

North Carolina Trackmen Will Invade Virginia Today

Tar Heels Leave Today and Will Arrive at Charlottesville in Time for Workout This Afternoon, Priming Fetzermen for Tomorrow's Work.

HURDLES TO BE FEATURE

Coach Bob Fetzer Takes Along Twenty-Seven Track Charges to Defend Carolina's 14 Years of Undeclared Dual Meets With Southern Opponents.

Carolina's Southern Conference champion track team invades Virginia tomorrow meeting the University of Virginia in a dual meet at Charlottesville, Va.

The Cavaliers are reported to have a strong team. They finished a close second in the conference indoor meet. Their outstanding man is Everett, fast hurdler who has set new records left and right in the two hurdle events.

U. N. C. Out for Blood

The Carolina team will attempt to keep its slate clean in southern competition. The Heels have not been defeated by a southern team since 1922 and have lost only three intersectional meets during this length of time.

Co-Captains Ralston LeGore and Ed McRae will lead the team to what is looked to as another victory. Each of the captains should turn in first places in their two events, the javelin and mile, respectively.

Keen Hurdles Fight

The outstanding fight of the meet will be in the hurdles, between Carolina's Abernethy and Hawthorne and Virginia's Everett. All three men are fast performers and some tight races are expected.

The men who are making the trip are as follows: Abernethy, Armfield, Barwick, Bear, Childers, Drake, Evins, Gunter, Haywood, Hawthorne, Hubbard, Jackson, Jensen, Keen, Kimrey, LeGore, McRae, McDonald, Montgomery, Pruden, Reid, Schmukler, Sullivan, L., Sullivan, H., Trubnick, Tucker, Waldrop, and Williamson.

Frosh Golf Squad

There will be an important meeting of all candidates for the freshman golf squad this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at Emerson stadium.

Third Annual N. C. High Links Meet At Hope Valley, Friday

The third annual golf tournament for North Carolina high schools will take place on the Hope Valley Country club course April 27. Students of accredited public high schools in the state are eligible to enter.

The tournament will include both team and individual competition. No school may enter more than four men, though teams of one to three men may be entered for the individual competition.

Scoring by Medal Play

All scoring will be by medal play, eighteen holes in the morning and eighteen in the afternoon.

The team whose members make the lowest aggregate score for the 36 holes will be recog-

Seeded Stars Advance In State Net Tournament

Jimmy Halverstadt, Davidson, Barney Welch and John Higgins, Duke, Easily Stroke Way to Win in First Day's Play.

McGLINN-WELCH FEATURE

Johnny McGlinn Gives Welch Scare in Feature Match of Opening Rounds Only to Lose, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

By M. R. Alexander (Special to the DAILY TAR HEEL)

The North Carolina Intercollegiate Tennis tournament got under way here yesterday afternoon and moved through a round and a half of singles without a major upset.

Three of the seeded players, Jimmy Halverstadt of Davidson and Barney Welch and John Higgins of Duke, stroked their way into the quarter-finals.

Harris Meets Lafferty

The fourth, Harvey Harris of Carolina, meets Lafferty of Davidson in his second round match tomorrow morning, when the freshman tourney and varsity doubles also will get under way.

Of the "Four Horsemen," only Welch, who was seeded second to Halverstadt, was pressed, and John McGlinn of Carolina gave him a good scare in what proved the feature match of the day.

McGlinn Wins First Set

McGlinn took the first set with a series of beautiful shots, 6-4, but Welch with his cannonball serves and sizzling drives rallied and ran the match out, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Rickey Willis, Carolina's second ranking player, was the only other entry, to enter the quarter-finals with Halverstadt, Welch, and Higgins, four of the second-round matches being yet to be played.

Halverstadt Impressive

Halverstadt turned in the most impressive performance, displaying a polished all-around game to coast through two matches and give up only two games, and remaining a heavy favorite in the singles.

All of the Big Five colleges plus Lenoir-Rhyne began the fight for the singles championship won last year by Wilmer Hines and the doubles championship won by Hines and Lenoir Wright, both of whom ended their careers at Carolina last June.

First Round Singles

Halverstadt (Davidson) defeated Perry (State), 6-0, 6-0; Moretz (Lenoir-Rhyne) defeated Wright (State) by default; Levitan (Carolina) defeated Hutchins (Wake Forest), 6-0, 6-1; Minor (Carolina) defeated Fisher (State), 6-0, 7-5; Higgins (Duke) defeated Brown

Blue Imp Tracksters Vanquish Tar Baby Aggregation, 105-21

Duke Yearlings Take Thirteen Out of Possible Fourteen First Places to Clinch Decisive Triumph.

GAMMON WINS 880 EVENT

Duke's fast and powerful frosh track team took 13 out of 14 first places in their dual meet with the Carolina freshmen and walked away with the scoring, 105-21.

Besides taking all but one first they also annexed 11 seconds and in four events the Tar Babies were not even able to scratch.

U. N. C.'s Only First

Graham Gammon, fast runner, scored Carolina's only first place when he tallied the leading position in the 880. His nice running kept him in the lead for the whole race.

Shehan, star Imp runner, took individual scoring honors by marking up 14 points. He took firsts in the century and 440, and came in with his teammate to tie for first in the low hurdles. Pickard scored 11 points by taking the javelin and runner-up points in both the weight events. Treat scored both the firsts in the shot and discus.

Farmer Cops Second

Farmer took second place in the fast 220 dash and third in the 100 dash to lead the Tar Babies in scoring. Allen clinched second in the mile for Carolina's other second place.

Carolina's showing yesterday, as the score indicates, was very bad. They were outclassed in each event except the half mile which Gammon won. In the low hurdles Jim Finlay was right up in the lead with only a few hurdles remaining when he stumbled and fell. Skinner, in third place, also tripped on the same hurdle.

Summary is as follows:

- 100: Shehan (D), Johnson (D), Farmer (C). 10.4
- 220: Johnson (D), Farmer (C), Spain (C). 21.8
- 440: Shehan (D), George (D), Ford (D). 51.0
- 880: Gammon (C), Pruitt (D), Gardiner (C). 2:01.4
- Mile: Morse (D), Allen (C), Fink (C). 4:51.4
- Two mile: Baskerville (D), Morse (D), Daniel (C). 11:03
- 120 high hurdles: Martin (D), and Shehan (D) tie for first, McIver (C). 15.5
- 220 low hurdles: Peabody (D), Martin (D), Onder (D). 25.7
- Pole Vault: Leidy (D), Leven (D), Fleming (C). 12 feet
- High jump: Myers (D), Parker (D), and Pruitt (D) tie for second. 5 feet 6 inches
- Broad jump: Hanes (D), Prickard (D), Myers (D). 22 feet 7 inches
- Shot: Treat (D), Pickard (D), Wrenn (C). 42 feet 8 inches
- Discus: Treat (D), Basore (D), Buck (C). 118 feet 8 inches
- Javelin: Pickard (D), Power (D), Cooner (C). 169 feet 2 inches

Political Interest 35 Years Ago Centered In Officers For Dances

Edwin Alderman, Judge McCrae, dean of the law school, and Dr. Alexander, dean of the University, were appointed as a board of arbitration, before which representatives of the two parties appeared and pleaded their causes.

In 1899 there was the big political battle over the college annual. The fraternities, which had up to that time published it and often lost money on it, wished to make the Hellenian, as it was called, a real college publication. Therefore they made a proposal that the Di and the Phi should publish it. After a bitter fight this measure was passed by the Di, but there was a slight non-fraternity majority in the Phi which suspected some ulterior motive in the fraternities' proposal.

Finally the leaders and the proponents of the change rounded up all the members of the Phi society to vote. It was the vote of one sick man, Philip Busby, who had been brought to the hall in a cot, which gave a majority of one to sanction the publication of the Yackety Yack.

Politics in Library

More Di-Phi politics were shown in the struggle over the University library. At that time there were three separate libraries, managed individually and housed in one building: the college library, the Di library, and the Phi library. Some times copies of little-used books could be found in all three libraries. The method of classification was the old alcove-shelf system, books being marked as to the alcove and shelf in which they were. Students had free access to the shelves. As a result, with the growth of the libraries there was much confusion and destruction of books.

In 1901, W. S. Bernard, then University librarian, proposed that the three libraries be combined and be reclassified under Coach Bunn Hearn and Seventeen Players Move on New Hanover County for Contests Under Arc Lights.

FRED CROUCH WILL START

Coach Bunn Hearn and 17 Carolina baseball players will journey to Wilmington today to take on the Wilmington Pirates under lights tonight and tomorrow night. The contests will begin at 8:00 o'clock.

The Tar Heels will be risking a fine record against the Piedmont league club. So far, meeting Southern Conference and Big Five teams, Carolina has come out ahead in eight straight encounters, the closest tilt being a 3-1 victory over Virginia.

20 Inning Record

Besides the game-record the Tar Heels have not been scored on in 20 innings. The last run was counted by Virginia in the seventh frame and since then Fred Crouch shutout Wake Forest and Ernest McKeithan held Davidson runless.

Wilmington, a farm of the Cincinnati Reds, is fast developing into a strong club. Although it lost a hitting battle to Wake Forest last week, 14-10, Manager Carter has since added several fine players.

Peacock to Play

Among those performing for the Pirates is Johnny Peacock, regular centerfielder of the Carolina nine last spring. Lefty Barnes, who gave the Tar Heels plenty of trouble during the last three years, twirling for Wake Forest, is also a member of the Pirates and will likely start one of the contests against Carolina.

Freddy Crouch, ace Tar Heel pitcher, will be Coach Hearn's choice to take the mound in to-

SUMMER in NEW YORK

To the student of cultural subjects who wishes to make up deficiencies or shorten his college work, the advantages of summer study in New York are immediately clear. The museums are at hand—the libraries, theatres, public buildings. And, within a stone's throw, are the famous resorts of Long Island, Connecticut and the New Jersey shore. To all these, the Washington Square College of New York University affords the student easy access.

Courses with full college credit are offered in Biology, Chemistry, Economics, English, French, Geography, German, Government, History, Italian, Mathematics, Philosophy, Physics, Psychology, Public Speaking, Sociology and Spanish. The term is from June 25 to September 14.
