

FIVE FAIL TO ROB BANK IN WENDELL

Wake County Officers Surprise Five Attempting to Break Safe Near Raleigh.

Raleigh, Oct. 27.—(UP)—Police tonight held five Raleigh men in the Wake county jail who made an attempt this morning to rob the Bank of Wendell about 8 miles from here.

Police surprised the five about 3:30 o'clock this morning in the act of burning a hole in the bank's safe with an acetylene torch. Two of them were watching outside.

Although the Ford sedan in which the thieves attempted to escape carries the marks of no less than 75 direct hits, no one was injured in the shooting which followed the discovery of the attempted robbery.

A newspaper statement two days ago that the bank had $750,000 on deposit, the largest amount of money ever placed in the bank, is thought to have been the signal for the robbery. However, it is reported that only $25,000 in cash was on hand last night.

Philip R. Whitley, Wake county Democratic chairman and attorney for the Wendell bank, led the surprise attack on the thieves.

FOOTBALL TEAM TO PLAY GA. TECH

(Continued from page three) scored Carolina's one touchdown, and Captain George Barclay, who played such a brilliant game at guard.

The line is identically the same from tackle to tackle that was starting the games at the close of last season. Daniel is at center, Barclay and Kahn man the guards, Tatum and Evins are at tackle, and only the ends, Buck and Childers, are new.

Charlie Shaffer, Don Jackson, Herman Snyder, and Jim Hutchins have been standing out in the backfield. Shaffer averaged 45 yards for his punts against Kentucky.

Scouting Tech this year has been a problem. After playing at Michigan last week, the tornado jumped to Tulane yesterday. And Carolina sent Athletic Director R. A. Fetzer, all the way to New Orleans to get the dope.

Coach Fetzer and Coach Bill Alexander, the Tech coach, are great friends as well as intense rivals. And Coach Bill is a great admirer of George Barclay, the Carolina captain.

"That boy is dynamite. He is all-southern, all-American, all-anything," he said of Barclay after the Carolina captain stopped three-fourths of Tech's rushes single-handed last year.

GLEE CLUB ISSUES CALL FOR SINGERS

Additional Singers and Pianists Can Be Used; Call Final.

The University glee club issues a final call for student singers and pianists.

A number of additional singers can be placed and several pianists are needed to accompany the club on trips. Students interested should report at the Hill Music hall at 5:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Practices are Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

Keys are given for five quarters' participation.

The glee club is attempting to regain the prestige which it held several years ago. During the Thanksgiving holidays, the club will tour the state. Longer trips are planned for longer in the year.

At present there 52 active members.

Cleopatra imported European snow to chill Marc Antony's wine. Cleopatra and Marc were fond of frequenting disreputable taverns in Alexandria slums. Caesar began modern dunking by sopping breadcrusts in wine. Paramount unearthed these strange facts in the preparation of "Cleopatra," which will show today and tomorrow at the Carolina theatre.

Visitors Rally In Second Half To Deadlock Score

(Continued from page three)

secondary napping. Hutchins made it a first down. But State thwarted this scoring chance when Farrar intercepted Dashiell's intended pass to Shaffer. After another exchange of kicks, Carolina was knocking on the door for a touchdown. Barclay recovered Hayden's fumble on the State 17 yard line. Hutchins made two; Jackson failed to gain; Jackson attempted a pass which was grounded. Shaffer picked up seven yards, lacking inches of being a first down.

Carolina elected to defend the west goal, State to receive, in the second half. The lineups of the teams were the same, save Joyce replaced Kahn in the Tar Heel line. Tatum kicked off deep into the Tech territory, but Rex returned the ball to his own 30 yard stripe. After several line plunges, Farrar kicked 37 yards to Carolina's 21 yard line where Daugherty downed the ball. Shaffer kicked out on the Carolina 49.

Here the Wolfpack got hot and showed plenty of fire. Farrar dropped back and tossed a 24 yard pass to Bardes who was tackled on the Carolina 26 yard marker. Farrar picked up about two yards at the center of the line. On the next play, Farrar on a reverse sifted through the whole Carolina team to score standing up. Regdon was sent in to do the kicking, replacing Stanko. Regdon kicked a neat placement with McCulley holding the ball. Score: Carolina, 7;

Carolina's whole center of the line functioned well with Evins, Tatum, Barclay and Kahn shining brightest. In the backfield, Shaffer on the offense and Hutchins played fine games. Snyder was the bright light of the Tar Heels' defense.

SERVICES HELD AT GAME FOR LATE DAVID TAYLOR

A memorial ceremony in memory of the late David Taylor, Jr., class of '16 and captain of the football teams of 1914 and 1915, took place between the halves of the Carolina-State game yesterday.

In the presence on the field of a few members of the four teams on which Taylor played while at the University, Dean Francis Bradshaw, president of the class of 1916, read a brief citation over the amplifying system. Dean R. B. House, also a member of Taylor's class, acted as announcer for the ceremony.

N. C. State 7.

The rest of the game found both teams trying to gain some advantage by their kicking game.

The only other real threat of scoring came in the fourth period. After repeated assaults at the State forward wall, Carolina attempted a placekick from the Tech 40. Tatum's kick was accurate enough but the ball fell short several yards, McCulley returning the ball to the visitors' 25-yard line.

Both teams resorted to a vain effort to capitalize on their aerial efforts, but neither club could gain a decisive break. Shaffer intercepted Farrar's pass and returned the ball to the UNC 35. Dashiell passed to Shaffer for a first down. Montgomery failed to gain at the center of the line, and Dashiell's intended pass to Montgomery was incomplete. Martin got off a beautiful kick to the State 3 yard line where Childers downed the ball. As the teams were lining up for another play, the game ended.

For State, Isaacs, Redding, and Stanko looked best in the line while the brilliant play of Farrar stood out. He did everything well, passed, kicked, and ran to a degree which must have warmed the cockles of "Hunk" Anderson's heart. Rex continued to be a disappointment running, but he was all over the field on pass defense.

Carolina's whole center of the line functioned well with Evins, Tatum, Barclay and Kahn shining brightest. In the backfield, Shaffer on the offense and Hutchins played fine games. Snyder was the bright light of the Tar Heels' defense.

COMER ATTENDS Y.M.C.A. COUNCIL IN CLEVELAND

General Secretary H. F. Comer of the Y.M.C.A. has been attending a session of the "Y" National Council in Cleveland, Ohio.

He is the delegate from the district including Virginia, North and South Carolina. He will return to Chapel Hill today.

Chapel Exemptions Given

Dean F. F. Bradshaw, dean of students, announced yesterday that attendance at assembly will not be required of freshmen who live in town with their parents.

Six Frat and Five Dorm Outfits Still Undefeated

(Continued from page three)

Y. M. C. A.	3	0	57
Ruffin	3	0	31
Law School	3	0	8

Individual Scoring

Fraternity
Rand, Beta Theta Pi	54
J. Bost, Sigma Nu	36
Freeman, S. A. E.	18
Carlisle, Zeta Psi	18
Blythe, Beta Theta Pi	18
M. Ellisberg, T. E. P.	15

Dormitory

Austin, Lewis	31
McKinnon, Ruffin	30
Daniel, Y. M. C. A.	24
Ruth, Swain	18
Pool, Y. M. C. A.	14

Monday's games:

- 3:30—1. A. T. O. vs. Beta Theta Pi.
- 4:30—1. Lewis vs. Everett;
- 2. Phi Alpha vs. Sigma Chi.

RESEARCH REPORTS DUE

All faculty members who have not made their annual reports of research projected or accomplished during the period July 1933-July 1934 for inclusion in "Research in Progress" are urged to do so by November 1, the deadline for copy.

Works of a popular nature should also be reported for inclusion in the second part of the bulletin. Material should be sent to the graduate office, 202 South building.

Champ

Tar Heel Staff Photos.

Myers Whitaker poses for the camera after his 6-4 victory over Johnny Dowd in the deciding set for the upperclass net title. The last set was played Friday and made the final score 9-7, 6-3, 2-6, 6-8, 6-4.

MAGAZINE DELAYED

The Carolina Magazine will not appear until November 7, it was announced yesterday by Editor Sugarman. Due to a crowded schedule, the Orange Printshop, magazine jobbers, will be unable to get the publication out on the original date of November 1.

LAST GRAIL DANCE

The last Grail dance of the fall quarter was given last night with Johnny Long and his Duke Collegians furnishing the music.

Two dances will be sponsored by this organization during the winter quarter and three in the spring.

Tech Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the Georgia Tech game next week-end will be on sale tomorrow and this week at the athletic office, 210 Graham Memorial.

Want to be A Movie Star?

THEN READ!

Every film company in Hollywood is looking for new talent. You know that. You've read it in the news. You can have your chance right here in Chapel Hill. You do not have to pay the fare to go to Hollywood, in order to gain experience for the movies—WE COME TO YOU. Right here in Chapel Hill we'll teach and train you.

Watch for the Announcement

and the opening of

J. Walter Delmar's SCHOOL OF ACTING

Her Flesh Was A Temple of Love and Thrilling Beauty!

Because of her exquisite charms, Marc Anthony... mad with her caresses... THREW A WORLD AWAY! The world's greatest love story set in a pageant of magnificence!

Adolph Zukor presents CECIL B. DE MILLE'S

"CLEOPATRA"

The Greatest Spectacle of Romance in 1934 Years with

*CLAUDETTE *WARREN *HENRY COLBERT WILLIAM WILCOXON Ian Keith Joseph Schildkraut C. Aubrey Smith and a cast of 8000 in the most stupendous film scenes ever imagined... terrific battles... gorgeous pageants... breathtaking beauty... truly the wonder-show of all times!

—OTHER UNITS—
Freddie Rich in "Mirrors" Paramount News
Sunday—Monday

SPENCER TRACY KETTI GALLIAN in "MARIE GALANTE" Tuesday	ROBERT YOUNG MADGE EVANS in "DEATH ON THE DIAMOND" Wednesday	CAROLE LOMBARD MAY ROBSON in "LADY BY CHOICE" Thursday
JOE E. BROWN MAXINE DOYLE in "SIX DAY BIKE RACE" Friday	MIDNIGHT SHOW WILLIAM POWELL MYRNA LOY in "THE THIN MAN" Friday	EDDIE QUILLAN BETTY FURNESS in "GRIDIRON FLASH" Saturday

CAROLINA