

Phantoms Close Practice Until After Christmas

Team Returns Dec. 28; Engages Elon First

Coach Bo Shepard Discontinues Work Due to Exams; to Drill Squad Hard.

STARTING FIVE UNCERTAIN

Although Coach Bo Shepard closed the regular pre-holiday practice with Tuesday's drill, several of the Tar Heel court players took workouts in the Tin Can yesterday.

Coach Shepard stated that supervised work would be over until after the exams, but that he wanted all the members of the squad to get in as much practice as possible without hindering their studies.

The courtsters are still far from being in top condition and as a result Coach Shepard will call from 10 to 15 players back to the University on December 28 in order to get them in the best possible shape for the tough 21-game schedule, opening against Elon January 3.

Lineup Uncertain

With the first practice period over the starting lineup is yet far from being settled. At present Captain Snooks Aitken, forward; Jake Glace, center; and Jim McCachren, guard, look like the only certain members of the first five. These three are the regulars returning from last year's Big Five championship club.

The forward and guard positions left vacant by Verge Weathers and ex-captain Dave McCachren are giving Coach Shepard the main trouble. Mel Nelson, letter reserve from last year, seems to have the inside lane in the battle to become Aitken's running mate.

Nelson is a fine dribbler and shot, but tends to be erratic at times. Ben Blood, also a reserve letterman and who played at

(Continued on last page)

SIXTEEN GAMES WILL COMPRISE STATE SCHEDULE

Wolfpack Basketball Team Will Open Season Against Wofford; Another Game Pending.

MEET U. N. C. JANUARY 30

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—(UP)—A schedule of 16 games with another pending was announced for the North Carolina State College basketball team by Dr. R. R. Sermon, athletic director and coach of the varsity club.

The unsettled date is January 17 when the Wolfpack will play either Wofford or Furman on the South Carolina team's court. The season's play lists 11 Southern Conference battles. Each Big Five school will be played twice except Davidson, which is met only once.

The complete schedule is as follows:

- Jan. 5—Wofford here.
- Jan. 12—Wake Forest here.
- Jan. 15—Duke here.
- Jan. 16—Davidson there.
- Jan. 18—Clemson there.
- Jan. 19—South Carolina there.
- Jan. 25—V. P. I. here.
- Jan. 30—North Carolina there.
- Feb. 5—Wake Forest here.
- Feb. 7—South Carolina here.
- Feb. 11—V. P. I. there.
- Feb. 12—V. M. I. there.
- Feb. 13—W. & L. there.
- Feb. 19—North Carolina here.
- Feb. 23—Duke there.

Alabama's contingent, which will mix blows with Stanford in the nation's first football headliner the first of January, is considered to have the greatest galaxy of stars and potential All-Americans of any eleven in the nation.

The "Milky Way," as the folk down Tuscaloosa way, sub, refer to the big red elephants, has a sterling pair of All-American linemen in Don Hutson, end, and Cap'n Bill Lee, tackle. Behind the line, "Dixie" Howell, the greatest back the Tide has had since the halcyon days of cinemactor John Mack Brown, is another All-America standout. His running mate, Joe Demyanovich, is not so bad either.

With such standouts, we concede Coach Frank Thomas' boys the edge over the corporation of Moscrip, Reynolds, and Grayson by a couple of touchdowns.

Last week, Yale and Princeton athletes moved on Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to play field hockey—not opposing one another but against the Vassar lassies. Yale took the field on the first day, but found the girls playing for keeps, even a wee bit rougher than one would think from debutantes. The Vassar captain kept dishing it out plenty, but one of the Yale men finally sent her to the showers with a bad eye. Result: she failed to play against Princeton. Vassar lost to Yale, 4-0.

Princeton men also found the girls rough. But so were the men. One knocked the breath out of a Vassar beauty, but she could take it, resuming play with her teammates . . . only to lose again. Umpire Virginia Fessenden said Princeton broke every rule in the book! Princeton 5, Vassar 2. Following both contests, tea was served in the drawing room . . . ho hum!

Track, the sick man of collegiate athletics, is definitely on the up turn. Last spring 25,000 fans saw five events run off one May afternoon in Palmer Stadium, Princeton, N. J. The occasion was merely the resumption of the ancient rivalry between the big three, Cunningham, Bonthron, and Venzke.

And this winter, athletic promoters in the east are getting all set to run off some indoor track meets (by invitation only) which will feature the doings in the U. S. sports world.

The first of the big meets will be staged in the Brooklyn Armory, January 5 . . . auspices of the Knights of Columbus. Then come the Melrose Games, Madison Square Garden, February 2.

Passbook Notice

Athletic passbooks will not be given out before the Carolina-Elon basketball game here on January 3 after the holidays to those who registered before leaving. Admission to the game will be free to all. This report is not official, however; the athletic directors were out of town last night and could not be reached.

MARYLAND PUGS HAVE PROSPECTS OF FINE SEASON

Six Lettermen in Eight Classes, Including S. I. C. Champ, Present High Hopes.

SEVEN MEETS SCHEDULED

College Park, Md., Dec. 14.—Coach Jack Harmony's University of Maryland boxing team is going to be pretty tough for its opponents to get along with this season.

With a letterman available for six of the eight classes and good talent for the other divisions, the Terps should do well in all of the eight meets on their program.

Among those on hand are: Stew McCaw, Southern Conference light-heavy champ who is dropping back to the 165-pound division; Al Farrell, heavy-weight tourney runner-up; Carl Stalford, another capable heavy; Lyman McAboy, one of the outstanding 155-pound performers in 1934; Bill Waller, 125, and Walter Webb, who has moved from the lightweight to the 145-pound class, both of whom scored consistently last season.

Harold Burns, ace 145-pounder of 1933, who fought only two bouts last fall, hopes to return to the ring despite a leg operation from an injury received outside of athletics.

The schedule is as follows:

- Jan. 11—V. M. I. here.
- Jan. 18—St. John's of Annapolis here.
- Feb. 2—Wash. & Lee here.
- Feb. 9—Penn State here.
- Feb. 16—Virginia at Richmond.
- Feb. 22-23—Southern Conference tourney.
- March 2—Army here.
- March 11—Catholic U. here.

TWO NEW TEAMS ON REVISED CARD

Tar Baby Basketeers Now Prepare for Schedule; Raleigh High, Cone "Y" Added.

Coming from the tranquil freshman basketball camp is the news of a newly released schedule, containing two important additions. The new listing shows a 16-game schedule, with two teams having been added to the former list.

Raleigh high and Cone "Y" have both recently joined the list of Carolina's opponents and will journey to Chapel Hill to take on the Tar Babies.

The complete schedule as revised:

- Jan. 8—Wake Forest here.
- Jan. 11—Durham High away.
- Jan. 12—Raleigh High here.
- Jan. 15—Oak Ridge here.
- Jan. 18—Cone "Y" here.
- Jan. 24—Oak Ridge away.
- Jan. 26—Belmont away.
- Jan. 30—N. C. State here.
- Feb. 1—Belmont here.
- Feb. 2—Wake Forest away.
- Feb. 5—Duke away.
- Feb. 8—Belmont away.
- Feb. 13—Davidson here.
- Feb. 16—Duke here.
- Feb. 19—N. C. State away.
- Feb. 21—P. J. C. here.

Greensboro College Holidays

Greensboro, Dec. 14.—Christmas holidays this year at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina are scheduled to begin Wednesday afternoon, December 19, at 4:50 o'clock.

Phi Delt And Mangum Capture 1934 Fall Bowling Championship

All Matches Played In Graham Memorial

A. T. O. and Aycock "A" Teams Are Runners-up in Their Respective Divisions.

MANGUM UNSCORED UPON

Bowling also made its debut for the year this fall; an unofficial tourney that brought mythical titles to Phi Delta Theta and Mangum dormitory, in their respective divisions, has just been completed.

The tournament, staged by Graham Memorial, attracted 14 teams of three players each. The Dormitory League opened on November 5 with 8 teams competing, whereas the fraternity section got underway two nights later with six earnest combinations.

Phi Delta Theta scored six consecutive wins, piling up 16 points, while dropping only two. Close behind, but lacking the necessary punch, was A. T. O. with 14 and 2. These two teams had clashed on the initial night, the Phi Delt's squeezing out a 2-1 victory, which eventually won the tourney for them.

Unscored Upon

In the dormitory division, Mangum entered into four battles and emerged with an unscored upon record, winning all by 3-0 tallies. Upon their heels came two Aycock contingents; the 'A' team scoring 10 points to their opponents' 2, and the 'B' squad rolling up 10 points and dropping 5.

In this division, a few teams played six matches; while others competed but in four, confusing the final point score. Aycock 'A' had likewise won four and lost none, but Mangum received honors by virtue of their higher scores.

The only other outstanding point of interest in the tourney was the record of the team of "Ace-King-Jack" entered in the dormitory section which kept a virgin offensive record. They had a grand total of 0-15, and Lewis was not far behind with 0-12.

The compiled scores read as follows:

Fraternity Division
Phi Delta	16-2
A. T. O.	14-4
Chi Phi	9-6
Sigma Chi	4-8
Chi Psi	4-14
L. C. A.	1-14
Dormitory Division
Mangum	12-0
Aycock 'A'	10-2
Aycock 'B'	10-2
3 Aces	10-8
3 W's	8-4
Manly	7-8
Lewis	0-12
A-K-J	0-15

Books Due Monday

All library books issued to students are due Monday. Books issued Monday and Tuesday will be due Wednesday. Thereafter they will be circulated for use in the building only unless special permission is obtained, it was announced yesterday by Olan V. Cook, in charge of circulation.

Library hours during the holidays will be from 8:15 a. m. to 5 p. m. Thursday, December 20, and from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. from December 21 until January 3. The library will be closed all day on Christmas, New Year, and Sundays.

This week's boxing tournament brought to the close a very successful quarter of intramural athletic activity, which found Ruffin dormitory, the 1933-34 winner, out in front with a 395-point total for its pre-holiday accomplishments.

The football season, which was climaxed by Law's 7-3 victory over Sigma Nu for the campus title, found 800 different individuals participating. The all-time high for this sport was set in 1932 when 832 took part. Last year's mark was 743.

Although it did not capture any championships or set the intramural sports world on fire, Delta Tau Delta gave the fall quarter two of its outstanding performers.

One was Bill Shores, who made a halfback post on the All-Fraternity football team, did well in the wrestling tournament, and double-fisted his way through to the 149-lb boxing title in a most auspicious fashion.

The other was Roger McLean, a junior, who was chosen for the right guard post on the All-Campus grid combine. Though he didn't participate in the grunt and groan tourney, he showed up well by easily capturing the heavyweight boxing title left vacant by Lammie Alderman, leading varsity candidate.

While on the subject of the mit game, we notice that but one 1933 champion repeated—Wally Dunham of Swain Hall, in the 165-lb class. Three knockouts, three judge's decisions, and two forfeits comprised the eight final verdicts.

After the return from the Christmas recess intramural attention will be focused upon basketball, bowling, and ping-pong.

(Continued on last page)

YEARLINGS HAVE STRONG NUCLEUS FOR MIT SQUAD

Team Has Excellent Reputation To Uphold; 1934 Team Was Foremost in South.

SHORES, O'HERRON BEST

Carolina's frosh boxing team has a strong reputation to uphold in its debut into intercollegiate boxing circles. Last year's yearlings were recognized as the outstanding first-year team in the south, and it is hoped that the Tar Babies of '38 will make an equally brilliant showing this winter.

On the basis of past practice sessions and recent intramural achievements, they look to be a fast-stepping, hard-hitting group of pugilists.

Leading Scrappers

There is no question of the fact that Bill Shores and Ed O'Herron, both of the 149-lb division, are the class of the promising squad. Due to the ability of these two boys, Coach Rowe will probably shift one from this class as both should prove valuable. In the 159-lb class, the team has a very formidable man in Oliver.

Not far behind the above-mentioned is Tommy Bass, 139-lb brilliant fighter. This boy has a wicked left jab which he uses to fine advantage and which was an important factor in bringing him the mural title.

Shmurak, who gained the 179-lb championship by flattening his opponent, stands to improve some before he can be counted on as a consistent winner. In practice he seems more of a boxer than a slugger, but turned the tables in his first test, winning by virtue of a vicious right.

Herm Steingrob, who had the misfortune of meeting the defending champion in the 169-lb class, is as game and aggressive as they come. The 119-lb division has Larry Hendel, a virtual skyscraper, in full command.

BUY TUBERCULOSIS SEALS

Best Wishes for a
MERRY CHRISTMAS and a
HAPPY NEW YEAR
Carolina Coffee Shop

GIFTS . . .

Before you forget, in the flurry of exams, about all the presents you've got to take home, come in and pick out books for the family. Here are some suggestions:

For Dad—"America's Tragedy," "Stars Fell on Alabama," or "The New Dealers"; For Mother—"So Red the Rose," "Good-bye, Mr. Chips," or "Dusk at the Grove"; For Brother—"The Case of the Curious Bride," Thorne Smith's "The Glorious Pool," or Benchley's "From Bed to Worse"; For Sister—"Best Plays of 1933-34," "Wine from These Grapes," or "Skin Deep" (the inside on cosmetics); For little brothers and sisters—"The Fire Engine Book," "Down Down the Mountain," "The Wind in the Willows," or "Jane Hope."

The Bull's Head
Y. M. C. A. Building

SEND Your Photographs as Xmas Presents

LAST CHANCE TODAY to take advantage of
Our Special Holiday Offer

We are giving a handsome frame (only one to a customer) with each $5 order of photographs.

Wootten-Moulton

Alfred Williams & Co., Inc.

Christmas Cards Royal Typewriters Gifts Stationery
Children's Books College Jewelry Novels Bridge Sets