Childers And Williamson Star As Tracksters Run Wild To Defeat Devils

Hawthorne Looks Good In 76 2-3 to 49 1-3 Win; 880 Run Features.

Duke University, April 28—Carolina's potential Southern Conference champion track team proved far superior to the tracksters of Duke University here this afternoon to win, 76 2-3-49 1-3, and sounded its first voice of warning to the invading Navy crew which comes next week-end.

Featuring their victory the Tar Heels captured ten first places, followed up with eight of the seconds, and limited the Duke stars, "Snooky" Tarrall and Al Reichman, to no first places in their four events.

"Chilly" Childers broke his mediocre streak to mount the lime-light for the first time this season. This galloping Tar Heel gave Tarrall the most severe beating of the year as he took both dashes from the Devil. Childers also jumped second to Charlie Hubbard in the broad jump.

Harry Williamson annexed two firsts for runner-up honors but captured the prize for the most thrilling race of the meet. The Heel, entered at the last minute for the 440, managed to eke out a several inch advantage over Al Reichman to take the quarter.

880 Is Great Race

But the real race was the 880. Williamson had taken the lead early in the race, with Reichman lagging behind in fifth or sixth position. Near the middle of the second lap Reichman pulled up and on the last curve, with about 100 yards to go, sprinted to a five yard lead over Williamson with all the energy and wind he had saved up. With 50 yards to go Williamson was three yards behind and both men really sprinting. Williamson struggled up and forged out to a several inch lead to win the half mile in a story book finish.

Tom Hawthorne also looked well as he took first in the low hurdles and tied with his teammate, Frank Abernethy, for the lead in the highs.

Co-Captain Ed McRae completely walked away with the field in the mile which he won with fine time of 4:25. He took it easy at first and opened up on

Mural Diamond Clubs Start Second Round

This week's intramural baseball card will find 16 clubs in action. This schedule brings the strong Swain Hall, Delta Tau Delta, and Law School teams into the second round of the tourney.

This week's schedule is as follows:

Monday—3:45: FERA vs. Manly; Phi Gamma Delta vs. T. E. P. 4:45: Law School, No. 1 vs. Med. School; Chi Psi vs. Z. B. T.

Still Undefeated

Ralston LeGore, co-captain of the Carolina track team, came through in great style at the Penn Relays yesterday. LeGore threw the javelin 214 feet and 8 inches, over two feet farther than he has ever tossed it before and beating the old Penn Relays record by nearly 10 feet. LeGore's distance was over six feet better than the second place winner, Odell of Manhattan. Bachelor of Georgia took third with 203 feet.

Among the other Big Five and Southern Conference winners were Zori of State with 151 feet in the discus throw; Widmyer of Maryland in the 100-meter dash; and Everett, Virginia star, in the hurdles.

TWO AIRDROMES NOW OPEN HERE

Completion of New University Field by Tull Gives Chapel Hill Adequate Flying Facilities.

With the opening of the new University airport by I. M. Tull, and the continuance of the Chapel Hill airport, formerly leased by Tull, by G. N. Pickell, Chapel Hill now has two fields to accommodate flyers.

The owners have announced that their fields will be put in excellent shape and that they will feature acrobatic flying, and passenger service as they have in the past. Both men own their planes, and possess transport licenses as accredited flyers. They will do long distance flying for the accommodation of the public.

The Chapel Hill airport was until a short time ago run by both Tull and Pickell. The men, both of whom are from Kingston, have worked together for several years in barnstorming over the country.

The Chapel Hill airport was the second in North Carolina to be recognized and approved by the government. It possesses a standardized hangar on which the name of the port is printed in large letters, and the town's name has also been printed on the roof of the Carolina theatre.

Tull is working to bring his port up to government regulations, and indications are that Chapel Hill will have two well-equipped airports.

Track Notice

There will be an important meeting of varsity and freshman track men tomorrow afternoon at Emerson field at 4:00 o'clock. All men who have competed this season or who have equipment are required to be there or to see Coach Dale Ranson before the meeting.

QUARLES FIGHTS IN TOUGH MATCH TOMORROW NIGHT

Carolina Champion Will Meet George Carpenon in Amateur Bout on Card at Richmond.

EXPECTED TO BE CLOSE

Norment Quarles, Southern Conference lightweight champion and undefeated for the past five years, will battle Geo. Carpenon, San Francisco flash with six straight knockouts, in the feature boxing bout of a big card at Richmond tomorrow night.

The Carolina boy expects to meet the toughest opponent of his career in the lightweight encounter. Carpenon who has been fighting for a number of years is considered by Maxie Rosenbloom, light heavyweight champion of the world, one of the best boxers in the game.

The blond star has been working hard for the past couple of weeks and aside from a sprained hand is in top condition. He sustained the injury to his left hand while sparring last Wednesday.

The bad hand may hamper Quarles' chances for a win quite a bit as the speedy champ depends more on his fast left-hook and jab than anything else.

It is expected that the fight fans will have a chance to see Quarles' deadly right in action. It has been a long time since the Hendersonville boy has been forced to use the dangerous right in order to get a victory.

Besides the Quarles-Carpenon fight, promoter Heenan has scheduled several other fine bouts for the A. A. U. card. Among the boys who will appear on the program is Jimmy Pattisall, defeated in a close encounter with Quarles several weeks ago.

TAR BABY TRACK SQUAD TROUNCED BY STRONG IMPS

Duke Frosh Capture 13 Firsts To Swamp Babes, 105 1/2-20 1/2; Gammon Gets Only First.

TAR BABIES LOOK WEAK

A strong Duke freshman track team made it two straight wallops over a weak Carolina yearling club yesterday in Duke stadium by winning the meet, 105 1/2-20 1/2, and duplicating their feat of last Saturday of taking 13 of the 14 first places.

Again Graham Gammon proved the life-saver for the Babes by keeping them from being shut out of all first places as he walked away from the other runners to win the 880 easily. Gammon had the field all to himself in winning in 2:01.6 time with Bob Gardiner, his teammate, taking a second.

Imps Plenty Strong

The Duke team, possibly the strongest frosh track roundup ever assembled at the Methodist school, had the afternoon all to itself. Four men took the iron man honors as they scored 42 of the points. Both Shehan, sprinter and hurdler, and Pickard, field man, captured a first and a pair of seconds each to tie for individual scoring honors with Martin who took both hurdles and third in the high jump. Morse had enough wind and strength to take both the mile and two mile.

The best race of the meet was the two mile. Morse of Duke and Fink, Tar Baby, were running about even down the home stretch with the Duke man slightly ahead but Fink gradually pulling up. However, with less than 75 yards to go Fink completely collapsed and fell on the track.

FRESHMAN NINE BEATS WOLFLETS IN LOOSE GAME

Guy Fletcher Strikes Out 16 as Carolina Yearlings Go on Hitting Spree to Win, 19-3.

BULLARD AND McCARN HIT

Aided by Guy Fletcher striking out 16 men, by the losers making 10 errors, and by a 15-hit rampage, the rejuvenated Carolina freshman nine won their second game of the season by downing the yearlings of State College yesterday, 19-3.

Twirler Fletcher of the Tar Babes was in rare form as he limited the Wolflets to seven hits. In the eighth inning he sent the three men who faced him right back to their bench by whiffing them and likewise in the fifth he struck out three.

It was a big fifth when 13 Tar Baby batters went to the plate and the Carolina men clinched their victory although they had already scored eight runs.

On four hits, five errors, and three free passes to first, the Babes scored eight runs. Ed Bullard led the attack with a home run and a single in this inning to bat in three runs. The first seven men to come to bat all crossed the home platter by some means or other, Fletcher being forced in when McCarn was given four balls.

Ed Bullard led the hitting by getting a full house, grand slam or what have you. He poled out a homer, triple, double, and a single in six trips up. Buck McCarn was not far behind as he got a homer, triple, and a double. Both Voliva and Cooke hit triples.

For the State frosh Norwood was the big stick, getting a homer and a single. Dalrymple and Bugg each got a pair of singles.

Tar Heel Keystone Pair Make Three Double Plays to Star.

Spotting the opposition to four runs in the opening inning, Carolina's baseball team was forced to come from behind for the third straight time to capture a victory; this time the Tar Heels defeated V. M. I., 9-4, in a slow, listless contest on Emerson field yesterday.

Leo Manly started on the mound for Carolina but was miffed for four runs in the first and as a result was jerked in favor of Ernest McKeithan, sophomore star. McKeithan gave up eight hits in the last eight frames but bore down nice in the pinches and assisted by three double plays held the Kaydets scoreless. Most of the hits off McKeithan were light taps just out of reach.

Smith and O'Brien, V. M. I. hurlers, allowed the Tar Heels only seven hits, only one of these being an extra base blow. However, Smith, the starting twirler, was wild, walking 12 men and hitting another.

V. M. I.'s Runs

The visitors took their lead in the initial frame as a result of a walk, singles by Leiseur and Penn and a home run to deep centerfield by Scott.

Carolina started whittlin' the lead in the third, counting twice on two walks, a couple of errors, Vick's single, and a fielder's choice on Brandt's grounder. The score was tied in the fifth as a result of two more walks. Brandt and McCaskill were passed, Irwin grounded out advancing both men, Womble hit a long fly driving in McCaskill, and Tatum smashed out a sharp single bringing Brandt across the plate.

The Tar Heels made it 8-4 when Smith blew-up in the following inning. McKeithan led-off with his third free trip to first, Leonard beat out a bunt, Vick grounded out, but Weathers cracked out a single.

Smith then walked McCaskill for the fourth time, passed Brandt bringing in a run, got Irwin on a fly, and passed in another run on Womble before being jerked for O'Brien. O'Brien walked in one more run before retiring the side.

Carolina's final run came in the seventh when Vick walked, stole second, and came home on Weathers' double.

The Carolina keystone pair of Weathers and Irwin furnished the best fielding for the Tar Heels. The pair turned in three double plays, Weathers got five assists and five putouts, and Irwin made seven assists and one putout. Davis, V. M. I. outfielder made the best play for his team when he grabbed McCaskill's long drive to centerfield in the seventh.

Weathers had a single besides his double, out of four times up and Vick got a couple of safe blows in three to lead the Tar Heel offense. Leiseur's 3 for 3 was best for V. M. I.
