Sunday, November 5, 1933

THE DAILY TAR HEEL

SEEK QUINT JOBS

Although there is a scarc

of monograms among the n

too early to make any rush p

Seven Letter Men Back

Earle Beale and Geon

Page Three

Varsity Cross Countrymen Down State Harriers 15-51 BEAT

Louis Sullivan and Harry Wil- PLICE liamson Tie for First; Heels Place First Six Men.

Carolina's fast-stepping cross country team turned in a perfect gridsters to score. score yesterday and downed the State harriers 15 to 51. The first six men to cross the finish chance to score came in the final line were Tar Heels, while the two others entered came in ninth.

Co-Captain Louis Sullivan and Harry Williamson led the field, breaking the tape together, for a time of 19:42. Ed Waldrop finished close behind the leaders, and probably would have come in with them if he had been pushed by an opponent.

was followed closely by the two etiquette. State men. Fallen and Smith, respectively. Donnell and Haywood, Tar Heels, arrived next in a tie for ninth.

The rain, which started in Raleigh yesterday morning at 5:00 o'clock, left the State cross country course in terrible shape. Both teams had a hard time hitting their regular strides, and as a result the general time for first down in the second half the meet was slow.

Carolina's win gave them two threaten even to the finish. The

(Continued from first page)

through a melange of State

the ball on the first play after an exchange of shifted punts, through the Wolfeluding the secondary, ran The other point-makers were yards for a touchdown. Hardly Singletary and Co-Captain Hen- had Jackson touched the ball ry Sullivan who ended the race down in the end zone when the fourth and fifth respectively. officials ruled Carolina was hold-Conte was the sixth man in a ing and penalized the Tar Heels row to come in for Carolina and 15 yards for this breach of in the last 25 yards.

> Carolina had the edge on the Technicians from the opening to the timer's horn. The Tar Heels' defense was the kind that coaches dream about.

count a single while Carolina continued to

Gammon Leads Yearlings, Allen Seven Monogram Basketball M Close Behind; Eight Men Back But Only Trio of Vet Placed in First Ten. erans Are Working Out.

Carolina's freshmen cross Coach "Bo" Shepard, country team defeated N. C. Heel cage mentor, announ State's first-year harriers yes- yesterday that only three of terday morning in Raleigh. The seven varsity basketball lett course was run in a drizzling, men have been working out About cold rain over a muddy course. gularly last week.

This was the second victory for Don the yearlings in two days.

Graham Gammon led the Tar working out, 40 odd promisi Babies to the finish with a first reserves have been practici while his team mate, Allen, daily in the Tin Can. It is s trailed closely behind.

The finish to the match was dictions concerning the prospe unusually exciting. Curry of from such an early pre-sea State had appeared to have the point of view. pack line and meet, but both Gammon and 60 Allen, Carolina first year men, put on a sensational burst of Brandt, star centers from speed and stamina to finish year's five, are now out for varahead of the Techlet. This little sity football. Morrie Long and bit of pyrotechnics all happened Snooks Aitken, flashy fowards, Davis, the only other Wolflet, rector Herman Schnell in the to finish within the first ten University intramural program. men, trailed Curry to the tape. This leaves only Captain Dave This gave Carolina's yearlings McCachren, all-southern guard; eight men in the money.

The other Tar Babies finished foward; and "Jason" Glace, allin the following order: Daniels southern center on the all-opfifth; Fink, sixth; Hairston, ponents team chosen by the seventh; Hamilton, eighth; Bow- South Carolina title quintet;

er, ninth; and Stoney, tenth.

Five Tag Football Teams Remain Unbeaten In Campus Intramurals ing well together.

practicing daily.

| Statistics of Gan U.N.C. N | 2 Ouclidowing to Oire |
|---|---|
| Score6First downs13Passes8Passes completed4No. had int'c'pt'd1No. had gr'nd'd3No. of punts13Av. dist. of punts32.4Punts had blocked1No. penalties4Total yds. pen.30Fumbles0Yds. from line121Yds. at ends48Yds. by passes60Total gain229Time outs5 | 0Playing brilliant heads-u3football, the driving Duke Blu5Devils licked the Auburn Plain0nen 13 to 7 yesterday in Dul1stadium before approximatel1212,000 spectators.12Two beautiful passes from14Sossiter which were good for15Devils' touchdowns. After16Devils' touchdowns. After17Nard-fought first quarter, Ro18Siter dropped back on his 319siter dropped back on his 3102"Horse" Hendrickson, who was5smacked down on Auburn's two |

HREE VETERANS Duke Whips Auburn 13-7

Collins Comments

Head coach "Chuck" Collins, are officiating daily with Diwhen interviewed last night by the DAILY TAR HEEL expressed gratification in his proteges' stirring 6-0 triumph over N. C. State. Vergil Weathers, all-southern

> He believes the team is now playing their first real football. Collins said, "The team has gradually improved and is now playing its first real football. The boys have fine possibilities, since forgetting their early season stage-fright and are work-

"The Tar Heels are now play-

Two beautiful passes from ssiter which were good for vards each led to the Blue vils' touchdowns. After a rd-fought first quarter, Roser dropped back on his 39rd mark in the second 'seson and heaved a long pass to Iorse" Hendrickson, who was acked down on Auburn's two rd mark. Cox drove over for the touchdown. Cornelius failed to kick goal. Score: Duke 6, Auburn 0.

Second Half

An exchange of punts at the beginning of the second half and Hendrickson's 15-yard punt return led to the Duke team's second touchdown. With the ball on Auburn's 40-yard line, Rossiter tossed a pass with handles on it to Rogers, end, who eluded the secondary and galloped 30 yards for a score. Hendrickson place-kicked the goal. Score: Duke 13, Auburn 0.

Duke kicked off to Talley of Auburn who returned to his 27. Kimbrell, faking a punt, caught the Duke line napping and raced around his left end down the sidelines for a 75-yard jaunt and a touchdown. He was afforded perfect interference on this spectacular dash. Ariail (Continued on page four) ponents to the tape.

The finish follows: L. Sul- 3. livan (C) and Williamson (C), first; Waldrop (C), third; Singletary (C), fourth; H. Sullivan (C), fifth; Conte (C), sixth; Fallon (S), seventh; Smith (S), eighth; and Haywood (C) and Donnell (C), ninth.

Yesterday's Scores

Carolina 6, N. C. State 0. Duke 13, Auburn 7. Duquesne 21, W. & J. 6. Penn 16, Lafayette 6. Navy 7, Notre Dame 0. Clemson 13, Wake Forest 0. Alabama 20, Kentucky 0. Georgia 14, Florida 0. Vandy 9, Georgia Tech 6. Virginia 6, Maryland 0. V. P. I. 7, W. & L. 7. Tulane 7, Colgate 0. Chicago 0, Wisconsin 0. Northwestern 0, Minn. 0. Ohio State 21, Indiana 0. Purdue 17, Carnegie Tech 7 Harvard 27, Lehigh 0. Yale 13, Dartmouth 13. Princeton 33, Brown 0. St. Mary's 13, Fordham 6.

tercepts passes, scoops up block-Suits and Topcoats tailored to your measure A. T. O.'s Upset Woollen Also Stars $23.50 and up ed punts, and plays in the op-Line-ups of Game The fourth week of play pro-"Chuck" Woollen who started ponents backfield. He was sorvided a number of interesting Save Money and Avoid the Rush the game at quarterback not Pos. Carolina State ry he didn't have a bigger lead upsets. Pi Kappa Alpha handonly generaled Stephens l.e. Frankel on that interception yesterday, ed A. T. O. a 6-0 lacing for its LIPMANS' the club well but l.t. Tatum Isaacs cause he wanted to show Bob first defeat in two years. Lambshone with fine Barclay Stanko l.g. McQuage how to really zig and da Chi Alpha beat St. Anthony punting. His punt Daniel Sabol c. (Continued on page four) Hall, hitherto undefeated, 5-1 in Kahn returning showed Buchanan r.g. first downs. K. A. suffered its Evins marked improve-Farrar r.t. (Continued on page four) Brandt ment; several Redding r.e. SUNDAY DINNER SUNDAY DINNER Woollen q.b. times gettings a-Wilson strains of some militant air and 1.h. McQuage Thompson way for good formed a human American flag r.h. Croom (c) Bohannon ... then played "Hark the runs. Snyder f.b. Rex Tech Stars Sound" and "State College" and Gooch Bros. & Brooks Cafe Officials: Referee, Foster Ray Rex, gigantic Tech full- called it a day with the "Old (Hampden Sydney); Umpire, back, was the big gun in the North State Forever." Miss A Cold, Chilly, Nasty Day Can Easily Be Remedied by Our Special Powell (Wisconsin); Head-Wolfpack attack. After the Louise Derby, Meredith College linesman, Aims (Penn State Raleigh eleven had halted Caro- frosh and youngest licensed Tech); Field Judge, Sanders lina's first driving in the open- aeroplane pilot in the common-SUNDAY DINNER (W. and L.). ing verse, Rex on State's first wealth, zoomed over the field Score by periods: play raced 35 yards down the dropping both team's colors . . . Served from Noon Until 8 P.M. State _____ 0 0 0 0__0 field before being shoved out of Then the Tar Heel supporters Carolina 0 6 0 0-6 We Can Also Fill Your Sunday Needs for bounds by Barclay. Isaacs and sang "Who's Afraid of the Big Scoring touchdown: Caro-Farrar were the defensive Bad Wolf?"-late in the game, lina, Moore (through line). Tobaccos-Newspapers-Magazines "Going, Going-Gone." It might lights. Substitutions: Carolina as well have been a Carolina Sidelights, Etc. Barrett, Joyce, B. Moore, Mar-COME DOWN TOWN NIGHTS AND SEE YOUR SANDWICHES MADE During the interim of the two home game: great crowd of suptin, Jackson, Shaffer, Bell, periods, the Carolina and State porters who came over on the G. More. State-Worth, Zori, bands put on a little show of train or in the motor cavalcade Bernhardt, Davis, Roy, Johntheir own. They marched on ... and boy, did they yell. Well son, Cumiskey. the muddy field to the stirring suh!

victories in two starts. In the Raleigh boys' passing attack Sigma Nu, Betas, Best House, other meet for the Tar Heels, was decidedly off color; they which was with Florida, four of failed to complete a single pass the Carolina boys beat all op- during the entire contest! First downs: Carolina 13, N. C. State

> Stars of the Game When it comes to picking the stars in the Carolina forward all-southern and all-American prospective guard stood out in the Tar Heel line as did George Brandt, Jim Tatum, Babe Daniel, and Elmer "Jumbo" Barrett.

Behind the line, Captain Bill Croom led his mates, flashing scintillating tandem thrusts in the opening period. Herman Snyder drove like his Satanic Majesty was after him, and was one of Carolina's best offensive bets. Of course, George Moore and Charlie Shaffer should come in for their just share of boquets; both boys were elusive and kept the Techs with their backs to the wall.

Carr, and Mangum Undefeated in Tag Football So Far.

Only five campus teams remained undefeated after the fourth week of intramural grid play. Sigma Nu and Beta Theta Pi with three victories each led House and Mangum with four and Law School with three wins respectively had clean slates in the dormitory circuit.

Snakes to Play Twice

Sigma Nu, who defeated D. K. E. 14-0 in its only tilt of the week, will arrive to uphold its unbeaten record against Zeta Beta Tau and St. Anthony Hall this week. Although the Betas were inactive last week, they will swing into action again with Phi Delta Theta and Phi Kappa Sigma furnishing the opposition.

Best House, Mangum Win Best House decisively won its encounter against Steele 25-0 to chalk up its fourth win while Mangum trimmed Swain Hall 8-0 to ascend the top rung with Best House. Law School, tied took the measure of their opponents in the play-off skirmish 14-0.

THE STUDENT BACKING Incidentally, "Winnie" asked yesterday was something Caro- the quarterback to run George the fraternity loop while Best lina should be proud of. More Moore over him through center. than a thousand students from They did and Moore tallied! "Carolina's blocking," con-Chapel Hill turned up in Raleigh and yelled their heads off. In tinued Collins, "especially, our the Raleigh station waiting for line, enabled us to have both a the special to come in we had a good offensive attack and a pep meeting of our own. The splendid defense. As to our train stopped at the field but passing, I think we did remarkthen the fun started as all the ably well-considering the concars downtown went out in a dition of the wet ball and mud-> body with horns blowing and dy field." men yelling. Waiting at the Asked what single player station with anxiety (whoever she is) as game time approached, I ran to the agent's office and asked what news he had of the progress of the train. Holding up a Western Union telegram nervously, the man replied, 'Well, this wire says they just passed Fletcher." What ho, a non-stop trip to Raleigh in two hours, and with no wrecks. Egad Tom, that's a marvelous move the week previous by Aycock, forward for the Southern railway.

> BARCLAY IS CAROLINA'S real triple threat man. He in-showed more marked improvement than any other, Collins unhesitatingly replied, "Woollen, his kicking and noticeable improvement in punt-returning were indeed gratifying."

Eubanks Drug Co. Prescription Specialists Since 1892

Buy Now Campaign

Comes at the Right Time Urging You to Buy Now and Avoid the Thanksgiving Rush

We sympathize with the Tailoring Manufacturers. The NRA Code is 36 hours a week for the Cutters and Tailors, and that has delayed the manufacturing of Clothing 35%. So we urge you to come in NOW and make your selection from our 1500 samples of the finest Woolens ever assembled in any one store.

Also it is a matter of time before most of our patterns will be sold up and to replace them the manufacturer. has to pay more for these Woolens.

DO NOT DELAY buying your Fall Suit and Topcoat.