Cheerios Not Going To Davidson Game Today

The cheerios were not able to attend the Davidson game in a body today because enough students have not been attending practices. The cheer leaders want about 300 men to come out and join this organization but so far only about 150 have given their support.

It has been talked about the campus that the cheerios will go to Virginia for the Thanksgiving game. Whether or not this will be done depends on how the students show their support at the Duke game, it was announced yesterday. With this in view, everyone interested is requested to be present at the next cheerio practice, which will be conducted next week.

Tar Babies Wallop Virginia Invaders In One-Sided Fray

Third Score

Pendleton counted the third Tar Baby marker on a pass from Phelps who was on the twenty yard line. Montgomery put the ball in scoring position when he intercepted a pass on Virginia's thirty yard line. A blocked kick resulted in the Tar Babies' last score of the first half. After Arthur, Carolina end had thrown Virginia for a ten yard loss on their own twenty yard line they attempted to punt. The whole team rushed the kicker downing the ball on the fifteen yard line. Virginia was then forced to get off a quick kick which Womble took on the forty yard line and brought back to the five. Phelps crossed the goal line, and Arthur made the kick good.

Carolina started the second half still playing in great style. The Tar Babies received the ball on their own thirty. Montgomery then ran and passed the ball to the two yard line where Bullock ran it over for the last Tar Baby marker.

The rest of the game was all Virginia's. The third Tar Baby team was sent in. After a blocked kick, Virginia passed and ran the ball to the three yard line where Quarles ran it over for their first touchdown. The last marker came over the Tar Baby second team with Blanton leading the way. Leys scored on a ten yard pass from Blanton.

NEW CAROLINA SONG

Carolina Hymn. Music notation with lyrics: Dear Un-iver-si-ty! Thy sons right loy-ally Thy prais-es sing. For thee our Moth-er dear. May ev-ry com-ing year Fresh-crowned with joy ap-pears Fresh hon-ors bring.

Shown above is the new music for the time-honored University Hymn. Students are requested to clip the music and the remainder of the words found elsewhere in today's Tar Heel. Walter Patterson, the University's organist, is on tap to play the new music as soon as possible during student assembly period. If the tune proves popular with the students, it will be substituted for the old tune, that of "America."

APPROVAL SOUGHT FOR NEW TUNE TO UNIVERSITY HYMN

For some time he was the choir director of the St. Johns Lutheran Church in Salisbury, and he is at present attached to the staff of Theodore Presser and Co., musical publishers in Philadelphia.

The composer of the new tune for the University Hymn is also very well known for his many arrangements for male voices. This work was done for Oliver Ditson and Co. and G. Schirmer and Co., two of the foremost musical houses in America.

Lacked Original Tune

Up to this time the University Hymn has not had an original tune, being sung since its composition to the tune of America.

The hymn was written in 1885 by Cornelia Phillips Spencer, for whom Spencer hall was named. Since that year it has been the official hymn of the University, and it has been sung at all official functions to this day.

For almost a half century there has been a crying need for a new tune for the work so dear to all University graduates and students. This dream has now been realized with the advent of Rob Roy Peery's composition.

University Hymn in Full

The complete work as composed by Miss Spencer follows:

Dear University! Thy sons right loyally Thy praises sing. For thee, our Mother dear, May every coming year Fresh-crowned with joy appear, Fresh honors bring. Heaven blessed the genial ray Of that October day, When at thy shrine, Under the poplar shade, Their vows our fathers paid, Thy cornerstone they laid With rites divine.

TRUSTEES GATHER MONDAY TO ELECT UNIVERSITY HEAD

bringing about as complete an organization as possible to allow the Greater University to go into full operation next July.

Executives Choose Graham

Acting on the power conferred it by the full board, the executive committee recommended President Graham as head of the Greater University September 28. The board will in all probability endorse this recommendation and select Dr. Graham.

Under the plan of consolidation of the University, State College, and Woman's College adopted by the board, in addition to the president of the whole group, there are three vice-presidents, each directing one of the three institutions.

The selection of President Graham will make it necessary for the board to select a vice-president who will be head of the institution here. Though several men have been prominently mentioned, it is not expected that the board will take action at this meeting.

Take Up Tatum Petition

National attention, which has been drawn to the presentation of the Tatum petition against alleged subversive teaching at the University, will be focused on the board upon consideration of the petition. This document, condemning radical tendencies, which it claims exist at the University, was signed by over two hundred citizens of the state and calls for a purging of the University.

Local persons have refused to comment on the petition or on the probable action of the board; but editorial comment and personal opinion in the state generally have been unfavorable to the petition. It seems improbable that any action will be taken along the lines suggested by the petition.

Among other matters will be the filling of vacancies, acting on several resignations and other routine matters which the executive committee did not consider in its meeting last September.

Frosh Nominees Withdraw

Billy Yandell of Charlotte, nominee for president of the freshman class, has withdrawn from the race. Jesse Parker of Wilmington, who was nominated for treasurer of the freshman class, has also withdrawn his name as a candidate for office.

FAMOUS CONTEST AGAIN POSTPONED

Active Preparation and Formulation Of Coaching Staff Change Betting Odds.

Coach "Silent Pop" Albright announced yesterday that the Tar-Mag vs. Yackety-Buc grid-iron game, scheduled for Tuesday, would be postponed until later in the week, probably Thursday, since the intramural football finals would conflict with this most important clash. It is rumored that Albright, who says that he is continually misquoted or mis-rumored is playing for time so that he can whip his squad into better shape.

Meanwhile the betting odds in favor of the Tar-Mags have been reduced from 15 to 1 to about 14 to 1, in view of the recent announcement of Editor Mason of the Buccaneer regarding training. The Buc chief has demanded that all his charges sign a pledge agreeing to refrain from any sort of dissipation during the training period. It was also revealed that the Buccaneer staff has added twenty men to the business department in an effort to make them eligible for the game.

"Black-board drill," said Mason in an interview, "is being conducted every evening from 6:30 until 12:00 o'clock." The Yackety-Buc battle cry will be "Buc that line," he also stated. It is expected that the names of those who comprise the coaching staff of the Yackety-Bucs will soon be revealed, much it is thought, to the opposition of the Carnegie Foundation.

HARRIERS TO RACE DUKE TEAM TODAY IN SECOND MATCH

lina took a fairly good Florida outfit for a 22-38 ride last Friday.

Both clubs boast of a brilliant array of individual runners. The Tar Heel list is headed by Clarence Jensen, winner of last year's Southern Conference run; Louis G. Sullivan, winner of the Florida meet; and Captain Bob Hubbard. Duke's powerhouse is topped by Bray, fourth in last year's conference race with a time of 27:49; Lewis, thirty-first in the run; Heritage, and Bird. Bray pushed Jensen hard during the entire length of the course up to the laundry where the Tar Heel hit his stride.

Freshman Clash

Freshmen clubs of both schools will receive their initial baptism of fire in a meet to be run along with the varsity set-to.

Eight men—W. W. Caraway, L. B. Conte, O. H. Garrison, A. Mark, Barnaby C. Keeney, R. Y. McPhail, J. Sullivan, and H. L. Umstead—were indicated as the Carolina frosh slated to have their noses at the wire when the starting gun is sounded.

The freshman course will be around three miles, while the varsity men will negotiate the regulation conference five-mile course.

Lombard Plays Lead In Today's Attraction

O'Brien has a splendid characterization, that of a hardboiled New York taxi driver who knows all about women, but who marries a girl with a past only to discover on his bridal night that she has been convicted of immorality. How he courageously protects the girl he has married from the influence of her past makes one of the most appealing screen romances shown here this season.
