

NRA WANTS F. P. GRAHAM FOR EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

P. U. Board Cuts Junior-Senior Year Book Fees

SENIOR PAYMENTS REDUCED BY $1.25

Upper Classes May Cut Assessments or Employ Extra Funds for Other Uses.

Substantial reductions in junior and senior Yackety Yack fees were made yesterday by the Publications Union board.

One dollar and twenty-five cents was clipped from the senior year book payments and one dollar from the junior fee. The reduction plan passed unanimously.

Last year the senior representation amounted to $5.25 and the junior to $3.25. The new Yackety Yack fees from the upper classmen will be $4.00 and $2.25, respectively.

Classes Have Alternative

The action of the board will give the two classes the alternative of either reducing the class dues as a whole or leaving them at the respective levels, thereby increasing the percentage available for class use.

A situation such as arose last year which culminated in an extra assessment of a half-dollar from each senior to make the treasury break even can be averted. The strengthening of the class financial conditions was one of the advantages considered in yesterday's session, according to Bill Eddleman, board president.

Offers 20 Per Cent Discount

In addition to the class fee reductions, the board also passed a motion offering a twenty per cent discount to all campus organizations which pay their Yackety Yack bill before December.

MINOR RECOVERS CONSCIOUSNESS

University Student Injured in Wreck Reported Improved At Watts Hospital.

Sidney Minor, University freshman who was injured in an automobile wreck Tuesday, has regained consciousness and is doing "just fine," it was reported from Watts hospital yesterday.

Maurice Hoggard, member of the first-year class from Lewiston, who was in the car with Minor at the time of the accident, was also reported as doing well.

For a few days, Minor remained unconscious, but it was learned from the nurse on the case that the doctors are very optimistic as to his chances of recovery.

The accident occurred on the Hope Valley road when the automobile, driven by Minor, swerved from the road and ran into a nearby field. Hoggard received contusions and bruises, while Minor was more seriously injured. The Misses Frances Stephens and Maude Dunn, both of Durham, who were also in the car, received fractured legs.

Grimes Dormitory

All students in Grimes will meet tonight at 9:00 o'clock in 214 Graham Memorial to elect officers.

Two Painters Seriously Hurt In 40 Foot Fall From Scaffold

Two painters, C. R. Brown, a former student, and A. G. Baldwin, were seriously injured shortly after 1:00 o'clock yesterday when the scaffolding swung from the extreme rear of Phillips hall broke and they fell about 40 feet to the ground.

A hasty examination revealed that Brown apparently sustained a fractured skull, broken arm and leg, and internal injuries. Baldwin suffered an injured back, broken shoulder and ankle, and internal injuries. It is feared that Brown may have been injured seriously and that Baldwin's back may be broken.

A ladder swung between ropes, which the men were using for a scaffolding, split and a thin board bent with the weight of the men, causing them to fall to the hard-packed ground before they had a chance to save themselves. No reason for the fall of the ladder could be given since the same one had been used in the painting of the rest of the building.

The men were taken immediately to Watts hospital in Durham. Brown is from Hillsboro and Baldwin is a local man. Both had been working for some time for the University buildings department.

MAYFLOWER CUP TO BE AWARDED

The University men and their books are: E. R. Groves, "Marriage"; R. B. Vance, "Human Geography of the South"; W. B. Sanders, "Negro Child Welfare in North Carolina"; H. R. Huse, "Illiteracy of the Literate."

Mrs. Morgan F. Vining, who writes under the name of Elizabeth Janet Gray, is the author of "Jane Hope," published two weeks ago by the Viking press.

The large, hand-wrought silver cup, now on permanent display in the Hall of History in Raleigh, was first offered three years ago by the North Carolina society of Mayflower descendants. The first winner was Dr. M. C. S. Noble, for his "History of Public Schools in North Carolina." Last year the award went to Dr. Archibald Henderson for "Bernard Shaw: Play-boy and Prophet."

BRADSHAW SPEAKS ON FRATERNITIES

Dean Says Social Orders Desirable but Not Essential at Freshman Assembly.

"A fraternity is a group formed on the basis of congeniality of interests for the purpose of having common, convenient, and comfortable quarters and social activity," said Dean F. F. Bradshaw in addressing the freshman assembly in Memorial hall yesterday.

"It is not an academic or social aristocracy, nor is it a political club," he pointed out in answering the question: "What is not a fraternity?" "There is no effect in this University on undergraduate averages from joining, since averages for fraternities and non-fraternity men amount to about the same when academic aptitude is considered. As for the social aspects, many are asked to join on account of background, wealth, personality, or other considerations; it is easy, therefore, to see that a fraternity is not a social aristocracy. Politically, membership in a fraternity helps one to get an introduction into campus government and activity, but that is as far as it goes. Of course fraternities are used just as are other groups to assure a group vote to a party."

Dean Bradshaw discussed the advisability of becoming a member, saying: "If a fraternity invites you to join their group, if you think that you can afford it, that you will enjoy the associations, and that this life will enrich your own, I would advise you to join. Otherwise, I would say that you should not."

"However, a fraternity is by no means essential," Dean Bradshaw concluded. "You can see that some of the best and most prominent men on the campus are non-fraternity. Above all, remember that you are choosing a group with whom you will live for the next three or four years, and decide well even if you are not ready to pledge today."

Infirmiry List

The following students were confined to the infirmiry yesterday: E. S. Miller, M. S. Schockley, D. C. Douglass, Joe Grier, A. M. Garris, and Katherine Williams.

NATIONAL HEADS WIRE EHRINGHAUS

Graham Makes No Statement; To Wait to Consult Executive Committee of Trustees.

The National Recovery Administration telegraphed Governor Ehringhaus yesterday a request that President Frank P. Graham of the University be released from his duties here so that he might head a national consumers' educational program for the NRA.

Approached yesterday in regard to the request, Dr. Graham said he preferred not to make any statement at this time.

Dr. Graham feels that he should consult the executive committee of the University board of trustees before reaching any decision. The executive committee meets here Saturday.

He has deeply regretted that, owing to a recent illness, he has not been able to do what he considered his part as a member of the National Consumers' Advisory board.

Dr. Graham has lately been busily engaged in setting up faculty committees in the several units of the consolidated University to make constructive studies of the curricula, budgets, student life and welfare, and educational policies and opportunities of the whole University.

The Administrative council of the Greater University will meet here tomorrow afternoon when these committees will be finally agreed upon. After several months of intensive study the groups will make their reports, which will be sifted and integrated in a long-run University plan as a part of a comprehensive state program.

Sigma Nu Leads With 20 New Men as Fewer Are Pledged Than Last Year.

One hundred and ninety-five yesterday pledged fraternities according to an unofficial tabulation made by THE DAILY TAR HEEL last night.

After a rushing period of two weeks bids were given out yesterday to fraternity prospects at Memorial hall by Dean Bradshaw and R. B. House. Students submitted to Dean Bradshaw a list of their first, second, and third choices of fraternities, and each man was given a bid from the lodge of his highest choice.

The number of pledges this year is considerably lower than the pledge day tabulations of previous years. Last year the total of pledges on pledge day amounted to 206, as compared with the 200 pledges this year. On the pledge day the year before last over 396 students pledged lodges.

The Sigma Nu fraternity led with the largest number of pledges, having obtained 20. The Beta Theta Pi and Sigma Chi lodges tied for second places with 18 each. Delta Kappa Epsilon, in third place, obtained 15 pledges.

THE TAR HEEL compiled the following list of fraternities and
