Phi Bete President To Resign; Sugarman Will Assume Post

Local Chapter Taps Twelve as Members

Lonnie Dill to Become Vice-President; Poe and Dr. Wilson Also Get Positions.

At the meeting last night of the North Carolina Alpha chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, Lawrence Thompson resigned the office of chapter president, the resignation to be effective at the end of this quarter, at which time he will go to the University of Chicago to take graduate work.

He will be succeeded as president by Joe Sugarman, the present vice-president. A. T. Dill, by virtue of his scholastic standing, automatically becomes vice-president.

New Members

The following students were initiated into Phi Beta Kappa last night; Agnew Hunter Bahnsen, Jr., William Sterry Branning, Henry Clark Bridgers, Jr., Edmond Krasner Edelson, John Lawrence Hodges, Richard LeRoy Huber.

Edward Watts Martin, Herman Manley Parker, William Layton Ridenhour, Thomas Moorman Simkins, John Frederick Webb, Jr., and Frances S. White. These students have averaged 92.5 or better for eight quarters.

Wilson Re-elected

Charles A. Poe was elected chapter secretary at the business session, and Dr. T. J. Wilson was re-elected corresponding secretary, a position he has held for a number of years.

Dr. Wilson announced the impending installation of a section of the North Carolina Alpha chapter at the Women's College in Greensboro.

Addressing the meeting, Dr. Edgar W. Knight warned the Phi Beta Kappas against the danger of acquiring or developing the "academic mind." He also asserted that scholarship has obligations greater than those it owes to itself.

"One of the most important obligations of the scholar," said Dr. Knight, "is to humanize his learning and to emancipate it from the suspicions with which it is often beset."

Thompson To Go To Geneva

Will Attend Anti-War Conference under Sponsorship of Anti-War Group on Campus; Organization Withdraws Red Cross Support Due to Alleged Use of Funds to Encourage War.

Carl Thompson, outstanding Carolina senior, was elected last night to represent the University at the Anti-War Conference in Geneva, Switzerland, in December.

Thompson was chosen by a group of leaders representing all the campus organizations. This group assembled at the invitation of the continuations committee of the local Anti-War Conference.

Last night's meeting decided to raise expense money for the delegate from individual contributions, campus organization assessments, and from contributions of local merchants.

Yesterday, $28 was pledged without any solicitation whatsoever. All contributions are to be placed in the hands of Arnold Williams, treasurer, at 101 Saunders or 303 Smith.

Phillips Russell, junior, was elected Thompson's alternate.

Reynolds' Millions

Winston-Salem, Nov. 15.—(UP)—Christopher Smith Reynolds, second child of the late Zachary Smith Reynolds and Libby Holman, asked today, through attorneys, that he be awarded the entire twenty-five million dollar estate left by his father.

The interplea, which was filed by Robert C. Vaughn acting as an "ex-friend" through attorneys Benet Polikoff and William Graves, caused the indefinite postponement of the hearing scheduled for tomorrow to decide the final disposition of the Smith Reynolds estate.

The attorneys who filed the petition also served as counsel for Libby Holman during the investigation of her husband's death.

FIVE MEN TAKEN INTO TAU BETA PI

Dr. E. W. Zimmermann Addresses Group at Impressive Ceremony Last Night.

Two seniors and three juniors of the engineering school were tapped last night by Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, in an impressive ceremony in Gerrard hall.

The men in order of their tapping are: W. S. Harney, senior; W. H. McNairy, senior; R. M. Neel, junior; E. E. Eutsler, junior; and H. J. Allison, junior. Only three juniors can be accepted for membership at the fall tapping while all eligible seniors can be elected.

Zimmermann Speaks

Dr. E. W. Zimmermann of the commerce school addressed the group, using as his subject "The Value of Economics to the Engineer."

The fraternity requires that only those men whose scholarship record places them in the upper eighth of the junior class or the upper quarter of the senior class be eligible for election.

The meeting was held as a joint session of Tau Beta Pi and the four engineering societies, the A.S.C.E., A.S.M.E., A.I.E.E., and the A.I.Ch.E.

OVER 3 SECTIONS NOT YET FILLED FOR DUKE GAME

Six Thousand General Admission Tickets Go on Sale at 12:00 O'clock Tomorrow.

OVER 27,000 ARE EXPECTED

Only 3,500 reserved seats for the Duke-Carolina game remained open for sale last night, announced "Bo" Shepard, assistant athletic director. Including the student sections, 18,000 reserved seats have been taken.

Shepard stated that 6,000 general admission tickets, including seats in the bleachers and end sections of the stadium, would be placed on sale Saturday at 12:00 o'clock.

Athletic officials announced that only three full sections of Kenan stadium remained unserved or unsold. Each section will seat approximately 1,000 persons.

Three Not Full

Parts of three more sections have not been completely sold. Section 24 on the south (Carolina) side, the section nearest the field house, and the lower part of section 23 have not been disposed of.

On the Duke side, sections 1 and 12, both end sections, are still unsold, with parts of 2 and 11 remaining.

Bleachers will be erected at each end of the field, supplementing the stadium with about 2,700 seats. After the general admission section has been sold out the bleachers on the west end of the field will accommodate the overflow.

When questioned as to the grounds for a rumor that is being circulated to the effect that standing room tickets have been printed, Coach "Bo" Shepard refused to commit himself, saying, "If it becomes necessary to sell standing room tickets they will be available."

All evidence points to a capacity crowd next Saturday. Athletic officials estimate the fans to number between 27,000 and 30,000.

Manufacture, Sale Of Arms Discussed

The Foreign Policy League convened in its regular meeting in Graham Memorial last night to discuss the Nye investigation of munitions manufacture now going on in Washington.

Don Becker opened the discussion with facts of the Nye investigation as have been given to the public through the newspapers.

Joe Barnett showed that a treaty passed by the League of Nations in 1925 was almost directly responsible for the investigation, together with facts and incidents leading up to it.

John Scholz explained the British reaction to the investigation from personal experience gained by a stay in England this past summer.

After a general discussion the league passed the motion: Resolved, That the Foreign Policy League approve of government regulation and control of manufacture-sale of munitions if the Nye investigation show them to be a primary cause of war.

Band

The band will meet at 8:00 o'clock tonight in front of Swain hall to play for pep rally.

WOODHOUSE AND HENDERSON TALK TO SCOUT GROUP

Scout Executives to Hold Two Conferences Today.

The fall 1934 Boy Scout executive seminar of region six opened its program yesterday at noon with a luncheon in Graham Memorial.

O. B. Gorman, executive of Cherokee council, is acting as chairman of the seminar; and Dr. Harold D. Meyer of the sociology department of the University is the dean.

Yesterday afternoon the scout executives heard Dr. Archibald Henderson speak on "A Biography of Daniel Boone" and Dr. E. J. Woodhouse on "The Present Political Picture."

The first of the four round table studies scheduled for this seminar was held after supper last night. There will be two of these round table studies today and on tomorrow morning.

Besides presenting a program in assembly today and taking part in the round table discussions, the executives will hear addresses by Dr. Wiley B. Sanders, Dr. A. M. Jordan, and Dr. H. R. Totten.

The feature of tomorrow's program is a talk by Dr. E. K. Plyler. The Carolina-Duke football game will conclude the seminar.

Duke Leaders Will Be Present At Mammoth Pep Rally Tonight

OSTROW SPEAKS TODAY ON WDNC

Lowe Will Also Speak on University Club Program.

The University Club goes on the air from WDNC, Durham, at 5:00 o'clock this afternoon for a half hour of music, speeches and entertainment.

Les Ostrow will tell about "Cheering at Carolina This Year," and Jack Lowe will give some pre-game information on tomorrow's Duke-Carolina tilt.

Featured on the list of phonograph records which will furnish the music for the program is Hal Kemp's arrangement of "Hark the Sound."

"You're Not the Only Oyster in my Stew," and "It's Dark on Observatory Hill," as recorded by Ozzie Nelson, will also be heard.

Recordings by Ray Noble's orchestra, Benny Goodman's orchestra and the Boswell Sisters will complete the musical program.

League Sets Quota

At the meeting of the National Student League last night it was decided to set $8 as a quota for their share of the $175 necessary to send a delegate to Geneva. Two dollars has already been pledged.

The meeting was adjourned in order that members might attend the Georgia debate.

There will be another meeting of the organization next Wednesday in Graham Memorial at 8:00 o'clock.

Rooms for Visitors

Students wishing to reserve rooms in Graham dormitory for visiting friends may do so through Mrs. Holt, social director of the dormitory.

Reservations cannot be made later than 5:00 o'clock on the day that the room is to be occupied.

Annual Fall German Set To Begin This Afternoon

To Investigate A. T. & T.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—(UP)—The Federal Communications Commission ordered the investigation tonight of the world's wealthiest corporation and greatest monopoly—The American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The investigation will involve the entire Bell Telephone system whose assets, in their last annual statements, were given at $4,907,676,603.

The rates paid by the millions of the nation's telephone users will be studied.

The entire corporate history of the corporation, together with equipment-manufacturing subsidiaries, will come under the scrutiny of the eagle-eyed experts to be employed by the government.

Commuting Students

All students who commute to and from Chapel Hill are requested to see George Underwood, circulation manager, in 204 Graham Memorial today at assembly period or between 4:00 and 5:00 o'clock about delivery of the Finjan and the Carolina Magazine in the future.

Speeches Are Part Of Friendship Drive

Carolina Representatives Attend Duke Pre-Game Rally in Durham Last Night.

The University Club, according to its president, Frank Willingham, is sponsoring tonight what is expected to be the loudest and peppiest of all the pep rallies that have been held here this year. The rally will start at 8:00 o'clock in front of Swain hall.

The rally will begin with a torchlight parade through the campus to Emerson field, where, as before the Kentucky game, a large bonfire will be built.

Several student leaders from Duke University will be present to speak at tonight's demonstration. Last night three Carolina campus celebrities addressed a Duke gathering and were received cordially.

The reciprocal speech-making is a part of a program instituted by both schools to better the relations between the rival universities. The Duke students will appear tonight in a spirit of good fellowship before the year's biggest football game.

Free Torches

Free torches will be distributed before the parade. At Emerson field there will be fireworks, and Rameses III and the cheerleaders will be present.

The Cheerio section at the game will be reserved until 1:15 o'clock. New cheerio slips will be given out to members before the game.

Before the start of the game the combined Duke and Carolina bands will put on a demonstration headed by representatives of the American Red Cross. The combined bands will make a total of 140 pieces.

At the half sponsors of the Grail, Golden Fleece, and University Club will be presented. A parade by the Duke and Carolina bands separately will follow.

JONES ORCHESTRA TO FURNISH MUSIC

Formal Sophomore German Ball Tonight; Two Dances Tomorrow Will Complete Series.

The annual fall German Club dances will open this afternoon with a tea dance from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock in the Tin Can.

Isham Jones and his orchestra, whom the organization has secured to furnish the music, will make their debut on the campus in this set of dances.

Tea Dance

The dance this afternoon will be followed by the formal sophomore German ball tonight from 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock in the Tin Can.

The tea dance tomorrow afternoon after the Duke game will continue from 5:00 to 7:00 o'clock. The final formal dance starts tomorrow night at 9:00 and ends at 12:00 o'clock.

Heading the sophomore German tonight are: Henry Clark, Sigma Nu, leader, accompanied by Miss Nancy Gordon of Spray; Walker Percy, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, assistant leader, accompanied by Miss Margaret Yates, Birmingham, Ala.

Leaders

Leading the dance tomorrow night will be: Bob Drane, Zeta Psi, leader, accompanied by Miss Margaret Lewis, Durham; Garvin May, Kappa Sigma, assistant leader, accompanied by Miss Celeste Moore, Athens, Ga.; and Alec Hanes, Delta Kappa Epsilon, assistant leader, accompanied by Miss Jane Hess Weaver, High Point.

Bids for graduate students, alumni and Duke visitors will be on sale at the door at each dance. Precautions will be taken to see that undergraduates not members of the German Club do not gain admittance to the dances.

ANDREWS VICTOR IN GAINING BONUS

'34 Yackety Yack Editor's Petition Granted by Board when Compromise Is Reached.

Alec Andrews, last year's editor of the Yackety Yack, won a moral victory yesterday when the Publications Union Board reached a compromise and gave him half of a $20 bonus for which he had petitioned.

The yearbook editor receives a salary of $100 plus three possible bonuses of $20 each. The bonus for which Andrews asked is the one which is given for getting the annual distributed before the end of school.

Defective Method

Although the yearbook was not released before school closed, due to the editor's desire to include several of the late spring dances, the board ruled that he was not entirely responsible for the delay and that the method of awarding the particular bonus is defective and open to criticism.

As a result, the board will adopt a different procedure in awarding the bonus in question, probably stating that in the future the editor will have to sign some schedule for handing his copy to the printer in order that the responsibility for the Yackety Yack's appearing on time will be spread among all parties.
