Professor Frazer, adviser to the league, attended the conference last year and was influential in its successful accomplishments.

The purpose for which the delegates are attending the meeting is to further the project of the Foreign Policy League in organizing a southeastern group which will be active in expressing student opinion on the foreign policy of the United States. They will also act as official University representatives at the conference.

The league will also sponsor a radio broadcast over station WBT, Charlotte, tomorrow from 5:30 until 5:45 p. m. An outline of the league and its endeavors will be presented by members of the group.

WOLF GATHERING SURVEY REPORTS

Records Will Be Basis in Formulating Unemployment Insurance Bill.

Employing six research workers and a statistician, Dr. Harry D. Wolf of the University school of commerce has begun, as executive chairman of the State Unemployment Insurance Commission, the task of assembling reports on a survey of the jobless in this state that he has been directing since last August.

When the data is complete, it will be presented, together with a bill providing a system of unemployment insurance, to the forthcoming General Assembly.

General Fund

The bill to be presented is expected to specify periodical payments by both employers and employees into a general fund to be used to aid the workers in time of unemployment.

Such a bill was introduced at the 1933 session of the Legislature by Senator W. O. Burgin of Lexington, but it was deferred when Governor Ehringhaus appointed the commission on which Dr. Wolf is now serving.

Dr. Wolf will remain in Chapel Hill until the completion of the report. He outlined the forthcoming legislation in an address to the North Carolina Club December 11.

Sluggish German Intellectuals Give Profusely To Fiery Cause

The "World Topics in German Four Class," an eight-thirty assembly conducted by Dr. E. C. Metzenthin, voted the other morning to appropriate a sum of not less than $4.00 from its treasury for the purpose of aiding ex-assemblyman Phillips Russell in his trip to Geneva.

The class, suddenly realizing that Russell's name had been dropped from the roll and knowing the value of Russell's profoundly intellectual contributions to the world political discussions carried on at its meetings, willingly voted that its coffers be emptied by at least $4.00 for his cause.

Burdened Souls

The assembly is composed of a group of students whose very souls are burdened with every international problem. For months they have chewed the anti-war rag with vigor; always, of course, Russell led the chewing. From Russell's head there

XMAS SEAL DRIVE NOW IN PROGRESS

Mesdames W. R. Berryhill and A. S. Jordan Head Campaign; Proceeds Go to Students.

The annual drive for the sale of Christmas seals in Chapel Hill is now underway under the direction of Mrs. W. R. Berryhill and Mrs. A. S. Jordan, publicity director.

This year the receipts from the local sale will be used to create a fund for use of University students afflicted with or having symptoms of tuberculosis. The money can be used to pay for X-ray treatments for students unable to raise the money for such a purpose and also for sanatorium treatment of financially-incompetent students found to be tubercular.

Downtown Booths

Booths for the sale of the seals will be placed at the post office and at other convenient spaces down town. Fraternities will respond to the campaign through their own representatives and dormitories are being canvassed by Y. M. C. A. members.

Heretofore the proceeds from the sale have gone to the Chapel Hill township.

The creation of the student fund will take care of students in the future, similar to 15 such cases this year, who are unable to get proper medical attention.

Mrs. Jordan stated recently that there are between 50 and 60 active cases of tuberculosis in the community. These will be affected through town seal sales, a record being kept during the campaign of receipts from students and townspeople as separate contributing units.

Part of the money received goes to the expense of the national tubercular relief organization and to the state sanatorium. Seventy-five per cent of the money, however, goes to the local unit.

Bull's Head Open

The Bull's Head bookshop in the Y. M. C. A. building will remain open during the holidays, announced Elizabeth Johnson, director of the bookshop.

Miss Johnson stated that she would be at the shop "between sleeps, between eats and between a few other necessary periods of recreation."

Nazi Terrorists Plan Assassination of Fey

Vienna, Dec. 13.—(UP)—Minister of Interior Major Emil Fey has been slated for an early assassination by a small group, determined to be fanatical Nazis, the United Press learned tonight from high authorities.

The plot was part of terrorist activities that are keeping Europe in a turmoil, one attempt already having been made on Fey's life last month.

The recent plot against the Department of Interior head is a challenge to the League of Nations in its new resolution calling on all members to aid in a stern campaign to rid the Continent of terrorism which has taken a startling toll in lives among leaders in the past year.

HIGH SCHOOL A.A. TO SPONSOR HOP

Jimmy Fuller and Orchestra Will Furnish Music.

An informal dance, lasting from 9 to 1 o'clock, will be given tonight in the Tin Can for the benefit of the Chapel Hill High School Athletic Association. Jimmy Fuller and his orchestra will furnish the music.

The hop is sponsored by the Athletic Association, and members of the Parent-Teacher Association, including Mr. and Mrs. R. B. House, Mr. and Mrs. English Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. MacKinney, will act as chaperones.

The Tin Can will be decorated in red and green. Tickets will be one dollar and may be bought at the door or from members of the Athletic Association.

Part of the proceeds will be used to buy suits and other equipment for the girls' basketball team.

DOCTOR HEDGPETH SPEAKS ON COLDS

Infirmiry Official Discusses Preventative Measures for Common Ailments.

Dr. E. M. Hedgpeth of the University infirmiry concluded his series of lectures on health and hygiene at freshman chapel yesterday morning.

Calling attention to the possibility of exposure at this time of year, Dr. Hedgpeth asserted that chills were a presupposing factor in colds. Warning against leaving gym in a sweat without adequate protection against the wintry weather, he asked the freshmen "not to turn on the cold water immediately on taking a shower, but to taper it on slowly."

Athlete's Foot

The infirmiry physician told, in connection with a discussion on the so-called athlete's foot, that the infirmiry was now working on preventive measures to be placed in the shower rooms.

Condemning the popular measure against cold at night by closing the windows in the room, Dr. Hedgpeth claimed that the more oxygen that circulated throughout the room the greater was physical and mental alertness.

Dean Bradshaw announced that there would be no freshman chapel this morning due to Dr. Frank P. Graham's trip to Washington.

Four Divisions Made Of Schools And Departments Of University

Faculty Adopts Plan "to Co-ordinate Kindred Subjects and Departments for General Good of University and Students" And to Formulate Junior-Senior Study Programs.

Meeting Wednesday afternoon, the general faculty adopted a plan by which kindred departments and schools will be classified into the four divisions of humanities, natural science, social science, and commerce for the purpose of formulating programs of study for the junior and senior years.

JEALOUS DORM ATTACKS LEWIS

The offer of Bing Crosby to present Lewis dormitory with a fully equipped ping pong table in the event that Alabama's Crimson Tide makes Stanford see stars, has brought forth signs of revengeful jealousy.

A group of boys from a neighboring quadrangle surrounded the dormitory and began the siege. Rocks, milk bottles, and all available debris was hurled in the direction of the windows, which crashed in many places. The residents of the rooms affected by the crashes rushed out and put the vandals to flight.

Caught!

One of the more daring occupants of the stricken dormitory followed the attackers and soon returned to the dorm claiming that he saw said-rivals entering Mangum. The police were then notified and rushed over to Lewis' neighbor. One of the boys involved in the mischief walked out of Mangum and as he broke into a run was caught by an officer. He claimed to have been at the dorm store during the time of the siege, but the finding of rocks in his pocket quickly convinced the officer to the contrary.

Peace apparently reigns supreme in the trouble area.

The total amount of the damage was five windows and a broken sign. The windows have been replaced but the sign remains down. Lewis dormitory residents are now having heated discussions as to whether "Lewis" should once again adorn their residence or whether instead "Crosby" should be substituted.

HAYES AND FERA CLASSIFY MAXIMS

Students Working under FERA Funds and Supervised by Spanish Professor.

Through FERA funds, several boys, under the direction of F. C. Hayes of the Spanish department, are making a file of Spanish proverbs.

Approximately 32,000 proverbs have already been filed out of a total of about 80,000.

Historical Dictionary

The ultimate end of this work is to compile a historical dictionary of Spanish proverbs.

In one of the books of Spanish proverbs used in making this collection, 14 pages deal with God; 8 pages on friendship; 5 pages on love; 3 pages on death; 8 pages on evil; 11 pages on man; and 17 pages deal with women.

Proverbs, Mr. Hayes pointed out, are practically the same everywhere. As an illustration, he quoted, "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." The Spanish version of this is, "A bird in the hand is worth more than 100 buzzards flying."

The new plan, which will go into effect September, 1935, is intended, according to Dean R. B. House, "to co-ordinate kindred subjects and departments for the general good of the University and the students."

Instruction will be organized under the new system to carry out this intention as far as possible; but the plan, says Dean House, "aims at the same time at full freedom for special and individual programs of study."

Special Courses

Certain special courses, such as pharmacy, engineering, pre-medical and pre-dental work in applied science, and B.S. courses in chemistry and geology, necessarily have programs which do not fit in with this plan. Adjustments will be made to meet this situation.

There will be no change in the administrative set-up under the new system.

From the faculties of the four divisions President Graham will select councils which will do most of the actual work of formulating the programs of study. These councils will advise with the various constituent departments of the divisions and will be open to suggestions from individual students as to the courses of study they wish to pursue.

"6-6-6 Plan"

Each student will follow in his last two years what is known as the "6-6-6 Plan." He will take six courses in his major, six, upon the advice of the council (Continued on page two)
