

COACHES TO TALK AT SMOKER FOR JUNIORS TONIGHT

Wallace Wade, "Chuck" Collins, R. A. Fetzer, and Others to Be Guests at Affair.

The members of the class of 1934 will assemble in Swain hall tonight at 9:00 o'clock to conduct their first smoker of the year. Clyde E. Boyles, president of the class, will address the juniors and will then turn the meeting over to Coach Bob Fetzer, who will act as master of ceremonies and introduce the principal speakers of the evening. Wallace Wade, director of athletics and head coach of football at Duke University, and Coach "Chuck" Collins of Carolina.

The main purpose in the selection of these particular speakers is to stimulate the friendly relations between the respective schools on the eve of their annual football game, according to the class president.

As another feature of the program, Jack Wardlaw and his Carolina Tar Heels will provide music from 9:00 until 10:00 o'clock. President Frank P. Graham, Dean Francis F. Bradshaw, R. B. House, and other University officials will be honor guests at the smoker. All the coaches are also invited.

Cigarettes and refreshments will be served, and all juniors are urged to attend.

S. A. E. CONQUERS DEKE TEAM 6-0

(Continued from page three) the score in first downs, 8-8, scored the game's only touchdown when Nutt Parsley took a short aerial and dashed fifteen yards to the goal.

Bob Gold, Irvin Boyle, and Ben Willis played best for the losers, while Buck Harris and Ansley Cope excelled for E. A. E.

Phi Alpha lost a chance to tie the score and possibly win from Lambda Chi Alpha when Jack Bessen failed in a desperate attempt to snare a long forward pass. Bessen had previously scored for his team on a brilliant run of about sixty yards.

Lambda Chi Alpha played a cautious game, however, and protected its lead, to triumph, 13-7.

Zeta Beta Tau Loses

Zeta Beta Tau dropped a heart-breaking decision to Phi Delta Theta, 5-4 in first downs. The losers had led throughout the second half, until, with two minutes to play, Chigger Moffit's outfit staged a march which netted it three first downs in quick succession.

Walter Brown did stellar work for the losers, turning in one seventy-yard run which failed a touchdown by only two yards when he was overtaken from the rear.

Kappa Alpha Scores

With Schriver, Everett, McGill, and Wiggs scoring freely and Morrison playing an all-around good game, Kappa Alpha trounced Delta Psi, 39-0, in the season's windup for both teams.

Council to Meet Tonight

There will be a short meeting of the interfraternity council tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Graham Memorial. Among the business scheduled to be brought up is a discussion of the Red Cross contributions of the representatives.

A.B. Seniors

Seniors in the college of liberal arts whose names begin with the letters "G" through "K" will report to Dean A. W. Hobbs today to make their application for a degree.

World News Bulletins

Powers Unite for Revision
England, France, and Belgium stood side by side yesterday, eagerly awaiting the outcome of the White House conferences on this nation's answer to separate but similar requests for a re-opening of the complex international debt problem.

Roosevelt Preparing to Meet Hoover

With the time drawing near for his meeting with President Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt is hastening to put in order his official business before departing for the White House.

France and Germany Join

The formation of a tri-partite economic consortium among France, Germany, and Great Britain, and designed to rehabilitate Europe, was announced yesterday in Paris by Raymond Patenotre, the American-born under-secretary for national economy of France.

President Is Back to Desk

President Hoover returned to the national capitol yesterday to be given rousing reception at the station by members of his official family and other groups.

Capone Fights for Freedom

Al Capone, Chicago gangster, was taken from the Atlanta federal penitentiary to the federal building in that city where he will seek his freedom on habeas corpus proceedings, it was announced yesterday.

Meeting On Lectures

Mary W. Hillyer, Manager of Lecture Series, Will Give Brief Outline Of Lectures and Speakers.

A meeting will be conducted this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Gerrard hall to discuss plans for a series of lectures sponsored by the League for Industrial Democracy. Miss Mary W. Hillyer, manager of the lecture series, will give a brief outline of the speakers and the lectures.

The series will include such subjects as: "The American Scene 1932," "The Literature of Revolt," "Socialization of Credit," and public utilities and public ownership. The speakers will be Harry W. Laidler, Dr. John D. Gray and Norman Thomas.

CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT ANNOUNCES LAW AWARD

The division of International law of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace announces that fellowships in International law will be awarded for the academic year 1933-34. There are two fellowships to be awarded.

One will be given to teachers, which carries an endowment of $1,000 with $300 added for traveling expenses if the winner wishes to study International law abroad, and the other is open to students who hold an A. B. degree. The student's endowment carries a grant of $1,000. The rules and regulations are posted on the bulletin board in the law building.

CALENDAR

Freshman campaign speeches. Memorial hall—10:30.

Lecture meeting. Gerrard hall—3:30.

Yackety Yack business staff. Graham Memorial—4:10.

Union entertainment. Graham Memorial—7:00.

Cheerio practice. Memorial hall—7:30.

Boxing and Wrestling squads. Gerrard hall—7:30.

Interfraternity council. Graham Memorial—7:30.

Field artillery school. Davie hall—7:30.

"Trouble In Paradise" Is Today's Attraction

"Trouble In Paradise," an Ernst Lubitsch production, comes to the Carolina theatre today with a cast headed by Miriam Hopkins, Kay Francis, Herbert Marshall, Charlie Ruggles, and Edward Everett Horton.

This cinema, from a play by Laszlo Aladar, is the story of the efforts of a couple of suave super-crooks—Miss Hopkins and Marshall—to swindle Miss Francis, a widow with a bank account as large as the war debt, out of her fortune, and of the complications, all of a humorous nature, which ensue when Marshall develops non-professional interest in his proposed victim.

Business Staff to Meet

The business staff of the Yackety Yack will meet this afternoon at 4:10 o'clock in the offices of the publication in Graham Memorial. All staff-members are requested to be present.

Artillery School Meets Tonight

The next session of the 316th field artillery troop school will meet in Davie hall tonight, at 3:30 o'clock, by order of Captain Dan B. Floyd of the field artillery, instructor.

Silvertone Quartet Will Sing at Informal Reception

The first of a series of informal entertainments, replacing the informal dances that were held, is scheduled for the main lounge of Graham Memorial tonight from 7:00 to 8:00. The entertainment will be furnished by the Silver Tone quartet, a local negro organization.

The management requests that no cigarette stubs be thrown on the floor of the lounge. At the last of these receptions, the floor hewas scarred by burning stubs.

Welcome Carolina

To the Store where college men invest in smart clothes.

Miller - Bishop, Inc.

"Where College Men Meet"

Durham, N. C. N. Corcoran Street

Last Guess

Here is a scene from the moving picture that sounded the knell of silent pictures. It was the first sound picture, produced six years ago, with John Barrymore as the hero and title-roleist. Mary Astor, Estelle Taylor, and Warner Oland had featured parts. If you remember the picture from which this scene is taken, bring your solution to the editorial office of THE DAILY TAR HEEL after 10:30 o'clock this morning.

This is the last of the "movie milestones" which you are asked to recall and name in a contest suggested by Ernest Lubitsch's new picture, "Trouble in Paradise," which plays at the Carolina theatre today.

The scene published yesterday was taken from "The Birth of a Nation." Phil Hammer, Ansley Cope and T. T. Teal were awarded passes for submitting the first three correct solutions.

LOCAL STORE EXHIBITS DISPLAY OF WILD LIFE

In a display window of W. C. Lyon and Company is an unusual exhibit of wild life in natural setting, consisting of birds placed in artistic form, squirrels and turtles in suitable positions, and hunting equipment in noticeable places.

At this time of the year many of the students and townspeople buy their state hunting and fishing licenses from this store where there is an agent for the department of conservation and development of North Carolina.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

THE JUGGERNAUT OF THE JUNGLE

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the famous animal painter, Paul Bransom... inspired by the savage charge of the African rhinoceros crashing through the untamed jungle. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted" That package of mild Luckies