

JOHN MULHOLLAND ENTERTAINS WITH FEATS OF MAGIC

Well-Known Necromancer Appears as First Performer on Student Entertainment Series for Spring Quarter; Speaks on Eastern Illusion.

"EXPLAINS" SOME TRICKS

John Mulholland, professor and magician, appeared before a group of approximately 1,500 people in Memorial hall last night in the first program of the Student Entertainment series of the spring quarter.

Mulholland was introduced by Dr. J. P. Harland of the archaeology department. The magician, Dr. Harland stated, is a member of magic societies in many of the countries of the world besides being editor of The Sphinx an esoteric magic magazine.

Demonstrations

The program was begun by a demonstration to prove that the hand is not faster than the eye. Mulholland failed to prove his point to the satisfaction of the audience. His line of patter was mainly confined to an historical account of famous tricks of the east, with many references to the witch doctors and modern American fakes, and with pseudo-explanations.

His illusions included many of the better known handkerchief tricks and a number of card tricks. He also presented some of the classical illusions, such as the Chinese ring trick and the Chinese rope trick.

Most unsuccessful, perhaps, was the bird-in-the-cage illusion. Persons in the front portion of the auditorium had, for the most part, no difficulty in fathoming the secret. In all probability this was due to the cigarette advertisement exposing this fake.

SCHOOLS DEBATE HERE THIS WEEK

180 High School Debaters Will Represent 45 State Schools in 21st Annual Finals of Debating Union.

One hundred and eighty high schools debaters, boys and girls in about equal numbers, representing 45 schools, will participate here this week in the 21st annual finals of the North Carolina High School Debating Union.

The debaters won the right to enter the Chapel Hill finals by victories in the triangular contests held throughout the state March 30.

The debate question this year is: Resolved: That the United States should adopt the British system of radio control and operation.

The debaters will begin arriving today, and the first general meeting will take place in Memorial hall tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, with Professor N. W. Walker presiding.

The first preliminaries will take place tomorrow night at 7:00 o'clock, the second preliminaries will get under way at 8:30 Friday morning, and the final contest for the Aycock Memorial cup will take place Friday night at 8:00 o'clock, with President Frank Graham presiding and E. R. Rankin acting as secretary.

McCorkles to Play

Professor and His Wife to Appear in Greensboro Today.

Professor T. Smith McCorkle and Mrs. McCorkle will go to Greensboro this afternoon to play a brief program of music before the Woman's club.

Saturday Mr. McCorkle will return to Greensboro to judge the preliminary contest for the annual state music contest to be held there April 26-27.

H. Grady Miller of the University music department has charge of the contest next Saturday, which is held to select contestants to enter a statewide contest later.

FROSH-SOPH BIDS ISSUED TOMORROW

Members of Two Lower Classes Can Get Bids at Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow During Chapel Period and in Afternoon.

Bids for the freshman-sophomore dance set this week-end will be distributed at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow morning during chapel period and tomorrow afternoon from 2:30 to 6:00 o'clock, it was announced by Nate Lipscomb, freshman president, yesterday. The bids can not be secured at any other time and any freshman or sophomore not obtaining his bid at this time will not be able to get one. No one will be admitted without a bid.

This dance set is the first of its kind ever attempted by the freshman and sophomore classes. The set will consist of three dances: a formal dance from 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock Friday night; an informal tea dance from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon; and an informal dance from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock Saturday night. All these dances will take place in the Tin Can with Bill Allbrook and his orchestra furnishing the music.

HARBISON OBTAINS CURATOR POSITION

Botany Department Appoints Caretaker of Herbarium.

It was announced yesterday that T. B. Harbison of Highlands, N. C., has been appointed curator of the herbarium in the botany department. The appointment of Harbison will be effective July 1.

Harbison, who has been doing work at the University for the past several months, is at present engaged in assisting in the development of a garden for Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Coker in Hartsville, S. C. The garden is to feature mountain laurel, which is at present growing in the locality in great profusion.

The University herbarium, since the addition of the Ashe herbarium, is the largest and most extensive in the entire south with the possible exception of that at the University of Texas.

Wives of Dozen Faculty Members Belong to Philanthropic Organization Which Observed 45th Anniversary Yesterday.

Twenty-five women bearing a penny for each year of their age gathered yesterday afternoon at a party to observe the 45th anniversary of the founding of one most constructive societies in Chapel Hill. Members of the local chapter of the King's Daughters, an organization devoted to charitable and religious endeavor, have for almost half a century been a pillar of philanthropy in Orange county.

The pennies which they brought will be used as a fund by which members of the group may be cheered in their illness or bereavement. In the main, however, the organization is characterized by an unselfish interest in the betterment of social conditions in the vicinity of Chapel Hill.

Called "Burden Bearers"

The International Society of the King's Sons and Daughters which was established in New York in 1888 by a group of clubwomen was founded in Chapel Hill in 1889 and was named the "Burden Bearers." Of the seven charter members two were indirectly connected with the University in that they were sisters of Dr. Thomas J. Wilson, registrar of the University.

At present approximately half of the membership is composed of wives of faculty members. The officers include Mrs. Auburn Lee, president; Mrs. G. H. Paulsen, treasurer; Miss Nan Harris, secretary; and Mrs. R. B. Lawson, chairman of the investigating board.

From the date of its establishment until George Lawrence recently became the local welfare officer, this organization was the sole charitable group in Orange county. In 1928 the territory was divided, Lawrence assuming charge of the entire county with the exception of Chapel Hill and Carrboro. At present the society takes care of about 40 families. Strict economy is observed, with the result that the actual cash outlay is about $300 a year. "Of great help," said Mrs. Lawson, "is the fact that we get $100 worth of groceries free from the local (Continued on page two)

LEGION WILL HOLD GOODS EXHIBITION

Display Will Be in Connection With Dogwood Festival.

The Chapel Hill unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor at the Dogwood Festival this week-end an exhibit of goods made by war veterans. These articles were made in the Occupational therapy work being taught in all government homes and hospitals.

The goods will be entered in the competition for the dogwood button, ribbons, and awards of various kinds, and for the special award by the Chapel Hill post of the legion to be given for "the most noteworthy article displayed."

Articles already here for the exhibit include pieces of weaving, metal and leather work, basketry, hand wrought jewelry (silver only), carving, and painting. The display will be set up in 108 Graham Memorial.

BUCS WILL HAVE BANQUET TONIGHT

Members and Friends of Staff of Local Comic Publication Will Be Entertained at Annual Affair in Graham Memorial.

The staff of the Carolina Buccaneer will rally 'round the table tonight at 6:30 o'clock for their annual gridiron banquet. The event is scheduled for the banquet hall on the second floor of Graham Memorial.

All staff members who intend to come to the feast, are requested to deposit the fee of 75 cents with Editor Ivey or Managing Editor Gaskins before the affair. Friends of the staff members are also invited, upon payment of the required fee.

The committee in charge of the banquet has prepared an elaborate and novel program for the entertainment of the group. A special private (for members only) issue of the Buccaneer will be distributed, and there will be other comic features, as well as a few speeches.

Thursday night the group will be the guests of E. Carrington Smith, manager of the local theatre, at a special late show. "Jimmy the Gent" will be the picture shown to them.

Drama Honors Go To Lenoir-Rhyne

Take More Honors Than Any Other Group in Festival.

Lenoir-Rhyne Playmakers took more honors than any other dramatic organization at the 11th annual Dramatic Festival which took place here last week.

This organization won first place in the following events: play production for senior colleges with Christopher Morley's "Thursday Evening;" the author's award for the best original play with Alice Deal's "East is East;" the make-up contest with Edith Huffman taking the part of Joseph in the pageant "Whither, O Wise Man?"; the stage model contest with a set for Alice Deal's original play, built by Luther Stirwalt; and honorable mention in the costume design contest with Ruth Efrid's "Asenath."

Miss Pearl Setzer is director of the Lenoir-Rhyne Playmakers to whom these honors went.

Figures for the festival show that 39 plays, 10 of them original, were produced here; 214 actors were engaged; 100 directors and their assistants were present; and a total audience of more than 3,000 attended.

Infirmary Head Answers Student's Letter

"The policy of the University infirmary toward emergency cases is to render aid which our facilities permit," declared Dr. W. R. Berryhill, infirmary head, yesterday. "We do not exclude any case from treatment at the infirmary, whether or not it is a student, provided it is an emergency one."

Dr. Berryhill's statement came as a reply to the "Speaking the Campus Mind" letter published in yesterday's DAILY TAR HEEL in which Jack Clare, the writer of the letter, questioned whether there existed in the University "such a ruling that only the

DEBATING GROUP TO OPPOSE TECH

University Team to Uphold Negative on Question of Subsidizing Athletes, in Gerrard Hall Tonight at 8:00 O'clock.

Francis Fairley and Norman Kellar of the University debate squad will debate the Georgia Tech team at 8:00 o'clock in Gerrard hall. The Carolina team will uphold the negative of the query, Resolved: That it is to the best interests of the University of North Carolina to subsidize athletes.

The Georgia Tech squad is on a long tour through the Carolinas, visiting University of South Carolina, Winthrop College, North Carolina State College and Duke University. The Duke debate will be tomorrow night, in which the Tech team will maintain that the Federal guarantee of bank deposits as exemplified in the legislation of 1933 is not in keeping with sound policies.

Phillips Russell, Winthrop Durfee, and F. A. Rankin visited Georgia Tech on the southern debating tour to Atlanta and New Orleans during the spring holidays.

The Tech team consists of O. B. Chapman, S. N. Mills, Alan Pope, Harold Berlin, and W. S. Kirkpatrick, Jr. The team for tonight's debate has not yet been announced.

Fairley and Kellar are participating in their first debate. However, they have been active in forensic activity, being members of the Phi assembly.

Winthrop Durfee and F. A. Rankin will debate Emory College tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 o'clock before the high school debaters.
