

ROBSON TO TALK TO 'Y' CABINETS ON INTERVENTION

Government Professor Will Address Junior-Senior Group Monday Night.

GEORGE ALLEN TO SPEAK

Dr. C. B. Robson of the University government department will address the meeting of the junior-senior Y.M.C.A. cabinet Monday night at 7:15 o'clock in the "Y" building.

Dr. Robson will talk on "Should the United States Give Up Her Policy of Armed Intervention," continuing the war and peace discussion series that the Y.M.C.A. is sponsoring this quarter.

Allen to Speak

George G. Allen, Jr., Carolina sophomore, will lead the discussion on the same topic at the meeting of the second-year cabinet.

Monday night's meeting will be the last before the Thanksgiving holidays, and announcements will be made concerning the Thanksgiving week program that the "Y" is sponsoring jointly with the University Glee Club.

J. D. Winslow, president of the University Y.M.C.A., announced yesterday that the cabinets would begin forming a definite list of cabinet members at the session.

War and Peace

The discussions Monday night by Robson and Allen will be a continuation of the Y.M.C.A. program for war and peace discussions. Don McKee of the sophomore cabinet has been instrumental in arranging the complete program for the fall quarter.

Fred Weaver of Aberdeen is (Continued on page two)

HUSE WILL TALK AT BULL'S HEAD

Romance Language Professor to Speak on Anatole France Next Tuesday.

Dr. H. R. Huse of the romance language department of the University will be the principal speaker on the Bull's Head lecture program Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. in the bookshop, it was announced yesterday.

Dr. Huse will discuss "Anatole France and the American Scene," presenting the writer's radical social theories and showing how they have anticipated and influenced contemporary thought.

Social Critic

In his talk Huse will consider France as a social critic, comparing his work to that of H. L. Mencken, former editor of The American Mercury and a noted iconoclast in contemporary American writing.

Dr. Huse will base his lecture on material which he has gathered for a forthcoming book on the author.

As a Bull's Head lecturer, Huse appeared last winter to discuss James Joyce's sensational "Ulysses." In his career here at the University, Dr. Huse has written and edited several outstanding books, including "The Illiteracy of the Literate" and others.

Joe Sugarman, editor of the Carolina Magazine, will introduce the speaker.

Colored Institutions Will Battle For Title In Charity Game Today

Orange County Training School Will Play Chatham High School This Afternoon at 2 O'clock on Emerson Field in Charity Tilt Sponsored by University Y. M. C. A.

The two teams for this afternoon's championship football scrap between the colored institutions of Chatham High School and Orange County Training School were in tip-top shape last night, according to authorities.

Today's duel, scheduled for 2 p. m. at Emerson field, will see the two outstanding Negro schools of this section meeting in the annual Negro charity football game, sponsored by the University Y. M. C. A.

All-American

The squad from Chatham, which has been sweeping in its foes this fall, brings with it several contenders for second year All-American honors. The local eleven features the offensive threats of Dalton Whitted and Captain Buddy Stroud, crack ball carriers. Slashing Slim Jones at the pivot position is Orange county's bulwark of defense.

Coach Caldwell of the Orange county eleven has brought his team through a hard schedule with an admirable record and today's game marks the climax of his efforts.

Don Jackson and Captain George Barclay of the Carolina varsity will officiate at the classic.

Janitors on the campus have been working at a terrific pace all week, selling tickets for the game. Reserved seats are priced at 25 cents each.

Gate receipts from the game will go toward a fund for employing a nurse to work among the Negroes in the community. The University "Y" has appointed a committee, headed by Harry Riggs, Bill Yandell, and Paul McKee, to arrange for the affair.

John Clark, janitor in South building, was bubbling with praise for the local team yesterday. He vowed "that nothing could stop 'em—that the Orange county bunch is going to take that ball down the field no less than one hundred times!"

FRANCO-RUSSIAN PACT IS HINTED

French Chamber of Deputies Hears Official Say Pre-War Agreement Is Resumed.

Paris, Nov. 23.—(Copyrighted by United Press)—Plans for the resumption of a pre-war Franco-Russian alliance with the Soviet union promising to put troops in the field to aid the French in case of war were mentioned during a Chamber of Deputies debate today.

The alliance came into the open when Leon Archimbaud, reporter on the war budget, declared in the chamber that the understanding was an accomplished fact. The statement caused a sensation in the parliament.

It was in line with similar broad assertions concerning the armaments and security pacts made by French statesmen in the past week, prior to the debate on the huge 1935 war appropriations.

Di and Phi Societies Hold Annual Dance

Beneath a blue and white canopy, members of the Di Senate and Phi Assembly enjoyed their annual dance held jointly last night in the Tin Can.

Jimmy Fuller and his orchestra furnished the music for the affair which was led by Speaker Robert Smithwick of the Phi, and Mason Gibbes, president of the Di.

The event lasted from 9 until 1 o'clock. The blue and white decorations will be used for the soph hop tonight.

PI BETA PHI SPONSORS DANCE AT CAROLINA INN

The Pi Beta Phi sorority was the sponsor of a dance at the Carolina Inn last night from 9:30 until 1 o'clock. Jimmy Poyner and his State Collegians furnished the music.

The sorority held a banquet before the dance. At intermission the pledges for this year were introduced. The dance was formal.

SOPHOMORE HOP SET FOR TONIGHT

Les Brown and His Duke "Blue Devils" Will Play for Annual Sophomore Affair.

The annual sophomore hop will take place at 9 o'clock tonight in the Tin Can with Les Brown and his Duke "Blue Devils" furnishing the music.

All sophomores who are in the figure for tonight's dance will meet at 5 p. m. with their dates in the Tin Can for rehearsal.

It was announced yesterday that all sophomores who had not secured their bids by last night would have no further chance to get them.

At a meeting of the class last week the assistant leaders for the figure were selected, who, together with the class officers, will complete it.

John Rainey, president, will lead the figures. The other leaders will be Bunn Hearn, secretary; George MacFarland, treasurer; and Marvin Allen, student council representative.

The six assistant leaders are as follows: Jim Finlay, Jack Cay, Tracy Spencer, Billy Lamm, Ben Carlisle, and Jim Poindexter.

The sophomore dance completes a week-end of dances almost rivaling in number those of last week-end. Other hops for this week-end were the Di-Phi and Pi Beta Phi dances last night.

John Duncan of Texas Is Oldest Alumnus

Ninety-Six Year Old Graduate Succeeds William G. Candler.

Younger men are taking their places among the alumni of the University.

Early this month the title of "oldest living alumnus" changed hands, with the death of William G. Candler, 100, who was a law student here 1854-55. John Duncan, Columbus, Texas, who is 96 years of age, now is the oldest graduate. Duncan, a native of Texas, came to Chapel Hill and was graduated with the class of 1859.

Writing to the alumni office here this week, Duncan reports that he is enjoying good health.

"I have just walked half a mile from my home and will walk back," he wrote. "I feel favored and thankful to learn that I am the oldest member of my University alumni."

NO PROGRAM PLANNED FOR SUNDAY AT UNION

Due to the scheduled appearance of the Sedalia Singers in Memorial hall, there will be no entertainment program in Graham Memorial tomorrow afternoon.

Harper Barnes stated that plans had been made to present the Glee Club but they had been canceled in favor of the program in Memorial hall at the same time.

PHARMACY SOPHOMORES ELECT CLASS OFFICERS

The sophomore class of the pharmacy school met yesterday and elected the following officers: J. D. Smith, president; Howard Fox, vice-president; and Ed Stephenson, secretary-treasurer.

PASSES FOR DUKE GAME

Carolina students will be admitted with passbooks or other identification to the Carolina-Duke freshman game in Durham today for 50 cents. Regular price of admission is $1. Carolina students must go to the east gate.

BUSINESS CLAIMS LONG STRANGLING PRIVATE INDUSTRY

Kingfish, on Second Honeymoon, Totally Oblivious to Charges.

New Orleans, Nov. 23.—(UP) Louisiana's business men appealed to the federal government today to smash King Huey Long's dictatorship, which they said was strangling private industry with illegal taxes.

Newspapers, power interests, and sulphur companies entered the federal court seeking injunctions against the state taxes while New Orleanians met to ask a PWA release of $14,000,000 for Louisiana which is being held up for an investigation of Long's new laws.

The Kingfish is on a second honeymoon in Arkansas, oblivious to all. His majesty set out for the woods this afternoon to show the natives how to chop wood.

BROOKS TO PROBE MAGAZINE SALES

All persons on the campus who gave new or renewal subscriptions to magazines to a Miss G. Young about the middle of September have been requested to get in touch with Dr. Lee M. Brooks or Miss Sybille Berwanger in the Alumni building.

Miss Young was at the time soliciting subscriptions in order to get funds with which to enter High Point College.

Dr. Brooks said that if he could hear from these people, it would facilitate the straightening out of a little tangle which seems to have developed in connection with her transactions here.

The request is that subscribers through Miss Young call Miss Berwanger at 3406 or send an interoffice mail note or postcard.

Russian Gold May Bring U.S. Charge Account

Shipments of Gold to America May Establish Russian Credit.

New York, Nov. 23.—(Copyrighted UP)—The prospects appeared brighter tonight that the stream of Russian raw gold from the rich Siberian mines may make available American credits and permit a huge sale of heavy industry products to the Soviet Union.

Shiploads of gold-bearing ore have been dispatched from Leningrad to Tacoma, Washington, in order to build up a reserve of "hard money" for the purchase of American goods.

Through a special process available only in Tacoma, the gold can be refined and sold to the United States government for cash.

Infirmary

These students were confined in the infirmary yesterday: June Grimes, Bill Reid, R. A. Miller, John Calvert, M. E. Smith, Paul Whitney, Albert Greenberg, Louise Tunstall, Henry Allison, J. R. Raper, John Munyan, and Temps Newsom.

ALPHA EPSILON PI INSTALLS PLEDGE CHAPTER ON HILL

New Local Fraternity Elects Officers; Expects to Be Nationalized by June.

MEMBERSHIP NOW IS 17

The newest addition to fraternal organizations at the University has been installed on the campus as Alpha Epsilon, pledge chapter of the national fraternity, Alpha Epsilon Pi.

Organization of the local chapter was begun early in November. The membership has increased from seven, at the time of organization, to 17.

By the permission of Dean F. F. Bradshaw the chapter has become local and needs only the sanction of the Interfraternity Council to become national.

To Occupy House

The entire membership will move to the fraternity house on McCauley street early in February. The following are the officers of the Alpha Epsilon chapter who were elected at the last meeting:

Philip E. Gordon, president; Alex Mark, vice-president; Sidney Gordon, secretary; and Morton Singer, treasurer. Other members of the fraternity include: Morton Feldman, Norman Roth, Laurence Frank, Lee Turk, Edward Horowitz, Robert Mehlman, Herman Steingrup, and Melvin W. Jacobs.

22 Chapters

Twenty-two chapters are included in Alpha Epsilon Pi, with representations at the universities of Cornell, Illinois, Georgia, Virginia, New York, and Pennsylvania.

The local chapter has been assisted since last week in organization by George S. Tole of Washington, D. C. "I expect Alpha Epsilon to become nationalized by June if conditions remain normal," he stated at the last meeting of the chapter.

HEDGPETH GIVES LECTURE ON DIET

Infirmity Doctor Tells Freshmen Appetite Is Best Guide to Tissue Building.

Dr. Hedgpeth of the University infirmary continued the regular Friday series on health and hygiene at freshman chapel yesterday speaking on "Diet and Nutrition."

Dr. Hedgpeth claimed that in the past few years medicine has become preventive instead of a curing practice. Telling of diet and the various diet forms, the infirmity doctor said that as long as we keep in mind that nature is our best guide as to what to eat, the better we will be.

"Diet functions primarily in building tissue," Dr. Hedgpeth said. "As a rule your appetite is the best guide to this," he continued.

Greatest Danger

Claiming that eating too much is the greatest danger, he went on to describe what the normal diet consists of.

"Proteins, carbohydrates, inorganic salts, fats, and the vitamins are most important. We are also most concerned with the A, B, C, and D vitamins. The so called A vitamin tends to prevent infection, B has to do

(Continued on last page)