

Students And Faculty Review Activities Of Student Council

'34 Administration Reviewed by Barnes

Faculty Pleased with Council's Handling of Cases Formerly Under Its Authority.

TO MEET EACH QUARTER

At a joint supper in Graham Memorial Monday night the student council and the faculty executive committee met and discussed the activities of the student council during last year and also plans for the coming year.

This meeting was the only one planned for this quarter. The council and the executive committee have made arrangements to meet only once each quarter.

Dr. Spruill made the statement that the faculty was pleased with the new arrangement that the council be given the right to try all faculty cases. This ended the first year of the new plan and the faculty indicated that it would be satisfied to continue under the same arrangement.

Pledge Revision

The advisability of revising the pledge to make it read "I have neither given nor received aid on this quiz and have not seen any violation of the Honor system" instead of the usual pledge was discussed but no action taken.

Also the advisability of giving men, especially freshmen, a second chance for breaches of the Honor system was discussed. Appeals, where there are sufficient grounds, will be carried to Dean House, who will decide whether a new trial should be granted, and whether by the student council again or by an appeals committee appointed by himself.

BRADSHAW BACKS DRIVE FOR POOL

Dean Encourages Plans of Dialectic Senate to Obtain Swimming Facilities Here.

A letter from Dean Francis Bradshaw commending the Dialectic senate for its initiative step taken for the obtaining of an adequate swimming pool for the University was read at the meeting of the senate last night.

"I commend your movement and hope you will not let up," Bradshaw said. It seems to me distinctly possible that the students of the University, speaking out of their own self need to the responsible leadership of the state, would be able to accomplish things that no representative of the University administration could accomplish.

Assistance

"I would suggest that you get the assistance of the DAILY TAR HEEL and all responsible student groups back of this movement for improved facilities for physical education, and especially swimming."

The bill concerning this movement was referred to a committee appointed by the president, the committee consisting of Chairman Bob Williams, Fred Stein, and Charles Rawls.

The other bills were tabled for later discussion.

Bill Weaver, president pro-tem, presided.

KIDNAPED WOMAN RETURNED HOME

Husband Finally Establishes Contact with Abductor.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 16.—(UP)—Mrs. Berry V. Stoll, kidnaped six days ago, is alive and enroute home with a Department of Justice agent, it was learned here late tonight.

Berry Stoll had intimated earlier tonight that he had good reason to believe that he would hear from his wife's kidnaper since the house had been isolated to facilitate easy contact. Stoll had said that he expected a phone call at any minute.

How the contact was finally made could not immediately be determined tonight but it has definitely been learned that Mrs. Stoll is now out of danger and on her way home.

NEW YORK TRIAL REACHES CLIMAX

Justice Hammer Calls Recess in Hauptmann Case; Decision to Be Announced Soon.

New York, Oct. 16.—(UP)—Richard Bruno Hauptmann's fight to escape extradition to New Jersey approached a climax tonight when an evening court session was called, presumably for the purpose of announcing the court's decision.

New York, Oct. 16.—(UP)—Bruno Hauptmann lost the superior court fight to escape extradition to New Jersey to face charges of murdering the Lindbergh baby, it was learned here late tonight.

New Jersey rested the case late this afternoon. Justice Ernest E. L. Hammer called a recess until 8:30 o'clock tonight. He gathered up the exhibits and documents of the case and retired to his chambers.

State Witnesses

Attorney General Wilentz produced only four state witnesses. He is apparently hoarding all evidence possible until he gets the prisoner before a jury in New Jersey.

Thus far the decision of the court in which Hauptmann is being tried has not been announced.

The witnesses called in today's session were called in an attempt to establish the fact that Hauptmann was in the vicinity of the Lindbergh home the night of the kidnaping.

HUNGARIANS WIN STRIKE FOR INCREASING WAGES

All the fraternity houses on the campus will decorate for the day. The decorations which are not to exceed $15 in cost, are to be based upon the theme "Beat Kentucky". This plan of building decorations around a definite theme is inaugurated this year in order to give the judges a definite basis for comparison.

A silver loving cup, displayed in the window of Stetson "D" will be awarded to the winning fraternity after the judges' de-

KIDNAPERS GET ANOTHER VICTIM

Son of Wealthy Merchant Held For $20,000 Ransom.

New York, Oct. 16.—(UP)—It was learned tonight that Louis S. Esposito, 23, son of a wealthy Bronx merchant, has been kidnaped and is being held for $20,000 ransom.

Esposito disappeared last night after driving his grandfather home. His parents received a call saying that the boy will be killed unless the ransom money is paid. They were warned against notifying the police.

Eposito's parents have failed to contact the kidnapers as was specified in the phone call, and therefore notified their lawyer who advised them to call the police this morning.

The automobile in which young Esposito was driving at the time of the occurrence of the crime was found abandoned in the Bronx.

DUKE DELEGATION ASKS FRESHMEN FOR COOPERATION

Presidents of Student Body and Senior Class Ask Frosh to Increase Friendly Relations.

GLAD OF GEORGIA VICTORY

Bill Burke, president of the Duke University student body, and Don McNeal, Duke senior class president, asked yesterday in freshman chapel for co-operation between Duke and Carolina students.

Burke said that he was glad to see the friendly feeling that has been increasing between the two schools for the past several years, and he appealed to freshmen to further this feeling.

Clean Rivalry

"Let's have good, hard rivalry on the football field," he said, "but regardless of who wins, let's shake hands after the game and say that it was fine."

Burke extended congratulations for the victory over Georgia, saying that it came not from him alone but from the entire undergraduate school.

The Duke student body president welcomed Carolina students to use the Duke library and to visit Duke boys and girls.

McNeal related an action of friendliness toward Carolina on the part of Duke students when the score of Carolina and Tennessee was announced at the Duke-Clemson game.

Friendliness

He said that he was pleased to see growing friendliness between the student bodies, although he thought a reasonable amount of rivalry added color to intercollegiate games.

J. D. Winslow, president of the Y. M. C. A., who is sponsoring the better-relationships program, expressed pleasure at the movement inaugurated at the freshman class assembly.

UNIVERSITY CLUB CHANGES PRIZES

System for Judging Store Window Decorations Announced.

The University club Homecoming Day committee announced a change in prizes for store window decorations yesterday.

For the most novel window, two football tickets will be first prize and one ticket second prize. For the best display window from a selling standpoint, two tickets will be first prize and one ticket second prize.

The former system of prizes was offered for the best windows, with no particular basis for judging.

The Merchants' association decided Monday night to have uniform decorations on both sides of the street. Store windows will be judged after 7:00 o'clock Friday night.

Isham Jones To Play Here At Fall German Club Dances

GRAIL ANNOUNCES ADDITIONAL DANCE

Fuller Will Play for Extra Affair Friday Night.

The Order of the Grail will sponsor two dances this weekend instead of the usual one, it was announced yesterday.

The first, on Friday night, will be the regular Grail dance, with Jimmy Fuller and his orchestra playing from 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock.

The Saturday night dance will be given under the auspices of the Grail, but will be in honor of the Monogram club, to which part of the proceeds will go. Jelly Leftwich will play at this dance, which will last from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock.

The admission charge will be $1 for each dance.

BAND WILL PLAY FOR SOPHOMORES

Freddie Johnson's Carolina Tar Heels to Play for Sophomore Assembly This Morning.

The latest of Carolina dance orchestras, Freddie Johnson and his Carolina Tar Heels, will make its initial appearance this morning in sophomore assembly at 10:30 o'clock in Gerrard hall.

Johnson has gathered together a corps of 13 musicians, featuring a five way brass combination, four piece rhythm section, and four saxophones, with the director sometimes playing the fourth, giving added harmony to the reed section.

Original Arrangements

The Carolina Tar Heels are playing their original arrangements only of popular dance melodies. Randy Blanchard, first trumpet player and music student here in the University, is the author of these arrangements which accent the brasses, thereby affording tempo reminiscent of Casa Loma's popular conception of melody.

Freddie Johnson has arranged an interesting musical program for this first appearance, he announced today. Melodies ranging from hot dance tunes to waltz numbers will be played. The Carolina battle songs will be presented on this audition.

PRESIDENT FORMS NEW COMMITTEES

Issues Orders Creating New Groups Under Textile Board.

Washington, Oct. 16.—(UP)—President Roosevelt tonight issued four executive orders creating under the Textile Relations board three boards under a common chairman. These boards are to investigate the work load assignments of cotton, wool, and silk mills.

The orders are a blow to the stretchout system. The boards are ordered to make recommendations to the President by January 1st for a permanent plan regulating the work load of these industries.

Meanwhile President Roosevelt ordered the present work load frozen until February 1 in cotton and silk mills. It is already frozen in woolen mills.

The new boards are composed of one representative from the industry it is to investigate, one from the workers in that industry, and an impartial chairman.

Club Schedules Set For November 16-17

Affair Will Be Held in Tin Can Following Carolina-Duke Football Contest.

PASSES ON SALE MONDAY

Isham Jones and his internationally famous orchestra will furnish the music for the fall German club dances on the week-end of the Duke-Carolina football game November 16-17, it was announced yesterday by Chapin Litten, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The fall set of dances, the first to be staged by the club this year, will consist of two tea dances and two evening dances.

The series will start Friday afternoon, November 16, with the first tea dance in the Tin Can from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

The other three dances will also be held in the Tin Can. The Friday night affair will run from 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock.

Following the Duke-Carolina game Saturday afternoon, the second tea dance of the series will start at 5:00 o'clock and end at 7:00 o'clock. The final dance will take place from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock Saturday night.

Election Tomorrow

All members of the German club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Gerrard hall to elect dance leaders for this first series of the year.

Tickets for the fall set may be procured after Monday from officers or members of the executive committee of the German club.

Jones and his band have been playing over the Columbia Broadcasting System from Cleveland recently. He will be remembered by many students on the campus by the tour he made of this state year before last, playing in several neighboring cities.

Officers of the club this year are: Joe Webb, president; Bruce Old, vice-president, and Chapin Litten, secretary-treasurer.

SUGARMAN PLANS LARGER MAGAZINE

P. U. Board Agrees to Increase in Size Provided Advertising Offsets Increased Cost.

The Publications Union board yesterday approved Joe Sugarman's proposal to change the dimensions of the new magazine on the condition that the additional cost to be incurred would be offset by the increase in advertising.

The format of the Carolina Magazine will be slightly different from that which was proposed last spring when it was decided to make the magazine a separate publication instead of a bi-monthly supplement for the DAILY TAR HEEL.

Full Page Engraving

The printed copies will be eight and one-half by 11 inches, instead of six and one-half by ten inches as it was first proposed.

This change was made principally because it was found that the first size is not one for which national advertising can be easily obtained.

The board also gave the magazine editor permission to have a full page engraving made for the first issue.
