

Carolina Whips Davidson, 12-2, On Rain-Soaked Field

'Cats Score Safety For Early Lead; Hutchins And Jackson Tally On Drives

Barclay and Buck Also Star Before Homecoming Crowd.

Richardson Field, Davidson, N. C., Nov. 10.—Coach Carl Snavelly's fighting Tar Heels defeated the Davidson Wildcats, 12-2, in a game played during a steady downpour of rain before an audience of 8,000 Homecoming Day spectators.

The Tar Heels were far more superior than the score indicates. They made 18 first downs to three for the Wildcats. Davidson did not make a first and ten during the first half.

The Wildcat ends came down fast under punts, limiting the Carolina safety man to short returns. Morgan, who was at the left flank position for Davidson, demonstrated his ability as an all-state player.

'Cats Score First

The scoring started early in the second period when "Big Six" Johnston, Wildcat tackle, downed Don Jackson behind the Carolina goal line for a safety. Jackson had fumbled a bad pass from center.

With nine minutes left to play in the first half, Carolina scored her first touchdown by a long march down the field after Jackson had intercepted Mackorell's pass on his own 26-yard line.

A series of plays, including a long pass from Jackson to Buck, gave the Tar Heels a first down on Davidson's 10-yard line.

HIGH GRID RACES NEAR FINAL TILTS

Greensboro Only Sure Club for One of Championship Games.

State high school grid teams entered the final stages of the race leading toward the annual championship class 'A' and 'B' struggles which will be played here in Kenan stadium on November 30 and December 1st respectively.

Greensboro assured itself of a class 'A' play-off position as it annexed the western championship with an exciting 12-9 victory over Winston Salem Friday afternoon. Representing the eastern conference will be the winner of the Durham-Raleigh battle at Durham this week. The former kept its slate clean with a 29-6 win over Wilmington on Thursday.

The class 'B' situation is a little more complicated as there are at present four undefeated teams in the eastern bracket. An elimination will be played to pick an opponent for the winner of the Mount Airy-Reidsville clash in the finals.

SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY WILL CONVENE TUESDAY NIGHT

The 355th meeting of the Elisha Mitchell scientific society will take place in 206 Phillips hall at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

Dr. E. W. McChesney, secretary-treasurer, announced that a paper will be read by Dr. H. M. Burlage, professor of pharmacy, on "The Official Sulfur Ointments and Their Assay," and that Walter Gordy, graduate student in physics, will discuss "The Infra-Red Absorption of Basic Solutions."

GEORGE AND GEORGE STAR

Eight Clubs Have Clean Slates In Mural Grid Play

Important Contests Face Leaders This Week; Law-Lewis, Phi Alpha-Chi Psi Feature.

With the list of undefeated teams narrowed down to eight the race for intramural tag football honors enters the home stretch tomorrow afternoon as the sixth week of play begins.

This group is certain to be diminished by two after the four days as Kappa Alpha faces Chi Psi and Lewis opposes Law in the feature attractions. Ruffin will also endanger its inviolate record as it meets up with the strong Swain Hall combine, and Sigma Nu may find a tartar in one of its two games.

From earliest indications those who are doing the advance picking tend to select Beta Theta Pi and Law School or Lewis as finalists in the championship encounter. However, the unexpected happens all too frequently and even teams now holding one loss may break through.

Standings of Leaders

Beta Theta Pi	6	0	164
Chi Psi	5	0	77
S. A. E.	5	0	73
Lewis	5	0	71
Law School	5	0	40
Sigma Nu	4	0	79
Ruffin	4	0	51
Kappa Alpha	4	0	41
Y. M. C. A.	4	1	76
Phi Sigma Kappa	4	1	73
Swain Hall	4	1	59
Phi Gamma Delta	3	1	38

Individual Scoring

Fraternity	Points
Rand (Beta Theta Pi)	78
J. Bost (Sigma Nu)	42
Blythe (Beta Theta Pi)	33

Dormitory

McKinnon (Ruffin)	36
Austin (Lewis)	31
Daniel (Y.M.C.A.)	30

Schedule of Games

Monday: 4:03—(1) Ruffin vs. Old West, (2) Sigma Nu vs. Phi Alpha, (3) T. E. P. vs. St. Anthony Hall.

Tuesday: 3:30—(1) Aycock vs. Manly, (2) Phi Kappa Sigma vs. Sigma Chi. 4:30—(1) Sigma Nu vs. Delta Tau Delta, (2) Z. B. T. vs. Pi Kappa Alpha, (3) Zeta Psi vs. A. T. O.

Yearling Grid Club Meets Tiger Frosh At Asheville Tomorrow

Tar Babies Leave on Trip This Morning; Clemson Offers Real Test for Freshmen.

MUCH PASSING EXPECTED

Although Underdogs, Tar Babies Look Much Improved Since Loss to Wolfpack Frosh.

The Tar Babies will hop a bus for Greensboro this morning at 9:30 o'clock, where they will board a train en route for Asheville to engage the Clemson Tiger Cubs tomorrow afternoon in what should turn out to be one of the outstanding freshman grid brawls of the year.

To many this will be a test as to whether the Carolina frosh will remain in the select group. To a great number of underlings this encounter will determine their chances in participating in the forthcoming Duke battle.

Passes May Dominate

Due to the strength of the opposing line it is likely that the Babies will have to resort to their aerial game in order to score, and as Clemson's attack is built mostly around the forward pass, the spectators will probably witness a sight resembling to some degree the annual aviation meets.

The Jamesmen will once again enter the game, as the underdogs, but this time they are considered to have more of a chance of emerging victorious than they have had in their previous games. They have come along fast since their uneventful defeat at the hands of State, and it seems about time for them to come out of the lethargy which slowed up their game after they took Wake Forest into camp with so much ease.

The Tar Baby eleven which will most likely start the game will consist of: Bershak and Wolfe, ends; Bartos and Keeney, tackles; Smith and Ax, guards; Avery, center; Walborn, blocking back; Oliver and Brickley, halfbacks; and Burnette at fullback.

Aside from the above mentioned the following men will make the trip to Asheville: Dixon, Scherer, Hinkle, Gaydos, Maffitt, Juliper, Meroney, Par-tin, Henderson, Hoffer, Thomas, Graves, and Ditt.

Football Tickets

Persons who have reserved tickets for the Duke-Carolina football game may secure them at the Athletic association office in Graham Memorial by calling between 9:00 and 5:00 o'clock any day this week.

Frosh Harriers Win

Davidson, Nov. 10.—Carolina's yearling cross country team opened its season here today with an easy 19-41 victory over the first-year harriers from Davidson.

Joe Rivers, cake race champion of the Tar Babies, led the way to the tape, completing the two-mile course in 10 minutes 16.4 seconds. The Carolina ace was followed by Parcell of the Wildkittens.

Close behind the Davidson number one man came six more Tar Heel freshmen, resulting in the low score. The summary of the meet follows: Rivers (NC), Parcell (Dav.), Bronitsky (NC), Anderson (NC), Garland (NC), Rowley (NC), Davidson (NC), D'Ascensio (Unoff. NC), Dowdle (Dav.), Gulks (Dav.), Garland (NC), Flynt (Unoff. NC), Gilbert (Dav.), and Rainey (Dav.).

TAR HEELS, DUKE BEGIN WORK FOR IMPORTANT TILT

Record Breaking Crowd Expected When Snavelly and Wade Match Wits First Time.

STARS BACK IN ACTION

With all indications pointing to the greatest crowd ever to turn out for a football game in this state, the football mighties of Carolina and Duke will begin now to gird themselves for the battle here Saturday which has come to be known as the "game of the year" in this section.

Bringing together for the first time Duke's old master, Wallace Wade, and Carolina's new miracle worker, Carl Snavelly, and matching two teams whose records are so similar the 1934 renewal is expected to transcend all past battles in the dogged and colorful 46-year rivalry.

Advance Sale Big

The advance sale of tickets has been the largest of any game in history here, G. E. Shepard at the ticket office said yesterday. Athletic officials are expecting a record crowd as a result and are arranging to install extra bleachers at both ends of the 24,000 capacity stadium to take care of the throng expected.

The three greatest football crowds in the state previously were those which turned out for the Carolina-Duke game last year and for Carolina's Thanksgiving games with Virginia in 1927 and 1929. Unofficial estimates on the three ran as high as 30,000, but the official figures were lower. Unless officials here misinterpret the signs, the crowd for this year's game may reach 30,000 official count.

Much At Stake

The top ranking in both the Big Five and Southern Conference will be at stake when the arch-rivals stage their annual classic this year. And likewise the all-state and southern ambitions and hopes of the long line of stars on both sides.

Two of them, Captain George Barclay, Carolina's powerhouse at guard, and Corky Cornelius, Duke's great halfback, are leading candidates for all-American. Others like Durner, Wentz, and the Dunlap brothers of Duke and Shaffer, Tatum, Kahn, Snyder, and Buck of Carolina rank with the finest performers in the history of the two schools and are candidates for all-southern. Several of these boys are seniors who will be playing their last Carolina-Duke game.

Records Almost Equal

Except for Carolina's 7-7 tie by State, the records of the two teams are almost identical. Each is unbeaten except by Tennessee. Duke held the mighty Vols to one less touchdown, 6-14, but Carolina gained the more ground against them. Up until yesterday Georgia Tech was the only other team in common on their schedules. Duke beat the Tor-

POWERFUL DEVIL ELEVEN SMASHES DEACS WITH EASE

First Duke Team Looks Impressive, Counting Three Times in First Half; Score, 28-7.

KITCHIN IS BIG DEAC STAR

Duke Stadium, Nov. 10.—Duke's football machine smashed its way to an impressive 28-7 victory over a sluggish Wake Forest eleven here this afternoon. The Blue Devils need only to take the Carolina hurdle next Saturday to repeat their Big Five championship of last year.

Coach Wallace Wade sent his second string in to face the Deacons and a little later the visitors, led by Kitchins and Edens, soph backs, drove to Duke's 10-yard line. Here the first Blue Devil club was rushed into the fray and it immediately took charge, receiving the ball on downs.

The Duke first team showed tremendous power behind great blocking on offense plus a stone-wall on defense throughout the first half, scoring three markers with ease.

Cornelius Tallies

The opening score came in the first quarter after Ace Parker, Duke back, intercepted Kitchin's pass and dashed 36 yards to the Wake Forest 25. On the third play Corky Cornelius went over his weak side left tackle on a reverse for 24 yards and crossed the goal line standing up. Cornelius also booted the extra point from placement.

In the second quarter the Blue Devil running attack and Parker's long punts pushed Wake Forest back to its 7-yard marker. From here Edens punted out to the Deacon 37 where Duke started a drive for the second score.

Parker got seven yards in two

Ruffin It Up

In the bag—yet up a tree at the same time. That was the condition of some of Ruffin's laundry the other night.

The sacks were intended for the laundry agent, but some practical joker took a few of them and tied them to the trees and lamp posts of the upper quadrangle.

An unsubstantiated rumor has it that said practical jokerster rooms in Mangum. But who can tell?
