

Student Achievements Receive Recognition At Awards Night

Senior Class Skits Get Boos From Audience

Weathers Awarded Both Grail Scholarship and Patterson Medal for Attainments.

FURCHES WINS GRAIL CUP

University students who have done outstanding work in scholarship, athletics, and other extra-curricular activities during the past year were officially presented with awards at the annual Awards night program last night in Memorial hall.

Speakers at the occasion were Coach Bob Fétzer, who presented a summary of the records of the University athletic teams during the past year; Dr. Archibald Henderson of the mathematics department, who awarded the Patterson Medal to Virgil Weathers; and J. C. Lyons of the French department, who announced the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity trophy winner. "A Quoi Bon," a series of skits staged by the senior class under the direction of Claiborn Carr, was received by the audience with hoots and jeers.

Weathers Honored

Weathers, who received the Patterson Medal, awarded on a basis of athletics, leadership, and character, has been a star performer on the baseball and basketball teams, president of the senior class, and is the newly elected president of the student body for next year.

The Grail cup for the outstanding freshman student and athlete was awarded to J. G. Beard, Jr., son of the dean of the pharmacy school, and the Grail cup for the best intramural athlete was given to D. L. Furches of Farmington.

SPRING SPORTS FEATURE REVIEW

Emphasis Also Laid on Class Day Set for June 11; Summer Program Is Stated.

May issues of the Alumni Review distributed yesterday from the alumni office set forth the University commencement program.

Special emphasis is laid on Alumni Day, June 11, which will feature the reunions of 11 University classes. The class of 1884 will hold a "golden reunion" and the class of 1909 will also convene.

Pictures are carried of Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator who will deliver the commencement address, and Dr. Henry M. Edmonds, Birmingham minister who will preach the University baccalaureate sermon.

Summer School

Setting forth features of the consolidated University summer school, the number tells of the plans of Dr. W. C. Jackson, dean of the school of public administration who will become the first director of the consolidated summer education session.

New records set by the University spring sports teams are set forth in the athletic section of the issue. A picture is carried of the baseball squad which has made a total of 23 consecutive victories through the past two seasons.

Annual to Come Out In Two Installments

Yackety Yacks Will Be Distributed June 6 and 11.

Due to an unavoidable delay in printing, all the copies of the new Yackety Yack will not be distributed before the end of the quarter, it was announced yesterday.

One thousand copies will be given out Wednesday in Graham Memorial to those students who will not be here through commencement. The other thousand will be received June 11 and distributed to those who are still here.

Anyone who does not get his Yackety Yack on Wednesday and will not stay over for commencement may have his copy mailed to him by sending a card with his name and address to Box 727, Chapel Hill.

MONOGRAM CLUB WILL HAVE LAST SESSION TONIGHT

Letter and Numeral Certificates Will Be Awarded to Spring Athletic Teams.

JUDGE BROGDEN TO TALK

The Monogram club of the University will meet tonight at 8:00 o'clock at Swain hall for its final meeting of the year, according to an announcement made yesterday by Frank Abernethy, secretary of the club.

The main address of the evening will be delivered by Judge W. J. Brogden of Durham. Judge Brogden is well known to members of the group as the author of the Monogram club code. He is an alumnus of the University, having received his Ph.B. degree here in 1898. While a student he proved himself to be a leader, and has continued to be since leaving school. Among the more prominent of his undergraduate achievements was his being elected to the editorship of the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Teacher and Lawyer

Brogden has served successfully as a teacher and a lawyer since he left the University. Immediately upon his graduation he taught at the Raleigh Male Academy. He was principal of the Durham city schools for six years, and after serving in this capacity he entered the legal profession. He has filled both positions of attorney for Durham county and mayor of the city of Durham.

There will also be an election of officers for next year at tonight's meeting. These officers will serve for the entire three quarters of the school session. George Brandt, captain of the baseball nine and first string football man, is the retiring president of the club. George Barclay, captain-elect of the football team and president of the Athletic association, is the retiring vice-president.

Frank Abernethy and Dave McCachren are the retiring secretary and the treasurer, respectively.

One of the outstanding parts of tonight's program will be the distribution of numeral certificates to all members of freshman teams and presentation of Monogram certificates to all (Continued on last page)

UNIVERSITY CLUB TO PLAN ACTIVITY

Organization Will Meet for Final Session Tonight at 7:15 O'clock in New Room.

The University club will hold its final meeting of the year tonight in 209 Graham Memorial at 7:15 o'clock. All members are requested to attend as some definite business must be transacted before the summer holidays.

A report on the budget for next year will be given by the president. It is probable that various expenses of the club on different projects will be taken care of by the athletic association and the student union.

Decorating Plans

Plans for the decoration of the club-room will be presented and the special committee for that purpose will make arrangements for the work. Further plans for summer work of interesting prospective students to the University will also be advanced.

The schedule of activities for next fall will be presented and discussed. Arrangements will also be made for the distribution of extra copies of tomorrow's 8-page DAILY TAR HEEL to the members.

It was announced yesterday that tonight's session will be through before 8:00 o'clock in order to allow Monogram club members who are also members of the University club to attend the meeting of the former group at that time.

FEW SENIOR WEEK TREATS EXPLAINED

Local Merchants Blame Decrease in Student Trade.

The failure of the Chapel Hill merchants to provide the senior class this year with the free treats which they have given to former graduating classes during Senior Week is due to a decrease in trade caused by a falling off in student purchasing power, according to a statement made yesterday.

The barbecue scheduled for Friday night was put forward by the Senior Week committee as a satisfactory substitute for the favors which the merchants were unable to afford, and the senior executive committee having given its approval, it will be financed by a free surplus in the senior treasury.

In order to be admitted to the barbecue Friday night and to the free show which the Carolina theatre is offering Saturday night at 11:00 o'clock the seniors must wear their regalia or carry a special slip which can be obtained today during chapel period at the "Y" lobby.

The trucks which will carry the seniors to their entertainment at Hogan's pond will be furnished by the University and will leave from in front of the Old Well at 5:00 o'clock.

Student Presidents to Meet

Dormitory and fraternity presidents will meet with Dr. Frank Graham at 7:00 o'clock tonight instead of 7:30 as previously announced.

Grade Conditions

Students wishing to remove conditions on grades should report to the registrar's office this week.

PRESIDENTS NAME EXECUTIVE GROUPS

Roy Wilder to Head Junior Executive Committee; Reed Sarratt to Head Sophomores.

Ernest Eutsler and John Rainey, respective presidents of the rising junior and sophomore classes, yesterday announced the completion of the appointments for the executive committees of the two classes.

Roy Wilder of Spring Hope will head the rising junior executive committee, and Reed Sarratt of Charlotte will be chairman of the sophomore group.

Junior Committee

The members of the junior class who were chosen by Eutsler for his committee are: Roy Wilder, chairman, Jim McCachren, Lewis Puckett, Albert K. McAnally, M. Luther Britt, William A. Daniel, Billy Weaver, Maurice Winstead, Seth Robertson, Hugh Primrose, J. R. Taylor, Jim Jackson, Trip Rand, Bill Yandell, Morty Ellisberg, Bill Prevost, and Jimmy Craighill.

On the rising sophomore executive committee are: Reed Sarratt, chairman, Jerry Kisner, Billy Daniel, Phil Kind, Charlie Daniels, Julien Warren, Henry Lewis, E. J. Goodman, Mack Cook, John Farmer, Raymond Reeves, G. C. Johnson, B. C. Henchard, W. M. Jordan, Milton Finklestein, Bernard Davis, Shirley Baker, James Price, James Bingham, William Davies, Yates Mason, Eli Joynes, Henry Darling, John Norris, Joe Kornegay, Ed Herring, George Underwood.

SENIORS MAY GET STANDINGS EARLY

Grades Will Be Recorded on List in Registrar's Office.

Seniors who will get degrees at commencement next month should stop at the registrar's office this week to find just what courses the office has for them to clear before they can be awarded degrees, it was announced yesterday.

All incompleting courses, conditions on subjects, and absences from school must be straightened out before students may receive degrees and the registrar's office wishes to check with individuals who will graduate this spring to find out if all the office records are correct.

To allow seniors to obtain their grades as soon as the instructors turn then into the office, Miss Josephine Pritchard, recorder, has prepared an alphabetical list of degree applicants that will be available for all candidates to refer to between the hours of 8:30 o'clock to 4:30 o'clock.

Yackety Yack Staff

There will be a meeting of the following members of this year's editorial board of the Yackety Yack at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon in the Graham Memorial office: Claude Rankin, Fred Weaver, Charles Ivey, Lane Fulenwider, Henry Lewis, Irving Suss, Jack Lowe, Bryan Wolfe. This meeting is very important and all these men are urged to be on time.

Old Executive Committee

Retiring members of the senior class executive committee will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building.

Jan Garber Will Play For Four German Club Dances Next Week

Jan Garber

"The Idol of the Airways" will bring his noted group of musicians here June 7 to provide the music for the first two days of the German club series of Finals dances.

FIFTIETH REUNION OF CLASS OF 1884 TO HAVE VISITORS

Class Will Invite Members of All Graduating Classes Prior To 1884 to Banquet.

FIVE OF 16 STILL REMAIN

Setting up what it hopes will become a regular feature of 50th year reunions, the class of 1884 will invite all the alumni of earlier classes to the banquet which it will hold Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock in the Carolina Inn. This announcement was made yesterday by James Lee Love of Burlington, president of the '84 class, who was in Chapel Hill yesterday to confer with J. Maryon Saunders in the formation of the plans for the 50th reunion of the class of 1884.

Among the earlier alumni who will be invited to attend the banquet are: Dr. Alexander Graham, father of the University president, superintendent emeritus of the Charlotte schools, and one of the three remaining members of the class of 1869; Judge Francis D. Winston of Windsor; and Judge R. W. Winston, author of the recently published biography of Lee and principal speaker at the Founders' Day exercises last fall.

Five Members

Of the 16 who were graduated from the University in 1884, only five now remain: James Lee Love, president; Dr. S. B. Turrentine, president of Greensboro College; Julien Wood of Edenton; T. R. Rouse of La Grange; and B. Franklin Berkeley of California.

Among those who belong to the class of 1884 but did not obtain degrees in that year are: George Gordon Battle, New York attorney; Judge Heriot Clarkson, associate justice of the North Carolina Supreme court; Judge T. J. Shaw, of the North Carolina Superior court bench; and Zeb Vance Walsler, Lexington attorney.

The University's oldest alumnus, William G. Chandler, who recently passed his 100th anniversary, will also be invited to attend.

President Graham's 1909 class and Governor Ehringhaus' class of 1901 will meet at this time.

Emerson Gill May Play For Saturday Group

Gill or Another Orchestra of Equal Rating Will Be Here For Last Two Affairs.

SENIORS MAY BUY BIDS

Jan Garber will play for the Thursday and Friday dances and Emerson Gill or another orchestra with an equal rating will furnish the music for the Saturday dances of the German club Finals series from June 7 to 9 here in the Tin Can, Charlie Woollen, treasurer for the organization, announced yesterday.

Receives Another Offer

According to Woollen's statement, Emerson Gill had already been signed up for the Saturday dances when the organization through which he was engaged, having received a better offer to send Gill to Denver, approached the sponsors of the finals and made an arrangement whereby it will send either Gill or a substitute rated as high or probably higher.

In order that the members of the graduating class who have never attended a set of German club dances may have an opportunity to do so before leaving school, bids for the finals will be on sale to any graduating senior for $9, the same amount that is charged regular members of the club. This sum includes a $5 assessment and a $4 charge for dues.

Fees for Initiation

For the members of the rising senior class who wish to join the German club at this time there will be an initiation charge of $1 in addition to the regular price of $9. Freshmen and sophomores must pay a $5 initiation fee plus the $9 assessment. (Continued on last page)

BARR'S DANCERS APPEAR TONIGHT

Troupes of Men and Women Dancers Will Present Two Student Compositions.

Phoebe Barr and her group of men dancers, assisted by members of her women's classes, will present probably the first dance concert ever given in the United States by student non-professionals, at 8:30 o'clock tonight in Memorial hall.

Seven men and eleven women students who have studied the terpsichorean art under Phoebe Barr, former member of Ted Shawn's renowned company, will present a program of numbers which have been arranged by Mrs. Barr. The program includes solo and group numbers and features the original compositions of two members, Foster Fitz-Simons of Atlanta, Ga., and Marion Tatum of Raleigh.

Dances on Program

The program includes dances to a "Scherzo" by Chopin; a "Prelude" by Chopin; Beethoven's "German Dance"; Marion Tatum's "Stabat Mater"; "Tropé" by Foster Fitz-Simons; "River Song" by Edwards; "Banjo Song" by Wolfe; "Battle Hymn" by Steffe; Scott's "Warrior of the Pear Tree Garden" and "Madras Nautch"; "Persiam Poem" by Ippolitow-Ivanow; two spirituals, "Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray" and "Jacob's Ladder"; and "Congo" (Continued on last page)
