ON ENROLLMENT

Registrar's Release Shows Exactly 200 Less Students in School This Fall.

CO - EDS REGISTERED

Two thousand, four hundred and fourteen students, 2181 men and 233 women, are enrolled in the University this quarter, it was announced vesterday from

The total enrollment is exact-fall quarter last year. The total number of undergraduate students is 2007 with 1843 men

The school of liberal arts has a larger enrollment than any other University school, having a total of 917. Next comes the school of commerce with 542

registered. Having 223, the engineering school comes third and is followed by the school of applied science which has 208.

The enrollment in the other departments is as follows: gradu-

635 Out-of-State

lina and 635 from out of the state. Five hundred and eighty-two men and 53 women are from out of this state as compared with the 180 women and 1599

men and seven women. New women. With a total of 53

Pennsylvania sends 51 male and comes fourth with 45 scholars.

nen from the Canal Zone, Cana-

(Continued on last page)

Special Meeting

rial department of the Daily

Tar Heel will be required to attend a most important meeting of the staff today at 1:30 o'clock in room 214 Graham

Memorial. This includes all members of the sports, repor-

All members of the edito-

In the University there are the registrar's office.

and 164 women.

science, 15.

BODIES REQUIRED TO GIVE BUDGET DRAFTS MONDAY

No Checks of Organizations to Be Approved by Audit Board Unless Budgets Are In.

21 GROUPS UNDER BOARD

Drafts of budgets for campus organizations whose financial business is transacted under the supervision of the Student Audit board must be in by Monday, it was announced yesterday by J. D. Winslow, secretary of the board.

The new plan of requiring the presentation of budgets was decided upon at a meeting of the board November 8, and the organizations were to have two weeks from the time of notification for the preparation of budgets.

Unless budgets are submitted by the organizations by Monday, no checks of these groups willbe given the approval of the board.

21 Organizations

Organizations which must submit budgets under the plan are: the Athletic association, the Y. M. C. A., Graham Memorial, the Student Entertainment committee, the Interfraternity council, the Carolina Engineer, the Publications Union board, and the Medical society.

The four engineering societies (electrical, civil, mechanical, and chemical), the Law association, the Pharmacy association, the Woman's association, Student government, the Debate council, and the four individual classes.

Fraternities which have voluntarily come under the board · are not required to submit budgets at this time.

LEADERS CHOSEN BY GERMAN CLUB

Harley Shuford to Lead Thanksgiving Dances; Best and Entwistle to Assist.

and managers for the commencement ball were elected yesterday afternoon by members of the German club.

Ball managers are: Charles T. Woollen, Jr., chief, Phil Sasser, Reynolds, Pete Tyree, Ed Mi-

Thanksgiving Leaders

Leaders for the Thanksgiving improvement. series of dances are: Harley Shuford, leader; John Entwistle, first assistant; and Mark Best, second assistant.

Leaders at mid-winter Germans will be Frank Wilson, A membership campaign has leader; Barry Blackwelder, first been inaugurated for active and assistant; and Ansley Cope, second assistant.

At the junior prom, Agnew Bahnson will act as leader, with Charlie Shaffer as first assistant and Bob Blount as second Nello Teer will be leader for the sophomore hop, with Mark Saturday, was brought here last Lynch as first assistant and Billy Coan as second assistant.

Discount Deadline Wednesday

Fraternities wishing to take advantage of the 20 per cent date, no discounts will be given. terian church,

AMERICA'S GREAT ARTIST-DANCER

Ted Shawn in "John Brown See the Glory," a solo which he will 1779 scholars from North Carodance on Monday evening in Memorial hall, to music composed by Jess Meeker, who will play the accompaniment for the program

NEGRO CITIZENS GET COMMUNITY CENTER BUILDING

Five Room House on Franklin Street Fills Long Felt Need in Negro Educational Advancement.

A community center for the colored citizens of Chapel Hill | C. A. Thanksgiving service to was established recently as the be conducted Thursday morning result of a small group of white at 8:00 o'clock in Gerrard hall and colored citizens' work. have been completed. Reverend Since that time a five-room Albea Godbold will be the speak house has been secured on er for the service. Franklin street for the project.

ty center is to aid the communi- song service, with special numty's progress for social better- bers by members of the Uni Leaders for four dance sets vision, and cooperation of the pared by Jesse Parker and Wof-Central committee of Public ford Humphreys. The program, established agencies of the town last long. and county.

sponsible part in the training programs given by the Y. M. C. Buck Harris, John O'Neil, Bob of the community's colored citi- A. Formerly it has been conzens for the varied activities of ducted in Kenan stadium, but chaels, and Bobby Carmichael. life. A recent survey showed the uncertainty of weather conthe imperative need for such an ditions has caused the change to citizens have expressed their approval of the organization, and B. House spoke. some have consented to serve as contributing members with encouraging results.

WOUNDED STUDENT BACK

dent wounded by a spear thrown this morning in preparation for The program this morning is able paintings, proposed that by the Duke Blue Devil at the the Carolina-Duke freshman Carolina-Duke football game last football game this afternoon. night by Professor T. Smith Mc-Corkle, head of the music department.

CHURCH SOCIAL TONIGHT

discount offered on Yackety Presbyterian students will be members of the cheering team. Yack accounts must pay their held tonight at 7:15 o'clock in The new songs will be sung. bills by Wednesday. After that the social rooms of the Presby-

GODBOLD TO TALK AT Y.M.C.A. SERVICE ON THANKSGIVING in North Carolina.

Plans Completed for Annual Holiday Celebration in Gerrard Hall; John Acee to Preside.

Plans for the annual Y. M.

John Acee, president of the The purpose of the communi- Y. M. C. A., will preside. ment by seeking council super- versity Glee club, is being pre-Welfare, and the help of other it has been announced, will not

This Thanksgiving service has The center hopes to play a re- annually been among the special Gerrard hall. Last year the A number of prominent local speaker was Reverend Ronald Tamblyn, and the year before R.

torial, and editorial staffs. members of the directing board. Fysal And Chandler Will Lead Pep Rally At Assembly Today

Talks by Ellis Fysal, Stuart freshmen will be out to get reball stars, and other campus their big brothers last Saturday. figures will feature the pep The match will be played in Arthur Stein, University stu- meeting in freshman assembly Kenan stadium at 2:30 o'clock.

> to be present, and fraternities members turn out. Freshmen are required to attend.

ed as yet this season, and the football coaching staff.

Chandler, former Carolina foot- venge for the defeat handed

Fysal and Chandler, the chief ably on its side. speakers for the occasion, form-Cheers will be led by Ernest erly played guard and fullback

Juniors Approve Appropriation Of $700 For Dances At Meeting SHOWS DECLINE SOPHS TO ELECT

NEW SECRETARY Nominations Will Take Place at Regular Wednesday Assembly.

Nominations for the secretary of the sophomore class will take place at the next regular sophomore assembly, Wednesday, November 29, according to president Morty Ellisberg.

scheduled at the following assembly, December 6.

This election comes as a rely 200 short of that during the sult of the failure to return to school of Vance Young, who the year were submitted to the was elected to this position last class, and the group discussed spring. The Student council the budget thoroughly before this year delegated the power of taking action on the matter. The naming the date of the election budget was first drawn up by to the president of the class.

ed to the presidency of the tive committee. class last year, by not returning to school this year, left vacant the position now held by Morty president. Barney Keeney was ate school, 205; law, 122; phar- cy by Harper Barnes. Keeney class finances. macy, 77; medicine, 65; public had been chairman of the execu- Proposals were made last year administration, 40; and library tive committee.

Two Statues Given The University

Figures of Gargoyle and Bishop Presented by Mrs. Katherine Pendleton Arrington.

male students who have homes Two tons of English limestone made a sudden appearance Wed-The percentage of people nesday in the form of two pieces coming from outside of the state of statuary taken from the to work here is slighty lower Houses of Parliament and prethan last year. More students sented to the University by Mrs. come from New York state than Katherine Pendleton Arrington. any state in the United States except North Carolina. New the way. York sends 156 scholars, 149

The figures, one of a gargoyle and the other of a bishop, were Jersey comes next in sending removed from the Houses 103 people, 101 men and two Parliament this past summer when reconstruction work was being done and outside statuary, two female students. Georgia damaged by the weather, was being replaced by newly carved Represented in Carolina are replicas.

Donor Presented at Court

They were secured by Mrs. Arrington several months ago when she was in England at the ing and the annual Inter-State occasion of her presentation at the court of King James, and were dispatched as a gift to the University.

The administration had been notified that something was on the way but was not prepared to give a proper reception to the two heavy crafts when they arrived by express Wednesday. It was not even certain at the time just what they contained. Since they were addressed to President Graham, someone first suggested removing them to the front yard of the President's mansion. That idea was soon "nixed" by the president himself and Dr. Caldwell, supposing that the crates contained valuunder the supervision of the they be removed to the receiving University club. Extensive room of the library, where they All upperclassmen are urged plans for the demonstration now rest. The bishop reposes were made last night by the nonchalantly on his head and are asked to see that all their group at their weekly meeting. gargoyle, a trifle more comfort-

Gargolye Ugly As for appearances, the gar-

(Continued on page two)

Third-Year Class Approves Proposed Budget and Expenditures for Junior-Seniors.

CLASS RATIFIES PROPOSALS

Executive Committee Cannot Make Additional Appropriations Without Calling Class Meeting.

The junior class passed on the budget proposed by its executive committee and set aside $700.00 Elections for this office are for the junior-senior festivities at a meeting of the third-year class yesterday, called by Stuart C. Aitken, president.

Complete financial plans for Jack Pool, financial chairman, Russell Mickle, who was elect- and then passed on by the execu-

Class Ratifies Proposals

This allowing of the class to ratify the proposals submitted Ellisberg, who was elected vice- by the executive committee follows the action taken last year appointed to the vice-presiden- after the trouble caused over to the effect that the class president should appoint a general chairman and a financial chairman to confer with the president and student auditor to draw up a budget of expenditures for the year. This budget according to the suggestion, must be passed by the class executive committee before any definite action can be taken.

However, because of the mistakes made by not allowing the class itself to pass on the reports last year, it was suggested that each proposal be put before the class also.

According to the new method A third figure is said to be on of conducting ratifications, the (Continued on page two)

TO SEND MEN

Representatives to Attend Gatherings to Be Conducted at Greensboro and Asheville.

The University Y. M. C. A. will send delegates to the state cabinet Y. W.-Y. M. C. A. meet-Older Boys conference, Harry F. Comer announced yesterday.

The former will convene Sunday, at Greensboro, beginning with a meeting at W. C. U. N. C. at 10:00 o'clock Sunday morning, and closing at 8:00 o'clock that night. Delegates from here will be the officers of the three Y. M. C. A. cabinets.

The Older Boys conference meets at Asheville, December 1, 2, 3. Representatives will come from all parts of North and South Carolina and officials are expecting from five to six hundred members.

Two representatives of the freshman, one of the sophomore, and one of the juniorsenior cabinet will be sent to the Older Boys conference.

All delegates to both conferences will go at their own ex-

COBB FUNERAL TOMORROW

Funeral services for the late Professor William B. Cobb will An informal social for all Hunt, head cheerleader, and respectively for Carolina and goyle is of the usual degree of be held tomorrow morning at were all-state players, Fysal in ugliness. It has cauliflower 10:30 o'clock in the Church of 1931 and Chandler in 1932. Both ears, half-spread wings, claws the Good Shepherd in Raleigh. The Tar Babies are undefeat are at present on the freshman clenched before itself, gaping Interment will be at 12:00 o'clock in Chapel Hill.