

Roosevelt Winning From Hoover In Landslide Vote

Student Council To Present New Campus Government Plan

Resolution Will Be Brought Up Before Union Forum in Session Tonight.

HONOR GROUPS PLANNED

Campus Organizations to Enter Discussion of Measure in Meetings Next Week.

At its regular meeting last Monday night the student council, after three weeks of careful consideration and debate, decided upon a proposal to revamp the University honor system. The resolution, to be discussed by the student body during the coming week, is:

Resolved by the student council: That the following proposal be submitted to a vote of the entire student body at a special election to be called at the will of the student council:

That, at the beginning of each quarter, each classroom group shall elect a committee consisting of a chairman and additional representatives in proportion to the number of the students in the class. This committee shall have the following functions and powers: (1) To serve as an honor committee for that particular class by which it is elected. (2) To try cases involving breaches of the honor system. (3) To suspend persons from the University who are reported and admit their guilt. (4) To report all cases of controversy to the student council for action.

The professor of each class shall, at the request of the student council, act as temporary chairman for the election of the honor committee. The committees will consist of from three to seven members; three representatives in classes up to fifty in enrollment, five in classes

STUDENTS TO HEAR HENRY I. FERGER SPEAK ON ORIENT

Missionary Has Spent Past Twenty-Two Years in North India and Punjab.

Reverend Henry I. Ferger, of North India and the Punjab, will address social science students on Anglo-Indian political relations in the auditorium of Bingham hall at 7:15 o'clock tonight.

The graduate students in the economics department, who are having this speaker for their regular bi-weekly seminar, are extending an invitation to graduates in sociology and political science and to all other persons interested in this topic.

The speaker has spent twenty-two years in the Orient as an educational missionary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions. During this time he has made a close study of native life and of the political attitudes of the people. He has prepared moving pictures with which to illustrate his lecture.

Reverend Ferger, who is the brother of Dr. W. F. Ferger, of the University, is to arrive at Chapel Hill Wednesday morning and to remain here until Friday night. He will then resume his lecture tour, speaking next at Atlanta.

ROYSTER AND PROCTOR WILL DEBATE GEORGIA

Vermont Royster and B. C. Proctor will represent the University of Georgia in Gerrard hall Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. The subject will be "Resolved: That the American Legion should be condemned." The University will meet Georgia at Georgia in the spring quarter or during the spring vacation. In the debate last year Don Seawell and Johnny Wilkinson won a decision over Georgia debating the negative of the question "That Roosevelt was the best candidate for president."

B. C. Proctor is well known for his socialist activities on the campus and throughout the state and won his debating monogram last year.

UNION FORUM TO CONDUCT SECOND MEETING TONIGHT

New Proposals of Council for Student Government Will Be Discussed.

The Union Forum will conduct its second meeting of the year tonight in room 214 Graham Memorial at 9:00 o'clock. All members are urged to attend, as matters of considerable importance will be discussed.

The sole purpose of this meeting is to discuss the new proposal of the student council concerning student government. The reason this issue is to be presented before the forum first is because the forum is the most representative group of the student body. It represents every geographical division of the campus, without discriminations or restrictions of any kind and has approximately one representative for every thirty students.

The student activities committee has similar functions to those of the Union Forum; but it is composed of the officers of the various important student groups and organizations and the faculty and administration officials, and therefore does not represent the entire campus.

One of the original purposes of the Union Forum was that it should serve as a means of determining student opinion on important pieces of campus legislation. It hears and discusses proposed legislation before it is put to a vote of the student body. It may also initiate and prepare legislation before it is presented to the student body. Any problem of student interest may be discussed before the forum. It is not a legislative group but, as the name implies, a forum in which conflicting elements of campus opinion may be heard and discussed.

Last year when certain proposals were made to revise the honor system, the Union Forum was the most active of all the groups participating in the discussion.

History Majors

All seniors majoring in history are required to see Professor F. M. Green of the history department before November 15.

EXTENSION GROUP MEETS IN DURHAM EARLY TOMORROW

Representatives From Eight Institutions Will Convene at Washington Duke.

Eight institutions of higher learning will be represented at the short business session of the North Carolina association of college extension to take place tomorrow morning in the Washington Duke hotel. R. M. Grumman, director of the extension division of the University and chairman of the group, will preside.

This group of extension directors organized in September, 1930 has adopted for its purpose, "to promote co-operative relationships among the institutions of higher learning in the state in the conducting of extension teaching; to encourage the development of general adult education; and to provide for an exchange of ideas and discussions of all phases of college extension work."

The following institutions are now participating in the extension plans: Catawba College, Davidson College, High Point College, Lenoir-Rhyne College, N. C. State, Salem College, University of North Carolina, and the Woman's College of the University.

UNIVERSITY MEDICAL SCHOOL HAS STRUGGLED FOR CLINICAL COURSE

Opening With the Preceptorial System in 1879, the Medical School Has Considered as Late as 1925 a Plan for Adding Two Years to Present Course.

Financial difficulties and sectional influences have since 1903 prevented the University medical school from offering the last two years of clinical work in its curriculum. As late as 1925 plans were formulated to expand the present course to four years, but the attempt was vetoed by the state legislature.

The plan was conditioned upon the building of a hospital in Chapel Hill or on the use of some other hospital in a nearby town. When the matter was presented to the board of trustees, it was voted to build a hospital as a memorial to those who lost their lives in the World War.

DR. McRAE TELLS ASSEMBLY ABOUT CHINESE DIALECTS

Episcopal Missionary From Shanghai Explains Difficulties of Language to Freshmen.

Dr. Cameron McRae, Episcopal missionary from China addressed the freshman assembly yesterday on the Chinese language. Dr. McRae is a native North Carolinian, but has been stationed in Shanghai, China, for the past thirty-three years.

Dr. McRae said that the first thing a missionary must do upon being sent to China is to learn the language, which is no easy task. Two entirely different languages must be learned, the written and the spoken dialect; these two have about the same relation that Latin and the modern Romance languages have to each other. The missionaries are taught the tongue by competent teachers in the various language schools.

McRae was brought to Chapel Hill through the endeavors of Rev. Tom Wright, assistant pastor of the Chapel of the Cross.

Infirmiry List

Yesterday the following were included on the infirmiry sick list: J. W. Kirkpatrick, J. E. Honeycutt, and P. L. Onasch.

Hoover Concedes Defeat In Face Of Unprecedented Electoral Lead

DR. POTEAT TO SPEAK ON ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM

The faculty committee on the Armistice Day celebration announced today that it has secured Dr. W. L. Poteat, president emeritus of Wake Forest college, to deliver the annual address at the exercises which will be held Friday morning at 10:15 o'clock.

President Graham has authorized the committee to announce that there will be no assembly Friday, and that the 9:30 classes will be dismissed at 10:08 o'clock in order to give those who will attend the exercises ample time to get there. The 11:00 o'clock classes will not begin until 11:15 o'clock.

The full program of the exercises will be announced later.

BAGBY OUTLINES NEED OF SOUND THEOLOGY TO 'Y'

Psychology Professor Says That Students Thrive Under Doctrines of Jesus Christ.

"Some educators in this state are saying that you won't be a success unless you have a thorough understanding of a very complex and confused theology; but if you adopt the fundamental principles of the teachings of Jesus Christ, your confusion will be gone," declared Dr. English Bagby of the psychology department Monday night before the freshman friendship council.

Dr. Bagby's subject dealt with the eradication of theological confusion by the psychological method of the successfully complete task.

Need of Successful Action

"When you're in religious confusion, you should employ the technique of the successfully completed action; that is, to go out and do some work with a social value attached to it, and one in which you will be thoroughly satisfied after having completed it," Dr. Bagby said, offering a solution to a problem confronting many University students.

The psychologist cited one of the best examples of this action as one where a Carolina student felt the need of a successfully completed action, and he proceeded to be a friend to a friendless man—one of the most beneficial tasks from a social standpoint that can be employed and one which at the same time rids a person of religious confusion, according to Dr. Bagby.

Dr. Bagby summed up the entire value of his speech with this Biblical quotation: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and thy neighbor as thyself."

"In this quotation," declared the speaker, "lies the entire obligation of mankind."

In the business meeting Jim Steere, chairman of the committee on freshman work, organized the members of the group into several squads to canvass the dormitories and to collect any articles of spare clothing they could find for the colored boys at the Palmer Institute.

N. C. DEMOCRATS IN LEAD

Staunch Republican Papers Concede Defeat Upon Early Indications of Landslide.

LATE BULLETIN
At 12:07 o'clock (E.S.T.) an Associated Press bulletin from Palo Alto, Calif., stated that Herbert Hoover had conceded the election to his opponent.

By Don Shoemaker

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for the presidency, was apparently swept into the White House by the largest electoral vote for one candidate in recent history, according to returns from only 10,000 of about 125,000 election districts at press time (1:05 a. m.).

The last tabulation of popular vote gave at press time Roosevelt 7,567,820 and Hoover 5,260,981.

The electoral vote was said to approximate 51 for Hoover and 456 for Roosevelt.

It was apparent shortly before midnight that the only states that the Republican candidate was given a chance to carry were Delaware, Idaho, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Montana, and Pennsylvania.

Papers Concede Defeat

The battle was apparently won in the evening, according to Frederick William Wild, Columbia Broadcasting company election prophet, who stated that with New York in the bag, Franklin D. Roosevelt was certain to carry the election. William H. Hill, chairman of the

SONG COMMITTEE REPORTS ON NEW SCHOOL ANTHEM

Grail's Effort to Secure New Tar Heel Song Results in "Battle Song."

The committee under the direction of Haywood Weeks, president of the student body, took final action Monday night, toward accepting the melody and lyric submitted by Thornton W. Allen of New York City, for the new school song being sponsored by the Order of the Grail.

The song, entitled The Tar Heel Battle Song, contains a military rhythm for marching, an ideal for singing and playing. Allen has utilized a strain suggesting the melody of the famous Dixie. The well-known lines, "I'm a Tar Heel born, I'm a Tar Heel bred," will also be used.

Professor Dyer returned the manuscript and the draft of the words, submitted by the committee, to Allen Monday night, with instructions that the harmonized version of the song be sent immediately for final approval. Following this approval, the song will be published in New York, and 500 copies will be delivered to the Order of the Grail for distribution on the campus.

Weeks Explains Honor System Proposal

At the beginning of last year the student council started a movement to revive the spirit of our honor system which has lapsed in recent years. Throughout the year the council worked diligently discussing and considering plans that might bring about the desired result.

Continuing the work of last year, and after three weeks of concentrated discussion, the student council offers what it believes to be a solution to the problem.

The proposed plan will not take anything from our existing system; instead it will add greatly to it. Following the lines of democracy in government, it will decentralize our present honor system, to a certain extent, and will give the individual student more responsibility in it. It reserves the right of students to report, at all times, directly to the student council in preference to the honor committees if they wish to do so. On the other hand, it provides a means through which a student, wishing to make a report, can do so more easily to more intimate representatives.

The honor committees' functions will not be limited to quiz and examination hours. They will serve throughout the entire quarter, taking account of all breaches of the honor system arising in their classes at any time.

The student council requests every student in the University to consider this plan, and to attend all discussions of it so that when the vote is taken, every person can vote with accurate and adequate knowledge of it.

HAYWOOD WEEKS.
