Y. M. C. A. DEVOTIONAL MEMORIAL HALL 10:30 A.M.

The Daily Tar Beel

4:00 P. M. EMERSON FIELD

TAR HEELS vs. DAVIDSON

VOLUME XLI

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 1933

NUMBER 151

VARIED PROGRAM IS OUTLINED FOR DOGWOOD EVENT

Boy Scouts, Professional Artists, and Junior Playmakers To Take Part in Festival.

Among the features of the Dogwood Festival here Friday and Saturday will be a number of arts and crafts exhibits with prizes for each, and a camporee to be participated in by Boy Scout patrols of North and South Carolina.

The third annual exhibition of the North Carolina Professional Artists' club will open Saturday in the central lobby of the Hill Music hall. The art exhibits will last two weeks and will be free to the public. On Thursday the crafts exhibit will begin in Graham Memorial. Children of the community will be admitted free Friday if accompanied by teachers or parents. A small charge will be made Saturday.

Scouts to Present Program Scout patrols will meet here Friday afternoon to begin the three-day camporee. Camps are to be set up in the wooded area near Kenan stadium where the competing patrols will be judged until Sunday morning. There will be general inspections Friday afternoon and Sunday morning, when the patrols will A be graded on outdoor cooking and camping.

Scouts will be guests of the University at the Carolina-Duke track meet and at the various Festival exhibits Saturday afternoon. Friday night there will be a general camp fire program, with each patrol presenting a stunt. Contests between patrols will be conducted Saturday.

Artists to Show Work

tect and president of the club; Mary Tannehill, vice-president; urday afternoon. William Pfohl, secretary-treasurer; Mary deB. Graves of Chapel Hill, first president of the club; Mrs. Isabelle Bowen Henderson, William Steene, Cle-(Continued on last page)

Fraternity Buyers Association ed by Phoebe Barr. Saves Nine Per Cent on Total Purchases.

A net savings to the member lodges of nine per cent on total purchases of household supplies was reported for the year 1932-33 yesterday by the Fraternity Buyers Association, Inc.

C. Dudley Miller, business manager of the fraternity supervision service, also stated that plans for the coming year included further savings to the twelve member fraternities by the establishment of a fraternity pressing club and a branch distributing center for canned goods, staples, and household supplies.

The savings for the past year were figured on the total goods purchased by the twelve fraternities and on the basis of the regular retail prices.

Organized Last May

The Fraternity Buyers Association, Inc., was organized last May by members of a dozen local lodges with the object and pur-(Continued on last page)

Chosen Most Beautiful

Pictured above is Sara Walser, who was selected by members of the senior class as the most beautiful co-ed in the group.

Will Be Produced by Junior Ralph Fuchs, A. C. Jacobs, W. E. Playmakers in Connection With Dogwood Festival.

In connection with the Dogwood Festival this week-end, the faculty of the summer law Junior Playmakers present their school at the University, accordadaption of the fantastic Arab- ing to announcements just put ian Nights story, Ali Baba and in the mails, will include Ralph the Forty Thieves. There will Fuchs, of Washington Univer-Among the artists whose be three performances in the sity, St. Louis; Albert C. Jacobs, work will be shown are: Louis Playmakers theatre, at 8:30 of Columbia University, New Vorhees, prominent artist-archi- o'clock Friday and Saturday York City; William E. McCurdy, nights and at 3:00 o'clock Sat- of Harvard University, Cam> by a cast of children from the Foster Fitz-Simons, include a Oriental palace of Cassim. Oriental dances are performed by the young slave girls, direct-

To Be Played In Raleigh

The production is not designed for children alone, but for adults as well. The performance of Cinderella by the Junior Playmakers last year called forth numerous requests for respecial productions of Ali Baba have been requested. In comium May 6 under the auspices of summer he spoke on banking the Raleigh associated charities.

Manning Heads Society

Dr. I. H. Manning, dean of the school of medicine at the University, was installed Wednesday night as next year's president of the North Carolina Medical Society.

Master's Written Exam

Candidates for the master's degree in education will report business staff of the Buccaneer for the written examination tonight at 7:00 o'clock in Grapose of promoting, fostering, Saturday morning at 9:00 ham Memorial. All members o'clock in 201 Peabody hall.

McCurdy, and R. T. Steffen To Teach in Summer.

The visiting professors in the bridge; and Roscoe Turner Stef-Ali Baba, adapted and direct- fen, of Yale University, New ed by Harry Davis, is produced Haven. Professors Fuchs and Jacobs will teach administratvillage. Three elaborate scenes, ive law and landlord and tendesigned for the production by ant, respectively, during the first term, which runs from treasure-cave glittering with June 12 to July 19. Professors diamonds and the resplendent McCurdy and Steffen will teach sales and banking, respectively, during the second term, from July 20 to August 26. Each of these visitors will use his own casebook.

Both Professors McCurdy and Steffen have taught at Chapel Hill in the summer law school before. Professor McCurdy gave domestic relations in the summer of 1930, and Professor Stefpeat performances, and several fen the course in banking the summer of 1931. His name then was Roscoe B. Turner. For pliance with one of these, the family reasons, a year ago he drama will be produced in Ra- changed his surname to Stefleigh at the Memorial auditor- fen. As Professor Turner, that

(Continued on page two)

Magazine Released

The spring issue of Studies in Philology, of which Dr. George R. Coffman of the University faculty is editor, has just been released.

Buccaneer Business Staff

are requested to be present.

SENIOR STUDENTS CHOSEN BY CLASS STAFFS OF DAILY

Sara Walser Named as Most Beautiful and Hanes Lassiter as Best-Looking.

Sara Walser of Lexington was picked as the most beautiful co-ed in the senior class at holidays to accord the honors of ser formerly attended Queens- beginning at 3:00 o'clock. Chicora College in Charlotte, University.

student. Wright has been a men at 4:00 o'clock. varsity tennis player for three years, is president of the German club, and a member of Fleece. The class chose Milton from the staff. Barber as the most influential. commencement marshal, and a Minotaurs.

Idol is Sweetest

Percy Idol, three-year vargrapplers in the past campaign, was chosen the sweetest member of the class. Idol, who is from High Point, won a varsity letter this year for outstanding athletic performance. He the Southern conference heavyweight wrestling champion.

the best athlete by the seniors. In addition to his exceptional service on the football, baseball, and track teams, Chandler is a Fleece.

(Centinued on last page)

One Hundred And Sixty Dollars Owed Junior Class Treasury

TO MEET TODAY

Reporters Gather at 2:30, Editorial Board at 3:30, City Editors at 4:00 O'clock.

Meetings of three departa meeting of the class before the ments of the DAILY TAR HEEL staff will be conducted at Grasenior superlatives. Miss Wal- ham Memorial this afternoon

At that time, members of the this being her first year at the reportorial staff will meet with Lenoir Wright of Charlotte Editorial writers will gather at class treasury. was selected the best all-around 3:30, and city editors and desk

Attendance Required

Barber is from Raleigh, is chief positions on the staff is now go- Yack. These eight pharmacy ing on. Nominations for places students represent a loss of member of Gimghoul and the are as follows: chairmanship of $40.00. the editorial board, Vergil Lee, There were fourteen people Vermont Royster, and Lonnie who had their pictures taken as Dill; assistant sports editor, juniors but who were registersity wrestler and captain of the Bill Anderson and Jimmie Mor- ed as sophomores in the fall ris. Joe Sugarman was unani- quarter and paid no junior class mously chosen at the staff ban- fees. The class fee for the fall quet to serve as chairman of the quarter was $5.00 and these 14 feature board.

Milton Kalb, Judah Shohan, is and Bob Barnett have been found who had registered as nominated for the position of dramatic critic, and the follow-Stuart Chandler of Durham ing men are competing for their pictures taken as juniors. was accorded the honor of being places on the city desk: Phil Hammer, Bob Page, Jack Lowe, $40.00. and Irving Suss.

During the holidays, improvements were made in the office of and one person who has not been member of the Order of Golden the publication. The editor's desk has been set off by a parti-Julia Bates Brown of Tarboro tion of glass and veneer, and a was chosen the most popular co- new desk for the managing editor has been installed.

CLASS PRESIDENT REVEALS EVASIONS

Thirty-Two Members of Class Have Failed to Meet Obligations: Action Planned.

CLASS DUES

President C. E. Boyles of the junior class announced last night that in checking over the members of the class owing dues and those who had their pictures taken for the Yackety Yack and charged to the junior class, he the editor and managing editor. found that $160 was due the

Tabulating the junior registrations of the fall and winter quarters and checking the regis-The editor has announced that tration number of each member attendance at these meetings is of the class, President Boyles Gimghoul, Phi Beta Kappa, the required, and that members who found that there were eight Order of the Grail, and Golden do not attend will be dropped pharmacy students who have had their pictures taken as bona Competition for two executive fide juniors for the Yackety people represent a loss of $70.00.

A group of eight people were sophomores in the fall and winter quarters and have also had These eight represent a loss of

One special student was found that paid no fall quarter fees registered during the whole year. These two represent a $10.00 loss.

Haywood Weeks, president of the student body, stated that notices were being sent to these students calling their attention to their errors and that they would be expected to account for their actions before President Boyles and make arrangements to pay the money owed. President Weeks also stated that student council cases will be made of all those failing to make pro-

Bibbing Of Bubbling Booze And Beer By Boys Banned Years Ago History Records Many Incidents

McCORKLE WILL PLAY AT CAPITAL

Professor Will Be Accompanied on Piano by His Wife in Washington Recital.

McCorkle has recently appeared in a series of recitals in this state including several concerts on the campus as soloist with the University symphony. back that far into the past. His recital tomorrow is sponsored by Ralph D. Shure, organist composer and president of the liquid refreshments, "get - tocomposers' club of Washington.

The program will include Sonata in C minor by Grieg, Concerto in E minor by Mendelssohn, Barcarole by MacMillen, Gophers and The Meadow Lark by Burleigh, and Scherzo by Goens.

Probation In Effect

Students who were absent imfices or at the registrar's office.

About Carolina Gentlemen Who Tapped Bowl.

Chapel Hill and beer—that is, legal beer and thirsty Chapel Hill—have been longer separat- per arrangements immediately. Professor T. Smith McCorkle, ed than any living interested obinstructor in the music depart- server can remember. All talk ment, leaves today for Wash- of the "good old days on the ington, D. C., where he will ap- Hill," when the stein was as pear in a solo violin recital to- common as the paper-cup, is morrow evening. He will be as- mere fanciful reminiscing, for sisted by Mrs. McCorkle at the the sale of any alcoholic beverage within four miles of Chapel Hill has been prohibited by a statute that was passed more than a century ago-and even Uncle Billy McDade can not go

Before the time when students had to journey afield for and good-fellowship was often mellowed around sparkling bottles and heavy barrels. Battle, in his history of the University, mentions the fact that intoxicating liquors were so common that the faculty hardly censured it except when drunkenness resulted.

Whoopee-1823 Style

One story of the "old days" mediately before or immediately recounts the incident in which group received favorable reafter the Easter holiday period nineteen of twenty-eight memare reminded that a penalty in- bers of the senior class of 1823 volving strict class probation celebrated the passing of their There will be a meeting of the for the remainder of the quarter final examination by having a is now in effect. Any informa- "high old time." They protion about probation can be se-cured a large quantity of whiscured at the several deans' of- ky and brandy and carried it to | Song and Cripple Creek by La-

(Continued on last page)

Presentation in Forest Theatre To Be in Connection with Annual Festival.

The Carolina Salon ensemble, directed by Thor M. Johnson, will play in the program of the Dogwood festival in the Forest theatre at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 29. The group will accompany several gethers" were not uncommon dances and will play a group of compositions based on native folk tunes.

The ensemble opened its spring series of concerts in Winston-Salem Friday, April 21, with a group of three concerts, ending with an appearance and radio broadcast at Salem College. This series of appearances was the second made by the ensemble in Winston-Salem. The views of its program from the press critics.

The program of the ensemble Saturday will include Danse Moronique by Herbert Hazelman, After Midnight, Mountain mar Stringfield.