SUNDAY, MARCH 3, 1935

THE DAILY TAR HEEL

PAGE THREE

Carolina Cops Conference Title White Phantoms Outclass W. And L. In 35-27 Game; Generals' Rally Cut Short

Capt. A	litken Lea	ads W
Over	Fighting	Five
Gre	at Team-	Play

Glace Forced Out of Game and Webster Plays Great.

(Special to the DAILY TAR HEEL) Memorial Auditorium, Raleigh, March 2.-The University of North Carolina's great basketball team tonight left no doubt as to who were the real Southern Conference champions. as they completely outplayed the fighting Washington and Lee General five in the tourney finals to win, 35-27.

The White Phantoms thus annexed their first basketball championship of the new Southern Conference, and their first since 1926. 100

Playing heads-up ball from start to finish, the Carolinians gave the scrappy Generals no chance to break into an opening. for the present champions as the Cachren 1; Harris 2. Tar Heels drove relentlessly through them.

Rally Short

NORTH CAR.:		F	т
Aitken, f	4	3	11
Nelson, f	2	2	6
chace, c	0	1	1
Webster, c		0	6
McCachren, g	1	0	2
Harris, g	3	1	7
Kaveny, g		0	2
Totals		7	35
W. & L.: Ellis, f	FG	F	Т
Ellis, f	0	2	2
Pette, f	4	0	8
Jones, f	0	0	0
Smith, c	3	2	8
Field, g	2	1	5
ller, g	0	2	2
Richardson, g	1	.0	2
Woodward, g	0	0	0
Totals	10	7	27
Half-time score		th C	aro-

N. & L.—Jones 1; Pette 1; Field Despite their spirited fighting, 4; Iler 4. North Carolina-Aitthe Virginians were no match ken 8; Nelson -1; Glace 4; Mc-

Free throws missed: W. & L. -Smith 3; Field 3; Iler 2. North Carolina-Aitken 2; Nel1935 Southern Conference Champs

V.M.I. Upsets Generals To Win S.I.C. Mat Crown; Mel Ward Loses Via Fall

Final Standings Listed For Mural Basketball Year

Highly Successful and Interesting Year of Intramural Court Play Comes to a Close.

D. K. E. last Wednesday, a most the 1935 Southern Conference successful intramural basketball mat crown. season was brought to a close. Besides these two teams, Swain Generals had had their own way Hall, S. A. E., and Phi Kappa on the mat in Dixie, but tonight Sigma all came through the reg- could do no better than take a ular league schedules with clean second place to the Kaydets. The slates.

out in the annual campaign to- too powerful. ward the campus title, and during the season only four dropped out-an excellent example of the ever growing interest in the intramural program on the campus.

The Leaders

each won ten straight victories. while the other undefeated men in the scoring column. The teams of the regular schedule, of course, made eight. Lambda Chi Alpha and Kappa Alpha both went on streaks of six straight, while in the dorm division Ruffin, Aycock, and Everett took five, four, and four, respectively. Z. B. T. and Phi Kappa Sigma were the only ones to lose eight, S. P. E. came next with seven, and Chi Psi, Delta Psi, Kappa Sigma, and A. T. O. were all bunched with six. The season marked the entrance of a new member into the realm of intramural play-Alpha State High School Athletes Will Epsilon. This fraternity exhibited keen competition and fine the big upsets of the season. sportsmanship, and promises to become in the future a danger-

Three Other Tar Heel Matmen Fail to Reach Finals

Bonner Eliminated in Semi-Final on Time Advantage.

Lexington, Va., March 2.-Virginia Military Institute's fighting Kaydets tonight wrested from the long defending With Mangum's title win over champs, Washington and Lee,

For three years the grappling combination of Sherrard, Witt, On January 10, 42 teams set Currence, and Burgess was just

Ward ·Loses

Melvin Ward, the only University of North Carolina finalist, was defeated via the fall route by Witt of the V. M. I. club, after a hard battle.

The Generals entered the fi-Mangum No. 1 and D. K. E. nal round of fighting the favorites, because of their placing five Kaydets followed with four. The other North Carolinians fell before the final round-up. Umstead in the bantam lost a time advantage to Duke's Stevenson of 4:18 minutes. Captain Efland was behind on a 1:41 minute time decision to Seitz, of W. and L. Allan Bonner in the 145-lb class was victim of another time advantage in the semi-finals to Shipley of W. and L. The time advantage was 5:07 minutes. The Generals had held the title for three years and were undefeated in dual meets for several years. The replacing of them by the Kaydets was one of through the first half, but the Shepard-coached five put on steam with the sound of the bell for the second half and piled up their comfortable lead. The Generals began a desperate rally late in the game, but to no avail.

Captain Snooks Aitken led the beautiful team play of the winners, with his nice passing, floor play, and accurate shooting. He was the star of the offense, with his 11 points, eight coming from action. His 11 markers were good for individual scoring honors.

Jim McCachren turned in one forced the General sharpshooters to err time after time on their shots. His defense was practically impregnable as he performed to the best of his All-Southern ability. His passing was superb. He was the man who stopped the W. & L. last minute rally when they had pulled up to within five points of the Phantoms.

Play Last Games

Bucky Harris and Jason

Glace, playing their last games for North Carolina, were equally brilliant in their all around playing. Harris was particularly deadly on his shooting, as he then annexed a lone free toss to

Both teams played evenly son 3; Harris 1. Officials: Menton (Loyola); Knight (Durham "Y.")

All-Southern Tourney

Three North Carolina Cagers were selected on the first All-Southern tourney team, and one on the second five, as chosen by seven of the eight coaches and the three officials.

The first and second teams are as follows:

1	FIRST	Served and the served
Aitken	f.	N. C.
Pette	f.	W. & L.
Glace	c.	N. C.
Iler	g.	W. & L.
McCachren	g.	N. C.
SI	CON	D
Nelson	f.	N. C.
Henderson	f.	S. C.
or Downey		V. M. I.
Smith	C.	W. & L.
or Swails		Clemson
Rex	g.	N. C. S.
Field	g.	W. & L.
Cantain 6	Inook	-Aithon of

Captain Snooks Aitken of Carolina was the only captain of a team to make the first string selection, which consists of only Tar Heels and Generals, the finalists in the tourney.

It is the second year in succession for Jim McCachren, while both Aitken and Jason Glace were on the second team last year. Smith of W. and L. was moved down from the 1934 first team just switching with Glace.

The final games in the co-ed round-robin basketball tournament will be played this week.

The first game is between problems in filling several vafor example, Widmyer of Mary-Glace was push-In the track meet, two fresh- Hats off to Bo Shepard and his the freshmen and seniors, Moncant positions left by graduating ed to the limit day night at 8 o'clock. On Tuesland is the natural ranked runmen hold titles from last year's White Phantoms. stars. Last year the Tar Heel ner, but will be pushed to the in holding down day, the juniors and sophomores competition. Al Umstead, Dur-Scoop-Error in Paper! nine captured both state and extreme by Hubbard, Tarrall, the big center, square off at 7 o'clock in the last ham, won the hurdle title, and Southern Conference champion-Pritchard, Tayloe, Epps and Smith, All-George Willard, Kernersville, game of the year. Both games That game which is played ships, losing only one of 21 con-Ryan. Southern last took the crown in the weights. are to be played in Bynum gym. with the racquets and the shut- tests. But graduation robbed New Records? year. In doing These two championships tle-cock is not "Badmington," as the 1935 team of such standbys-Symphony Broadcast The records which seem on so, he was forc-ROLINA mark the fifth 1935 interscholwas stated in recent issues of as Captain George Brandt, at the road to a tumble are the ones ed to foul to exastic tourney at Chapel Hill, the A broadcast of the weekly in the two-mile, half-mile, mile DAILY TAR HEEL had it, but first; Virgil Weathers, at seccess and had to boxing, wrestling, and basketconcert by the Philharmonic and quarter-mile. The excep- ball having been held already cording to Mr. Webster and ond; Dutch Leonard, at third: leave the game with four and Symphony orchestra from Car- tionally fast and evenly balanced this quarter. other quite reliable sources, Tim McKeithan and Nate Anone-half minutes left to play. negie hall, New York, may be field in the longer distance may "Badminton." Or just like the drews, pitchers, and Norm Mc-Neither team could scratch heard in the choral room of the cut down the existing mark, set DAILY TAR HEEL had it, but Caskill, catcher. It will be quite PATRONIZE OUR the scoring column for the first without the "g." Aw, gee! a job to replace such stars. ADVERTISERS Hill Music hall at 3 p. m. today. (Continued on last page) (Continued on last page)

NELSON - FORWARD HARRIS - GUARD

MCCACHREN - GUARD

TENNIS AND TRACK

MEETS SCHEDULE

Gather Here April 11 and 12 For Sport Events.

These tournaments, which

Tar Heel Winners

Carolinians who have placed high in these events. Last year,

Earl Ruth, who ran wild on the basketball court with the frosh

There are quite a few present

twenty-third year.

Fast Field To Be On Hand For Big Track Carnival

FIGHT FOR TEAM, INDIVIDUAL POSTS

Several Records May Be Broken During Stampede of Southern Conference Meet.

WILL BE HELD IN TIN CAN

One of the fastest fields of southern track men ever assem- terday by E. R. Rankin, secrebled is expected to be on hand tary of the North Carolina High this Saturday night at the sixth School Athletic Association, reannual Southern Conference in- vealed the fact that the annual door meet in the Tin Can.

With a close race to be run will be held in Chapel Hill on between the schools for team April 11 and 12. honors, with individual stars battling for the tape, and with are annual highlights in the inseveral records scheduled to be terscholastic ranks, have been broken, the indoor carnival is held consistently at Chapel Hill all set to be a classic affair. The The tennis tourney will be the 1935 meet seems certain to be twentieth annual, and the track one of the most thrilling to date. event will be celebrating its

Close Team Race

North Carolina is defending champs, but will be hard pushed for top honors. Duke, with an ace selection of brilliant sophs, will be the dark horse of the meet. Maryland and Virginia will be well in the running. Any of these holds an equal chance of coming through.

sented Charlotte High School. Each event from the dash Miracle Team, the 1935 Phan-Two years ago, Jim Hutchins, through the middle distances to football luminary, was runner-Co-ed Cage Game catching duties in the short toms are conference champions. Coach Bo has won his first S. I. workout. Numerous freshman the field events will possess a up in this same event. Both candidates also participated in field of brilliant competitors. got loose for three goals and these boys, however, turned C. title. To go with that, he has 10 the informal drill. No single race seems to have a different fields after entering a pair of state titles and a winreal "sure" winner. In the dash, Coach Hearn will find many take runner-up scoring honors. Carolina. ning percentage of well over .800.

An announcement issues yes ous contender in all activities. (Continued on last page)

Coach Bo Shepard

Coach Bo Shepard has led one tennis and track competitions of the greatest parades of North Carolina basketeering this winter. His White Phantoms have played some real ball this year, having taken everything which light workout yesterday afterhas come within their reach. Going through the regular season with 20 wins out of 22 starts, they entered the Southern Conference tourney seeded number one. Toying with South Carolina, downing North this year, was the winner of the Carolina State, and at last outtennis championship. He repreclassing Washington and Lee's Crouch Works Out with Other Pitchers and Catchers Yesterday in Tin Can.

Coach Bunn Hearn sent his diamond protegees through a noon in the Tin Can, with the pitchers and catchers taking turns at flinging and receiving the horsehide.

Freddie Crouch, star of last year's ace team, was on hand and tossed over a few, along with Leo Manley and several others. Crouch will more than likely be ready for the opening of the season next quarter.

Catchers Work

Jim Tatum, Ed Shapiro, Mac Cook, and Paul Pendergraft handled the biggest part of the

