Duke Wins Heartbreaker From Carolina On Soggy Field In Kenan Stadium

Blue Devils Take Advantage of Break in First Quarter to Push Over Score.

LANEY SCORES FOR DUKE

Plunges Over From Two Yard Line for Only Score of Game; Brandt Plays Brilliantly.

Heated to a boiling point by one of the most intense rivalries in the south, Duke's highly touted football machine, by taking advantage of a break in the first quarter, scored a 7 to 0 triumph over the fighting Carolina Tar Heels on a muddy field yesterday.

Approximately 20,000 fervent fans braved the threatening weather to see the Blue Devils break the Carolina victory jinx and register the first victory a Durham eleven has been able to garner over the Tar Heels in forty years.

Duke Threatens

Roaring along, devoid of the smashing power it was rated to have, the Duke juggernaut threatened to score in the initial period when Wentz, Blue Devil end, blocked Woolen's punt on the 35-yard line. The battling Collinsmen turned back every Duke thrust to take the ball over on downs only to be victims of a costly break a few plays later.

With the ball in midfield, Laney, Coach Wade's best back, kicked, the ball bouncing off McCaskill and was recovered by Means of Duke on the 20-yard line. A 15-yard penalty ensued when Coach Collins came on the field to protest the decision of the officials, placing the ball on Carolina's 5-yard line.

The elixir of life furnished to the situation by the Tar Heel line kept the victorious aggregation away from the promised touchdown land for two downs, but Laney made a dive over the left side of Carolina's line to register the first Duke touchdown in three years. Cornelius converted by place kicking to make the score 7 to 0.

Carolina was unable to make any scoring gestures the first half, but Duke managed to reach the Tar Heel 25-yard line by virtue of Rossiter's superior kicking and Mason and Laney's plunging. The half ended with Duke trying to penetrate Collins' line on the 24-yard mark.

Third Quarter

A short time after the resumption of hostilities in the second half, Kahn recovered Laney's fumble of "Pepper" Martin's kick on the 40-yard stripe to give Carolina the ball in Duke's territory. Duke took the ball on downs and lost it a minute later when Laney fumbled again when Brandt hit him hard and Walker recovered on Duke's 25-yard. Two smashes and McCaskill's fumble with Duke recovering terminated the Tar Heel scoring attempt.

Electrifying the shivering crowd by intercepting White's pass, Laney scampered to the Carolina 15-yard line from his 43-yard marker for the longest run of the game. White knocked him out of bounds. Displaying a great defensive stance, Carolina took the ball over on downs.

Another Duke Threat

In the fourth quarter, Duke again menaced the Carolina goal line, reaching the 10-yard mark before the Tar Heels thwarted their chances of another touchdown. The game ended with the Blue Devils hammering away at the Carolina's line on the 20-

Duke Freshmen Defeat Davidson Team, 14 To 6

Counting twice in the third period, the Duke Blue Imps took their fourth straight win in as many starts, downing Davidson's Wildkittens 13 to 6. Davidson rallied in the last period, pushing across their only marker.

Neither team threatened in the first half. Intercepted passes paved the way for both of the Duke scores. Whitener crossed the goal line for the first touchdown and Alexander tallied a few minutes later for the second marker. Alexander placed-kicked for the Duke extra point after the second marker.

Veriible carried the ball over for Davidson in the final period after a march nearly the entire length of the field.

FROSH HARRIERS TAKE WIN FROM DUKE YEARLINGS

McPhail of Carolina Takes First Place With Fine Time Over Three Mile Course.

Placing three men in the initial five to cross the finish line, Carolina's powerful freshman cross-country team chalked up a 24-31 victory yesterday over Duke first year men.

R. Y. McPhail, who has shown marked ability all season, clinched first place with the fine time of 16:30 for the course. MacQuarrie and Ford were the only Duke men to finish in the first five, being second and third respectively. L. Conte was fourth.

In one of the finest goal line sprints ever seen in a Carolina freshman harrier meet R. M. Neel, finishing fifth, barely nosed out Umstead of Carolina who was sixth and Witherell of Duke who was seventh. Witherell and Umstead, close together upon entering Emerson field for the final dash, were a full score of yards ahead of Neel before the latter forged ahead.

The full summary is as follows: McPhail, Carolina, first, 16:30; MacQuarrie, Duke, second, 16:37.2; Ford, Duke, third, 16:44; Conte, Carolina, fourth, 16:54; Neel, Carolina, fifth, 17:01; Umstead, Carolina, sixth, 17:02; Witherell, Duke, seventh, 17:02.3; Keeney, Carolina, eighth, 17:21; Coeste, Duke, ninth, 17:28; Everhart, Duke, tenth, 17:43; Doerk, Duke, 17:45; Eberley and Hollingsworth, both of Duke, tied for twelfth with 18:23.

The outstanding man in the field was George Brandt, his scintillating work at end being above the defensive play of any other performer. Chandler played a whale of a game as did George Barclay. Both men were removed from the game because of injuries, Barclay returning in the fourth quarter. Walker did some excellent work at end. Underwood was a tower of strength at center.

Laney and Mason stood out for Duke as the star performers. The work of Crawford, J. Dunlap and Rossiter in the line was consistently good. Laney and Rossiter did some fine booting, outkicking Carolina's punters by decisive margins.

First downs favored Duke, 5 to 1.

Star In Carolina Defeat Yesterday

CAVALIERS HAVE HIGH SPIRIT FOR TAR HEEL GAME

Play Against V. P. I. Last Week Showed Improvement and Encouraged Followers.

Virginia's football team, for the next few afternoons at least, will drill at top speed in order to be ready to face North Carolina in Scott Stadium at two o'clock on Thanksgiving afternoon.

Through this afternoon the Cavaliers will have a mixed diet of rough contact work, dummy scrimmage, drill in position play and in blocking and tackling, and signal drill. Next week, for three afternoons, there'll be only light workouts devoted to polishing the attack and strengthening the defense.

Starting Team Set

Coach Fred Dawson has been running together the same 11 men who started against V. P. I. This includes Captain Lewis Reiss in center, Horace Hallett and Chris Tompkins as guards, Buck Poss and Ray Burger in the tackles, and Bill Condon and Gene Wager on the ends. Tommy Johnson continues to call signals with Frank Sippley and Gene Stevens as halfbacks and Spencer Berger in as fullback.

If there are to be any changes in this lineup for the Tar Heel game it has not been indicated by Coach Dawson. Henry Sackett, who is back in uniform again after four weeks of nursing a bad shoulder, has been following the regulars in their signal drill. But it is not likely that he'll be with the starters against Carolina.

George Coles, tackle, and Johnny Dial, guard, have been in some of the rough going in (Continued on last page)

WESTERN STATE GRID TEAMS GO INTO TITLE TILT

Durham Downs Raleigh 34-0 for Eastern Title; Charlotte To Meet Salisbury.

Durham high school won the eastern North Carolina class "A" football championship Friday by defeating Raleigh, 34-0. Durham was undefeated in the 1932 campaign which ended this week-end.

Salisbury's great eleven, by trouncing Winston-Salem, Friday, went into a tie with Charlotte for the western honors. Neither team has been defeated. The deadlock will make necessary a change in the date of the state championship tilt with Durham, which was scheduled for next Saturday in Kenan stadium. Salisbury and Charlotte will play some time the coming week for the western title and the winner will meet the eastern winner either December 2 or 3.

The class "B" title race narrowed to two teams Friday. Mount Airy won the western honors Friday by downing Reidsville, 12-6, and Elizabeth City surprised with a sensational win over Lumberton, 7-6. Mount Airy and Elizabeth City will meet for the state class "B" title Friday, November 25, in Kenan stadium.

In other class "A" games this week-end that marked the season's end, Goldsboro beat Rocky Mount, 12-7, and Greensboro and High Point fought to a scoreless tie.

Charlotte is the only unscored-on class "A" team in the state. The big team from the west amassed 82 points on the offensive. Durham easily leads in points scored, totalling 151 (Continued on last page)

SOUTHERN TEAMS GREATLY CHANGE GRID SCHEDULES

Carolina Remains on Vanderbilt Card, While Vandy Severs Relations With Tulane.

With this football season almost over, Southern Conference teams are arranging their next year's schedule, and as a result many important changes are being made. The most outstanding announcement so far was that Vanderbilt broke off athletic relations with Tulane.

Carolina Plays Vandy

The Commodores said they would play six Southern Conference teams next year but would make several changes of opponents. Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, and North Carolina would remain on the card, but that Tulane, Georgia, Maryland, Mercer, and Western Kentucky were being dropped. Sewanee, Louisiana State, Oklahoma, and Ohio State are new opponents.

Reports have it that Georgia Tech would probably not play the Green Wave in 1933, but Tech officials claim they have taken no action on next year's schedule. Although they have not released their card, Tulane may play Colgate, Pittsburg, and Maryland next fall.

New Intersectional Tilts

Several intersectional contests have been arranged. Georgia, who won their third successive game from Yale last year, will play the Eli after the two teams had severed relations this fall. V. M. I. and Mercer meet Navy at Annapolis. Virginia has Ohio State scheduled in Columbus, and Louisiana tackles Oregon in Portland. South Carolina has Villanova and Louisiana State on their card for 1933.

Kentucky will cut their schedule from nine to eight games next year. V.P. I. has been dropped from the Wildcat card.

COLLEGE DAILY ASKS WHY NOT PAY PLAYERS?

The Minnesota Daily asks editorially: "Why not pay football players? They constitute the most important cog of the athletic money making machine, and all they get in return is a lot of slush about fighting for dear old 'Alma Mater' and that 'tired aching feeling.' "Coaches are changed as soon

SULLIVAN LEADS HEELS

Louis Sullivan Takes Fifth Place For Carolina, and Hubbard Follows for Sixth.

Slushing five miles through mud and rain, Duke University harriers copped the ninth annual Southern Conference cross-country meet yesterday with the low score of 23 points, 22 points ahead of Carolina with 45. V. M. I. tallied 68; Tennessee, 125 for third and fourth positions.

Bob Bird and Jerry Bray, Duke's premier tracksters, led the field in a dead heat. Their time was 27:21.8, falling less than a minute short of Galen Elliot's record set in 1927. Captain "Red" Davis, also a Duke man, was third with 27:34.6, 100 yards behind his mates.

Carolina Second

Carolina's defending champs turned in some mighty fine performances, but they failed to put enough men towards the front ranks. Clarence Jensen of Carolina, last year's winner of the event, finished seventh with a time of 28:02. Both Louis Sullivan and Captain Bob Hubbard of Carolina finished ahead of Jensen, the former fifth with 27:52.8 and Hubbard trailing for sixth with 27:58.

Burruss of V. M. I. was third with 27:46.8. The highly touted Cadet club could do no better than clinch third place with 68 points.

Tennessee gave the dope bucket the most unprecedented kick of the day. The Vols only had five men to finish, four of whom were in the final seven.

Jerry Bray who tied with Bird for the championship was fourth in last year's event. The Duke man led the 1931 harrier procession all the way to the laundry where Jensen hit his stride. Bob Bird didn't run last year, but Captain "Red" Lewis, finishing third yesterday for Bob Tuttle's outfit, improved his position considerably. He advanced from thirty-first last year to third this year.

Sullivan Leads

Another lad who turned in fine work yesterday was Louis Sullivan, a boy who has been a consistent runner all season for Carolina. Last year Louis finished fourteenth, but he advanced to fifth position this year to lead the Tar Heel procession. Henry Sullivan, his twin brother, finished twelfth with 28:34.4.

Several lads failed to negotiate the full course, among whom was Robert McCallough, a boy who had traveled from Oxford, Miss., to enter the meet. Washington and Lee didn't enter a full club either, but M. R. Dunaj, a General, finished eleventh with 28:29; and E. L. Bond, his mate, was fourteenth with a time of 29:10.2.

as a losing streak occurs. Everything is done to make a winning team. Its good business. Therefore, why not pay the deserving workers?"
