

Carolina Drops Tough Game to Vols, 19-7; B. Moore Makes Score

the 11-yard line. Here Dashiell shot another pass to Moore, who took it on the 4-yard line and on a neat run scored. Babe Daniel, center, place-kicked the extra point, giving Carolina a margin.

Led by Captain George Barclay, Eddie Kahn, and Bill Moore, the Carolina line stopped the Vol running attack, but Tennessee threatened to score by air once before the first quarter ended. However, Dashiell knocked a heave down over the goal on the fourth down.

With Charlie Shaffer doing some great kicking, Carolina did the majority of the threatening during the rest of the first half. Once Hump Snyder, blocking back for Carolina, ran through guard on a fake and dashed 30 yards to the Tennessee 18-yard line.

Shaffer then picked up five more but a penalty and a 6-yard loss by Dashiell put the Tar Heels back on the 25. However, Dashiell passed to Shaffer who got all the way to the 9-yard line, where the ball went over just a couple of feet short of a first.

Hold on 7-Yard Line

Carolina's defense started cracking at the very start of the second half but made one more gallant stand before surrendering its lead. The Vols kicked off but Hutchins fumbled on his own 36, Bailey of Tennessee recovering.

After being held at the line of scrimmage for two downs, Pug Vaughan of Tennessee tossed a pass to Humphries, end, who was finally stopped on the 20. Vaughan then dashed around right end to the 10 where Dashiell caught him in the open. Carolina then made its stand and took the ball over on the 7-yard line.

Charlie Shaffer punted out to midfield and Krouse galloped back to the Carolina 39-yard line. Craig made 9 over right guard and a moment later, behind some beautiful interference, Vaughan traveled 30 yards for a score. Captain Barclay fought his way through the Vol line and dived in front of the kicker to block the try for extra point.

Barclay Carried Out
Captain Barclay again rallied his forces and held Tennessee as it got as far as the 10-yard line. At this point in the game a Vol blocker clipped the Carolina leader from behind and he had to be carried from the battle.

However, the Carolina forces managed to take the ball over on their own 9. On the very first play Dashiell tried a futile pass which Dorsey intercepted and ran back to the 20. Phil Dickens dashed around right end without being touched for the third and last marker. Dorsey made the extra point from placement.

The losers managed to hold their own the rest of the game and attempted time after time to gain through passes but with little success. Don Jackson, ace tosser, was able to play part of the game and got off some excellent heaves, but the Vol defense was always alert and kept the Tar Heel receivers well covered.

About midway in the last quarter big Jim Tatum broke through and blocked a Tennessee punt which was recovered

Bill Walker doing the duties on the Card mound. White first up, received a free ticket to first. Cochrane bunted to Walker who threw wild to Durocher, both runners being safe. Gehringer sacrificed both runners to third and second. Goslin was walked. Rogell singled through Durocher scoring two men.

Greenberg sent a stinging double out against the right field wall scoring Goslin. Jess Haines then relieved Walker. Owen singled tallying Rogell. Fox fanned but a double steal was successful via DeLancey's error, Greenberg scoring and Owen going to third. Auker then whiffed.

Martin started the last of the ninth off for St. Louis with a single but a rally was cut quite short as Manager Frisch immediately bumped into a double killing.

by Ralph Gardner, reserve center.

The entire Carolina line played a creditable game against the great interference displayed by Neyland's men. Captain Barclay looked like his old self once more as he made tackles all over the field, while both Eddie Kahn and Bill Moore broke through time after time to throw Vol backs for losses.

Hump Snyder stood out in the Carolina backfield both on defense and offense. Charlie Shaffer out-punted Palmer and many times pushed the Tennessee offense back out of Carolina territory.

Toby Vaughan was by far the ace in the Tennessee backfield. Besides getting off several excellent runs he kept the Tar Heels always in danger with his passes. Krouse and Moses, quarterbacks, and Dickens, half, also did some nice stepping for the winners.

Captain Hatley, guard, and Pounders and Rose, ends, stood out in the forward wall. All three did some excellent tackling while the Tennessee leader was the main man in the mass of interference which was in front of every Tennessee ball carrier.

Leroy Moorehead, who leads the Bulldog line, is, like Barclay, an all-southern guard. Cy Grant, Buck Chapman, Glenn Johnson, and John Bond head the Bulldog's long line of fine backs.

Harry Mehre, Georgia's head coach, teaches the Notre Dame system, which Carolina used in the eight years of Chuck Collins' regime. Carl Snavelly, Carolina's new coach, uses the Warner system.

Three sophs have broken into Carolina's otherwise veteran lineup this year. They are Dick Buck, rangy end; "Slippery Dick" Dashiell, elusive halfback; and Jim Hutchins, driving fullback.

The other eight starters are lettermen. They are: W. Moore, end; Tatum and Evins, tackles; Captain Barclay and Kahn, guards; Daniel, center; Snyder, blocking back; and Shaffer, halfback.

The line that started the Tennessee game yesterday averaged 188 pounds and the backfield 175 pounds.

The Carolina-Georgia rivalry dates back to 1895, when the Tar Heels won two thrillers, 6-0 and 10-6. A total of 14 games have been played with Carolina winning seven, Georgia six, and one tied.
