPEL TODAY

Student Will Present First of Series of Political Speeches For Major Parties.

John Wilkinson, representing the Young Republicans, will give the first of a series of three political speeches advocating the major political parties before freshmen assembly this morning. It was originally planned to have Hamilton Hobgood, of the Young Democrats, begin the week's political fireworks, but as Hobgood is suffering from a slight illness, his address will be presented Thursday morning instead.

Ben Proctor, of the Young Socialists, will defend his party platform Friday morning. Proctor left Burlington hospital Thursday. He was confined there as a result of a fractured skull sustained in an automobile accident.

Speaker Dan Kelly, of the Phi assembly, will preside this morning and also at Thursday's program. President Charles Rose, of the Di, will preside Friday.

These political speeches were made available to the student body as a result of resolutions passed by both the Phi and the Di to give the local parties an opportunity of carrying their special cases before the University.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS RETURN FROM MEETING

Dr. J. Minor Gwynn, Dr. E. T. Browne, Dr. H. S. Dyer, R. M. Crumman, Professor J. M. Lear, I. C. Griffin, E. R. Rankin, and Miss Sallie Marks have returned from Charlotte where they attended the tenth annual convention of the South Piedmont District Teachers, Friday and Saturday.

Dr. Gwynn, professor of Latin here, addressed the meeting of the Latin department Friday on "Suggested Revision for the Course of Study in Latin for North Carolina."

Professor Browne spoke on "The Incommensurables of Geometry" before the meeting of the mathematics department Friday. Dyer addressed the association of music teachers Friday.

Fraternity Group Meeting

There will be a meeting of the fraternity buyers association tonight at 7:30 o'clock in room 210 Graham Memorial.

FAMOUS DRAMA WILL BE OFFERED BY PLAYMAKERS

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" Will Be Presented Here Thursday, Friday, and Saturday Nights.

Uncle Tom's Cabin, famous novel and play of the '50's, will be seen for the first time on the campus Thursday, Friday, and Saturday as the initial offering of the Carolina Playmakers this season.

As first written by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, Uncle Tom's Cabin was only that part of the present book which deals with the death of Uncle Tom, but so successful was it in arousing interest that Mrs. Stowe created a beginning and middle for the story that sold 150,000 copies in the United States eight months after its publication.

Four months after it was brought out in England the London publishers of Uncle Tom's Cabin were supplying one house with 10,000 copies daily, over a period of four weeks, and more than a million copies had been sold in England at the end of 1852; "probably," said Nassau W. Senior, in sketching its contemporary effect, "ten times as many as have been sold of any other work, except the Bible and the Prayer-book."

MEETINGS OF PHI AND DI SOCIETIES SET FOR TONIGHT

Phi Will Discuss Tuition for Ministers' Sons; Di to Debate Minimum Wage Law.

The Phi Assembly will conduct its regular weekly meeting tonight in the assembly hall on the fourth floor of New East at 7:00 o'clock. The following are the bills which will be brought up for discussion: Resolved: That the property of churches should be taxed and that minister's sons should be compelled to pay tuition at the University; Resolved: That the Phi Assembly go on record as favoring the proposed amendments to the constitution which will be voted on in the coming general election in November; Resolved: That city-country consolidation be effected where it is possible in North Carolina.

Meeting of Di Senate

The Dialectic Senate will discuss the following bills at its regular meeting at 7:00 tonight in New West: Resolved: That the Di Senate go on record as favoring the classification of taxation in North Carolina; Resolved: That the Di Senate go on record as favoring the ruling of Secretary of Labor Doak prohibiting foreign students in the country from working in the vacation or part-time periods during the regular scholastic year; Resolved: That the United States should adopt a minimum wage law; Resolved: That the Di Senate go on record as opposing the Grundy tariff measure.

Among important business to be transacted is voting on Senator McMichael's proposed amendment to the constitution advocating that an exception be made for fourth year students from the clause requiring all dues to be paid within the first six weeks of school.

Epsilon Phi Delta Meeting

Epsilon Phi Delta will conduct its regular meeting tonight at 8:15 in Graham Memorial.

VENTURES ON SEA ARE RELATED BY CAPTAIN HARTLEY

Former Commander of Leviathan Makes Interesting Address In Assembly.

Captain Herbert Hartley, formerly captain of the S. S. Leviathan, was enthusiastically received by the sophomores and freshmen at assembly yesterday. Captain Hartley has had thirty-five years experience on the high seas, and was for several years commander of the Leviathan. While serving in this capacity, he made 850 trips across the Atlantic before crossing as a passenger. The captain recounted several of his early experiences as an introduction to his speech, and then spoke about several incidents which happened to him as captain of the Leviathan. Among these were the occasion of the crossing of Queen Marie of Roumania and an account concerning Mrs. Martin Johnson.

Captain Hartley gave an idea of the enormous amount of responsibility attached to such a position as was his by saying that it was like a housewife running a house three city blocks long, buying supplies, keeping check on materials, and watching out for the various needs of her guests.

DR. WEATHERFORD DEFINES RELIGION IN SERMON HERE

Y. M. C. A. Speaker Gives Reasons Why Christianity Has Advanced So Far.

"The conception of a group of men living in harmony and fellowship is the life eternal," declared Dr. Willis Duke Weatherford Sunday morning before a large congregation in which all of the various churches in the village were represented at the University Methodist church. This was his chief appearance during his visit here. Dr. Weatherford's subject was a definition of religion and the Christian life.

The speaker, who is president of the Southern Y. M. C. A. Graduate School in Nashville, Tennessee, affirmed that the true Christian is a friendly son of God and a brother of man; that the Christian is one whose whole personality goes out to God in worship and to his fellowman in friendly relationship.

Defines Religion

"Religion is the growth of the human soul," he said. "Intellectual assent and the mere understanding of theological dogma cannot make the sinner into a Christian. Religion is not emotional response, although emotion holds a high and honored place in our present order of society. We cannot simply attain religion by doing a good turn, nor can pure ritualism make us Christians. The man who attends church more regularly than his fellows, the man who prays the loudest, or the man who passes the collection plate is not necessarily the true example of a Christian. The Christian is he who enters into friendly relationships with God and his fellows," Dr. Weatherford said.

Another impressive point brought out by the speaker was the fact that Christianity has attained its high position in the world because it has gone farther than other religions in getting

Henderson Will Give Talk On Shaw Today

Dr. Archibald Henderson at the special request of Mary Dirnberger, has consented to make an informal talk on George Bernard Shaw this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock in the Bull's Head bookshop. Yesterday Dr. Henderson's new biography on Shaw was released by D. Appleton and Co., and the Bull's Head expects to get copies of the book before the time of the talk.

Dr. Henderson, who has known Shaw for twenty-nine years, regards him as the "world's grand old man of letters." He thinks that this volume on the great Irish wit is his greatest literary achievement.

Much of the excellent collection of material which Dr. Henderson has on the Irishman will be on display at the Bull's Head this afternoon.

RIFLE CLUB WILL MEET IN GRAHAM MEMORIAL

The Rifle club of the University is again functioning and members have been out to the club's range regularly for practice for forthcoming meets with the Durham Rifle club and various universities.

The club will meet tonight at 7:00 o'clock in 210 Graham Memorial to discuss important measures.

The officers of the club for the ensuing year are as follows: J. Pratt, president; C. J. Craven of the physics department, vice-president; and Dr. J. B. Bullitt, member-advisor.

CHEERIO MEETING PLANNED TONIGHT IN MEMORIAL HALL

Plans Will Be Made for Community Singing and Revival of Famous Cheering Group.

As was announced Saturday at the Carolina-State game, an effort is being made by Haywood Weeks, president of the student body, to inaugurate community singing at the football games here. A group of students are being organized to revive the Carolina Cheerios, famed cheering group at the University a few years ago, to serve as leaders in the community singing as well as the cheering. Students interested in the Cheerios will meet tonight at 7:00 o'clock in Memorial hall.

If possible, lantern slides of songs and cheers will be available tonight at the meeting of the Cheerios. Walter B. Patterson will act as accompanist on the organ for the cheering and singing tonight. Dr. H. S. Dyer will aid in the direction of the singing.

Two New Songs

In connection with this movement are the proposals of two new songs which will be used at games. One of the songs is sponsored by the Grail and one by an alumnus.

It is also tentatively planned for the University band to accompany the singing at games. Graduate Manager C. T. Woolen has promised to purchase megaphones for the use of the group, which will sit in a special reserved section of the stadium. The Cheerios will wear the same distinctive clothing that marked their appearances in the past.

EDUCATION GROUP CANCELS MEETING

Rosenwald Fund Is Forced to Withdraw Support of Conference on Education.

The annual meeting of the Southern Conference on Education, organized here in 1929, has been cancelled for this year on account of the lack of financial support. This enterprise has been financed for the past two years by the Julius Rosenwald fund.

Following the 1931 meeting in Chapel Hill, the foundation renewed the appropriation for the support of the conference and also appropriated an additional sum so that the meeting could be held in Atlanta this year.

Committee Notified

The program for the Atlanta meeting, scheduled for early December, was being made when officers of the Julius Rosenwald fund notified the local committee that the loss in the assets of this foundation had been considerable and asked the Southern Conference on Education to release the fund from the obligation this year.

Both the promoters of the conference and the officers of the fund expect to resume the work of the conference as soon as business conditions improve.

A. A. U. W. to Meet Tonight

The local branch of American Association of University Women will meet tonight at 8:00 o'clock in the Episcopal parish house. This meeting is a week earlier than usual because the regular time for meeting falls on election day, November 8. Pro-
