CAMPUS AWAITS CAROLINA DEBUT OF ISHAM JONES

Famous Maestro to Offer Musical Variety; Is Composer Of Popular Hits.

FOUR DANCES IN FALL SET

Besides looking forward to the Carolina football team to capitalize on its best opportunity of achieving its first win over Duke since 1929, the more socially-minded members of the campus are eagerly waiting for week-end after next to roll around and bring with it the noted Isham Jones and his orchestra.

Jones has been engaged to furnish the music for the current year's first set of German club dances November 16-17. The set of dances is comprised of two tea dances and two evening dances. They will be given in the Tin Can and will start Friday afternoon and end Saturday night.

Jones and his ensemble are an appropriate choice to follow "The Idol of the Airways," Jan Garber, who played here for finals last year.

Presents Variety

Although he is sympathetic with the dancing public's penchant-of-the-moment for slow, romantic songs and tempos, Isham Jones is careful not to satiate the current appetite for this type of musical fare.

"We give them a dreamy waltz," the tall, sandy-haired band leader explains, "and then follow it with a 'quick' number. Otherwise there would be a risk of letting the band and the patrons get that draggy feeling

GEOLOGISTS MAKE TOUR OF VIRGINIA

University Is Represented by Ten Members in Party on Three Day Survey.

A party of 23 geologists from the University, Guilford College, V. P. I., and the Virginia State Geological survey conducted a three day tour in the western part of Virginia last week.

Ten members of the party, under the direction of Dr. J. W. Huddle, H. W. Straley, III, and I. L. Martin, represented the University.

Study Formations

The trip included a detailed study of the complex formations and structure of the area east of Roanoke Va., northwest to the West Virginia state line. Dr. R. L. Holden, of the V. P. I. Geological department, and Dr. A. A. L. Mathews, of the Virginia State Geological survey, addressed the group on various phases of the study.

During the entire trip collections were made from all the formations.

Included in the party were: Dr. J. W. Huddle, I. L. Martin, H. W. Straley, III, Ross W. Hornbeck, Philip M. LeBaron, W. R. Johnson, W. T. Wilday, W. Haskins, H. Engler Vitz, C. E. Prouty, Bob Copeland, G. E. Murray, and D. S. George from the University; Dr. R. L. Holden of the V. P. I. department of Geology; Dr. A. A. L. Mathews of the Va. State Geological survey; six students from V. P. I.; Dr. Raymond Binford of Guilford College, and son.

Notables Will Speak Tonight At First Anti-War Conference

All students and townspeople interested in the question of war are invited by the conference praesidium to attend the students' anti-war conference meeting tonight at 8:00 o'clock in Gerrard hall.

The conference is being presented in an effort to acquaint the students with the various aspects of the war problem. In order to do this an attempt has been made for all sides of the questions to be presented at the conference.

Class Room Delegates

Each class room at each hour today is requested to select two delegates to represent it at the conference.

The speakers scheduled for tonight are Dean Elbert Russell of Duke University, who will talk on the subject "The Far East Situation"; Ex-Commander of the American Legion Henry Stevens on the subject "National Defense and War"; Professor E. J. Woodhouse of the University on the subject "The Munition Industry Racket"; and Professor K. C. Frazer of the University on the subject "Internationalism and War."

Speakers Tomorrow

The speakers scheduled for the second half of the conference which will be held tomorrow night are: Dr. Meno Spann of the University, to speak on the subject "International Difficulties that Exist"; Dr. E. E. Ericson, also of the University, on the subject "Fascism as a Decay of Civilization and its Fostering of War."

Joe Sugarman, editor of the Carolina Magazine, on the subject "The Liberal Student Viewpoint"; Bill Levitt of the National Students' League and permanent chairman of the conference, on the subject "The Radical Student Viewpoint on War and Fascism."

A student speaker from the Y. W. C. A. at Duke University has been tentatively scheduled to precede Sugarman at tomorrow night's conference.

GOP STRONGHOLDS CONTINUE TO FALL

Democrats Continue Landslide In Republican Centers; Elect 23 Governors.

New York, Nov. 7.—(UP)—The Democrats battered away at rockribbed Republican centers tonight to expand their powerful control of the house after winning at least nine G. O. P. senate seats.

The off-year downpour of ballots swept 23 Democratic governors into office, while the Republicans salvaged five.

As reports neared completion the Democrats were seen to have won 299 seats in the House of Representatives, the Republicans 103, the Progressives four, and the Farmerlaborites two.

Democrats Leading

The Democrats are leading in 18 contests, the Republicans in 11, the Farmerlaborites in one.

Interest tonight centered in the stubbornly fought senatorial battles in New Mexico and North Dakota.

The prohibition repealists won smashing victories today. The dry statutes of five states were shattered—Florida, West Virginia, Idaho, Nebraska, and Wyoming.

Kansas, a dry stronghold for 54 years, remained dry when rural votes cut down the wet plurality.

POOL AND ROGERS WIN CO-OP BOARD POSITIONS

Jack Pool and Jimmy Rogers were elected yesterday by members of the Student Co-op to fill vacancies on the Co-op board.

Pool led all the candidates with 262 votes, and Jimmy Rogers followed with 184 votes. Nat Townsend and Harry Williamson were the defeated candidates with 142 and 136 votes respectively.

The complete board consists of the following in addition to the two new men: Irvin Boyle, Haywood Weeks, and Harper Barnes.

Applications Due Today

All applications for Rhodes scholarships are due today in the office of the school of liberal arts.

Davidson Train

A special train will leave Pittsboro street at 8:00 o'clock Saturday morning for Davidson where a cheering section for Carolina rooters will be reserved. The round trip cost on this train will be $4.20.

The cheerleaders will be at the game and all Carolina students are asked to sit in a body. Both the band and Rameses III will be on hand to support the team.

RELATIONS GROUP SELECTS SPEAKERS

List of 15 Key Men Submitted to Program Committee.

A group of interested workers for the Human Relations Institute, headed by the new chairman, Charles Aycock Poe, met last night in the Y. M. C. A. to discuss plans for the coming Institute meeting here in April.

Last night's group selected fifteen key men, many of national importance, for platform speakers at the Institute. This list will be submitted to the program committee for final confirmation.

Chairman Poe, who presided at last night's meeting, withheld the announcement of his committee appointments. He stated that he will name the committees publicly within the next few days.

Ernest L. Mackie, chairman of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors, was present at the meeting and offered numerous helpful suggestions. The Human Relations Institute was created in 1927 by the University "Y" and this year's meeting, scheduled for April 7-12, will be sponsored by the Y. M. C. A.

S. G. E. Meeting

R. A. Edwards will speak at 7:30 o'clock tonight in room 401 New East at the meeting of the Sigma Gamma Epsilon honorary geology fraternity.

The subject of Edwards' address will be the recession of Niagara Falls.

All students who are interested are urged to attend.

UNIVERSITY CLUB

The University club will meet at 7:00 o'clock tonight to discuss and to start work on plans for the Duke game, Frank Willingham, president, announced yesterday.

Members are requested to bring the money for their pictures in the Yackety Yack.

DEMOCRATS HAVE BIG STATE LEAD

Late Returns Give Republicans Little Consolation; Democratic Victory Overwhelming.

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—(UP)—Republican sympathizers in North Carolina found no consolation in late election returns straggling in tonight.

Late reports merely strengthened the assurance of an overwhelming Democratic victory.

There is no doubt as to the re-election of eleven Democratic congressmen, the chief justice of the state supreme court, two associate justices, the state treasurer, and the state utilities commissioner, as unofficial incomplete returns from 1,423 precincts of a total of 1,833 gave the Democrats 238,508 votes and the Republicans 114,301.

Little G. O. P. Gain

The Republicans, who in 1933 had only ten members in the general assembly, won't exceed that number by far in 1935, according to indications tonight.

It was evident from the very first returns that there would be another Democratic landslide in the state, as each successive batch of returns piled up the approval by the state of the Democratic administration and the New Deal. With late returns being filed the Republicans have lost their last hope of establishing themselves more firmly in the state.

Fairley and Durfee Will Debate Georgia

At the debate try-outs in Graham Memorial Tuesday night Francis Fairley and Winthrop Durfee were selected to represent Carolina against Georgia here November 15. Professors Olsen, McKie, and Robson acted as judges.

The team will support the negative of the query: Resolved, that peace is impossible under capitalism. The University of Georgia team will stop here on its way to the Yale-Georgia game at New Haven.

Both men selected for the team have had experience in debating in past years and are members of the Phi assembly.

Band Practice Tonight

The regular band practice for the University band will be conducted in the Tin Can at 7:00 o'clock tonight, announced Earl A. Slocum, conductor of the band, yesterday.

Sophomores to Meet

There will be a special meeting of the sophomore class this morning at 10:30 o'clock in Gerrard hall, it was announced by John Rainey, president, yesterday.

Faculty to Meet

There will be a meeting of the general faculty tomorrow afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in Bingham hall, it was announced by Dean R. B. House yesterday.

"Macbeth"

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL BEGUN BY Y. M. C. A.

Local Presbyterian Assistant Pastor Elected President.

The Religious Workers council, made up of the Chapel Hill ministers, active church workers, and students interested in religious activities, was organized last night under the sponsorship of the University Y. M. C. A.

Organization resulted from a vigorous campaign led by Bill Yandell of the local "Y."

Officers for the council were elected with the Rev. Watt Cooper, assistant pastor of the local Presbyterian church, president. J. D. Winslow, head of the University Y. M. C. A., was made vice-president, and R. B. Fisher, student Lutheran pastor, secretary and treasurer.

At last night's meeting the council named next Sunday as a special "go-to-church" Sunday. They discussed plans for a church bulletin board to be placed in the "Y" lobby.

The council will meet again December 6 at the Baptist church.

HUEY PLANS NEW FOOTBALL JUNKET

Warns Railroads Must Agree to Prices or Give Free Ride.

New Orleans, Nov. 7.—(UP)—United States Senator Huey Long announced plans for a new football junket today and warned the railroads that unless they agree to his price for the trip "we'll ride free and pay 'em with their own money."

The pilgrimage will be to Knoxville December 8th for the Louisiana State-University of Tennessee game. Huey said that about a thousand would make the trip this time.

Colgate challenged Huey to a practice game: "If you believe your wild Bayou Tigers can give Colgate a better workout than our scrubs, we'd like to arrange a game—suggest machine guns. The National Guards will be barred."

Huey replied, "Our second team at Tulane will clean up your bunch Saturday."

Godbold to Change Pastorate

Rev. Albea Godbold, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, has announced that he will change his pastorate to the First Church of Conway, Arkansas.

Rev. Godbold has served as pastor here for the past three years.

FRESHMEN HEAR NOMINEES MAKE CAMPAIGN TALKS

Brickleymer, Read, Mullis Speak; Weathers Presides; Elections To Take Place Today.

MEN STATE PLATFORMS

Candidates for president of the freshman class presented their campaign platforms at a chapel meeting yesterday morning with Virgil Weathers, president of the student body, presiding.

Clyde Mullis, nominee of the Clyde Mullis Party, emphasized co-operation in his talk and pledged himself to development of a freshman class that would become the greatest senior class ever to graduate from the University.

Gene Brickleymer, candidate of the Campus Party, promised to do all in his power in granting the wishes of the freshman class itself. He described the possibility of arrangements of class dances, smokers, and free shows.

Independent Nominee

Nick Read, independent nominee, promised a reformation of campus politics and the breaking of political machines. Read solicited the support of all who agreed with him in this respect.

Elections will be held today at Graham Memorial from 9:00 to 5:00 o'clock. Weathers told of the registration procedure, asking the freshmen to sign up in the corridor before voting.

Ed Bynum, candidate for treasurer in the freshman elections tomorrow, has announced his withdrawal from the race, according to a statement made by Virgil Weathers yesterday afternoon.

FOREIGN LEAGUE TO MAKE PLANS

Will Meet Tonight in Graham Memorial at 7:45 O'clock; To Formulate Calendar.

The Foreign Policy league will meet tonight at 7:45 o'clock in Graham Memorial. The time is 15 minutes early to allow members to attend the anti-war conference after a short meeting.

The final plans for organization of the club for this year will be laid.

Four tentative committees will be appointed, to become permanent if they function efficiently.

The program committee headed by Ezra Griffin will make a report on possible topics of interest for discussion in the near future and the club will formulate a calendar of discussion based on this report.

The following are the members of the league, who are expected to attend tonight's meeting: Agnew Bahnsen, Don Becker, Albert Ellis, Ralph Gardner, William Morris, Ezra Griffin, John Gunter, Edwin Kahn, R. Langdon, Don McKee, Jack Pool, Reid Sarratt.

Jake Snyder, Noel Yancey, Lawrence Frank, Phil Kind, Charles Poe, Blucher Ehringhaus, Lewis Morris, Jack Dunn, W. M. Daniels, S. W. Barefoot, Frank McGlenn.

John Parker, Norman Kellar, Julian Warren, Vincent H. Whitney, Andrew Bates, Bill Henderson, Joe Barrett, Francis Fairley, Fred Weaver, Niles Bond, Morris Hecht, Smith Barrier, and George Stoney.
