N.C. FOLK-DRAMA, MUSIC, EXHIBITS CLOSE FESTIVAL

Second Dogwood Festival Ends Successfully with Handicraft and Painting Exhibits, Rendition of Original Folk-Tunes, Presentation of Native Drama.

EXHIBITS WILL CONTINUE

With a full day of programs including music, dancing, exhibitions of North Carolina handicraft and painting, and Carolina folk-plays, the second annual Dogwood Festival came to a successful close here yesterday. Although the festival proper has ended, the exhibitions of crafts and paintings by state artists will continue this afternoon.

The crafts exhibit, housed in Graham Memorial, will be open to visitors this afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock; the arts display will be open at Hill Music hall during the same hours.

The program got under way at the Forest theatre yesterday morning. Fanfares by a brass ensemble from the University band arranged by Herbert Hazelman and directed by T. Smith McCorkle signalized the opening of the festivities. The ensemble included a drum corps directed by Charles Crews.

Poetry Contest Winner

director of the Carolina Playmakers, read the winning poem in the Dogwood poetry contest. The competition was won by Mrs. Lucy Phillips Russell of Rockingham with "The Dogwood Speaks."

Following the reading there was folk music played by string Chase.

many of which have been opening after the Civil War. brought down from the 18th words and phrases of old English.

invited to take part.

Afternoon Program

The afternoon program, held divisions of the University. in the Playmakers theatre, opennie Ford.

The Shaw Players of Shaw are Texas and Virginia. University in Raleigh staged Paul Green's Negro comedy, "The Man Who Died at Twelve ate degrees have been awarded O'clock," with the following by the University during the learned journals in the fields of cast: Uncle January Evans, 50-year period that is to be cele- science, and philology, together Carl Easterling; Sally Evans, brated this spring. Of these with the activities of the re-Olivia Glascoe; and Charlie, 175 have been doctorates in phi- search clubs which have held Arthur Williams. Loretto Car- losophy, 155 of them since 1918; monthly meetings now for many roll Bailey directed the play with 165 have been masters of years, afforded a great stimulus public high schools in North the assistance of Sarah E. Mar-

Original Folk Music

by Henry Whitter, composer of of them prior to 1918. the "Wreck of the Old 97," and .Worth Taylor, the "playin'est" boy in the mountains. Abbie Greenwood MacKinney sang (Continued on page two)

Mountain music was played been masters of philosophy, both work.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., SUNDAY, APRIL 15, 1934

WINNING DEBATE TEAM

Miss Katherine Covington and A. C., Lovelace, the affirmative team of Thomasville high school which won the Aycock Memorial cup in the state finals here.

Professor Frederick H. Koch, Fiftieth Anniversary Of Reopening To Be Observed By Graduate School

Story of Its Development, Especially Since 1920, When It Was interpret the title role of this Reorganized, Is Regarded as Phenomenal; Has Grown Faster Than Any University Department in Recent Years.

By Robert W. Madry

other two members in the south an annual record of research

1,200 Graduate Degrees A grand total of 1,260 gradu-746 since 1918; and two have of the importance of graduate nounced yesterday.

stitution in 1875, the authorities ated. The catalogue announceproceeded almost immediately ment was "The development of at 5:00 o'clock Monday after- Baptist church. Anyone interrecognized University enterprise. In 1877, the degrees of Looking back upon a record master of arts, master of bands; solos and duets by gui- of growth and achievement that, science, and doctor of philosotarists and banjoists; and coun- with due modesty, may be re- phy were announced. They were try dances by groups of children garded as phenomenal, the grad- to be conferred only "upon rigid Professor Will Address Junior under the direction of Richard uate school of the University of examinations on prescribed North Carolina is to celebrate courses." The degrees of mas-"Mammy" Jones of the Ebe- this spring the 50th anniversary ter of arts and doctor of phinezer community near Cary led of the first degrees to be award- losophy were awarded under address the junior-senior Y. M. the singing of Carolina ballads, ed in course following the re- this new system in 1883. In C. A. cabinet, at its regular 1885 a further significant step meeting tomorrow night, on The story of its recent pro- was taken to effect a formal "Foreign Policies." There will century and which contain many gress is revealed in statistics separation of graduate and un- be a discussion of the subject by which show that the increase in dergraduate work, and courses "Y" members following the talk enrollment from 1920, when it open only to graduate students The morning program was was reorganized, to the present were listed in the fields of con- hear Rev. O. T. Binkley of the closed with square dances by year, has been 339 per cent as stitutional law, political econo- Baptist church and the Reverteams from Carrboro, Durham, compared with an increase of my, classical languages and lit-end Albea Godbold of the Methand Rose Hill, and square danc- 220 per cent for the country at erature, English language and odist speak in a general open ing in which the audience was large and as compared with a literature, French, German, forum on "The Church and Sun-97 per cent increase in all the mathematics, chemistry, natural day Programs in the Student undergradute non-professional philosophy, and geology, botany, Community." and zoology.

Another significant fact in At about the same time conducted in the freshman cabied with the Penland Playmak- this recent development was (1883) the impulse to further net meeting will be the nominaers' production of Gertrude Wil- that in 1922, chiefly in recogni- research at the University gain- tion of officers for next year's son Coffin's "Magnolia's Man." tion of the standing of the grad- ed new strength through the sophomore "Y" cabinet. The cast was as follows: Mis' uate school, the University was establishment of the Elisha Tish Davis, Georgia Morgan; admitted to membership in the Mitchell Scientific Society. For Newt Morris, Andrew C. Tain- Association of American Uni- the first three years the society ter; Magnolia Starnes, Louise versities, made up of a group of published annual volumes of called Studies in Philology, in 1906.

Journals Helped

The establishment of these the latter group.

In 1904 the deanship of the With the reopening of the in- graduate department was cre-

(Continued on last page)

Trials for Parts in "Hamlet" Scheduled at 4:30 O'clock in Forest Theatre: Production Is Slated for May 24-25.

Try-outs for Shakespeare's "Hamlet" will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Forest theatre. In case of rain, the trials will be conducted in the Playmakers theatre.

"Hamlet" will be presented in the Forest theatre by the Playmakers probably May 25 and 26, and will mark the end of the 1933-34 season. This final production, which will be directed by Samuel Selden, is to be an elaborate one. James McLean, director of the Southern School of Creative Arts, is designing the scenery, and Phoebe Barr will direct dance scenes. Grady Miller will provide incidental choral music, while Thor Johnson is adapting instrumental music for the presentation.

Koch to Play

Professor Frederick H. Koch is slated to play the title role. In the last 28 years he has played only four parts, never taking a part that a student could play unless forced to do so.

The Forest theatre productions have been annual features of the Playmakers seasons for the past 16 years. "Hamlet" is being presented this year as an anniversary performance of the centenary of Edwin Booth, probably the greatest actor ever to drama. Booth's own version of the play will be used for the pro-flife. duction.

Y. M. C. A. CABINET TO HEAR FRAZER

Senior Group Tomorrow.

Professor K. C. Frazer will

The sophomore cabinet will

Included in the business to be

Methodist Church

The Reverend Albea Godbold will preach on "Believing the Morgan; and Bartholomew M. institutions usually regarded as proceedings; afterwards the Best" at the 11:00 o'clock ser-Burgess, Howard C. Ford. The having the foremost graduate journal became a quarterly. vice of the Methodist church this production was directed by Bon-schools in America. The only The Philological club established morning. Sunday school begins at 9:45 o'clock and the Wesley Student association at 7:00 o'clock in the evening. The Reverend O. T. Binkley will address

High School Math Contest

The state high school math contest, open to all accredited tend this concert. science, 134 of them since 1918; to investigation at the Univer- Carolina, will take place April 918 have been masters of arts sity and increased recognition 20, E. R. Rankin, secretary, an-varsity lettermen (in boxing) Rowe announced yesterday.

Boxing Meeting

Proctor, Weathers Will State Campaign Platforms Tomorrow

Pictures Due

Yackety Yack Photographs to Be Cleared up by Wednesday.

All leaders of dance sets, commencement marshals, members of executive committees, and Weathers, candidates for the finals and ball managers who presidency of the student body, have not yet had their pictures will speak at Memorial hall totaken for the Yackety Yack morrow morning at 10:30 must make appointments tomorrow to have these made if the his qualifications for office and pictures are to be accepted for his platform for administration. publication. Pictures of girls by Wednesday.

the proofs must do so immedi- es. ately.

Carolina Playmakers Sponsor Reading of Maxwell Anderson's "Mary of Scotland" Tonight at 8:30 O'clock.

Maxwell Anderson's "Mary staff of the Carolina Buccaneer. of Scotland" will be read by Mrs. Urban T. Holmes this evening tor was an unsuccessful candiat 8:30 o'clock in the playmakers date for the same office for theatre continuing the monthly which he stands this year. series of playreadings sponsored by the Playmakers.

Broadway Success

alded as one of the outstanding gram club. achievements of American drama. Stark Young stated that, ternity men. omitting the final act, "it is the finest work of poetic eloquence yet produced by an lished several years ago of al-American dramatist."

It is a poem not only because to appear before the student Anderson "used verse rather body to state their platforms than prose as his vehicle, but and views concerning the office. also because he has brought the flame of the poet's insight to KENNEDY PLAYS bear upon a human struggle of epic proportions."

come to be annual features of this series because of her ability at script interpretation. Her reading last year of "Another the first vesper organ recital of Language" will be recalled in the spring quarter in Hill Musupport of this.

Organist to Appear

Professor Dwight Steere of Elon To Play Here Wednesday.

Professor Dwight Steere of Elon College will play an organ recital in Hill Music hall Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. This concert is in keeping with the policy of the music department to exchange concerts with faculties of other colleges over the state. Professor Nelson O. Kennedy, of the University music department, played at Elon in February.

Dr. Howell to Speak

the rest of this quarter, Dr. A. C. Howell is discussing "The Christian Church from the Days There will be a meeting of all of the Apostles to the Reformais invited to attend.

SPEECHES TO BE AT 10:30 O'CLOCK

Addresses Will Take Place of Freshman Assembly.

B. C. Proctor and Virgil o'clock. Each man will state

Regular freshman assembly with their escorts must be made will not be conducted tomorrow morning. The hour will be turn-All those who have had pic- ed over to these candidates for tures made but have not selected the purpose of campaign speech-

Candidates' Qualifications

Proctor, a member of the senior class, has served during the current school year as president of the International Relations club; has been a member of the DAILY TAR HEEL editorial board and columnist for the paper; has worked with the bad check committee for several years; and is a member of the

In last year's elections, Proc-

Weathers, also a senior, has been an outstanding athlete at "Mary of Scotland," is a the University throughout his drama of the life of Mary Stu-career. He was a member of art from the time of her coming the freshman basketball and to Scotland to that of her im- baseball teams his first year, prisonment in Carlisle Castle. It and for the past three years has is the story of a woman's fight been a varsity letterman in the for her throne and later for her same sports. He is president of this year's graduating class; a member of Golden Fleece; This play, which is still run- Grail; and a member of the exning on Broadway, has been her- ecutive committee of the Mono-

Both candidates are non-fra-

The program today is in accordance with the custom establowing presidential candidates

THIS AFTERNOON

Mrs. Holmes' readings have University Organist Will Give Recital at 4:30 O'clock.

> Nelson O. Kennedy will play sic hall this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Everyone here for the Dogwood Festival is cordially invited to attend, although this program will not be a part of the festival.

The program for today is as follows: Overture in B minor, Rogers; "Cantilena," McKinley; "Dreams," McAmis; "Piece Herioque," Franck; "Minuet," Boccherini; "Fisherman's Song and Pantomime," DeFalla; "Finlandia," Sibelius.

Baptist Church

"Keeping Awake" will be the Townspeople, faculty and stu-topic of the Reverend O. T. dents are cordially invited to at-Binkley's sermon at the Baptist church this morning. Dr. A. C. Howell of the English department will speak on "Saint Fran-Each Sunday morning during cis of Assisi" at 8:00 o'clock this

Faculty to Meet

There will be a general faction" in the student class of the ulty meeting Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in Bingham to establish graduate study as a the University has made it nec- noon on Emerson field, Coach ested in religion and its problems hall, President Frank P. Graham announced yesterday.