

TAR HEELS WIN BATTLE FROM KENTUCKY, 6-0

Dick Buck Counts On Pass From Dashiell; Shaffer And Johnson Are Stars

Wildcats Drive to Five Yard Line But Fail To Get Score.

Dick Buck, Tar Heel sophomore end, leaped high into the air to take a 25-yard pass from "Slippery Dick" Dashiell, sophomore halfback, and then raced 23 yards for the only score in a great football battle between Carolina and Kentucky in Kenan stadium yesterday.

The final score of the Homecoming game was Carolina 6, Kentucky 0, both teams failing to score after driving within the 10-yard lines. About 13,000 fans witnessed the contest.

Score in First

The lone tally came just before the first quarter ended on a play which netted 48 yards. The Tar Heels had done most of the gaining during the first part of the period and after an exchange of punts took the ball on their own 48-yard line. Charlie Shaffer on a reverse slipped through the line for 4 yards and Dashiell failed to gain.

Standing in punt formation Dashiell stepped back and then let loose a beautiful, well-timed heave straight down the field. Buck was off on the snap of the ball; he raced past McMillan the Wildcat safety man, took the ball on the very tips of his fingers without slowing up, and raced across the goal line with two men at his heels.

Babe Daniel, center, tried to make the extra point from place.

(Continued on last page)

DEVILS TRIUMPH OVER WILDCATS WITH EASE, 20-0

Cornelius, Parker, and Whitner Score Touchdowns; Davidson Gets to 7-Yard Line.

DUKE IS STILL UNBEATEN

Scoring with ease in the first, second, and fourth periods, Duke kept its undefeated record intact as it swept through the Davidson Wildcats in Durham yesterday, 20-0. About 6,000 fans watched the battle.

The opening tally came midway in the first period as Corky Cornelius dashed around left end for five yards following a 50-yard drive. Cornelius also kicked the extra point.

The Blue Devils counted again just before the first half ended as a result of an intercepted pass by Alexander. The Duke fullback caught the ball on Davidson's 45 and ran it back to the 12. Cornelius gained a yard and Alexander got 3 more. Then Parker went around right end for the tally. Cornelius again booted the extra point.

Eighty-Yard Drive

After Duke's second team had battled the Wildcats on even terms throughout the third period, Coach Wade sent back most of the first string and it soon began a drive from its own 20 which netted the final marker.

(Continued on last page)

HIS TOSS MADE HISTORY

Tar Heel Staff Photos.

Slippery Dick Dashiell, who threw the winning touchdown pass to Dick Buck in yesterday's Carolina-Kentucky battle. Dashiell is shown here as he skirted the Wildcat right end during the first quarter for a 9-yard gain. "Double-Nought" McMillan, Kentucky safety man, is the player who is about to tackle the sophomore halfback.

Summary of Game

KENTUCKY		Pos.	CAROLINA
Rupert (C)	l.e.		Buck
Wagner	l.t.		Tatum
McClurg	l.g.	Barclay (C)
Janes	c.	Daniel
Huddleston	r.g.	Kahn
Jobe	r.t.	Evins
Long	r.e.	Childers
McMillan	q.b.	Snyder
Johnson	l.h.	Dashiell
Jean	r.h.	Shaffer
Pritchard	f.b.	Hutchins

Score by quarters:
Kentucky	0 0 0 0-0
Carolina	6 0 0 0-6

Scoring touchdown: Buck (pass from Dashiell).

Kentucky subs—Myers, Nevers, McCool, Simpson, Hay, Bryant, Darnaby, Potter, Olah, Walker, Simpson, Ayers, Farris.

Carolina subs—Gardner, Kanner, Joyce, Trimpey, Jackson, McCachren, Stewart, Montgomery.

Officials: Black (Davidson), Referee; Chambers (Denison), Umpire; Jackson (E. & H.), Headlinesman; Brewer (Maryland), Field Judge.

Statistics of Game

	KY	UNC
Score	0	6
First downs	10	5
Yards gained at line	123	65
Yards lost at line	24	9
Yards gained at ends	6	48
Yards lost at ends	20	10
Yards gained on passes	54	52
Passes completed	6	2
Passes incomplete	12	1
Passes had intercepted	3	2
Net yardage from scrim.	139	146
Number punts	12	11
Punts had blocked	0	1
Average yardage punts	36	45
Yards punts returned	19	53
Ball lost on fumbles	0	1
Own fumbles recovered	2	4
Yards penalized	10	10

Hutchins Only Injury

Jim Hutchins, big sophomore fullback, was the only Tar Heel who received injury at Kenan yesterday. Hutchins had to be removed from the game during the first quarter as a result of some torn muscles in one of his hips. However, it is believed that the sophomore star will be in good enough condition to go against State here next Saturday.

Co-ed Tennis Practice

The schedule for co-ed tennis practice for this week follows: Monday and Wednesday, 2:00 to 3:00 o'clock: Margaret Jordan, Priscilla White, Kay Quigley, Margaret McCauley.

Monday and Wednesday, 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock: Elizabeth Ayescue, Dorothy Bowen, Elsie Laurence, Jean Cantrell.

Tuesday and Thursday, 2:00 to 3:00 o'clock: Ruth Covington, Ann Jenkins, Sue Jenkins, Sophie Stevens.

Tuesday and Thursday, 3:00 to 4:00 o'clock: Annie Vass, Mary Cruikshank, Jo Oettinger, Mildred Cohen.

Tuesday and Thursday, 4:00 to 5:00 o'clock: Margaret Sicehoff, Beth Garrison, Erika Zimmermann.

All girls are asked to report promptly for practice.

DOWD ADVANCES IN NET TOURNEY

Robinson and Foreman, Freshmen, Also Win to Go Into Semi-Final Play.

Only three matches were completed in tennis tournament play before the invasion of the Kentucky Colonels yesterday afternoon, but these contests produced sparkling and hard fought tennis from start to finish.

Johnny Dowd and Irv Landow were the only upperclassmen to see action and they put on an exhibition of brilliant shots. Landow started like a horse on fire and after dropping the first game at love went on to win six consecutive games for the set. Dowd gradually got his shots under control and they waged long and bitterly contested volleys throughout the remaining two sets which Dowd took by 6-4 scores.

Seeded Frosh Advance

The other two matches saw two seeded freshmen advance into the semi-final round, but only after Gene Robinson had tottered on the verge of defeat at the hands of the up and coming Al Elwell. Johnny Foreman again used his offensive game in battering Stewart Parker out of the tournament. Parker failed to slow up Johnny and went down by 6-1 scores in both sets.

Elwell, in his match against the second seeded Robinson, had Robinson on the defensive at the start of their match, and ran through an easy set, dropping but one game. Robinson came back as strongly, and drove through to a 6-2 set, knotting the count. The final set was a thrilling fight from start to finish, but Robinson had just a little more of what was needed and finally won out in an extra game set.

The tournament has gone along smoothly, both divisions being brought to the quarter finals after three days of play. If the tourney continues at the same rate a champion will be crowned within a few days. Eddy De Gray has an opportunity of establishing himself as varsity timber if he can sweep through this competition.

Johnny Dowd, who has already entered the round of four in the upper bracket, played this summer in Glen Cove, Illinois, where, under the tutelage of Coach Kenfield, his game improved so that he is a serious threat in the present tournament.

FROSH GRID CLUB MEETS WOLFCUBS

Big Five Yearling Rivals to Play Under Lights at Greensboro Next Friday Night.

The Carolina freshman football team, which displayed considerable strength in its opening game, defeating Wake Forest, 33-7, will meet the N. C. State Wolfcubs in Greensboro Memorial stadium Friday night in its next test.

The Greensboro game between the yearling elevens was inaugurated last year with Carolina winning a 9-7 thriller. Many spectators expressed the opinion that it was better than some of the varsity games they saw last year, and the contest proved such an attractive feature that it is being continued this year.

Both Outfits Powerful

With both Carolina and State packing powerful freshman elevens, Friday night's game is expected to produce a battle of varsity proportions and all indications point to a record crowd for a freshman game in this state.

The Tar Baby eleven is big enough to take care of itself. In fact, it outweighs Carolina's varsity. It showed flash and power enough, too, in its opening game, combining a driving ground game with a clever aerial attack to gain at will against the Baby Deacons. It has yet to prove, however, that it can take it.

(Continued on last page)

Boxers Will Meet

Coach Crayton Rowe will meet all men interested in freshman and varsity boxing at 4:00 o'clock tomorrow in the Tin Can.

There will be a meeting of varsity lettermen and freshmen winning numerals last year at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at Emerson stadium.

Rand Tops Tag Grid Scorers; "Y" Has Team Lead

Intramural Football Has Completed Two Weeks; Time Is Moved Up Half an Hour.

As the intramural tag football competition advances into its third week, the only important change is that of moving the starting times up one half hour, setting the new periods at 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock.

With several fine games played during the past week, the race for individual scoring honors became thicker as Rand of Beta overtook Daniel of the 'Y' for the campus lead; he raised his total up to 30, while the latter brought his to 24. Both boys led their respective divisions:

The four leaders in both groups follow: dormitory, Daniel (Y), 24; Pool (Y), 14; Farmer (Aycock) and McKinnon (Ruffin), 12. Fraternity, Rand (Beta), 30; Shores (Delta Tau Delta), 14; Reid (Beta) and Manley (Chi Psi), 13. Y. M. C. A. leads the team scores with 56 points.

The schedule follows:

Monday: 4:30: 1. Klutz Bldg. vs. Law School; 2. Phi Alpha vs. Zeta Psi; 3. Theta Chi vs. Sigma Chi.

Tuesday: 3:30: 1. Y. M. C. A. vs. Ruffin; 2. Phi Kappa Sigma vs. A. T. O.

4:30: 1. Aycock vs. Old West; 2. T. E. P. vs. Phi Delta Theta; 3. Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Lambda Chi Alpha.

Football Scores

- Carolina 6, Kentucky 0.
- Duke 20, Davidson 0.
- Wake Forest 14, Presby. 6.
- Florida 14, N. C. State 0.
- Wofford 10, Erskine 6.
- Catawba 26, Guilford 0.
- Elon 32, Randolph-Macon 0.
- Furman 9, Mercer 3.
- Alabama 13, Tennessee 6.
- Louisiana 16, Arkansas 0.
- Tulane 7, Georgia 6.
- Vanderbilt 7, Auburn 6.
- Notre Dame 13, Carnegie T. O.
- Chicago 21, Indiana 0.
- Michigan 9, Georgia Tech 2.
- Purdue 14, Wisconsin 0.
- Dartmouth 27, Virginia 0.
- Holy Cross 26, Harvard 6.
- Yale 37, Brown 0.
- Army 20, Sewanee 0.
- Navy 18, Columbia 7.
- St. Mary's 14, Fordham 9.
- Princeton 14, W. & L. 12.
- Penn 27, Rutgers 19.
- Minnesota 13, Pittsburgh 7.
- Bucknell 12, St. Thomas 6.
- Georgetown 3, W. & M. 0.
- Villanova 0, Detroit 0.
- Penn State 31, Lehigh 0.
- N. Y. U. 12, Lafayette 7.

CAROLINA TURNS TOWARD BATTLE WITH WOLFPACK

Big Five Rivals Meet in Kenan Stadium Saturday; Both Have New Master Minds.

TWO TITLES ARE AT STAKE

Following the Kentucky game yesterday, the North Carolina gridders now turn their attention again to home affairs, meeting N. C. State here next Saturday in a game which promises to surpass the dogged "brotherly" battles for which this rivalry has been noted in the past.

The 1934 meeting of the Tar Heels and the Wolfpack draws added interest from the fact that the new coaches, Carl Snavelly and Hunk Anderson, are leading exponents of the two rival football schools and systems, the Warner and the Notre Dame, respectively.

Indeed, Anderson was the man who was chosen to carry on at Knute Rockne's sudden death as head coach at Notre Dame. And Snavelly "out-Warnered" Warner last year, leading his Bucknell team to victory over the old master's first eleven at Temple.

Master Against Master

This will be the first time that the two master strategists have matched wits on the gridiron, and with the Carolina-State rivalry as keen as it is, they can be counted upon to bend every effort towards a victory.

In addition to settling the question of Carolina-State supremacy, which is doubly important to the two teams since the Consolidated University came into being, Saturday's game likely will decide which is to fight it out with Duke for the Big Five and perhaps for the Southern Conference titles.

State has defeated Davidson, and Carolina got the jump on and surprised Wake Forest, which in turn came from behind with a last-quarter aerial attack to upset State, 13-12.

Many Stars

Saturday's game also will have an important bearing on the all-state hopes of several stars on each team. Among State's leading candidate for the honor are Rex and Farrar, backs; Sabol, center; Stanko, guard; and Redding, end. Carolina offers Captain Barclay and Eddie Kahn, guards; Jim Tatum, tackle; Don Jackson and Charlie Shaffer, backs, and several other players who are just about as good.

State will be the third team Carolina has met in a row which employs the Notre Dame attack. Saturday before the Kentucky game they met Georgia and pulled the biggest surprise in Dixie football by upsetting the Bulldogs, 14-0. State was playing at Tampa yesterday.

Alfred Williams & Co.

INCORPORATED

Books—Stationery—Office Furniture and Supplies

Typewriters—Adding Machines

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

WE LEND KODAKS - FOISTER PHOTO CO.

NO RENTAL FEE AND NO DEPOSIT REQUIRED FROM STUDENTS