

CLASS OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR ARE NOMINATED

Thirty Men Placed in Running For Positions at Meetings Of Rising Classes.

Candidates for officers of the rising senior, sophomore, and junior classes were nominated at meetings of the various groups last night. Thirty men were placed in the running for positions, which will be voted on at the elections tomorrow.

The rising senior class, gathering in Gerrard hall, nominated the following men for offices: president, Nat Townsend and Vergil Weathers; vice-president, Tom Webb and George Brandt; secretary, Julian Frankel and Red Rankin; treasurer, Corney Bretsch and Dan Jones; and student council representative, Earle Beale and John O'Neil.

At the meeting of next year's junior class in Bingham hall, the names of the following men were proposed as officers: president, Harry Williamson and Stuart Aitken; vice-president, Simmons Patterson and Leo Manley; secretary, Richard Somers and J. D. Winslow; treasurer, Ezra Griffin and Jack Poole; and student council representative, Ed Martin and Harold Bennett.

Men for officers of the rising sophomore class were nominated at a gathering in Bingham hall. The following men were put up as candidates: president, Jack Clare and Russell Mickle; vice-president, Morty Ellisberg and Billy Yandell; secretary, David McIlhenny and Vance Young; treasurer, Jake Austin and Billy Binder; and student councilman, Carl DuPree and Billy Coan.

Vermont Debaters Speak to Di And Phi

The Philanthropic assembly and the Dialectic senate will conduct their second joint meeting of the year tonight at 7:15 o'clock at the Phi meeting place in New East.

The University of Vermont will debate Carolina at the meeting on the question of War debts. Carolina will take the affirmative side of the question: "Resolved: That the war debts be cancelled." Edwin Lanier and A. S. Kaplan will debate for Carolina.

The Carolina representatives worked out last night against Eddleman and Russel.

Meyer Appointed To Advisory Committee

Professor Harold D. Meyer of the University department of sociology has just accepted an invitation to serve on the advisory committee of the education division of the National Safety council, it was announced here yesterday.

The appointment was made in recognition of Professor Meyer's active interest in this field for many years, chiefly through secondary schools. More than 500 local councils are scattered throughout the country. Professor Meyer is educational director for the Boy Scout movement in four southern states.

Other members of the education division of the council are: Dr. E. B. Cuberley, dean of the school of education at Leland Stanford University; William McAndrews, superintendent of schools of Chicago; Mrs. A. H. Reeve, international president of the Parent-Teacher congress; and Harold Rugg of the department of education at the University of Chicago.

ANNUAL Y. M. C. A. ELECTIONS TO BE CONDUCTED TODAY

Polls for Voting on Four Offices Will Be Open at Lobby From 10:00 to 5:30.

Polls in the election of officers of the Y. M. C. A. for next year will open this morning in the "Y" lobby at 10:00 o'clock and close at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. Four new officers will be chosen to succeed Bill McKee, president; Jim Steere, vice-president; Ike Minor, secretary; and R. M. McMillan, treasurer.

Only those students registered on the rolls of the association as active members are eligible to vote, including both those students holding membership cards and those who have attended at least three regular cabinet meetings each quarter.

Candidates for the presidency will also run for vice-president. The man receiving the most votes will become president and the one receiving the second highest number will serve as vice-president.

The nominees selected by a nominating committee and accepted by the association last Tuesday night are: president, Ike Minor and Lawrence Fountain; secretary, Simmons Patterson, Locke Sloop, and J. D. Winslow; treasurer, Tom Nesbit and Jack Poole. John Acee was also nominated for the presidency when the nominations were thrown open to the floor.

Yackety Yack Meeting

There will be a very important meeting of the entire Yackety Yack staff this afternoon at 1:45. Nutt Parsley, editor of the publication, urges all men to be present at this meeting.

DAY FOR PARENTS IS POSTPONED BY UNION DIRECTORS

Event Originally Scheduled for This Spring Has Been Set For Next Fall.

The parents' day planned by Graham Memorial board of directors for this spring was postponed until next fall at the meeting of the group yesterday.

This day, which has as its purpose a definite program for having parents visit Chapel Hill on a designated day, was scheduled for this quarter but the board, by its action yesterday, set the event for October 12, when it will be held in concurrence with Founder's Day.

Arrangements for a reception for high school students Friday night, April 14, during high school week, were made at the meeting yesterday.

The board made a ruling that no dances requiring an orchestra can be given in the building. Small groups, however, will be allowed to dance following smokers or other entertainments.

Another matter considered yesterday was the publication of a booklet to be presented to visitors as a souvenir and to be sent to other unions. This booklet would give interesting facts about the local building and would include its history.

Second Grail Dance Set Saturday Night

The Order of the Grail will conduct its second dance of the spring quarter in Bynum gymnasium Saturday night between the hours of 9:00 and 12:00 o'clock, it was announced yesterday.

Following a custom inaugurated last spring, the Grail has announced that freshmen will be admitted to the dance Saturday night. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Jelly Leftwich and his orchestra.

The third and final dance of the school year will take place Saturday, May 6. At this dance, the new members of the Order, who will be chosen later this quarter, will be honored.

Student Cooperation During High School Week Is Urged

A list of high school contestants entered in the annual high school week events at the University, April 12 and 13, will be posted in the lobby of the Y.M.C.A. tomorrow. Students willing to room one or more chosen contestants for one night during the two-day competition are asked to sign up at the desk in the "Y."

High school week officials, headed by E. R. Rankin of the extension division, have asked the freshmen friendship council to help in the rooming of the two hundred high school students. Definite steps have been taken by the group under the leadership of Jesse Parker.

Other Policies To Be Published Tomorrow

Because of a lack of space in this issue of the paper, the qualifications and platforms of the candidates for editorships of the Buccaneer and Yackety Yack will be published tomorrow.

Twenty-Nine Nominated For Campus-Wide Posts

Candidates To Give Views This Morning

Platforms, policies, and views of the three candidates for the presidency of the student body next will be presented in Memorial hall this morning at chapel period.

B. C. Proctor, Lindy Cate, and Harper Barnes, nominated to the position and standing for election tomorrow, will speak at this time, each presenting the reasons why he should be elected.

The program of the gathering this morning follows the custom of allowing candidates for the position to speak their minds on the conception of the office. All students of the University have been especially urged to attend.

Buccaneer Nomination Goes to Karl Sprinkle

At a meeting of the Carolina Buccaneer staff Sunday, Karl Sprinkle, art editor, received the staff nomination for next year's editorship of the publication over Pete Ivey by a vote of fifteen to five.

The meeting for the purpose of nominating the next year's editor was originally scheduled for last night, but it was moved up in order that the name of the candidate picked by the staff might be proposed at the nominations in Memorial hall yesterday morning.

Other nominations were not prevented by the staff nomination, and Ivey's name was presented to the students yesterday. However, the nomination of the staff is generally regarded as official.

NAMES PROPOSED AT CONVOCATION

Ernest Hunt Re-elected as Chief Cheerleader as His Nomination Goes Unopposed.

POLLING IS SET TOMORROW

Twenty-nine students of the University were yesterday nominated as candidates for fourteen elective campus-wide offices for next year at a student meeting in Memorial hall. Elections for thirteen of these offices will take place in Graham Memorial tomorrow.

Ernest Hunt, candidate for the fourteenth office, was re-elected cheerleader when his nomination yesterday went unopposed.

Approximately six hundred students attended the meeting yesterday, over which Haywood Weeks, president of the student body, presided. Long rounds of cheers and applause greeted each nomination.

Hot Campaign

The meeting yesterday presented a contrast with the nominations of last year when all but three of the nominees received no opposition and went into office without standing for election. Already this year a hot campaign has developed, and plenty of political fireworks are expected.

Nominations for the president of the student body were Harper Barnes, Arlindo S. Cate, and B. C. Proctor, while nominees for vice-president are Benton Bray and Lee Greer.

For president of the athletic association Floyd Higby and Dave McCachren were named. Norman McCaskill and Norred as official.

(Continued on last page)

Candidates For Presidency Of Student Body Give Qualifications And Policies

HARPER BARNES

Qualifications: Permanent president senior class of 1932; representative on student council for sophomore class of 1930-31; carry-over representative of student council for 1931-32; president of Dormitory Store association; elected best student of his senior class; average of 93 on four years' work; representative on Student Forum; Epsilon Phi Delta Cosmopolitan club; Amphoterothern, honorary discussion group; member TAR HEEL editorial staff.

Policy: Believing that the students of the University are intelligent enough to realize that there are natural limitations on what the President of the student body can accomplish, I pledge myself as a candidate for the Presidency of the student body to make student government truly representative of student opinion and to further all causes which are the express desires of the student body.

It is my conviction that actual qualifications and a wide personal experience in dealing with student problems are of greater importance than the proclamation of promises.

It is obviously incumbent upon the President of the student body to do all in his power to bring about "a close cooperation between the student body and the University administration"

LINDY CATE

Qualifications: President of the senior class; manager of varsity basketball; student councilman from junior class last year; carry-over member and secretary of the council this year; member board of directors of Graham Memorial; Monogram club; junior-senior dance committee last year; junior class executive committee; campus dance committee; honor roll student.

Policy: Believing that the Carolina student body should follow a policy of democratic unity with individual and collective effort toward University advancement, I pledge myself as a candidate for President of the student body to the following program:

1. A sane reduction of student fees for next year.
2. A thorough co-operation with the Woman's association.
3. A firm endorsement of the reorganized Monogram club.
4. A concerted effort for better campus spirit and a reorganized cheering system.
5. A close co-operation between the student body and the University administration.
6. To ascertain student opinion and secure its expression.
7. A program for a better understanding of the University by the people of the state.
8. An adequate program for

(Continued on page two)

B. C. PROCTOR

In the past the job of president of the student body has been more an honor than a job for two reasons, namely: the lack of strong men in office and the fact that men in the office have owed political obligations for their election. The presidency could be of infinite service to the student body if there were elected a qualified man who owed no frame-up any thanks for political support. A person who owes no political obligations can act in accord with student opinion without asking whose style it cramps if he acts. A person who owes political obligations must watch his step for fear of treading upon a former supporters' toes. The position of an independent candidate has an advantage from the student body's point of view over party candidates.

The only motivation for running for office is self-interest. My future is intended to be in public service. It is then my best interest to serve the student body's best interest. To me the job is not an honor, but a trust of the student body and an opportunity, by serving efficiently, to help my own future.

With the exception of the secret orders on the campus, there are but few organizations with which I have no contact. Since my work has thrown me

(Continued on page two)

Candidates For Tar Heel Editorship Give Purposes

CLAIBORN CARR

Qualifications: Editor of the Student Journal, official publication of the North Carolina Federation of students; chairman of the editorial board of Bud, a magazine published by Phillips Russell's English class in creative writing; sports editor of THE DAILY TAR HEEL for the past year, having served as reporter, member of the foreign news board, desk man, and city editor during three years of work on the staff of the publication; member of the Yackety Yack staff for two years;

Secretary of the Order of the Grail; secretary of the Student Audit Board; one of three Juniors appointed to serve on the Student Advisory Board of the Division of Student Welfare; member of the sophomore class executive committee; member of Y. M. C. A. for three years, serving as chairman of the Y publicity committee for the past year; member of Amphoterothern, honorary discussion group; member freshman basketball and baseball squads, and varsity basketball squads; took an active part in the reorganization of the Monogram club; organizer of a club for the entertainment of visiting athletic teams.

Promising nothing which is beyond the bounds of fulfillment, I will work continuously

(Continued on last page)

DON SHOEMAKER

Qualifications: Official staff nominee; present chairman editorial board; reporter, sports columnist, assistant sports editor, 1930-31; desk man, city editor, feature writer, 1932; chairman feature board, editorial writer, 1932-33; editor Carolina Handbook 1932-33; associate editor, Carolina Magazine, 1932-33; representative-at-large Publications Union Board, 1931-32; contributor to Yackety Yack and Buccaneer; president Epsilon Phi Delta Cosmopolitan club; Di Senate; Y. M. C. A. cabinets; previous professional journalistic experience as reporter and sports editor.

Program: 1. A definite expansion of THE DAILY TAR HEEL in an effort to reach every member of the student body, making the paper truly representative of the whole University.

2. THE DAILY TAR HEEL is a newspaper, not a literary magazine, and therefore it shall strive to GET THE NEWS and report it ACCURATELY in a clear and concise style.

3. The editorial policy shall represent student opinion and be concerned with campus events, touching national and international questions only when they are directly connected with the campus.

4. I advocate weekly meetings of the staff so that the group

(Continued on last page)