

BOXERS TO START IN HARD TRAINING AFTER CHRISTMAS

Tar Heel Mitmen Will Take Out Gloves on January 3 to Train For Meet With V. P. I.

Training for the varsity and freshman boxing teams will end tomorrow for the holidays and it will be resumed on January 3, the first day of classes. Coaches Rowe and Allen request that all their men report then to begin intensive training immediately.

On that day the last and most important training siege starts. The V. P. I. meet comes on January 14th, leaving the boxers just eleven days in which to polish their attack and put on the finishing touches. As they are sure to be a bit rusty following the Christmas vacation, it will be necessary that they start working for perfection as soon as they return to Chapel Hill.

Three boys, all of them sophomores, will go to this winter's wars far the varsity with unblemished records. Nor Quarles, last year's freshman sensation as a 125-pounder, Lee Berke, 155-pounder, and Sam Gidiansky, who was the frosh mainstay at 165 pounds, will be fighting to keep that record intact. They are in fine condition and appear ready to go right now.

Marty Levinson, who will put on gloves for the last time this year for Carolina, will be watched closely. He has been one of the greatest stars ever to fight here. In three years of intercollegiate competition, he has

Carolina Theatre To Give Charity Matinee

All adults and children bringing canned goods will be admitted to the Saturday morning matinee at 10:00 o'clock at the Carolina theatre to see an all comedy program for the first time. Students are urged to attend and, in this manner, help charity in Chapel Hill.

At the regular Saturday shows, starring Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy in "Me and My Gal," by the courtesy of the Carolina theatre, girls will be admitted free if accompanied by escorts.

UNIVERSITY WILL RE-OPEN SCHOOL WORK JANUARY 3

(Continued from first page) is suggested by the cashier that students save time by attaching their bill to a money order or check for the amount due and mailing it to him rather than waiting in line. The bill will be receipted and returned. All students who do not pay by mail will pay at the cashier's window beginning January 3 and continuing through January 13, according to a schedule printed in an earlier issue of THE DAILY TAR HEEL. All students who do not pay their bill during this period will be assessed $5.00 for late payment.

Fine for Late Registration

Students who have been in attendance at the University during the fall quarter, and who register late for the winter quarter will be placed on one month's probation for each day their registration is delayed. They will also be charged a delayed registration fee of $5.00. The same penalty as for late registration, including the $5.00 fee, will apply to those students who fail to attend their first day's classes. No excuses are accepted.

Those students who find that they are unable to return for a continuation of their work are asked to notify the dean of the school in which they are registered before January 3.

Contrary to any previous announcement, the Christmas vacation for law school students will be the same as that of the other students at the University, from Wednesday, December 21 to January 3.

lost only four bouts, and it is expected that in his swan song to college boxing, he will run up another string of victories.

Furches Raymer, who is expected to return after the holidays, will be an added asset to Coach Rowe. Raymer was unbeaten in six freshman bouts two years ago and last year, his first on the varsity, he won four and lost five. He holds something of a record in Southern conference competition, having scored a 45-second knockout over Bill Towler of V. P. I. last year.

Peyton Brown, Carolina's slugging light-heavy, who may also return to school, is another knockout artist. As a freshman, he scored six knockouts in six starts. Last year on the varsity, he won five bouts and lost three.

Best House Leads In Intramural Race For Cup With A. T. O. Second

Six Dormitory and Seven Fraternity Teams Have Scored More Than One Hundred Points, Garnering Them in Football, Boxing, Wrestling, and Cake Race Competition.

Thirteen teams, six dormitory and seven fraternity, have rolled up more than one hundred points in their quest for the cup awarded annually by the intramural department to the team which scores the most points throughout the year.

With all returns in from events of the fall quarter, during which competitions were held in football, boxing and wrestling, and the cake race was run, Best House, which competes in the dormitory division of the campaign, is far in the lead with 585 points.

Alpha Tau Omega, which leads the fraternity outfits and trails only Best House for campus honors, has 437½ markers, while Lewis, another dormitory organization, is third with 341½.

Best House Versatile

Best House rolled up its tremendous total by scoring heavily in all four branches of fall competition. The 1931 campus football champions fared less well on the gridiron this season, but gained 75 points for entering a team. In the cake race the Best House runners tallied 150 markers, while its wrestlers and boxers accounted for 175 and 185 respectively. A. T. O.'s points were gained as follows: 175 for football, in which the fraternity's eleven won the campus championship; 160 for wrestling; 57½ for the cake race; and 45 for boxing.

Lewis, runner-up for campus leadership in football, scored 125 for its gridiron efforts, 79½ for the cake race, 135 for boxing, and 2 for wrestling. Had Lewis representatives fared better in this latter department, they would be in a position to threaten A. T. O.'s hold on the runner-up position.

Final Statistics

Final statistics on competitors in the fall intramural program reveal that 43 teams took part, with 470 individuals competing for fraternities and 405 for dormitories, making a total of 875 men taking part altogether.

Final standings of the leading teams at the close of fall quarter competition follows: Best House, 585; A. T. O., 437½; Lewis, 341½; Sigma Nu, 184; Everett, 177½; Chi Psi, 174½; Tau Epsilon Phi, 162½; Aycock, 160; Grimes, 155; Zeta Psi, 155; Beta Theta Pi, 137½; New Dorms, 125; Kappa Alpha, 107.
